THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

HOFER BROTHERS, - - - Editors.

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company. (Incorporated.)

Office, Commercial Street, in P. O. Building entered at the postoffice at Salem, Or., as second-class matter.

TO OPEN THE WILLAMETTE.

THE JOURNAL is not an organ of the politicians. It desires to use its influence to enable the people to get as much as possible in the way of practical results out of those gentlemen. It has tried to show that in making the question of opening our great rivers a political issue this state would get even more results than heretofore out of our present congressman. Indications are that he is, in the graphic language of the west, "humping himself" to do something to open the Willamette.

Papers that are friendly to Mr. Hermann are publishing the following, which is evidently prepared for "home consumption?"

"Representative Hermann has embraced in one bill the several amounts for the improvement of the Willamette river above Portland and beyond Corvallis to Eugene. This bill calls for special work at Ross Island and Clackamas rapids under separate projects. The former is to be improved by returning dams and dredging and the latter by a mud dam and other construction, for each of which projects separate estimates are submitted, as well as for the improvement to rectify the course of the river above Corvallis. The bill also provides $60,000 for miscellaneous work on the upper river above Oregon City, such as at Independence, Salem and special points and for the closing of chutes, scraping of bars and removing of snags. The engineer department think $60,000 will give depth over the bars so that boats can make trips for a longer time in the year, and carry greater loads. Under the system so far practiced only temporary benefits have been obtained. Mr. Hermann expresses the hope that with the present estimates better results can be obtained in the way of appropriations. He will ask his committee also to allow for a special survey and examination of the river at Salem, with a view to the re-entment of the banks, which on personal inspection, he says he found badly washing away."

"The election of Crisp, speaker seems to have flattened out the Boies (of Iowa,) boom.

If Congressman Hermann will do something to open the Willamette THE JOURNAL will give him high praise as he certainly shall deserve.

The Christmas Minneapolis House-keeper appeared in 24 page illustrated colored cover form. It has grown from a small beginning to a great family monthly.

New Year's eve THE JOURNAL delivered to city patrons was the largest paper ever printed in Salem. It consisted of twenty pages of eight columns each, or 160 columns.

Democrats have always resented it when a prominent Republican has gone out of his way to eulogize and assist a Democrat to an appointment. What do they say to Governor Penoyer boasting Hon. Jo Simon for the federal judgeship?

The Eastern Oregon press is calling on Hon. J. H. Slater, of La Grande, to become their candidate for congress. Mr. Slater is well posted on corporation and transportation questions and would make an able made to represent the people's side of those subjects.

Mr. Crisp has done exceedingly well for the country in making the following appointments of committee chairmanships: Ways and means—Springer, of Illinois; appropriations—Holman, of Indiana; coinage—Bland, of Missouri; agriculture—Hatch, of Missouri.

Judge Desdy has declined to sustain the complaint of the Rollins Investment Co., against the Meunierdorff Bridge commission. The free bridge act has now been through three various courts and comes out victorious in all. It is a lucky bill and Portland under it will secure free bridges. The object of the bill is a grand one and justice to the people must prevail.

Binger Hermann is sixty one. He had telegraphed to Oregon that he was not present in Washington when the Oregon delegation endorsed Jos. Simon for circuit judge.—Roseburg Review. The Oregon senators gave it out that they did not act in the premises until Mr. Hermann arrived. The Oregon delegation seem to be united and enthusiastic in their support of Mr. Simon for the judgeship.

A Million Friends. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Dan J. Fry's drugstore 225 Commercial street. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Rufus Crosby, a wealthy banker of Valley Falls, Kan., hanged himself Wednesday because of despondency caused by ill health.

A bank at Shebogan Falls, Wis., was entered by burglars Tuesday night, and the vault blown open with dynamite. They got about $10,000.

Examination of his accounts shows that V. S. Parker, city marshal of Fairhaven, is defaulter to the extent of over $10,000. He disappeared some time ago.

One hundred and sixty-one deaths were reported in the twenty-four hours ended at noon Wednesday, fourteen of which were from la grippe.

Allan Hay, one of the pioneer miners of Idaho, shot and killed himself near Butte Wednesday. One of his nephews was trying to have him adjudged insane, which prompted the act.

St. Louis Republic, Dem.: There is no longer a doubt that Pension Commissioner Itam feels reasonably certain that he will be able to prevent a thorough investigation of the Pension Bureau by the present house of representatives. It is said that he has enlisted the entire Indiana delegation in the effort to prevent him from investigation and that his old friend Springer is also ready to come to his assistance. During the past nine or ten months he has been preparing for this. He has promoted several Democrats in the bureau, and some Democrats dismissed by him he has reinstated. All these fellows, or rather most of them, speaking more accurately, have not done a stroke of work in the bureau since congress convened, but earned their pay by going around among Democratic congressmen with whom they have happened to be acquainted, urging the bad policy of investigating the bureau—or, as they call it, attacking Raum.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Why not make reciprocity the watchword for 1892?

The Democrats are organizing clubs all up and down the valley.

Puget sound people are not happy over their defenceless harbors in view of a naval war with Chili.

The election of Crisp, speaker seems to have flattened out the Boies (of Iowa,) boom.

All Experts Use Royal Baking Powder

Perfect and uniform success in making finest food is more certain with Royal Baking Powder than with any other. Use it in every receipt calling for a baking powder, or cream of tartar and soda, and the best results in pure, wholesome, appetizing food are assured. Experts use it because it adds to their success. Physicians and Health Officers recommend it because it adds to the wholesomeness of the food.

MARION HARLAND: "I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best in the market. Since its introduction into my kitchen I have used no other."

MISS MARIA PARLOA: "It seems to me that the Royal Baking Powder is as good as any can be. I have used it a great deal and always with satisfaction."

MRS. BAKER, Principal of Washington, D. C., School of Cookery: "I say to you, without hesitation, use the 'Royal.' I have tried all, but the Royal is the most satisfactory."

M. GORJU, late Chef, Delmonico's, New-York: "In my use of Royal Baking Powder, I have found it superior to all others."

A. FORTIN, Chef, White House, for Presidents Arthur and Cleveland: "I have tested many baking powders, but for finest food can use none but 'Royal.'" ford, Conn., Wednesday visited a lawyer to institute divorce proceedings. Her husband watched her, and as she came out shot her fatally and then killed himself.

John Dillon denies that he threatened to retire in the event of the election of Redmond at Waterford. He says that he only spoke of such an event as tending to make him less hopeful of the home rule cause.

Another horrible story comes from Hungary. A rapicker, in the course of his rounds at Buda-Pesth, found a large loaf of bread, and upon breaking the loaf he found fragments of a child's body kneaded in the dough.

General Lorenzo Garcia, commander of the Mexican troops in the field was murdered by his men Wednesday at headquarters. The soldiers, numbering several hundred, then started to join Garza, the revolutionist.

Ferdinand Franz Gebhard Lebecht, Count Blucher von Wahlstadt, had a long consultation Wednesday with ex-District Attorney Parady, for the purpose of bringing a suit in the supreme court for divorce against his young wife, Alma, who is now living with her sister-in-law at Aspen, Colo. The grounds alleged by Count Blucher for the annulment of the marriage contract are very sensational, and will be substantially that he was forced to marry the girl through tricks and devices. Count Blucher is the grandson of Gebhard Lebecht von Blucher, Prince of Wahlstadt, the Prussian field marshal who, on that memorable June 18, 1815, saved the German army from annihilation at the battle of Waterloo.

Count Blucher's father is the Prince von Blucher who lives at the Castle Rieblowitz, Schlestein, Germany. The Prince von Blucher is one of the wealthiest men in Germany, and his income from his estate is over $500,000 a year. While the young count, who has hardly passed his 24th birthday, says he is going to get a divorce on the ground that he was tricked into marriage, the real reason for his sudden activity in the divorce question is found in a letter which he recently received from the Prince von Blucher, his father. A reporter saw the letters, and they show that the prince is very angry at his son for marrying a woman beneath him in rank.

"What a terrible thing it would be," says the prince, "if that woman should knock at the door of the Blucher palace and say: 'I would like to see my father-in-law, the prince.' Such a disgrace would kill me. You have ruined the family name. You must get a divorce from this woman at once. I banish you forever from the castle of Rieblowitz, unless you come with a divorce and ask forgiveness. I will cut off your income, reduce you to a pittance, and will change the right of inheritance by imperial decree and cut you off, if you do not get this divorce." The count sees poverty staring him in the face, and he must get a divorce to satisfy his father. He says that he has no money, and wrote to his father asking forgiveness and for funds to carry on the divorce suit. He will make an arrangement to go on with the divorce, and expects that a friend will advance him the money for a retainer. The Countess Blucher was formerly Miss Alma Loeb, and her home is in Brooklyn, New York.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. The remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Dan J. Fry's, drugstore, 225 Commercial street.

WATCHING THE CHILIANS. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—A Washington correspondent telegraphs the paper as follows: Within the last few days instructions have been sent to our naval attaches at London, Paris and Rome to acquaint the state department with the movements of Chili's agents in Great Britain and on the continent. Similar instructions were sent to United States consuls at a number of the more important maritime cities of Europe. It is known that Chili has been quietly negotiating with some
