LODGE OFFICIALS.—Olive lodge, No. 18, I. O. O. F., has installed officers as follows: J. L. Mitchell, P. G.; Joe E. Howard, N. G.; O. A. Condit, V. G.; A. T. Wain, recording secretary; Jno. Moir, treasurer; Jas. Walton, R. S. N. G.; J. H. Cavanaugh, L. S. N. G.; Webster Holmes, warden; John Stapleton, conductor; Jas. Mothorn, O. G.; John Boise, I. G.; W. J. Culver, R. S. S.; A. M. Clough, L. S. S.; J. H. McNary, R. S. V. G.; G. W. Mothorn, L. S. V. G. The installation was conducted by acting district deputy grand master, Harvey Jordan.

THE PULPIT AHEAD.—There was a good attendance Saturday night at State Insurance hall, the annual meeting of the Alka-Hesperian literary and debating society. New officers were elected and a financial report of Treasurer C. B. Brown showed the society to be in a flourishing condition, and Mr. Fitzgerald will handle the society's finances for 1892. A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring treasurer. The debate on the question of the relative influence of pulpit and press was decided in favor of the pulpit. Among visitors who made strong speeches on the winning side were Hon. Ralph Moody and Hon. T. L. Ford.

BOUGHT OUT.—The Abernathy Bros. have sold their interest in the steamer Elwood to Jas. Eldridge, who is now sole proprietor. He brought the boat up to Salem Sunday, and is having a hinge put in the smokestack, so as to run under the Salem bridge, when the water is high. He has taken a contract to run Goodhue's sand barges for a few days.

IN DEMAND.—Do not waste a copy of THE NEW YEAR'S JOURNAL. The demand is so great that any copy not wanted to preserve as local history, should be sent to friends in the east. The JOURNAL feels proud being considerably complimented for the absence of exaggeration from the columns of that issue.

PROHIBITION MEETING.—The Salem Prohibition club will hold their regular meeting tomorrow (Tuesday) evening in the I. O. G. T. hall at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been prepared.

JOINT INSTALLATION.—A joint installation of new officers will be held this evening by Sedgwick post, G. A. R. and W. R. C. All members are earnestly requested to be present. By order of F. B. Southwick, Com.

UNITY CHURCH.

The Salem Unitarian Society Take Possession of Their New Church Home.

The electric cars were crowded Sunday morning with the church going crowds destined for the unique structure erected by the Unitarian society the past year at the corner of Chemeketa and Cottage streets. It will be of interest to note that the society was organized by a few persons April 25, 1889, and the corner stone of the building, now formally occupied by several hundred people, was laid July 14, 1891.

THE INTERIOR of the church is finished in siled natural woods. The ceiling is divided into sections by three solid fir architrave braces girded up in a most substantial manner. Between these divisions former windows of stained glass pour in the light of heaven in subdued streams. On north and south sides are parterres of colored corrugated glass. A gallery runs across the east end, separated if desired by rolling screen curtains of wood. The walls are unpainted, and here appears the only defect in an almost perfect architectural ensemble—a soft brown, or slate tint on the walls would harmonize all. But this and other finishing touches will no doubt in time be put on.

IN THE BASEMENT are kitchen, store rooms, an unfinished lecture room and perhaps library and gymnasium. When these details are completed this will indeed be a church home. The entrance from Cottage street is a pleasing one. A square hallway finished in Oregon pine, California redwood, native ash and oak rails—a central stairs leading into the basement—on either side a stairway rising to the main auditorium and school room above.

THE DEDICATION. A large and fashionable audience filled the new church even to standing room at the morning service, when the structure was formally dedicated to the service of God. The comfortable opera chairs, arranged in semi-circle, held an audience that thoroughly enjoyed the pleasantly lighted and nicely warmed room. Hubert Thompson and Harvey Jordan ushered and Miss Mary Steiner presided at the organ. The choir, after an organ prelude, sang an anthem, "Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty," in an easy, expressive and well trained manner. The opening services were simple and devoid of all formality and show. Mr. Brown, the minister, then read Scripture, and the choir and congregation sang an original dedicatory ode written for the occasion by Mrs. Olive S. England, a lady who has done as much as, if not more than, any one person to call this beautiful structure into existence within the past year.

DEDICATION ODE. Father, in thy presence now We have come with heart's aflame With the love that emanates From thy great and holy name. Let no worldly thoughts intrude, But with spirits pure and free, Like the rosebud kissed by dew, May our souls responsive be. Now the emanations pure, By the christ'ning from above, Gives thy children power divine. Fill our souls with peace and love; As before Thy shrine we bow, Every heart casts out all fear, Knowing well the tender love Of our Father now and here. In no kingdom far away Seek we for a heaven pure, But within our souls shall be All of love that shall endure. In this house we dedicate To Thy service, we shall find That the service of our God Is the service of mankind. Rev. W. E. Copeland of the Tacoma society offered the dedicatory prayer. A solo was rendered by Mrs. H. B. Holland, when the dedicatory responses by minister and congregation were read in an impressive manner.

THE SERMON. After a chant by the choir, Rev.

T. L. Eliot, D. D., of Portland, Or., delivered the dedicatory sermon, choosing his text from the 27th Psalm, 4th verse. He emphasized the importance and dignity of worship and a reverential spirit. Dr. Eliot's style is very impressive and he rises in sympathy with the earnestness of his convictions into genuine eloquence all through his delivery.

The choir sang "The Ark of the Lord and the Fullness Thereof." Leo Willis, as chairman of the building committee, then made a statement of the financial standing of the society. The resources of the church had come from about fifteen members; three purchased the lot, $5385 was the contract price of the building. There was over $9000 of other expenses, in all $8435, or with the lot $10,000. This was all paid out of $1000, of which the Ladies' Aid society would pay $450, leaving $1500 to be raised. Rev. W. E. Copeland made a strong appeal to those present to add their contribution to the fund showing made by Colonel Willis. Mr. Brown stated that this was the first time that a public contribution had been taken up for this society. He said if means were at hand, the society proposed to erect a building that should be an open door day and night to young and old who now had no place to go except the saloon or the street. Following was announced to be the AFTERNOON AND EVENING PROGRAM. At 2:30 p. m., dedication services by the Sunday school. Admission of new members. Consecration of children. Addresses by the ministers present.

At 7 p. m., dedication exercises "To the Service of Men," sermon by Dr. Copeland. Announcement of contributions. At the afternoon service seventeen united with the church, and a child's dedication service was held. In the evening there was a large audience at Dr. Copeland's service. $500 was announced as subscribed in the morning, and more was signed.

CRIMES COMMITTED. Salem the Scene of Numerous Petty Offences—Police Throw Out a Warning. The city has at present quite a floating petty criminal population and it is suggested by the police that all householders and business people keep no property lying about loose.

HOUSEBREAKING. H. H. Redfield was brought before Justice Applegate, on a warrant charging him with burglary, committed Dec. 29th, by forcibly breaking the door and entering in and taking provisions, and being found in the house of Jared Truck, three miles from Salem. He waived examination and was bound over.

CIVIL SUITS are quite plentiful at the close of the year. It is the season when every man should settle up his accounts, and not a few are enforcing their demands in court.

TRUNK ROBBERY. Saturday afternoon Salem was rid of the presence of one J. C. Banks, whom the police have come to regard in the light of a common thief and all-around tough. B. I. Ferguson found his trunk robbed of two coats and other garments. He works at Clark & Eppley's grocery and accompanied Marshal Minto on a search for the suspected party. They had not gone a block, when they found their man with one of the coats on. Recorder Goodell bound him over.

THE QUEEN.—At Cross's market that queen of all beavers ever shown in an Oregon market was this afternoon cut down and will this evening be cut up. All who have engaged cuts will be served in time for their Tuesday dinner. There are still choice cuts and steaks to be had.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Postmaster S. A. Jones, of Brooks, was in Salem today. Ralph Moody and family have returned to Port Townsend. The council having formed some good resolutions for 1892 should back it up with some good paving. A sudden freeze would convert some of our streets into beautiful skating rinks.

Hon. T. T. Geer and family of Macleay were in the church dedication.

Thomas Andrews of Union county was brought to the asylum Saturday.

T. C. Smith, Jr., returned from Portland this morning.

Ladies, at the Kellogg school of cutting you will learn more in a week than in three months in a shop. School at 125 Court street.

Miss Linnie Lewis left this morning for Portland, where she will be at the bedside of Mrs. J. T. Gregr, who is quite ill.

The state printing office resumed operations this morning. State Printer Baker will not return for a week.

Secretary of State McBride, who is at San Francisco, is expected to start on his return home this evening.

The Salem Democratic club will meet Wednesday night this week instead of Thursday as announced.

W. A. Benson, the confectioner, who assigned to W. G. Westcott, of his creditors has $1363.67. Rosenfeld, Smith & Co., of Portland, are the heaviest creditors. The amount due them is $550.42. The assets are estimated at $1100.

THE JOURNAL did not confine its notice of our city government to a picture of its mayor. All came in for a share of attention. There is no partiality about the management of this paper. It has no pets and don't ask to be petted.

The sick roll at Harrison Indian Training school at Chemawa has become very small, under the careful attendance of Dr. Richardson, and are now all in charge of the resident physician, Dr. Farley.

The Capital City Railway Co. and Salem Land Co. will hereafter occupy a joint office in Hotel Willamette, next door to W. U. Telegraph Co. The office will also be used as a waiting room for passengers.

Ladies, there is no refitting with the Kellogg French tailor system of cutting. Remember you pay nothing for the system until you cut your dress without refitting. Patterns cut to order. Call and examine system. School of cutting 125 Court street.

As a home remedy for throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Druggists now have Ayer's Almanac.

SALEM PRECINCT JURORS.—The following named gentlemen are announced to serve as jurors in Justice Batchelor's court for the ensuing year: C. F. Woodworth, D. F. Wagner, F. J. Cherrington, Amos Strong, John Gray, Chas. Parmenter, I. Patten, D. McCully, Thos. Hubbard, J. C. Brown, Lewis Fisher, J. H. Lunn, E. L. Townsend, E. L. Lampert, S. Jones, Ira Erb, W. H. Gottle, Peter Fox, J. B. Slump, Wm. Claggett, S. Northcutt, W. B. Boothby, A. Moore, J. I. Thompson, Louis McMeans, Wm. Staiger, D. L. Fiestler, R. E. Moore, L. E. Pratt, J. O. Baker, R. Holman, John Jordan, Newt. McCauley, Jo. Meyers, Wm. Sargent, Mark Skiff, C. E. Talbot, Wm. England, Jap Minto.

SCHOOLS REOPENED.—All the Salem schools reopened this morning after the holiday vacation. There was an increased attendance and many new pupils. Miss Dearborn is temporarily detained at Portland, Miss Bentley, one of the park teachers taking her place. Miss McNary hopes to be on duty next week. Miss Cosper is absent today on account of her brother's death. With these exceptions all teachers reported for duty.

DEATHS AT SILVER TON.—Charles Barkhurst, a farmer, about 45 years old, died Sunday morning of typhoid pneumonia. He leaves a wife and nine children. He was buried Monday at the cemetery between Woodburn and Gervais. Mrs. Mary Hutton, widow of Dr. Hutton, died Sunday morning, aged 79 years. Her funeral is set for Tuesday at 1 p. m. Aunt Mary was a Marion county pioneer.

FIRST ENTRY.—The first entry made the new year on the Marion county marriage register is that of W. M. Harpole and Miss N. L. Oberheim.

COOPER.—At 12:30 a. m., Jan. 31, 1891, Romeo R. Cooper, aged 35 years, at his home, 3 Marion street, Salem. Cause, apoplexy. Buried in box. For sale by Dan'l J. Fry, 225 Com St.

NORTH HOWELL PRAIRIE.

H. Shaefer and family started for Nebraska this week where they intend to make their future home. The regular meeting of the Farmers' Alliance was postponed on account of holidays and will be held on Friday eve, Jan. 8th.

Miss Mina Vinton came out from Salem and spent holidays at home.

E. G. Wiesner is on the sick list with something like grippe, with which several others of the neighborhood are slightly affected.

The meetings of the Aid society have been postponed on the interest died out we don't know which. Probably it will be continued in the spring.

A pleasant time was enjoyed on New Year's eve at the residence of J. H. Baughman, by the young people of the neighborhood at the social and supper given by Miss Winnie.

The ushering in of the new year was hailed by as jolly an assembly as ever met in North Howell.

SEWER BROKEN.—The Marion street sewer has been found to be partly stopped up, and Street Commissioner Crossan has had two men at work since Sunday morning locating the break. The stoppage has flooded basements of houses in the vicinity of Dr. Richardson's. Today four men have been at work opening it. It is flowing one-third full at its outlet, and this afternoon the force of workmen believe that the sewer has been crushed in, and have nearly located it.

INSANE.—Upon information of W. M. Cline and C. Minnis of Woodburn, Lawrence Minnis, same place, was examined before County Judge Davidson. Dr. B. H. Bradshaw and District Attorney Bingham were called in, and the young man was committed to the asylum. He is 21, this is his first attack, and he suffers from nervous excitement.

CHANGE.—Saturday afternoon W. L. Krebs retired from the bakery business on State street and Albert Abbott and A. W. Dennis took possession and will run a bakery and confectionery.

PROBATE.—In guardianship of Joseph Stone, final hearing was continued. The suit of Simon Swartz et al vs. F. A. Wanless, was dismissed.

How is This? We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure.

A Very Common Want. "Out of sorts," "distrait," "the blues," these are familiar appellatives for uncomfortable, undignified sensations, accompanied with lassitude, nervousness, indigestion, poverty of the blood, to remedy which an active stomachic and purgative is the paramount need. Its conclusive evidence is the system is insufficiently nourished because—and for no other cause—where organic disease does not exist—the food is not assimilated. Reinforce the flagging energies of the stomach, reform an irregular condition of the bowels, keep up a healthy secretion of the bile with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. For over 25 years this popular medicine has supplied the common want of the nervous invalid, the dyspeptic and of persons deficient in vitality, an efficient tonic. To its power imparting strength is attributable its efficacy as a preventive of malaria and its grippe. Thoroughly effective it is too for rheumatism, kidney complaint and neuritis.
