THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—After reading the senate journal David B. Hill, senator elect from New York, took the oath. On motion of Cockerill he was excused from service on the committee of immigration, McPherson from service on committee on territories, Calhoun on interstate commerce, and Voorhees on relations with Canada, and Hill was appointed to those places. The senate committee on commerce held its first formal session this morning. The following bills were ordered favorably reported: The construction of a lighthouse on cape Disappointment, Wash.; to repeal certain sections of the revised statutes; providing bonds for the registry of vessels; providing for the construction of two United States revenue cutters for service on the Pacific coast, and to establish life saving stations at Rogue river and Port Orford, Oregon.

SENATOR SHERMAN

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 7.—John Sherman to succeed himself in the United States senate, Foraker is defeated, but even in defeat his leadership excites the admiration of his opponents, and he is more than ever the idol of those dauntless young Republicans who have given him such noble allegiance. With the expiration of the senatorial term to which Sherman is to be elected he will have completed forty-four years of continuous public service. It will be a record without parallel in the history of American statesmanship, for every year will have been spent in Washington in the service of the federal government. John Sherman is 69 years old. He was elected to congress in 1854, at the time of the Kansas-Nebraska troubles, and as a member of the congressional committee on the question of the extension of slavery in 1854, he wrote the famous anti-slavery report, which thrilled the nation and made him one of the prominent leaders of the day. How well he maintained his prominence in the service of six years in the lower house, four years in the cabinet as secretary of the treasury, and an aggregate of twenty-eight years in the senate, the pages of American history bear record.

REVOLUTION IN GUATEMALA

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 7.—There are well founded rumors here that a revolution is in progress in Guatemala as no dispatches have been received since the presidential election on the first of January have been received here from any part of that country.

SENT UP TWO YEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Harry Miller, son of Joseph Miller, "the Poet of the Sierras," was sentenced to two years' imprisonment today for holding up a stage in Mendocino county some weeks ago.

RAILROAD STRIKE

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 7.—Disorders among the strikers on the San Antonio & Arkansas Pass railroad at York are threatened. Sheriff Hall has been there for a week with twelve deputies. The mayor of Yonca, who is said to be in sympathy with the strikers, has appointed thirty special police from the ranks of the strikers. This coming to the knowledge of Judge King, of the district court here, he has had fifteen additional deputies sent there.

office of Daly, Sibley & Eskin, and formed a Democratic club, with a good list of members. The officers are L. C. Parker, president; J. F. Groves and R. C. Craven, vice presidents; E. H. Hayer, recording secretary; J. E. Sibley, corresponding secretary; H. Fenton, treasurer, and John J. Daly and H. L. Fenton, delegates to the state convention at Portland. It is probable that the Republicans will likewise organize clubs, but whether they do or not, politics promise to be hot in Polk county. The newspapers and politicians are already in the field looking around for suitable material to make up the respective tickets.

The state board of equalization adjourned, leaving values of farming lands as fixed by the boards of the several counties. Polk county, as usual, pays double her share of the state tax, and the question is now how to remedy it.

There are quite a number of cases of la grippe in town, but those who were seriously ill are now convalescing.

Dallas enters upon the new year with better prospect than at any former time in her history. While she has made an excellent growth in the past year, the advance in 1892 promises to be almost phenomenal. Several factories will be established, and all industries are already advancing and enlarging.

The rains which for so long have flooded the valley have ceased, and the weather is becoming clear and cold.

SECRETARY BLAINE

INHERITED A FORTUNE

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Last Friday L. F. McJannet, a private detective of St. Johnsbury, Vt., arrived here, hired a team and went over to Glenn county in search of J. M. Martin and wife, the latter being the rightful heir to the fortune left her by her father, ex-Congressman Cross, of Vermont. About ten years ago Bertha Cross met Martin in Washington, D. C. As the father opposed the marriage, the couple eloped and several years later came to California. The mother of the girl has since died, and last July the father died, leaving his entire fortune, about $1,000,000, to this only daughter. The detective has been searching since the father's death, and finally located the daughter in Glenn county. Mrs. Martin, for several years, lived in this city. They have been living in poor circumstances, and a month ago moved to Glenn county. Martin, his wife and the detective left at once for St. Johnsbury.

THREE CHILDREN DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—New Year's morning the wife of Austin Green, of this city, and their three children, all girls, the oldest being 8 years of age, returned from a trip to St. Louis, where Mrs. Green had gone for medical attendance. The same day one of the children died suddenly, and in a few hours the whole family were in bed with la grippe. Sunday last the little one was borne to the grave unaccompanied by either parent. Later in the day the two others expired. They were buried, the parents being still unable to leave their beds.

DYNAMITE CRANK IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—A man poorly dressed and about 30 years of age entered the office of William Foote, the well-known attorney. He stated that Foote had won a judgment for $81,000,000 from him and that he wanted the money. Foote was dumfounded, and thoughts of Russell Sage's experience with Norcross in New York ran through his mind, but before he could deny having had such a suit as the man declared, the crank said: "I will call in tomorrow forenoon, and if you don't pay over the money I will use a dynamite bomb on you." He then walked out of the office and disappeared very mysteriously. Foote says the man was an entire stranger to him. The police will watch the building, and if the crank appears he will be arrested.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Major Handbury has reported upon the project of securing twenty-five feet depth at low water from Portland to the mouth of the Columbia river. Concerning the Willamette river, he says: "It is contemplated that the expense of clothing the chute on the south side of Swan Island be paid from the funds now available for work under the present project for improvement." He submits the following estimates, viz: For the Willamette, for dredging Swan Island bar, $68,500; for Pacifico bar, $87,420; for the Columbia river St. Helens bar, additional work necessary to the present dyke, $20,800; Martin Island bar, $24,000; Wilker's Island, $150,000; Suag Island, $287,000. The total for both rivers is $638,720, an amount 20 per cent. for contingencies, $118,074, and cost of one dredging machine at $60,000, the total would reach $772,400.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 7.—A special from Lebanon says: H. C. Klepper, a carpenter working on the ventilator of the Lebanon paper mill, this morning lost his footing and fell a distance of ninety feet, first striking the roof forty feet below, then bounding to the ground, a distance of fifty feet farther, breaking his thighs and arms, and mangled his face in a horrible manner. Klepper is still alive, but in a very critical condition. He is 55 years of age.

CIVIL WAR IN KANSAS

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 7.—A special to the Journal from Arkansas, Kan., says: Forty as determined and desperate men as can be found on the border, and armed to the teeth, are barricaded behind the wall of the court house at Springfield. Soldiers are trying to dislodge them and bring them to justice. A number more soldiers are guarding three of the murderous mob arrested yesterday, under orders to shoot them before surrendering to their companions in crime, who will probably endeavor to release them before day dawns. Still more soldiers are guarding the house of Judge Botkin from an attack of enemies bent on taking his life.

SIMPSON'S ROCK AT TRINIDAD

Fourteen Days' Constant Watch and Fighting, Then Death by Starvation. Out at Trinidad, Colo., just south of the town, is a huge, flat topped rock on the top of a hill perhaps 200 feet high. It is called Simpson's rock, and it is one of the historical points in the west. Indeed it is a fragment of history from that time when heroic deeds, made sacred by the spilling of white man's blood, ushered in the safe and prosperous era of white man's rule. Simpson was a pioneer and came to the place before the name of Trinidad was heard. He was a freighter, and finding many advantages about the spot he prepared a home for his family on the bank of the Purgatoire river. He had a wife and two boys in his home at Santa Fe, and no man ever more lovingly prepared a lodge for his love than this rough driver fashioned a dwelling in far away Trinidad. He had everything in readiness as he passed through to the east, and meant to bring out his wife and children on his next trip west. But the Indians had risen that fall and swept all the settlements down the river. They found Simpson's home just ready for occupancy, captured the men he had employed to take care of it, and then lay in wait without disturbing a thing till the owner should come.

Such is the situation at the scene of the atrocious killing of Sheriff Dunn. At 2:45 o'clock yesterday Adjutant John Roberts reached here with troops under the command of Colonel Ricekacker, of Sterling. At Minola, word is received that Woodside people had taken possession of the court house at Springfield, and Judge Botkin, at Arkatona, is waiting for reinforcements to help him open court. Judge Botkin and his followers were awaiting the arrival of the train bearing the dead sheriff, all armed with Winchester. Judge Botkin himself carried a big six-shooter in a cartridge belt.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 7.—Governor Humphreys wired Judge Botkin this morning that he could not put arms in the hands of deputy sheriffs. The adjutant-general has been further instructed not to interfere with the work done by the civil authorities, but to assist them in serving warrants if called upon.

COAST TELEGRAPH LINES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Senator Mitchell has introduced a bill to provide for the construction of military and commercial telegraph lines along the Pacific coast between Yaguina City, on Yaguina bay, and Port Orford, to connect with Newport, on Yaguina bay, Alsea bay, Florence, on Siuslaw bay, Gardiner, on the Umpqua river, and Empire City and Marshfield, on Coos bay, and appropriating $15,000 therefor.

GEN'L KAUTZ RETIRES

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 7.—Gen. Kautz relinquished command of the department of the Columbia, being retired. General Schofield will take charge till his successor is appointed by the president. On the eve of his retirement the officers of the garrison tendered him a magnificent reception. It is thought here that Colonel Carlin will succeed to the vacancy.

CYCLONE IN GEORGIA

ATLANTA, Jan. 7.—Last night a funnel shaped cloud, fringed with electric fire, and the center of which was a roaring seething mass, struck Fayetteville, and dwellings, churches, and public buildings were swept away, and several persons were killed.

The remains of Mrs. Travis were picked up a hundred yards from her residence. Twelve persons were sitting together at the residence of Mrs. Graham, when the cyclone struck the house. The walls were crushed in and the roof blown away. Two were killed, and all the others badly injured.

Altogether thirty residences, the public academy, and the Alliance warehouse were totally destroyed. Many other buildings were seriously damaged, and fully a score of people seriously injured.

THE SPECIE ROOM ON SHIPBOARD

In the days of heavy gold shipments the specie room on the steamship is a very important institution. It is located in an out-of-the-way place amidships, under the saloon. Few of the passengers know of its existence, or of the valuable treasure that is carried across the ocean with them. The room varies slightly on different ships, but is usually about 16 feet long by 10 feet wide and 8 feet high. It is constructed of steel plates one-quarter of an inch thick, and strongly riveted together. The floor, the ceiling and the walls are all of steel plates. There is a heavy door, also made of steel. It is provided with two English "chubb" locks, a variety of combination lock that is said to be burglar proof. The gold and silver is usually in bars, but occasionally a quantity of coin in bags is shipped. The Majesty is credited with carrying the largest quantity, her strong box having $4,500,000 intrusted to it for safe keeping.—Scribner's.

TO HAVE A GOOD VOICE

If you have only the smallest quantity of voice, cultivate what you have, develop more and learn the art of singing. That is all you will find it necessary to do in order to become a very pleasing singer. I say "all," but it is very large "all." It represents months and even years of close application, patient study, continued practice and care. But the adherence to them will give you—provided you have started with the requisites—a style which will charm and a voice which will be to yourself and your nearest and dearest, if not to the public, a constant source of refined pleasure.—Ladies' Home Journal.

La Grippe

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to disclose a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by G. E. Goode, druggist.
