Funeral from the house Tuesday at 12 m., conducted by the Masonic fraternity.

SMITH.—At residence on Court street, at 8 a. m., Monday, Jan. 18, 1892, Mrs. Martha J., wife of Dr. J. N. Smith, aged 32 years.

The death of Mrs. Smith will be a surprise to all, and her sudden death casts a gloom over a large circle of friends. Her death was caused by an attack of grip at a very critical time, just preceding confinement. For a few days she rallied, but septic poisoning set in and her life rapidly slipped away. A delicate child survived the departed mother and seems to be gaining strength. This little one is the only ray of light to illumine the dark hour.

Mrs. Smith was a daughter of Mrs. H. Ellis, who made her home with her daughter since her marriage, nine years and over. Jasper Ellis, of Salem, and M. M. Ellis, the Dallas banker, and Mrs. N. L. Butler, of Monmouth, are brothers and sister of the deceased. She leaves besides two brothers at Grande Ronde and two sisters. Mrs. Smith had made all arrangements to unite with the Presbyterian church, but death laid his claim to her first. Socially and in all respects Mrs. Smith was a superior woman and a most devoted wife.

The funeral will take place at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday, from the residence.

Attorney G. E. Hayes of Oregon City, with his family, is visiting in this city, the guest of his father, Hon. H. E. Hayes, master of the state grange.

La Grippe. The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by G. E. Goode, druggist.

STYLE.—If you like oysters in any style known to the art of cookery go to Hellenbrand's.

You're No Idea

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla hits the needs of people who feel "all tired out" or "run down," from any cause. It seems to oil up the whole mechanism of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes a positive delight. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Impure or vitiated blood is nine times out of ten caused by some form of constipation or indigestion that clogs up the system, when the blood naturally becomes impregnated with the effete matter. The old Sarsaparilla attempts to reach this condition by attacking the blood with the drastic mineral "poach." Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is modern. It goes to the seat of the trouble. It rouses the liver, kidneys and bowels and invigorates the circulation, and the impurities are quickly carried off through the natural channels.

Charles Lee, at Beach's Third and Market Sts. S. F. writer: "I took Irtivated blood and while on the first bottle became convinced of its merits, for I could feel it was working a change. It cleaned, purified and braced me up generally, and everything is now working full and regular."
