SILVER WEDDING.—Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite gathered at their spacious residence near the state house Tuesday evening to celebrate in due style the 25th anniversary of their married life. Beautiful tributes in gifts and souvenirs of speech and verse were offered by old and young and all tarried until the midnight hour. Mr. Bowman and wife, the latter sister to Mrs. Warner Breyman, of East Portland, were present. A lunch and dancing party concluded the evening. These anniversaries are alwasy kept in due form by the veteran printer of the Pacific coast and his excellent lady. Mr. Waite's name is probably familiar to more Oregonians than that of any one man in this state, and he is today as active and public spirited as he was forty years ago when he landed in Oregon. Besides being a member of the board of education he condncts a large printing business, has extensive real estate interests and is one of the principal stockholders in the CAPITAL JOURNAL.

NO RIVALS.—Some other publishers who imagine they are business rivals of THE JOURNAL are trying by cutting rates to secure advertising. The fact that THE JOURNAL has a third larger circulation, daily or weekly, than any other paper in the state outside of Portland, leads them to these facts of business desperation. It is the circulation of this paper that gives it its large volume of business and no rivalry is possible in the efforts of any publisher for the simple reason that they cannot and do not reach the public.

THE WAR SPIRIT.—The routine proceedings at the meeting of the Salem Republican club excited very little interest. No one seemed to care who was sent as delegate but the proposition to sustain Harrison and Blaine in their refusal to take the lie from Chili and resenting that insult to the American flag, stirred Republicanism of those present to the bottom and every man was on his feet in a moment. It pleases young Republicans very much to think their party upholds the flag.

HAPPY HOMES.—The family of Jas. H. Ross are happy over the arrival of a substantial young blacksmith, Jan. 25th. As that is Robert Burns' birthday, the poet will no doubt be remembered at the christ'ening.....The house of C. F. Doty, of North Salem is brightened by the arrival of a boy, Jan. 26th. He will be a steam motorman on the new line to the Salem coal fields,

SALEMITES AROUSED.

Public Building Movement and the Commercial Street Viadnct—Meetings and Petitions.

The mayor's call for a public meeting this Wednesday evening at the city hall meets with unanimous approval and there will be a large attendance. The Second Regiment band has volunteered to grace the occasion with music and speeches are to be made by T. T. Geer, Postmaster Gilbert and others. Mayor D'Arcy has made all arrangements for a grand expression of sentiment.

A SUGGESTION.

A Salem business man says that the west block of Willson avenue could be set aside for a government building. It would be a sightly place and by merely securing release of the heirs, only a few persons, it could he thinks be used for this purpose.

THE VIADUCT

on Commercial street is a matter of such great importance to Salem business interests that it should be considered at this meeting. Conversations with business men and taxpayers show a remarkable interest and unanimity for this enterprise. All concede it would be a bad stroke of policy to allow the electric company to build two curves and a trestle to one side of the old rotten Commercial street bridge. Salem people should be aroused to the costly, foolish and suicidal policy of allowing the electrical company to encumber the street with two turnouts and a long trestle. Now is the time to act, and there should be business tact, common sense and enterprise enough in a rich city like this to see to it that no such blunder as that is committed. The old bridge is fairly rotten and should be condemned. A substantial viaduct can be built, the car line extended straight through and meet the satisfaction of all parts of the city. There should be a vigorous concert of action in this matter by our business men, and at once.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Delegates Elected to the State Convention—Instructions—Sustain Harrison and Blaine.

There was a large attedance at Vatoldia hall Tuesday evening. M. W. Hunt was chosen chairman, L. F. Conn, secretary. New members were enrolled and the club has now three hundred members. Following delegates were chosen to the state convention of Republican clubs at Portland, Thursday, Jan. 28:

DELEGATES.

Jasper Minto, George Goode, M. W. Hunt, Geo. P. Hughes, Hon. Geo. G. Bingham, Lon Gesner, Hon. Jas. Putnam, Ed. Hutchins, Jay C. Smith, J. E. Eastham.

The club was by resolution instructed to use its influence to secure amendments to the constitution of the state league. Upon motion the club by standing vote expressed its unanimous approval of the course of President Harrison and Secretary Blaine in the Chilian affair, which was done with great enthusiasm.

THE RATE CASES.—Attorney Wm. H. Holmes, of the law firm of Bonham & Holmes, Salem referee in the railroad rate case, has returned from his ten days' trip to Omaha. He says they experienced a sudden change of climate in that city, of from 26 below zero to 30 above. The testimony in the rate cases is now all taken, except the depositon of one witness at Boston, and testimony of a witness at Portland. The state can offer some rebuttal and probably will do so. The whole testimony taken before the referee and his report will be submitted at the February term of court, and Judge Boise has expressed a willingness to hold the term until this important matter can be submitted.

Now is the time to buy a choice lot in Condit's addition on the electric street car line at $100, on the installment plan with no interest or taxes to be paid by purchaser. Globe Real Estate Company.

ON THE WHARF.

The Sunken Geo. D. Goodhue on the Ways—Boats Up and Down.

The large gravel and wood scow, Geo. D. Goodhue, is on the ways at the foot of Trade street, and Shipmaster Williamson, of Corvallis, with a force of carpenters is rebuilding the crushed bow. The immense force with which the Hoag struck the scow is shown by the fact that the bow timber 16x14 was broken squarely in two. The scow will be completely overhauled and there is plenty of business ready for her. Orders for wood, sand and gravel pouring in at Goodhue & Cohill's indicate a busy building season.

OTHER NOTES.

The Elwood went below this morning and the Hoag will be up this evening.

THE MILLS.—Supt. Shiel has returned from a trip to the head of North Mill creek and says there is no water coming in from the Santiam. The ditch is running full merely from surface water, and no work can be done at lowering the dam until next summer. The company will then, if they operate the mills, buy land enough to cut a sluice way around the dam for surplus water. The mills continue closed down.

COMPLIMENTARY. — The reform school near Salem, Oregon, is under the personal charge of Superintendent B. J. Miles and his estimable wife. Mr. Miles was superintendent of the Iowa reform school at Eldora for twelve years, which he and Mrs. Miles developed into one of the most thorough and complete reformatory institutions in the United States.—Iowa State Register.

A NEW HOME.—Cashier A. N. Bush and family, are this week removing from their old home on Cottage street to their newly acquired residence, the former Howard place, on Chemeketa and Capitol streets. This is one of the finest located and best residences in Salem, and will make a very desirable roof tree for our young banker and his family.

INSPECTION.—The county judge and Commissioner Watson are making a tour of inspection through the county offices, as required by law. They are overhauling the books, examining into the manner of collecting fees and accounting for the same. This is a very important work, and requires almost an expert knowledge of book-keeping, and the law governing each office.

ELECTION SCHOOLS.—Sheriff Croisan has made arrangements to erect the Australian ballot election booths early in May so that voting tests may be had and all citizens post themselves on the operation of the Australian ballot law. There are thirty-five precincts in the county and they are to be accurately defined by metes and bounds and published.

COME.—A large audience at the Baptist church last evening listened to an excellent sermon by Rev. Parker. There was a baptism at the close of the service. "The Soul's Portion" is the subject for to night, and the speaker extends a special invitation to every infidel and every skeptic in the city to be present.

LEAP YEAR.—Miss Lotta Sherman, secretary has sent us the following item of social interest: "The members of the Channing Club, give a leap year party, tomorrow, Wednesday evening, at the Unity church, at 7:30."

PROBATE.—In the matter of the estate, Lewis Weston, a minor, final account allowed and approved. M. J. Jette, the guardian, was released.

NEW DRAY.—J. F. White has reentered the draying arena with a fine new piano-box barouche spring dray, of which with a fine team attached he is very proud.

Window shades at cost—Wm. Sargeant.

SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 113.

Closing Exercises at one of our Popular Rural Schools.

Our school term closed on Friday last. It has been a remarkably successful one. The school house, on this, the closing day was crowded to its utmost capacity with visitors and scholars. Visitors from Salem were also present. The exercises consisted of recitations in the several studies, arranged to show the progress of the pupils. The work in mathematics was exceptionally fine. It was evident that these pupils had been taught to think. The reading was excellent. This and the arithmetic occupied the forenoon. The afternoon was taken up by the geography and physiology classes. The work in geography was done in this wise: Each of the twenty-two pupils in the class, selected a country of Europe, or some other portion of the globe, and wrote notes thereon, giving the position, physical features, occupation and characteristics of the people, exports, imports, history, arts, sciences, industries, names of principal great men, and the influence each special country has had on civilization. This work was done in a most creditable manner. The work in physiology was similarly, with the exception of the notes. The pupils individually stood before the chart and gave talks on the different subjects—Skeleton, respiration, circulative, digestion, the human eye, etc. etc., the whole concluding by the teacher supplementing the work with some experiments showing effect of carbonic acid gas on combustion and hence on animal life. The teacher, also gave a short talk on the human ear and on the nature of sound, showing how we hear. He also did the same with sight, and by the aid of a diagram of the eye, drawn by one of the pupils on the blackboard, he explained how we see, using the tables, given by Sir Isaac Newton, showing the number of vibrations to the second that are made by each of the colors in the spectrum. The whole exercises were most intelligently conducted, and were withal very instructive. It is believed by the writer that these exercises cannot be excelled anywhere. The whole closed by remarks by the school board and visitors present, commendatory of the pupils and teacher. N. M. Larned, the teacher, has done a work in this district that is deserving great praise, and one that will never be forgotten. As a teacher he is in the front rank, and, as it seems to us, would notably improve any school over which he may have control. More of this class of teachers would soon place the schools of Marion in the front rank. A.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. M. Gross, of Portland, is in the city.

Elder Bowersox is in Pottland for a short visit.

Dr. Glesy, of Aurora, is a Salem visitor today.

Judge Boise went to Albany today on a short business trip.

E. N. McCornack was a local passenger for Portland this afternoon.

Ground was broken Tuesday on E. F. Parkhurst's new house.

One vag got five days at the hands of Recorder Goodell.

E. D. Woodward and Mr. York made a trip to Woodburn this afternoon.

Judge W. P. Lord made a trip down to Portland today for a short visit.

Dr. Irwin, formerly of the asylum corps, but now of Portland is in the city.

The people of Salem should make an unanimous demand for the Commercial street viaduct.

Tommy Gilbert was taken worse Tuesday night from the effects of his collision with the burglar.

"The Soul's Portion" by Rev. Gilman Parker at the Baptist church this evening.

Daniel Savage, a cousin of John Savage, sr., and a JOURNAL reader, at Halsey, Linn county, is visiting in the city.

Thos Kay left this morning for a short trip up the valley and down the West side in the interest of the Salem woolen mills.

F. N. Derby of the Salem street railway has been laid up with a severe cold in his eye, which has confined him to the house not a little.

The Second Regiment band concert has been postponed to Friday night this week.

General Quartermaster Cross and Col. Wagner bagged twenty-six birds Tuesday. Who got the twenty-five?

See our news notes for Benjamin F. Butler's opinion of the Chilian affair. It is correct. In a great crisis look for horse sense from Ben.

Mrs. Parr today accompanied her daughter Maud, on her trip to New York, where the latter will study the higher branches of music.

THE JOURNAL'S attitude on the Commercial street viaduct meets with general approval and is warmly sustained by every expression on the streets so far.

State Treasurer and Mrs. Metschan, accompanied by their little son Elder, took the afternoon train for a trip to Portland and Puget Sound. They will visit Mr. Metschan's brother at Tacoma.

Salem should tell our United States senators plainly this evening that the capital city expects them to go over to the House and use their influence for that government building bill. If they would do that we would get it quickly enough.

The vane on Unity church steeple is being replaced this afternoon.

Patton's picture gallery of cartoons of the day is becoming quite a feature on State street.

Break the embargo of mud and apathy gentleman and proceed to put in that Commercial street viaduct and start the street improvement ball rolling.

There is a slightly better feeling noted in the leading wool markets Stocks of these wools in all the leading markets are large. Values are firm and most dealers refuse to make concessions, inclining rather to the removal of their stock from the market than to do so.

Singers and public speakers find Ayer's Cherry Pectoral invaluable. It never fails to cleanse the throat and strengthen the voice.

Grocer Sroat, of the "Good Luck" grocery, is off for a two months' vacation, making visits via California en route to his old Nebraska home.

C. A. Whale opens a stock of musical instruments in the Insurance block this week.

Auditing Clerk Frank Lovell has returned from a trip to Astoria, and reports quiet times down the river.

State Treasurer Phil Metschan and wife have gone to Tacoma to visit a brother.

Carpenter work on the college building is nearly completed. When it is finished it will be written up in these columns.

E. P. Thompson left for Portland this afternoon after a short visit with the boys.

H. Bowman and wife came up from East Portland last evening in honor of the Silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite. Mr. B. returned home this afternoon, while his better half will spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Werner Breyman.

Best Iodides and vegetable alteratives make Ayer's Sarsaparilla the best blood medicine.

Sargant sells window shades at cost.

THE PORCELAIN.—During the past few weeks Geo. Hoeye, of the popular barber and bath establishment, has had all of his old tubs removed and their places supplied by new porcelain tubs from Philadelphia. These are put in without boxing, and with all plumbing exposed to view, thus giving the best sanitary condition. The entire establishment has been renovated, repainted and the bath rooms freshly papered. These improvements have been made at an expense of several hundred dollars, but Mr. Hoeye proposes to have the best there is in the market, to keep apace with his growing business.

OF BOILS.—G. G. Spalding, the Willamette University student who died at the Portland hospital Saturday last, left school here to go home Christmas. He was severely afflicted with boils, which resulted in septic poison. He spent several years at school here and was well liked by all.

THE NEW SCHOOLS.—The school board visited the East Salem schools in a body today, and perfected the arrangements for occupying the new buildings. On Tuesday next school will be opened in the Yew Park building, and the Lincoln school in South Salem will open on Monday, Feb. 8th.

CON STIPATION

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. S. Winn, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington, writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S., I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me."

In the Nick of Time.

The nick of time to stop the course of bladder and kidney complaints is when the organs concerned exhibit a tendency to grow inactive. The healthful impulse toward activity that they receive from Hostetter's Stomach Bitters rescues them from impending danger, and averts such dangerous maladies as Bright's disease and diabetes. Sluggishness of the kidneys increases a liability to chronic rheumatism, gout and dropsy, and since the blood is filtered by these organs in its passage through them, the operation of the Bitters serves a doubly happy purpose. The medicine acts without exciting, like the fiery stimulants of commerce. Malarial, dyspeptic, constipated and nervous invalids are thoroughly relieved by it. Since the advent of that shocking malady, la grippe, it has been widely demonstrating its usefulness as a curative and preventive of it.
