FROM SODAVILLE.

The latest and most important move in this village is a prospective college building to be erected on some appropriate point near the spring. This has long been talked of by different parties but not till recently has it assumed a permanent shape of affairs.

A railroad man is now in our town investigating the proposed question of railroad communication with this point. We are assured that this will be accomplished this coming summer.

W. W. Parrish is preparing to build a large bath house as soon as the weather will permit for the accommodation of the many health seekers who annually flock to these springs.
