THE G. A. R. AT SALEM.

Eleventh Annual Grand Encampment of Oregon.

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS ELECTED.

All Vote the Capital City Meeting a Great Success—Pendleton Next.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Mayor D'Arcy's address of welcome was a happy extemporaneous speech, in which Peter the Salem printer boy magistrate, made all feel that their lines were laid in pleasant places. Circuit court being in session, and Mr. D'Arcy having an unusually large volume of business there, he was unable to prepare a formal address, but fired with the inspiration of the scene before him, he delivered the thoughts uppermost in his mind and nearest his heart, in a pleasant and effective manner, that was well received.

THE DEPARTMENT SESSIONS.

At the state house were largely taken up with routine and ritual, and reporters were not extended many courtesies. Roll call and credentials in the two encampments showed fifty-two posts with one hundred and twenty-six delegates and about as many visiting past officers and guests who belong to the order in other states.

PAST OFFICERS.

The following are the officers of the G. A. R. Department of Oregon: Commander—Owen Summers, Portland.
Senior Vice Commander—Charles S. Wright, Astoria.
Junior Vice Commander—C. P. Holloway, Huntington.
Medical Director—B. H. Bradshaw, Salem.
Chaplain—T. E. Clapp, Portland.
Council of Administration—C. H. Danchy, Oregon City; T. A. Swan, Lebanon; R. A. Crossan, Salem; W. N. Ladue, Salem; Van B. de Lashmuit, Portland.
Assistant Adjutant-General—R. S. Greenleaf, Portland.

COMMANDER SUMMER'S ADDRESS.

The commander said: "I cannot avoid calling the attention of the department to the large number now on the suspended list—315, or about 10 per cent of the comrades of the department that are now on the suspended list.

"There is a great amount of indifference upon the part of the comrades and officers of the posts in this matter, for there is no doubt in my mind that if the proper effort was made by the officers and comrades in the several posts this large percentage of suspensions could be greatly reduced. It is true that the increase for this year has been larger than for the previous year, but in reporting to the changes made in reporting from quarterly to semi-annually, I would suggest that each post appoint a special committee to take such action as it may deem advisable for the good of the order in bringing comrades back into good standing upon the rolls of their respective posts."

Condensing his extended and able address, we are permitted to say that when Col. Summers took command of the department on April 10th last he found fifty-two posts in good standing in the state. During the year five new charters were granted and one reinstatement made, which gives now a total of fifty-eight posts. During the year six charters were surrendered, leaving the total number of posts in good standing fifty-two—the same as last year.

The roster of the department shows the number in good standing December 31, 1890, to have been 1905; gain during the year by muster, 405; by transfer, 194; from suspended or dropped, 51; reinstatements, 36; total, 686; aggregate, 2591.

The losses during the year were:

by death, 29; honorable discharge, 18; transfer, 188; suspension, 250; dishonorable discharge, 2; total, 484.

The number remaining in good standing is 2107. During the year 315 were suspended and 44 dropped.

SOME STATISTICS.

During the past term the assistant adjutant-general issued 11 general orders, 4 circulars, 18 special orders, and wrote 800 letters.

The report of the assistant quartermaster general shows that during the year he received from all sources the sum of $2066.01 and disbursed $1146.37.

The report says: "It has been a source of considerable pleasure to me that I have not been called upon to act as reviewing in the matter of any court martial, which speaks well for the harmony of the department."

"The death rate in this department is small, when we consider that only twenty-six deaths occurred during the year, out of a membership of 2107, but this cannot last long, as old age and disability are fast overtaking the once sturdy boys of '61 and '65 and our death rate must grow larger with astonishing rapidity in the future."

"The Woman's Relief corps has been ably managed this year by the president, Mrs. D. C. Lounsbury. * * * I have found the corps of great benefit to the posts and it seems as though the time is fast approaching when the large amount of the work of our order must be assumed by these loyal women. They have made a noble showing this year, when you consider the size of the department, in the way of relief."

Relief and help during the year was rendered to the extent of $744.03. Forty-five families were assisted with food and seventy old soldiers were relieved. During the year $506.80 was turned over to the post fund.

The camps of Sons of Veterans are taking hold with new life and promise to grow stronger.

THE W. R. C. SESSIONS.

opened at the state house with Mrs. Lounsbury, department president in the chair; Miss Ada Rutterfield, secretary. President Lounsbury had presented at Reed's opera house the post department with a department flag in the name of all the corps of Oregon, at the senate chamber she read her annual report showing the order to be in a prosperous condition.

FRIDAY.

Today the department elections were held. Gentlemen named for commander are Col. T. C. Smith, of Salem; J. Cooper, of McMinnville; and Col. Northup, of Portland.

FRIDAY FORENOON.

The encampment met at 8:30. Commander Summers in the chair. Reports of committees and department officers were next in order.

Inspection officer Z. T. Wright, on the staff of the national commander, paid a high compliment to the department officers, saying that in no state had he found the books in as perfect condition as those of Oregon.

NOMINATIONS.

Following were nominations for department commander: E. B. McElroy eloquently presented the name of T. C. Smith of Salem, which was seconded by Comrade Ladue; Miller of Lebanon nominated Major Northup; Wiley Knowles nominated J. C. Cooper of McMinnville. First ballot stood, Northup 67, Cooper 41 and Smith 33. The name of Smith was withdrawn. Second ballot resulted, Northup 75, Cooper 68. Northup was declared elected unanimously, Cooper moving the vote declaring the same. Mr. Crossan was chosen senior vice commander without opposition.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Dept. commander, H. H. Northup, Portland.

Alternates:

 J. P. Shaw, (at large), Frank Story and A. G. Hardesty.

THE NEW COMMANDER.

Department Commander, elect, H. H. Northup has a splendid army record, which was ably presented. He was one of the youngest men to enlist, one of the first to enlist, and was right at the front in the first battles fought. His army record is as follows: He enlisted April 22, 1861, First Iowa Infantry; re-enlisted in the 49th Massachusetts in 1862 and was honorably discharged in the fall of 1863, for wounds received in battle. He is a charter member of Lincoln and Garfield post, Portland, and has served two terms as Judge Advocate General of the Department of Oregon. Judge Thurston is lawyer by profession, fifty-three years of age and came to Oregon in May, 1871.

The encampment accepted an invitation to visit the state institutions east of the city, and six electric cars are to be placed at their disposal at 3 p. m.

The encampment then adjourned to 1:30 p. m.

The encampment adjourned at 3 p. m. to meet for joint installation at 8:30 p. m.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Meeting of the State Encampment at Salem—Election of Officers.

The encampment at Salem has been the largest and finest gathering of Oregon ladies ever assembled in the state.

THURSDAY EVENING.

At 8 p. m. the evening's proceedings opened with Mrs. Lounsbury, department president in the chair, Mrs. Butterfield, secretary. The entire delegation being present; the meeting was declared ready for business, presidents and past presidents, delegates and alternates having responded to roll call, the department treasurer Eliza Calkins read annual report, the same showing a prosperous year's account, which was a source of gratification to the corps representatives present.

The department chaplain, Mrs. Hattie Shale's report was next in order.

Following, the department inspector, Mrs. Julia Abraham, read the year's report, which was well received, it giving an accurate account of the condition of all the corps of the department.

The paper of Miss G. Calkins' on the work done at the national convention held in Detroit, Mich., was handed in and read.

Mrs. Clara A. Fullerton, department counsel, read a lengthy paper on her year's work, which was concise and exhaustive.

A motion placed before the house was seconded and unanimously carried that Mrs. T. J. O'Connor, of Portland, be elected as convention correspondent, after which a motion to adjourn till 9 a. m. Friday morning was carried.

FRIDAY FORENOON.

was spent in closed sessions. Behind the blue curtains and across the vestibule leading to the ladies convention, the reporter found several sisters anxiously awaiting their installations as members.

At 9:30 a. m. the department president, Mrs. Fannie E. Lounsbury, being in the chair, Mrs. Ada Butterfield, secretary, the second day's session of the Woman's Relief Corps was declared opened to any business that may come before it.

The following is the present list of department officers: Department president, Fannie E. Lounsbury, Portland; department senior vice-president, Irene C. Parker, Astoria; department junior vice-president, Mary S. Meyers, The Dalles; department secretary, Ada Butterfield, Portland; department treasurer, Eliza A. Calkins, Portland; department chaplain, Hattie J. Shale, Portland; department inspector, Julia Abraham, Roseburg; instructing installing officer, Fannie Johnson, department councillor, Mary H. Ellis, Forest Grove.

The various committees in deliberation then proceeded to bring in their reports, which were received and acted upon.

The department secretary's annual report was read by Mrs. Ada Butterfield, which was a very thorough resume of the year's labors in her department.

An exemplification of the ritual was given by Sedgwick corps and testified to the efficiency of the corps in all their work.

A vote of thanks was given to Sedgwick corps for a beautiful floral tribute presented to the ladies in convention, and it was further decided to present the same to State Secretary McBride in appreciation of his courtesy in decorating the senate chamber in a handsome manner for the use of the ladies.

After a prolonged and harmonious meeting the convention adjourned to meet at 1 p. m.

Mrs. J. M. Train, of Albany, was chosen president of the state department, W. R. C.

Hi-Ki.—At Jones & Bernardi's. Fresh eggs—Davison & White. Garden seeds and onion sets the best, at Clark & Eppler's.

THE "PALACE" STORE.

A New Dry Goods and Shoe Store About to Open in Salem.

About a month ago the "Palace Dry Goods and Shoe Company" was incorporated in Salem, and as it quite well known the same will be conducted at the former stand of Geo. F. Smith, 307 Commercial street. H. S. Belle, who is well known to old and new residents of Salem, is the president and manager, while R. H. Lenos is secretary. The latter has been with Wm. Brown & Co. for the past five years, and both are experienced business men, favorably known to the trade of the capital city. The store is being remodeled and elegantly fitted up in modern style, to receive one of the finest stocks of dry goods, ladies, misses and children's shoes ever brought to Salem. Goods already arriving, with more on the way from the leading wholesale houses, and the new concern expects to be open ready for trade by March first. Considering their untarnished character and long acquaintance with the trade in Salem, it is safe to prophesy that these young men will build up a fine business in our midst.

K. P. ANNIVERSARY.

On Friday evening, Feb. 19th, Central lodge K. P. No. 18, will celebrate the 28th anniversary of their order at Castle Hall, over the Insurance building. Invitations are out and all members of the order are requested to be present, and those wishing to invite friends can secure tickets by calling on Messrs. Gabrielson or Strang. An appropriate program, including good music, will be followed with a neat supper, when the hall will be cleared for a short season of dancing. The K. P. boys always do things up in ship shape, and without a doubt this will prove one of the pleasantest social events of the season.

ANOTHER LECTURE.

Mrs. Julia Field King, of the Christian Science Monthly, Boston, delivered a lecture last evening to a good audience of Salem's interested people, and will give another talk this evening at Unitarian Hall, opposite opera house, beginning at 7 o'clock sharp. All are invited. Admission free.

TO HER FATHER.

Mrs. Bacey was examined for her sanity Thursday, and upon advice of her physician she has gone to live with her father, Mr. Phillips in Polk county, taking her youngest child with her. She has of late wandered about the city.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

Clerk Simpson has about concluded his enumeration of the district, and very much desires if any have been overlooked by his census takers, that they be reported to him at once so that it may be complete as possible. All persons between age of four and twenty years should be on the list.

Does Protection Protect? Certainly, in one instance, it does. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great protection against the dangers of impure blood, and it will cure or prevent all diseases of this class. It has well won its name of the best blood purifier by its many remarkable cures.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Women.

The common afflictions of women are sick-head-aches, indigestion and nervous troubles. They arise largely from stomach disorders. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation, you can see why it is more effective than any other Sarsaparilla in those troubles. It is fully relieving headaches, and acts as a direct and effective. We have scores of letters from grateful women.
