

city, and that the steamship company would give them free passage to Africa. His proposition was accepted. Many of them sold their houses for almost nothing to raise the amount. The money was given to Hill. The pastor started out to find accommodations for his people when they arrived, and got lost for a time. He left his family in the Ferry house, but could not tell where it was. He went to police headquarters and asked the police if they could not find them. Rev. Hill tells a sad story of his people's experience. He says some time ago he received a circular from a man named Copping, of Washington, manager of the American Colonization society. The circular stated that the negroes could go to Africa free of charge after taking the oath of allegiance to the African government administered here at the custom house; this they found was untrue. The pastor and his people are left here without means, and all of them bereft of home and farms.

THE CHINESE EXCLUSION.

Senator Dolph Stole a March in Passing his Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Representative Robert Hill, of Illinois, is an authority on diplomatic service in the house by reason of his connections with the diplomatic service at home and abroad, and also his long service in the committee on foreign affairs. In connection with the controversy now going on between certain members of the house as to who shall have the credit of forcing the passage of the Chinese exclusion act, Mr. Hill says the various acts proposed are in direct violation of the treaty with the Chinese government. He is opposing as the Chinamen's friend, but he is disposed to believe that there is more political sentiment than anything else mixed up in the Chinese question. There are men in congress today, from the Pacific coast, who have small armies of Chinese servants at home, and in private conversation they declare they could not get along without Chinese domestics.

"If the Chinese finally concluded to go," continued Hill, "and there was no other pretext to agitate the question, some of our political friends would be out of a job." The same condition of affairs would result, he said, if the tariff and silver questions were finally disposed of just now. Mr. Stump, of Maryland, and Mr. Henry, of California, are involved in an amusing, but none the less bitter, personal controversy over the authorship of a Chinese bill in the house. While they were disputing as to who would receive the credit for the bill introduced, Senator Dolph, of Oregon, introduced and passed a Chinese exclusion bill in the senate, thus stealing the thunder of both of them.

La Grippe.

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered in the manner prescribed for pneumonia. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by G. Wonderful Results

Results follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itching and pain of the skin, rheumatism, disordered vision, deafness, and other ailments of the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every faculty of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility

For four years my wife suffered with large tumor lumps on the glands under the arm, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case at all until she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate relief was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this she has done, and she has gained in weight.

From 84 to 111 Pounds and in stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The lumps under her arm have disappeared, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be so much for the money. J. J. NICHOLS, 222 Commercial street, Boston, Mass.

THE CIRCUIT JUDGE.

Wm. P. Gilbert of Portland Gets the Plum.

GILBERT GETS THERE.

The Judge Selected for This District.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The president today sent to the senate the following nominations: Wm. B. Gilbert of Oregon as United States circuit judge for the 9th judicial circuit and Henry H. Smith, of Michigan, as assistant register of the treasury.

WHO HE IS.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 23.—The appointment of W. B. Gilbert of this city as circuit judge of the ninth judicial district, while altogether satisfactory, was nevertheless somewhat of a surprise. Gilbert was born in 1848, in Fairfax county, Va. At the age of twenty-three he entered the state university of Michigan, and graduated from the law department in 1872. He came to Oregon immediately after graduating, locating in this city, where he has since practiced his profession. He is senior member of the firm of Gilbert & Snow.

INDUSTRIAL PARTY.

Yesterday's Afternoon Session—Some Speeches.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—At 2:25 yesterday Terrill again called the convention to order without the formality of an address, and caused a smile by announcing that the "congregation" would rise while proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. M. Basler, of Millgrove, Ill. Considerable merriment was elicited when Terrill went right on, as a matter of course, acting as chairman as though there was no such thing as temporary or permanent organization. Terrill proceeded to read a typewritten document urging the convention to confine its demands to land, transportation and money, leaving moral reforms till they had more time.

President Polk, of the National Alliance, was introduced. Polk said the farmers had assembled here to perform a solemn and responsible duty. On Wall street and the boards of trade money was 1 1/2 per cent; in small towns in the West money was from 10 to 20 per cent. This had to be righted. The farmers paid over 20 per cent of the taxes, and if money can be borrowed in New York on cotton and wheat at 1 1/2 per cent, why cannot the same thing be done in the West? In closing, Polk said: "We want relief, we demand relief, and I repeat now, we must have relief, if we have to wipe the old parties from the face of the earth."

Powderly was then introduced and warmly greeted. Mr. Terrill found himself suddenly supplanted in control by Connor, and promised the convention that if they formed a third party he would be found working in it heart and soul. After the appointment of a committee on credentials, an adjournment was taken.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23.—When the industrial conference opened this morning Chairman Connor stated if anybody was not present for harmonious action they might get out of the way or be stepped upon. He then announced that the committee on credentials was in session all night and was now ready to present a partial report.

The report recommended the seating of 247 delegates from the Farmers' Alliance, 53 F. M. B. A., 82 Knights of Labor, 97 National Farmers' Alliance, 20 National Citizens' Alliance, 97 Colored F. M. B. A., 27 National Citizens' Independent Alliance, 65 Patrons of Industry, 25 Patrons of Husbandry. Total 677. Ignatius Donnelly moved an amendment that Miss Francis Willard, Lady Somerset, Clara Hoffman and F. A. Ingalls be seated as delegates representing the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Both the amendment and report was adopted. President Polk, of the Farmers' Alliance, was elected permanent chairman of the convention. Miss Francis Willard and Ben Terrill, of Texas, were elected vice-presidents. John W. Hayes, of the Knights of Labor, was made secretary and Warwick, resident delegate from Virginia, assistant secretary.

CAPTAIN PACKARD DEAD.

One of the Earliest Settlers on the Pacific Coast.

EGGERS, Feb. 23.—Captain Packard died here yesterday. He was born in Camden, Knox county, Maine, July 4, 1818, and there resided until the age of 15 years, when he commenced a seafaring life, continuing at that occupation for 16 years, attaining the position of a commander. Abandoning nautical life in 1849, he paid his relatives a visit and then came via the Isthmus of Panama to San Francisco, arriving there in September. He followed mining in different parts of California until 1861, when he proceeded to Idaho, remaining there three years. In 1864 he came to Oregon, making his home for the first year in Gardiner, Coos county. In 1865 he came to Eugene, where he remained until his death. In February, 1867, he married Mrs. Mary Skinner, widow of the founder of Eugene. Her death occurred June 4, 1881.

FIRE AT SPOKANE.

Occupants Escape by the Windows—No Lives Were Lost.

SPOKANE, Feb. 23.—A fire started in the basement of the Crescent block at 3:30 this a. m., and before it was extinguished, the building was completely gutted. The building, which is a three-story brick, was filled with lodgers and roomers. In a short time all avenues of escape were cut off, save the windows, and the people of the building appeared there, and frantically appealed for help. Ladders were at once run up by the fire department, and the half-clothed men and women assisted to the street. Wild rumors were quickly spread of men and women unable to escape, but at this writing it appears that all occupants were rescued in safety. The losses are heavy—about $51,000. The building was the only brick structure left standing, by the great fire of August 1889.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED.

And the Father and Another Child Likely to Die.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—Two children of Michael Lynch were burned to death in a fire at McKeesport last night almost within the reach of their father who in his efforts to rescue the little ones almost perished, amid smoke and flames, himself and it is not altogether certain now that he will live. The third child is also probably fatally burned.

RUN DOWN BY A TRAIN.

Returning from a Dance Two Are Killed.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—The west bound St. Louis express, on the Pennsylvania road, ran down a party at Hawkins Station near here early this morning, killing Alice Gaskill and Wm. Dewar, and fatally injuring Melton Zigler. They were returning from a dance at Babcock, and, having missed the last train, were walking home when run down by the train.

Fire at Portland.

PORTLAND, Feb. 23.—A fire today completely gutted the two story frame building occupied by Coliseum theatre. Total loss will reach about thirty thousand dollars, fully insured. Fire started from a defective flue.

Bark Wrecked.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—A dispatch from Gibraltar states the Italian bark Dunia Schiaffino was wrecked at Cape Spartel, and seven of her crew were drowned.

Trans-Mississippi Congress.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 23.—Delegates are arriving by all trains from the west, to attend the trans-Mississippi congress, which meets in this city tomorrow.

Press Comments on Hill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The Tribune says of the convention at Albany: "Unless all signs fail, the anti-Hill movement is rapidly gaining strength, and has already become serious. If they force the fighting they can speedily destroy Hill, as a presidential possibility."

New York, Feb. 23.—The Herald says this morning, commenting on the Albany Democratic convention:

"Yesterday's convention has emphasized the fact that New York state is very badly split. Hill has the machine without doubt, but a very large number of Democrats are yet to be convinced he has the people. A man like Watterson, for instance, with Hill for second place, would be certain to carry New York and the country."

NEW YORK, FEB. 23.—The Times says the "Democratic convention at Chicago, will not nominate Hill. It may go west for its candidate, or south or to the Pacific coast. If it comes east or to New York, it will come for a man better known and more respected than Hill."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 23.—Henry Watterson, in an editorial on Hill, says: "Now that Hill has been made the choice of the New York Democrats, Cleveland is no longer a possibility, after declaring he could not vote for the nomination of Hill. Watterson offered as a substitute, John Griffin Carle, of Kentucky, as next in succession to Grover Cleveland, to wear his mantle."

Fire at McMinnville.

McMINNVILLE, Feb. 23.—A house belonging to A. J. Baker was burned out 8 o'clock Sunday evening. The house was occupied by J. McClure, and all the contents were destroyed. The McClure family were away from home at the time, and it is supposed the fire originated from a defective flue. No insurance.

A TERRIBLE VENGEANCE.

Female Swindler—A Lucky Find—England's Criminals, Etc.

A FEMALE SWINDLER.

Showed a Dentist Pure Diamonds and Sold Him Paste.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Dr. James B. McChesney, a well-known dentist, is the victim of a very smooth confidence woman, who succeeded in working him recently for several hundred dollars by a novel and clever scheme. A short time ago a well-dressed man called on Dr. McChesney and told him that a brother of Mrs. Graham wanted to start in business, but had no money. Mrs. Graham, the stranger said, was willing to put up her diamonds to get the money for her brother. Dr. McChesney made an appointment with the stranger to meet Mrs. Graham the next day. When Mrs. Graham came she had diamonds in her ears, the jeweler, and have them tested. At the jeweler's an expert made a careful examination, and said they were worth $900. He returned the stones to Mrs. Graham, who suggested to the doctor that, to be sure that there was no collusion, he had better take the clerk aside and speak to him. While Giles was assuring him that they were all right, it is supposed Mrs. Graham slipped a pair of paste earrings in similar settings into her ears, and put the real gems in her pocket. Dr. McChesney professed himself satisfied and paid over the money. Mrs. Graham declared she would redeem the precious jewelry in thirty days, and shed tears, as real as the stones, who she turned them over. When the time for redemption came, and Mrs. Graham did not come, the doctor's suspicions were aroused. He went back to Giles and produced his diamonds. As soon as the expert's eyes rested on them he exclaimed, "Those are not the stones you showed me last month." The doctor could not believe it, but when the clerk put them in acid he wailed. The detectives, who have the case in hand, say Mrs. Graham's real name is Lena Griffiths, who has worked her scheme all over the West.

ENGLAND'S CRIMINALS

Shipped to the United States on a Ticket of Leave.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Austin Byron Bidwell, one of a gang of Bank of England forgers, was released from Chatham prison in England a week ago, and sailed the same day on the Euroria, one of the Cunard line steamers for this city. The Euroria arrived here Sunday. Bidwell is accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Mott, who has been in England many months working for her brother's release. Austin Bidwell is the second forger to be released from British custody, the first being his brother, George Bidwell, who was given a ticket-of-leave July 18, 1887, and who arrived in this country in the following August. The crime for which the two Biddells and their confederates, George McDonald and Edward Noyes, were convicted started the financial world. It was perpetrated in the latter part of 1872 and led to the issue of £1,000,000. George Bidwell was arrested in Scotland; Austin Bidwell, who had fled to Cuba with his newly-married wife, was taken to Havana; Noyes was arrested in London, and McDonald, who had fled from England the moment the crime was exposed, was arrested on board the steamer at quarantine by a deputy United States marshal and two of Inspector Byrnes' detectives. They were convicted on August 18, 1873, and were sentenced to life imprisonment by Justice Archibald the instant that the jury came in with a verdict of guilty.

TERRIBLE VENGEANCE

Of an Old Mexican Woman on Her Enemies.

LAREDO, Tex., Feb. 23.—Julio Vargas, a ranchman who lives about forty miles across the Mexican border, was in town last week and told a terrible story of revenge, which had been taken by an old woman in his neighborhood. There had been a feud between two families in his vicinity, and this feud drew in several other families, until there was a regular neighborhood war. The Pinzones and Morelos were bitter enemies, and in a running battle five of the male members of the Pinzona family were killed and left on the field. This was several years ago, and with the killing there was left no male member of the Pinzona family. This caused the feud to gradually die out and this tale referred to was a by-product of the feud. There was one person, however, who had not forgotten, but who had sworn a solemn oath as binding as the vendetta oath of the Sicilians. This was old Marguerite Pinzona, the mother of the family. She became a recluse and was looked upon as a sort of witch by the people, and lived unmolested. She spent much time among her herbs and became famed for her cures. She also became noted as a cook, and whenever any of the wealthy families gave a dinner it was customarily to call upon old Marguerite to assist in preparing the dainties. About a month ago Marguerite was sent for to superintend the cooking of a dinner for a family, and the guests of honor on the occasion were four male members of the Morelos family. The old woman insisted on waiting on the table as well as cooking the food, and she gave to each of the Morelos family a specially prepared dish. The result was that the four are now raving maniacs, having eaten a decoction of the deadly locoweed, the effects of which are to poison the mind to such an extent that the partaker thereof goes raving mad.

THE PACIFIC LAND & ORCHARD COMPANY.

How to Prove it.

A rash assertion cannot be made strong by simple repetition. If we say a thing is prompt in its action and its effects are permanent, there should be evidence to support the assertion and that evidence should be without a flaw, like the following: January 17th, 1883, Messrs. Geo. C. Osgood & Co., Druggists, Lowell, Mass., wrote: "Mr. Lewis Dennis, 136 Moody St., desires specially to say: 'Orrin Robinson of Graniteville, Mass., a boy of twelve years, came to my house in the Summer of 1881 walking upon crutches, his left leg having been bent at the knee for over two months. I had some St. Jacobs Oil in the house which I gave him to rub on his knee. In six days he had no use for his crutches, and went home well without them, and has been well since. St. Jacobs Oil cured him.' After an interval of about four years, Messrs. Osgood & Co., on June 18th, 1887, were asked about the condition of this case and they replied: Lowell, Mass., July 9th, 1887. 'Gentlemen: Mr. Lewis Dennis has just called and informs me that the boy, Orrin Robinson, who was a poor cripple on crutches and was cured by St. Jacobs Oil in 1881, has remained permanently cured. The young man has been and is now at work every day at hard manual labor; a case certainly which proves the efficiency of St. Jacobs Oil. Mr. Dennis tells me also that he had rheumatism; that he tried many remedies that were of no use, and that St. Jacobs Oil cured the rheumatism permanently, as it had not troubled him for years.' Geo. C. Osgood, M. D. Bethany, Mo., August 4th, 1888: Suffered for years, with neuralgia, but was finally cured by St. Jacobs Oil. T. B. Sherer, In the spring of '78 I was taken with lumbago, was bed-ridden and given up by physicians, suffered one year, was cured by St. Jacobs Oil; cure has remained permanent. Mrs. I. Powelson, Gann, Ohio. I was given up by doctors three years ago and had to use a crutch for sciatic rheumatism; suffered about seven years; first application of St. Jacobs Oil relieved; two bottles cured. Geo. A. Rose, Chicago, Ill., Constantine, Mich., February 16th, 1887: 'Was troubled 30 years with pains in the back from strain; in bad for weeks at a time; no relief from other remedies. About 8 years ago I bought St. Jacobs Oil and made about 14 applications, have been strong and well ever since. Have done all kinds of work and can lift as much as ever. No return of pain in years.'
