A FINE POINT.—A very nice religious distinction has just been made in England. The Jewish law orders that on the Sabbath day no fire may be kindled. Touching fire, lighting or extinguishing gas lamps, oil lamps or candles is forbidden. With the introduction of electric lighting, the question arose as to whether the illuminating current could be turned out without violating this provision of the ancient law. An eminent electrician testifies as an expert said that "electric light did not result from combustion in the lamp; that fire and flames are not a part of it." No other electrical expert was called, so there was no conflict of testimony, and the decision was in favor of turning on the light on the Sabbath, to the great relief of the few who still obeyed the ancient law of Moses.

COMING ATTRACTION.—The Beebe-Barbour dramatic company commence a three nights' engagement at Reed's opera house Thursday, March 24, opening in Mr. Barbour's great three-act comedy brilliant entitled "A Legal Document." It will be presented as played by him over 600 nights in the principal cities. The company numbers eighteen people, traveling in their own Pullman palace car. They play at popular prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats now on sale at Patton's book store.

FARMERS' ALLIANCE.—There was a large attendance of delegates at the Marion county Farmers' Alliance Saturday. Secret business was transacted in the forenoon, but open sessions prevailed in the afternoon of which a number took advantage who were not members. A speaker from Nebraska was present and entertained them with an able speech. He warned the Alliance against "cappers" for other parties. The question "what to do" was discussed by several speakers and there was a general determination to "do something."

A BIG GRIEF.—Five local and imported inebriates, all out of cash, were before Recorder Goodell Monday morning. They have all gone to work for the city.

THE CAPITOL DOME.

Bids Opened on the State House Spire.

A STRUCTURE 200 FEET HIGH.

The Same Architect in Charge Who Put Up the Building.

The bids have been opened for erecting the dome on the state house.

THE GENERAL PLAN
of the dome is in keeping with the design of the building, and will give the capitol a handsome appearance when finished. It will be constructed of steel, glass and copper. It will have a diameter of sixty feet at the base, and will rise to a distance of 100 feet above the roof, making the building, when completed over 200 feet high.

Besides resting on the present wall, it will be supported by eight iron columns, starting from the foundation of the building. An iron spiral stairway will lead from the floor of the capitol to the observatory at the top of the cupola.

The inner dome will be finished in an ornamental way to correspond with the present decorations inside the building. It will be lighted by a circular skylight, twenty-five feet in diameter, of a glazed art glass of a handsome design.

A STRONG FOUNDATION.
The eight steel columns will rest on a wrought-iron bed plate, and will be capable of sustaining an extra weight of forty pounds per square foot. They will be encased within a neat casing of Oregon cedar. On top of the columns will be placed a circular steel girder which will be proportioned to carry the entire weight of the dome and circular brick wall. This wall will be of the best common brick, and plastered with cement half an inch thick on the outside.

All framework above the first floor will be constructed entirely of steel except the beams.

WORK WILL BEGIN IN JUNE.
Should the bids prove satisfactory to the commissioners, the contract for the construction will probably be let at once. The work of casting the various columns, girders and other steel and iron material to be used in the structure will take sometime, but active work is expected to begin about the 1st of June.

Fifty thousand dollars was appropriated by the last legislature for this purpose. It is to be finished in time to adorn the massive pile at the next convening of the state legislators.

BIDS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION.
The board of capitol building commissioners, composed of Governor Penoyer, Secretary of State McBride and Treasurer Metcaban, have invited sealed proposals for the dome by advertisement and the board met at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the governor's office to open the bids.

The bid was awarded to the Portland Bridge & Building Co. Robert Wakefield representing them.

THURSDAY THE DAY.

The Ladies and Everybody Interested to Know It.

The opening day for the Palace dry goods and shoe store has been set for Thursday of this week. Don't fail to be there on the opening day, at 307 Commercial street.

ELECTION NOTICE.—County Clerk Sherman is sending out notice that on the 6th day of June, 1892, at the polling places in the several precincts of this county an election will be held for state, district, county, and justice of the peace, constable and district officers, as follows: One member of congress; one justice of the supreme court; one attorney-general; one judge of the circuit court; one district attorney; one member of the state board of equalization; five representatives; one county judge; one commissioner of the county court; one sheriff; one county clerk; one county recorder; one county treasurer; one county superintendent of common schools; one county assessor; one county surveyor; one corner; one justice of the peace, and one constable. This election will be held at 8 o'clock in the morning, and will continue until 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

OPEN AIR MUSIC.—The city council should not forget Tuesday evening to place in the hands of a proper committee the putting in order of Wilson avenue and its band stand so that the Second Regiment band can give its delightful series of open air concerts this summer. There is nothing the working people enjoy more and there should be a liberal appropriation per month to this end. If the council does not see fit to spend anything on this, then a liberal monthly subscription should be taken up to secure the concerts. It is an innocent diversion enjoyed by old and young and even the babes, beneficial to public health and public morals. Let us have the open air concerts.

GOD VOCAL MUSIC.—There is great culture in vocal music, and no entertainment will benefit your family so much as an evening's program of singing of a high order. The Methodist people seem to realize this from the high style of program they have arranged for Tuesday evening, March 1st, at the church. Everyone should hear the parlor concert, in the hands of C. C. Fallenius, also, Mrs. Wetzel, the soloist, both of Portland. Secure seats at F. S. Dearborn's; 50 cents.

BIG DEBATE.—The Alka-Hesperian society proposes to debate the political situation two weeks from Saturday night, on the proposition that the Republican administration shall be continued another four years. Three of the ablest speakers that can be secured will be arranged on each side, Republican and Democratic, and the contest will be a red-hot one, at Insurance hall.

NEW REAL ESTATE FIRM.—As will be seen by the JOURNAL advertising columns, the new firm of Spaulding & Rogers is now ready for business. Their chief business will be in the sale of Nob Hill property in South Salem, while they will also handle farm and city property, besides doing a regular insurance business.

FINANCIAL.—Indications are that money will be easier. Sheriff Croxan turned over $10,000 today to the state treasurer. This makes $19,000 in all that this county has paid of its state taxes. The payment of state taxes will make the money market easier, as Salem banks are carrying hundreds of thousands of dollars of state warrants.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting at the W. C. T. U. reading room, on Court street, Tuesday, at 2 p. m., for all lady taxpayers and ladies interested in school elections, please come.

The business men generally are opposed to levying the $15 license on the teamsters on the street railroad work. Many of the teamsters are in debt at the stores for family supplies and some have been loaned the money for the license by these same business men.

The Salem Lyceum league which meets Tuesday evening at Votidia hall, has thirty members and has elected officers as follows: President J. M. McCormick; vice-president, L. W. McCaffee; recording secretary, Theodore Muehlaupt; corresponding secretary, John McCourt; treasurer, Albert Thomas.

The only way an alleged newspaper in this county, that tries to echo the sentiments of the people, has of demonstrating its fealty to the masses, is by joining its voice on every possible occasion with the shallow and hollow echoes of the Oregonian. It chimes in with those echoes well and faithfully.

As a toilet luxury, Ayer's Hair Vigor cannot be equaled. It is highly perfumed, and keeps the scalp clean and cool.

From a letter written by Mrs. A. E. Hurd, of Grotton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up, determined if I could not stay on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles, it has cured, and thank God I am now a will and hearty woman."

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress attending, sour stomach, sick headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the headache, and restores the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.
