

expenditure of about $12,000 in advertising in excess of the requirements of law is a fact. It says that in the beginning of his trial, Mayor Chapman may have looked better than he knew, and predicts that it will lead to disclosures on the trial which will be disastrous to the political ring.

MRS. NEVIN'S TALKS.

Tells of the Scene at Blaine's Home and Scores Blaine Jr.

NEW YORK, March 1.—An evening paper says that Mrs. Nevin, mother of Marie Nevin Blaine, in an interview yesterday, said the story told by Secretary of State Blaine of his interview with Mrs. Blaine is largely erroneous. Mrs. Nevin says she accompanied her daughter to the house, the nurse and child being with them. When Mrs. Blaine came in they asked to see her husband, but she replied she could not see him. Mrs. Blaine insisted upon the nurse leaving the room, and then matters were talked over for some time. When Marie spoke of going away again, said Mrs. Nevin, Mrs. Blaine said, "Well, you can leave your baby here if you want to." If Marie had been some poor outcast, whom Jim Blaine had seduced, added Mrs. Nevin, Mrs. Blaine could not have spoken in a more brutal manner. A moment or two later Mrs. Blaine turned to Marie and said, in an extremely significant way, "Well, your marriage was all wrong, anyway." Then, said Mrs. Nevin, I protested; Mrs. Blaine flew into a fury, rang the bell, and a servant appeared with surprising speed. "Show these persons out," exclaimed Mrs. Blaine, and then she added, "and watch them." At the door of the carriage, the nurse, who was crying out of sympathy for Marie, said, "Mrs. Blaine, you are a goose to go away like that. You are his wife; go right up to his room. No one has a right to stop you." Marie went back into the house, while Mrs. Nevin stayed in the carriage. Then it was that the scene took place.

HOW HE GOT HIS JEWELRY. A Singular Case in Which a Chicago man was Lucky.

PORTLAND, March 1.—Last January while E. L. Huntley, a Chicago clothier, was en route from Kootenai to Bonner's ferry, the stage was robbed and he was relieved of diamonds and other jewelry valued at $12,000. Huntley inserted an advertisement in the Oregonian offering a reward of $2,000 for recovery of the jewels. The stage robbers, seeing the advertisement, wrote to Huntley's brother, who resides in Centralia, Wash., offering to return the stolen property if he would not prosecute them, and would insert the following advertisement in the Oregonian: "Wanted, $2000 exchange, address Huntley, care Oregonian."

Huntley inserted the advertisement as requested, and on Sunday last a man came to his room at the Portland hotel and delivered the stolen property to its owner, who left for San Francisco.

California at the World's Fair. SACRAMENTO, March 1.—Thomas L. Thompson, commissioner for California of the Chicago world's fair, has granted the Northern California Citrus Fair Association two and one-half acres or one-half of the entire space allotted by the world's fair to California for a horticultural exhibit. Southern California recovers the other half. Living and bearing trees will be transported to Chicago and transplanted there.

Chinese Rebels Are Waiting. SHANGHAI, March 1.—Well informed Chinese say the accounts of successes of the government in the north are grossly magnified; that the winter weather has prevented the carrying on of operations, and that the rebels, who are 20,000 strong, are still secure in the mountains, ready to renew the rebellion when the weather becomes mild.

Dynamite Explosion in Paris. PARIS, March 1.—Tremendous excitement was occasioned here yesterday by an explosion at the residence of the Princess of Sagan. It is thought it was dynamite placed in the doorway by anarchistic sympathizers. The windows of the princess' house and those adjoining were shattered, but otherwise no damage was done.

GOING FOR THE TRUSTS.

Ohio's Supreme Court Decides Against Them.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

A Decision Today of Importance Concerning Trusts.

COLUMBUS, O., March 1.—The supreme court of Ohio in the case of Attorney General Watson vs. the Standard Oil company handed down a decision today of importance concerning trusts. The case was instituted by a petition in quo-warranto to oust the company from its corporate rights and to forfeit its franchise. While the decision does not oust the company from its franchise it prohibits them from any way contriving to carry out or fulfill any provisions or agreements under trust contracts. The attorney general of New York has papers ready to file against the Standard in that state prepared in contemplation of this decision.

PEOPLE ARE STARVING.

The People of Hungary Are Reduced to Extremities.

BUDA-PESTH, March 1.—The inhabitants of Atya, Hungary, are suffering from typhus and other deadly diseases, in addition to the famine prevailing there. The people are reduced to such straits for food that they are compelled to eat the bark of trees and pine cones.

GUN FACTORY BILL.

Passes the Committee Unanimously. Site yet to be Fixed.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The senate committee on coast defense had under consideration this morning a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the establishment of a gun factory on the Pacific coast and decided by a unanimous vote to report it favorable to the senate. Location of the site of the factory is left to a board to be appointed by the president consisting of three officers of the army and three of the navy. Senator Felton desired the bill to be so amended as to locate the site definitely at Buena Vista, California, but his motion to this effect was voted down.

FREE SILVER BILL.

Senator Aldrich of the Opinion It Will Pass and Be Voted.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 1.—In an interview today Senator Aldrich expressed the opinion the free silver bill will pass both the house and the senate at the present session and be vetoed by the president. He bases his opinion on the report of the house committee on rules fixing a certain day for the consideration of the measure and on his belief that the combination of Democrats, Alliance men and free silver Republicans in the senate will give the bill a small majority in that branch.

Two Conventions.

TACOMA, March 1.—The Democratic central committee met here yesterday and decided to call two state conventions, the first at Vancouver May 25th, to elect delegates to the national convention, and the second at Olympia, to nominate state officers. The call for the first convention recommends county conventions to be held May 2nd.

A Bogus Commissioner.

ANACOSTIA, Wash., March 1.—Lately a well dressed stranger has represented himself here as a world's fair commissioner, and cultivated the acquaintance of several influential persons. After his disappearance on Saturday, a local bank discovered, at the cost of $300, that his pretense and letter of credit were bogus.

Tripoli Affairs.

LONDON, March 1.—A dispatch from Tripoli announces that there has been serious rioting there, growing out of the issuing of a firman by the sultan making natives liable to conscription. The Arabs had an encounter with the troops, several being killed and many wounded. The Europeans living in the vicinity have taken refuge in the city, and business is suspended.

Violent Storm.

READING, Pa., March 1.—A violent wind storm accompanied by rain, snow and hail passed over the city this morning lasting two hours. Damage was done all over the city and surrounding country. An unknown man perished in the storm near the city.

Church and State.

WINNIPEG, March 1.—The statement published here to the effect that a bargain had been made between the Roman Catholic church and the conservative movement at Ottawa by which the church pledges itself to give the conservatives the entire Catholic vote on condition that Abbots, the present dominion premier, retire in the near future and be succeeded by Sir John Thompson who is a Roman Catholic.

Storm at New York.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Not a sailing craft left this port this morning because of a terrible storm raging here and only the largest steamers dared to leave. The wind played havoc with a ship anchored off Staten Island and a number of crafts have been driven ashore.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The senate today resumed the consideration of the Idaho contested election case and Sanders took the floor in defense of Claggett's right to the seat.

National Bank Suspends.

LIMA, O., March 1.—The Lima National bank of this city closed this morning. The trouble was brought about by the speculation of President B. C. Faure. Capital stock is $100,000. It is believed the depositors will receive their money in full.

Thirteen Men Injured.

LIVERPOOL, March 1.—The scaffold upon which a number of men were working on one of the docks collapsed today and thirteen were injured. Eight men are in a critical condition.

Gold for Europe.

NEW YORK, March 1.—August Belmont & Co. have ordered $500,000 gold coin for shipment to Europe tomorrow. Over $4,000,000 have been ordered since February 19.

The House Today.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The house today passed a bill for the disposal and sale of lands known as the Klamath River Indian reservation in California.

From Greece.

ATHENS, March 1.—The Greek cabinet has resigned and the king has summoned Tricoups to form a ministry.

Fell and Broke His Neck.

PORTLAND, Or., March 1.—Andrew Sorenzen fell from the top of a stairway early this morning, breaking his neck. He leaves a wife and two children.

FIRE AT MADERA.

Senator Hill to be Married, Strikers Victorious.

POISONED.

How It Was Planned to Get an Ignorant German's Wealth.

UKIAH, Cal., March 1.—Edgar A. Martin was arrested by the sheriff yesterday for the murder of "Dutch Fred," at Fort Bragg, Feb. 17th. He had been in the city since he was drunk, and it was supposed that his death was caused by paralysis. Examination of the stomach since shows that he had been poisoned. Shortly before he died he sent for his brother to make his will, but expired before his brother arrived. A short time afterward Edgar A. Martin forwarded to a prominent attorney here a will signed by Holdt, in which Martin was made sole executor without bonds. The will was written by Martin in the presence of his wife. The signature is genuine, but as Holdt could not read, the supposition is that he did not know what he was signing. Martin exactly suits the description of the Napa Greenwood murderer.

Colored Prize Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—Chas. Turner, of Stockton, and Harris Martin, the Black Pearl, both colored, fought last night before the Occidental club for a purse of $1000. In the fourth round Turner led with his left, but Pearl ducked. Pearl rushed and Turner sent him back with a left in the mouth. Pearl came back at him and floored Turner in his own corner. Turner got up dazed, but fought back hard, and got in some good blows on Pearl's mug before the round closed.

Fifth—Turner swung his right for Pearl's jaw a couple of times, but missed. Pearl rushed and Turner knocked him down with a right on the jaw.

Sixth—Pearl made Turner's nose a little flatter with a poke on the nose. Pearl missed his right swing, and Turner floored him. He got up and both men slugged, Turner getting a little the best of it. The round closed with both men groggy.

Turner kept making left jabs at Pearl's mug, which commenced to swell.

Tenth—Turner still did all the leading. Pearl rushed and caught Turner on the jaw with a back swing. Turner stood up to him and gave him more than he received. Pearl went to his corner bleeding from his head.

Fifteenth—Turner hit Pearl on the jaw with his right, and the latter started to mix things up. He slugged right and left, and Pearl was badly hurt. He staggered Turner though with a right swing, but quit very weak.

Sixteenth—The men started right into business. Pearl kept away though, and availed himself.

Eighteenth—Turner put in several stiff lefts, which showed plainly on Pearl's swollen countenance.

Nineteenth—Turner swung his right and ducked, and Pearl missed a beautiful opportunity to uppercut him. He made up for it a second later by smashing Turner on the nose. Suddenly Turner swung his right with terrific force, and it landed on Pearl's jaw, and the fight was over. He dropped like a log to the floor, and lay motionless. As he was counted out he raised his head slightly and was then sent back. He was carried to his corner, and there was revived by his seconds.

Fire at Madera, Cal.

MADERA, Cal., March 1.—The postoffice, a harness shop and wholesale liquor house at this place, were totally destroyed by fire yesterday; all fully insured. The cause is unknown. Had a wind been blowing the main part of town would have been burned.

Senator Hill to be Married.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—There is a story current today that Senator Hill is soon to be married. Originally the name of the daughter of the late William L. Muller was coupled with his, but yesterday afternoon the senator declared to one who broached the subject to him that the report was absolutely false. Later the story took the form that he was engaged to a rich Albany widow, and that they would be married late in the coming summer. A gentleman who is thought to be in a position to know said that he had every reason to believe that inside of a year David would no longer be in the ranks of the bachelors. Nothing but an actual marriage will ever convince some folks of this.

Champion Skater.

CHRISTIANA, March 1.—The final races for the world's skating championship between Smart and Hagen resulted in a victory for the latter.

Strikers are Victorious.

NEW YORK, March 1.—A settlement of the clockmakers' strike was practically effected this morning. Manufacturer Jonsson agreed to the terms of the strikers and will take them back in a body.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT AND THE VIADUCT.

So far as one can judge from the expression of business men in these columns there is a remarkable unanimity in the matter of building a new bridge over Mill creek on South Commercial street. The business interests of this city demand several things very plainly. It is certain that if the street is not widened out, not only over the bridge but for several blocks beyond, and over the hill, that street is practically ruined for public travel. It will be dangerous in the extreme with cars running on it and might as well be closed to public travel, if it is not widened out. It is certain that for the true interests of the city and the Electric company as well, the latter should not be forced to cross on its own trestle. It will be a waste of money and a further impediment to travel that should never be forced upon the company. It is certain that any wood and pile bridge will cost the city nearly as much as its share of the proposed viaduct will come to. These points cannot be disputed successfully.

There is another point that should incline the council to undertake this permanent improvement. It is the only improvement of any magnitude that the city is likely to be called upon to make this year. If this work is not carried out, a blemish will be put on our main business street. There will be just about as much money frittered away on five hundred little jobs that people will call for that will cause just as much expense, and taxes will be just as high and there will be no permanent improvement to show for it. Salem business men generally favor the viaduct, and the improvement of the street to the south. They are solidly in favor of a general and liberal policy of permanent public improvements and a policy that at the same time will give employment to labor, which is very much needed. These public spirited citizens have only done their duty in promoting this important work at the present time, and they seem to think if the city misses this opportunity of building the viaduct, there will be a general regret among the taxpayers, who in the end will pay much more dearly for the same structure.

Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They not only do not cure but they leave you constipated. Carter's Little Liver Pills regulate the bowels and make you well. Dose, one pill.

Dyspepsia

Does many people miserable, and often leads to self-distrust. Distress attending sour stomach, sick headache, indigestion, loss of appetite, faint, "acid" gas, belching, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Carter's Little Liver Pills, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, aids digestion, regulates the bowels, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the Headache, Heart-burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, and all the other ailments which attend it. It gives me an appetite, and my food is properly digested. I had been troubled with dyspepsia for many years, and I had tried many remedies, but I had not been able to get well. I had been told that I should take a course of pills, and I had bought many different kinds, but I had not been able to get well.
