

of the bureau of animal industry, and $150,000 for experiments in the production of sugar, was taken up and passed without amendment. The house then went into committee on the whole on the invalid pension bill, and a discussion of a political nature followed. When the passage of the bill was in order, dispute arose over a minor amendment, and Bailey, of Texas, made a point of no quorum. He did this, he said, to call attention of the country to the fact that the members did not attend the sessions in sufficient number to transact business. The house then adjourned.

BECOMING SERIOUS.

A Cabinet Meeting to be Held Today to Consider the Matter.
WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Behring sea matter has assumed a most serious phase, and public officials make no attempt to disguise the grave concern at the outcome. It is contended by experts the opening of Behring sea for one season in the manner suggested would result in the speedy extermination of the seals, and there would then be nothing left to arbitrate upon. The news from British Columbia that the sealing fleet is making preparations for unusually extensive operations this season is confirmed at the state department. Inquiry has developed the fact that a number were so engaged last year, notwithstanding the Behring sea was closed last year and patrolled by naval vessels of Great Britain and the United States. The catch of the poachers within its waters aggregated nearly 70,000 seals, and it is this fact that inspires officials of this government to a belief that the opening of the sea to the extent proposed by Lord Salisbury, admitting so many more poachers, would inevitably result in the total destruction of the industry before next fall, possibly before the questions at issue could even be submitted to arbitration. It may be stated as a fact that this government is not at all disposed to allow this to be done without making a vigorous and determined effort to prevent it. Unless Salisbury recedes from his present position and consents to a renewal of last year's modus vivendi, restricting the catch of seals to such as we regard necessary for the natives, it will be necessary for this government to undertake alone the protection of the seals by the enforcement of the laws bearing on the subject. Probably a special meeting of the cabinet will be held Monday for the purpose of considering the subject and deciding upon action in case of Lord Salisbury's insistence on his last proposition.

THE AMERICAN FLAG.

The Bill to Prevent Its Desecration Reported to the House.
WASHINGTON, March 6.—Representative Bynum, of Indiana, from the committee on the judiciary, yesterday reported favorably to the house, with a few verbal changes, the bill of Mr. Enoch to prevent a desecration of the United States flag. The report says that the design of the bill and its only effect will be to prohibit any person from printing, or painting upon, or affixing to the flag of the United States, any advertisement for publicity. The display of the flag at all times and places will in no wise be prohibited by the enactment of the measure, and the committee is of the opinion that no person should be permitted to desecrate it by defacing it with advertisements for pecuniary purposes.

Robbed the Ticket Agent.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 6.—When the New York bound train reached Gifford last night a man ran from a car to the ticket office, pulled a revolver and said to the agent: "Out with every damned cent, or down you go." The agent obeyed, giving out $75. The man escaped, but has since been captured, and refuses to give his name.

THE SILVER BILL.

The Speaker and Members Have a Time Over the Rules.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—In the house today, before the reading of the journal, Catchings, of Mississippi, called up the resolution setting apart three days for the consideration of the silver bill, and the clerk proceeded to read and upon its adoption, Catchings demanded the previous question. Tracy, of New York, called attention to the fact that the journal had not been read. The speaker declared it was in order to call up the resolution, and the reading of the resolution concluded.

Disley: "Has the chair ruled that this report of the committee on rules can be considered before the journal has been read?"

Speaker: "The chair has that is the provision of the rule."

Disley: "Then the chair decides his business can be done before the reading of the journal?"

Speaker: "The chair so decides."

Tracy: "I appeal from the decision of the chair."

Tracy and his colleague, Fitch of New York, vigorously protested against the ruling of the speaker; and a very warm colloquy ensued between Tracy and the speaker as to the right of the former gentleman to the floor. A warm controversy arose after the conclusion of Bland's remarks. In these remarks he alluded to a conversation he had with Cochran, of New York, and Andrew, of Massachusetts, in which these gentlemen stated that if the consideration of the resolution was postponed until today there would be no filibustering on the part of the anti-silver men, and he charged these anti-silver men with bad faith. To this charge Cochran made a fiery denial; not one word about filibustering had been said in his conversation with Bland. Tracy then raised the question of consideration against the resolution, but the speaker decided that the question of consideration could not be raised. An appeal was then taken and the appeal was laid on the table; yeas 176, nays 81. By a vote of 194 yeas to 73 nays the decision of the chair was sustained. Tracy moved to recommit the resolution with instructions to the committee on rules to change the date of the consideration of the silver bill from March 22d to December 12th. Roll call on motion then proceeded. Motion to recommit was defeated; yeas 70, nays 202. The previous question was then ordered on the resolution without further objection. The resolution for the consideration of the silver bill on the 22d of March was adopted by a vote of 189 to 85.

Senate Today.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Among the bills introduced in the senate was one by Sawyer to authorize the establishment of a postal telegraph service. Morgan moved to reconsider the vote whereby DuBois was declared entitled to retain his seat. The motion was laid aside temporarily as was also a motion of Morgan to reconsider the vote by which Claggett's claim was rejected.

Representative Stricken Down.
WASHINGTON, March 7.—Representative John W. Kendall of Kentucky, was suddenly stricken down and now lies in a very critical condition at his residence. He soon relapsed into unconsciousness and has been in that condition ever since. His condition expresses grave doubts as to his recovery.

To Break the Deal.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 7.—Mr. Arnot, banker of Syracuse, and a stockholder in the Reading road, has filed a bill in equity today to have declared null and void various contracts, which go to make up what is known as the "Reading deal."

Blaine of Maine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 7.—Blaine is still confined to his bed with a grippe. He is said this afternoon to be better, and would probably be all right in a few days.

MOTOR LINK.—The Salem Motor Railway Co. have filed articles of incorporation, capital stock $100,000, to operate motor railways over streets and suburban roads of Salem. The incorporators are E. F. Parkhurst, F. A. Turner, F. N. Derby, Wm. England and H. W. Cottle.

The Currency Conference.

LONDON, March 7.—Hon. Charles Foster, secretary of the United States treasury and Right Hon. Goschen, chancellor of the exchequer, have had two interviews but nothing is settled concerning the holding of a currency conference. That matter depends entirely upon coming negotiations.

Cleveland and Harrison.

BALTIMORE, March 7.—A daily paper publishes the personal preferences of ninety-six editors of Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. Total for Cleveland in the three states, 36 against 25 for all other candidates. Republican preferences mainly for Harrison.

Two Employes Killed.

ROCKVILLE, Md., March 7.—An extra engine collided with the west bound train from Baltimore, near here, killing Brakeman Teaters and Fireman Buckala.

THE CROPS.

They Are Looking Very Favorable—Much Fall Wheat Sown.

EGGERS, Or., March 6.—The crop outlook in this county is better than it has been at this season for many years. A great deal of fall wheat was sown and is growing well, and the spring grain is well advanced. The farmers have taken a great deal of pains to put the land in good condition before sowing and the results are very apparent. A good deal of attention is being paid to gardening and small farming. Most of the best yards are in good condition and will be worked.

A Cutting Affray.

EGGERS, Or., March 7.—A cutting affray, in which three or four persons were more or less injured, took place Saturday evening on Fall creek, about twenty miles east of Eugene. Two brothers named Griffin have been living on a claim owned by Walker Young. They had been clearing up the place, and had engaged one of the McBees boys to do some slashing. McBee was to work by the month. After working three days McBee gave up the job and claimed pay for the same. This was refused by the Griffin boys, they holding that he should work the month out, or receive no pay whatever. This angered McBee and with two of his brothers he met the Griffin brothers Saturday evening. Some lively words passed between them, and they finally came to the use of knives, all five being engaged. Squire Kane was called and started for the sheriff and a doctor. His statement was that at least three were wounded, one probably fatally. Sheriff Nolan and Dr. Smiley started for the scene Sunday morning. It is the opinion of many, who profess to know, that the row was really the result of an old feud and the trouble about the wages was just enough to kindle the fire and start a free fight.

Central Willamette Valley.

ALBANY, Or., March 6.—The crop outlook in the central Willamette valley is excellent for a bountiful yield. The acreage of fall grain is nearly equal to that of 1891, when a phenomenal crop was produced. A mild winter, the almost total absence of freezing, and the recent fine weather, have made the crop outlook most favorable, and will result in a large acreage of spring grain. More wheat and less oats are being sown this year than formerly.

Death of James P. Faull.

BAKER CITY, March 7.—James P. Faull, one of Oregon's prominent citizens, died yesterday morning at his home in this city, after an illness of two days of peritonitis. The deceased figured in state politics for years and at the time of his death was a member of the state Republican central committee, and was a member of Oregon's second railroad commission.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St. Sharpshooters, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottles at Fry's Drugstore, 225 Commercial St. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

Mr. Chas. Smith, of James, Ohio, writes: "I have used every remedy for sick headache I could hear of for the past fifteen years, but Dr. King's Little Liver Pills did more good than all the rest. I have no equal as a prompt and positive cure for sick headache, biliousness, constipation, pain in the side, and all liver troubles. Dr. King's Little Liver Pills. Try them." Must not be confounded with common cathartic or purgative pills. Dr. King's Little Liver Pills are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

NOTHING TO LIVE FOR.

The Maher Attempts to Jump from a Moving Train.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 7.—The vestibule train Saturday night as it came into Charlotte was rife with excitement. Ten miles from this city Peter Maher, the Irish champion heavy-weight pugilist, attempted to commit suicide by trying to jump out of the window while the train was at full speed. Peter Maher and a party of ten men, who had been to New Orleans to witness the fight, were returning north. They had the state-room and several other seats engaged. When about ten miles from Charlotte, Maher raised the window next to which he was sitting and leaped out. As he had been suffering considerably from his recent pummeling, those who noticed the action thought he wanted fresh air, and gave little thought to it. Soon afterwards Maher sprang from his seat and made a rush for the open window. In an instant one of the men guessed his intention and made a bound to him, with the assistance of others, rescued him. A physician in the party administered an opiate, which produced sleep. Much excitement was created among the passengers.

When Maher reached Atlanta, his first act was to fill his pocket flasks with whiskey at the Markham house bar. This precaution was taken because there was no whiskey to be had between Atlanta and Danville, Va. His potatoes became more frequent until the passengers regarded him first with disgust, then with terror. He was braver drunk than sober. After the train had crossed the Tagalo river, it took up a speed of forty miles an hour. The prize-fighter, being bolstered because weeping over his defeat. Suddenly he made a spring for an open window, going through head first. His body was about half out when some of the passengers caught him by the legs and with great difficulty pulled him in. The train had run considerable miles before he was out of his dangerous position. Fitzsimmons was not on the train as was at first reported.

DYING OF HUNGER.

A Rancher Near Snohomish has a Narrow Escape.
SEATTLE, March 7.—George Beals, a rancher who lives twelve miles north of Snohomish, was brought to Providence hospital last night in an exhausted condition for want of food, caused by his being prostrated in his cabin by an attack of rheumatism which rendered him helpless. That he was found in time to save his life was mere chance. Beals lives alone in a cabin 250 feet from the track of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway. Wednesday night he was taken with rheumatism, and the following morning tried to get up, but failed in the attempt. He was too weak to reach food, and lay on his bed until Friday night, when some men walking on the track heard his cries and came to his assistance. He was so weak that his stomach would not bear food. The first he has eaten since Wednesday morning was at the hospital last night. The sudden attack is attributed to an old case of rheumatic fever.

OVERPOWERED THE JAILER.

A Desperate Burglar Makes His Escape.
EGGERS, Or., March 7.—Frank St. Clair, held on a charge of burglary, escaped from the county jail Saturday by overpowering the jailer. The jailer was locking the men up for the night, when St. Clair rushed out and barred the door, thus making his escape before the jailer could extricate himself.

Several Negroes Wounded.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 7.—Meager details of a three fight between negroes and white men in Metal City have been received here. The fight took place Saturday at Clark's crossing, five miles east of Edmonton, the county seat. A number of white men who haul lumber were on their way home, when they met a negro, and as they passed him, one of the party, who was probably drunk, struck the colored man with his whip. The negro threatened "to get even." The whites stopped at distillery near by, and the negro, returning a short time afterwards with others, a pitched battle ensued, during which four negroes were killed and several others wounded, two of whom will probably die. The sheriff and a posse have gone to the scene of the trouble.

Taken by Surprise.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 6.—Four deputy sheriffs went to the cross-roads about three miles from town last evening to arrest a negro who in a quarrel seriously shot a white man. While the deputies were in a grove near the place second to fill with negroes. Suddenly a shot was fired and Deputy Cole fell to the floor mortally wounded. Then the firing became general and Deputy Harris fell dead. The negroes then shot Yierger and Webber and escaped. No negroes were hurt. The deputies were taken completely by surprise.

THE PACIFIC LAND & ORCHARD COMPANY.

A Child Drowned.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 7.—Grover Schmidt, six years old, fell in the bay yesterday afternoon while crab fishing and was drowned. He was a son of H. E. Schmidt, proprietor of the European home on Commercial street. The unfortunate little fellow went fishing at 12 o'clock with 10-year-old Herman Wren. At certain stages of the tide crab fishing is good on the mud flats from Commercial street, near the foot of Brunswick, and it was there the boy went. In landing a crab which had crawled in his net, young Schmidt became unbalanced and fell from the street into the water. The rapidly ebbing tide carried him out into the bay and his body has not yet been recovered.

A Series of Accidents.

DUBUQUE, Ia., March 6.—George Bannworth, wife and child were poisoned Saturday by eating food in which Mrs. Bannworth accidentally put arsenic instead of baking powder. She died in terrible agony yesterday. Mr. Bannworth and child are still very sick, but may recover.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 6.—While loading baled hay at his farm, Orlando Gardner lost his temper because one bale went partly into the wagon, broke his hold and fell to the ground. In his rage he kicked violently at the bale, fell on his back, ruptured a blood vessel, and died on the spot.

PORT HURON, Mich., March 6.—The boiler in White's sawmill exploded yesterday killing Frank Moran and fatally scalding five others. Moran was thrown 100 feet. Pieces of the boiler were blown forty rods. The building was demolished.

HALIFAX, March 6.—It transpires the disaster to the fishing boats is less serious than was thought. Twelve only are known to have perished, though eleven more are unaccounted for.

NEWPORT, Tenn., March 6.—Charles Engle and Nathan Clark were fishing yesterday evening with dynamite. An explosion upset the boat and both were drowned.

Inquest on Norcross.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Coroner Messenger will hold an inquest next Friday over the body of the man said to be Henry H. Norcross, the bombthrower, who so nearly succeeded in killing Russel Sage in his office in the Arcade building on December 4, 1891, and was himself blown to pieces by the explosion. The coroner has been awaiting the recovery of William Laidlaw, who was conversing with Mr. Sage at the time the bomb was thrown, and has since been confined to St. Vincent's hospital. The death of Frank Norton, a clerk in the employ of Mr. Sage, who was almost killed by the bursting bomb, will also be considered by the jury.

Fatal Ending of a Dispute.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Sunday afternoon Charles Zeis, who has a chicken ranch on the San Bruno road, heard shots near his house and upon investigation found an unknown young man shooting at his pigeons. Zeis mounted his chicken coop to look over the fence and began to upbraid the man. Hot words ensued, which ended by the young man shooting Zeis. The bullet entered the right temple. Zeis fell to the ground, striking on his head and fracturing it. He was taken to the hospital, but soon died. The young man fled and has not been arrested.

Cold-Blooded Murder.

BURE CITY, March 6.—At Oregona, Oregon county, yesterday afternoon, Samuel J. Pritchard, a deputy United States marshal, and chairman of the Republican central committee of Idaho, was killed by Constable Fleming. It was a cold-blooded murder.
