

harrassing one for the consular court, and the Japanese will watch it narrowly as a specimen of foreign justice, which they are now losing no opportunity to criticize. The Japanese are deeply aggrieved because America and England have not consented to accept Japanese jurisdiction for their subjects, and they will therefore be delighted to point to an alleged failure of justice. The complications have already led to very strained relations between English and American society in Japan, and of the English residents have given the cut direct to their American acquaintances, especially of the official class.

THE SEATTLE ELECTION.

Democrats Elect the Mayor by a Large Majority.

SEATTLE, March 9.—The stormiest election in the history of the city has undoubtedly resulted in a landslide to the Democratic ticket. Over 8000 votes were cast, and as over one hundred propositions including candidates and thirty-seven charter amendments the vote cannot be counted before midnight. The Republicans conceded the election of Ronald, Democrat, for mayor, over Leary, Republican, by 800, and the election of the greater part of the Democratic ticket by majorities ranging from 100 to 400. At the last state election Seattle gave 1800 Republican majority.

Tried to Poison His Wife.

OAKLAND, Cal., March 9.—Philip Boogar was arrested on complaint of Catherine Boogar, his wife, who accuses him of attempting to poison her. Boogar is over sixty years of age. Catherine Boogar is his fourth wife. A short time ago the couple had a disagreement, and Mrs. Boogar sued for a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. The suit was subsequently withdrawn after the old man had signed a contract agreeing to pay his wife $150 per month alimony. They have since lived in the same house. A few days ago Mrs. Boogar noticed that her aged husband was acting in a very strange manner. While at the dinner table he urged her to eat some rice. When she tasted the food she found that it had a peculiar flavor. The next day Mrs. Boogar took the rice to a chemist for analysis. He reported that it contained a large quantity of rat poison and arsenic. Boogar has property in Oakland valued at $20,000.

Springer's Chairmanship Ended.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Mr. Springer's important chairmanship of the ways and means committee is practically at an end. Dr. Vincent, who came from Springfield, Ill., to take charge of Mr. Springer's case, said yesterday that, even should his patient begin to rally at once and continue to improve from this time on, it would be impossible for him to attend to any business for the next two months. Dr. Vincent says that under the most favorable circumstances Mr. Springer could not leave the house within the next three weeks. After that the doctor will insist that Mr. Springer go to Fort Monroe, or some other health resort, for a stay of four or five weeks. According to Dr. Vincent's program, therefore, Mr. Springer has practically concluded his services as chairman of the ways and means committee for this session of congress, for the tariff bills will be entirely disposed of by the end of April.

Accident to General Schofield.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Yesterday morning as General Schofield was driving to the war and navy building his carriage was run into by an express wagon and overturned. It was necessary to remove General Schofield through the window, but fortunately he was not hurt beyond receiving a rather severe shake up. His escape was due to the coolness of his driver, who managed to control his horses, notwithstanding the overturning of the carriage.

Springer About the Same.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The condition of representative Springer this morning is reported about the same as yesterday.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Their Convention at Pendleton and all Other News.

PENDLETON DEMOCRATS.

The Convention was Harmonious—Their Platform.

PENDLETON, March 8.—The Democratic county convention met here yesterday and nominated the following ticket: Representatives, Michael Toner, J. M. Stone and H. J. Taylor; county judge, T. J. Tweedy; commissioner, A. L. Gordon; sheriff, W. J. Furnish; clerk, W. M. Rerice; treasurer, W. H. Jones; assessor, W. W. Brannin; school superintendent, D. W. Jarvis; coronor, Dr. Pitmeil. The proceedings of the convention went off smoothly and enthusiastically. There was no contention, no differences. The platform covers the decalogue, the moral law and the Lord's prayer. It takes in the world, the flesh and the devil. It demands a speedy completion of the Columbia River locks, economy in county affairs, the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownership of land, a memorial to congress, asking the submission of an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by the direct vote of the people. It indorses with satisfaction and pride the faithful, honest and efficient administration of Sylvester Pennoyer; believes in the state control of railroads and other arteries of transportation with due regard for the rights of the people; opposes national banks as banks of issue. The ticket gives great satisfaction to the Democrats, and the Republicans are not alarmed.

THEY LYNCHED THEM.

The Three Negroes That Killed the Sheriff.

MEMPHIS, March 9.—Three negroes were taken from the jail by seventy-five masked men this morning and shot to death. The names of the men are Calvin McDowell, William Stuart and Theodore Moss. The crime for which the summary vengeance was wreaked upon them was ambushing and shooting down on Saturday night last, of four deputy sheriffs in the locality known as "The Curve" while the officers were looking for a negro for whose arrest they had a warrant. About three o'clock this morning seventy-five men all wearing masks appeared suddenly on Front street near the jail. By a ruse three men obtained entrance to the jail yard and overpowered the watchman, who they bound and gagged. Others were then admitted, and the search for the negroes began. There were twenty-seven negroes therein all under arrest for complicity in the Saturday night affair, and it was not a easy task to distinguish the three negroes wanted. Moss, the mail carrier, was the first man identified, and was taken from the cell and bound, and soon after McDowell and Stuart were found and taken care of in the same way.

The captives being ready they were dragged, pushed and hurried out of the jail. In a few minutes the suburbs of the city were reached and in an open field near the Wolf river the negroes met their doom. After completing its work the mob entered and disappeared. The bodies of the dead negroes were brought to Walsh's undertaking. At 10:35 this morning word was received in this city that the negroes were assembling in large numbers at "The Curve." Judge Dubose immediately equipped 150 men with Winchester rifles and have left the city for that locality.

DEAF AND DUMB BURGLAR.

He Receives Two Years in the Pen—The Lowest Limit.

PORTLAND, March 9.—Johann Michaels, a deaf and dumb German, entered a plea of guilty to burglary before Judge Stearns yesterday, was before two years in the state penitentiary.

Michels had written his confession in German, saying that he had committed the crime as charged. When he was brought into court District Attorney Stephens handed in the confession and a letter which the prisoner had written to the court.

Michels had stolen, according to his confession and the charge, two bracelets, outions, a neck chain and a watch chain.

Here is the confession, which was not read in the court. Mr. Stephens simply wrote out the question, "Are you guilty?" and Michaels wrote, "yes." The confession was addressed to Judge Carey, of the police court: "Hon. Judge Carey: I am a deaf and dumb man, and am an American citizen. I am guilty of burglary, viz., of two bracelets, buttons, neck chain, and watch chain, which I have pawned.

JOHANN MICHELS." The confession is not dated. The letter to Judge Stearns is pitiful if true, and the appearance of the man when in court supported the belief that he is not a desperate criminal. Judge Stearns recognized the fact, and gave Michaels the lowest sentence for burglary, two years.

The letter to him reads as follows: "To the Judge: I plead guilty, but I throw myself on the mercy of the court. I was reduced to extremities, and hungry, and found no sympathy with anybody. I will do better in the future if the Judge will give me a county sentence. JOHANN MICHELS." But his request for a county sentence, which means imprisonment in the county jail, could not be granted. The longest term for which prisoners can be held in that prison is nine months, but the lowest term for the crime of burglary is two years, the sentence he received.

"JONAH AND THE WHALE."

Its Recitation Costs a Boy His Seat in School.

OLYMPIA, March 9.—C. B. Reynolds, secretary of the Washington Secular Union, has applied to State Superintendent Bryan to reinstate in the public school at Davenport, Lincoln county, a boy who was suspended because he recited a satirical poem entitled "Jonah and the Whale." Superintendent Bryan replies that he can only act in such cases upon appeals from decisions of county superintendents taken within the statutory time, and that the parties interested must look to the courts for redress.

CONGRESS TODAY.

People Seem to Have Lost Interest in the Tariff Question.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—In past years the day for opening debate upon the tariff bill has been a red letter day and almost all the members have been in attendance and the galleries have been thronged with spectators, but the rule was an exception this morning. When the speaker called the house to order at noon, not more than 150 members were present, and the galleries did not contain more than the usual audience.

The Tariff Debate.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Representative McMillin, in a speech in opening the debate on the tariff in behalf of the majority of the committee on ways and means, referred in his opening remarks to the work of the last congress. He declared it imposed the highest tariff taxes ever levied in this country, and made the most extravagant appropriations ever made in time of peace. This congress, he said, was sent here to correct both evils by imposing less taxes and spending less money. Continuing he said: "The tariff law has now been in operation for a year and five months, and where are the beneficial effects that are to follow from it? Where are those magnificent prices the farmer and wool grower were to realize from it? Where are the increased wages laboring men were to get? The farmer has realized from two to three per cent. less on a pound from his wool than he did before."

Blaine Still in Bed.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Blaine is still confined to his bed with a gripper. His temperature is two or three degrees above the normal. His condition is not regarded as serious by either his family or physician, but it will be some time before he will be able to resume change of the state department.

License Bill in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 9.—The state senate last evening adopted the Gatch license bill, which provides for county option; license or no license to be determined by special election, which may be called upon petition of one-fifth of the legal voters of any county. If it passes the house it will be a substitute for the present prohibitory law.

A Bloody Deed.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 9.—Just after the polls closed in the municipal election last evening, a San Francisco politician called "Big Neck" Smith shot and killed Patrick Bannigan, plasterer, during a quarrel about the election. Smith shot Bannigan twice, and as the latter fell, Smith placed the pistol to his head and fired the third shot. Bannigan died instantly.

Temporary Suspension.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 9.—The Cherokee Land company has gone into the hands of a receiver with assets of $60,000 and liabilities less than $40,000. The assets are so much in excess of the liabilities the receivership will be only temporary.

Reduction of Fare.

PORTLAND, March 9.—The Union Pacific announces that beginning with March 10th, the stage fare from here to Astoria will be one dollar, and for the round trip one dollar and a half. The reduction will be met by the opposition.

BAKERS CITY, Or., March 9.—T. S. Harrison, an old miner, was found dead yesterday in his cabin, twelve miles from the city. All the evidences pointed to suicide by shooting himself. Despondency is given as the cause.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

Both Foreign and Domestic Items.

THE GUN FACTORY.

What the Organizers Think They Can Accomplish.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Irving M. Scott was interviewed in reference to the proposed factory to be operated by the recently incorporated Union Forge company for casting of heavy guns at Benicia. He said: "The factory will be the finishing and assembling of heavy ordnance. What we propose to do is to manufacture the material for guns, rough finished. This material will be tested and then put together by the government. It does not depend so much on the preparations as on the contract. The ordinance committee has recommended certain guns to be placed for the protection of the Atlantic and Pacific ports. Of that number a certain proportion will, of course, come on this coast. We want to see our productive resources put on the same plane as those of the Atlantic, and have gone into business on that line. The steel which we propose to manufacture for the new guns will be Siemens-Martens open-hearth steel. The making of a big gun requires the best kind of steel anyhow, and the material has to be very carefully made. It can be made on this coast converting fuel into gas. We have metal right here, free from sulphur and phosphorus, and as soon as we create a market for billets such as the government has sought we shall have no difficulty in handling all the crude product that comes to us. Steel castings obtained from the Pacific Rolling mills have been superior in quality and physical condition to those obtained from the East. As to the facilities at Benicia," concluded Scott, "I will say that the place possesses all the facilities for the making and assembling of guns. There is plenty of water on the front at Benicia for vessels of deep draught, and the site is sufficiently far inland to be safe from the attacks of a foreign enemy. It is near to a population of about 500,000 people. Let me add that this new corporation is not the Union Iron Works concern. It is composed of representative citizens who aim chiefly to avoid the difficulties and risks of overland transportation, which in case of 16-inch guns are prohibitory."

THE TREATY.

Of Arbitration in the Senate—Some Talk.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The senate in executive session yesterday afternoon considered the arbitration treaty in regard to Behring sea. There was much opposition to it. The body of the senators bitterly resented the idea of any treaty, holding that the right of the United States to the water acquired from Russia is beyond question, and that it would be a cowardly surrender on the part of this government to submit its rights to the uncertain decision of foreign arbitrators. Attention was also called to the fact that one of these arbitrators is the subject of a power with which our relations are somewhat strained—Italy. Others appeared to believe that the approval of the treaty would be a distinct diplomatic gain, inasmuch as it is committed Great Britain to a recognition of the fact that the United States had a claim to jurisdiction over the waters of Behring sea under the Russian title, a point which she has heretofore steadily refused to allow. A third group thought the treaty should not be approved finally without the addition of a clause renewing the modus vivendi. Some senators
