DATES OF LOCAL EVENTS.

March 29.—Prof. Franck, elocutionist, Christian church.
April 1.—People's county convention, Salem.
April 9.—Democratic primaries.
April 11—Miss Susan Hale, reader, Unity church.
April 14.—Democratic county convention.
April 20.—Symphony club, Reed's opera house.

A RECEPTION.—By the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Martin, there will be given on Friday evening next, at their residence, corner Court and Twelth streets, a farewell social in honor of Colonel, Mrs. and Miss Ladue, under the auspices of the several societies of the Presbyterian church, to which all the adult members of the church are invited. Guests will be received from 8 o'clock. By order of committee.

TONIGHT. —Rev. Rhys Gwynn will preach at the C. P. church tonight at 7:30. Come and hear him; it will do you good. He is a man of more than ordinary preaching ability. Rev. P. B. Williams will be here today to assist in the meetings during the week. Much interest was manifest last night. All are earnestly invited to attend these meetings.

NOT INSANE.—The report that Frank Ingram, recently sent to the penitentiary at Salem for fratricide, is going insane has very little foundation in fact. Inquiry at the pen shows that he is working at the blacksmith shops, and is well mentally and physically, to all appearances.

PROBATE.—In the matter of the estate of Mary W. Hutton, deceased, petition for order to sell real estate; ordered that F. W. Waters, deputy county clerk, be appointed guardian adlitem of three minor heirs—Albert L., and Mary T. Eisenhart and John P. Hutton, an insane person.

TOMORROW EVENING.—To the ladies and gentlemen of Salem: Prof. Franck, the elocutionist would be pleased to meet all lovers of elocution and voice culture, at the Capital Business college, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

APRIL TENTH.—The salmon season will open then, but we have every day all the fine fresh fish in the market, at Davison & White's market.

Having just opened with a new line of stoves and ranges, Barr & Petzel (in order to introduce themselves to the public), will, for the next two weeks, offer a special inducement in prices. 3-26-tf

THE REVIVALS.

Complete Arrangements for the B. Fay Mills Meetings.

The ramparts of sin are to be stormed in the capital city. Salem does nothing in a half-hearted manner that her people think of doing at all, and no one thing so unanimously enlists her entire forces as a big revival, and that is promised by the presence of one of America's greatest evangelist, B. Fay Mills.

Monday evening there was a meeting of the general committee on arrangements and the estimated expenses were reported as $200. It is understood that Mr. Mills takes no pay for his services and this estimate does not include any compensation for him in any manner. The finance committee composed of T. McF. Patton, H. V. Matthews and James Aitken will take up a subscription for expenses. $61 was raised Monday night.

The committee on music meets at the M. E. church next Friday evening for rehearsals and all the church singers in the city are requested to assist. Singing is to be made a great feature. The committee on ushers reported as follows: Presbyterian—J. A. Van Eaton, John Moir, H. C. Colwell. Baptist—Will W. Brooks, J. Sim Foster, Dr. S. R. Jessup. Christian—Geo. Starr, W. H. Osborn. Episcopal—Prof. J. A. Sellwood. Evangelical—Geo. F. Smith, Rev. Bowersox. Methodist—Fred Wiggins, F. S. Dearborn, M. E. Goodell, Prof. Geo, Whipple, James Aitken, H. Pohle. Friends—R. S. Cook. German Baptist — Frank Moores. Congregational—W. A. Moores, R. B. Duncan, John W. Davis, A. T. Gilbert, A. W. Dennis. Chief usher—C. M. Talbot. First assistant—B. S. Cook; second assistant, J. W. Morrill.

Next week meetings will be held here afternoons and evenings during Mr. Mills' stay. The union meetings preparatory to his coming will be held this evening in the Baptist church and the services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Kellerman, and on Wednesday evening at the Methodist church led by Rev. Robt. Whitaker, of the Baptist church.

THE JOURNAL will keep its readers fully informed as to the time for these meetings.

THE UNITED BRETHREN.

At the Cumberland Presbyterian church Monday evening Rev. H. L. Barkley preached a most earnest and interesting sermon on the "General Judgment" to an appreciative audience. There will be services at 3 o'clock afternoon, and at 7:30 in the evening, every afternoon and evening of this week. A church society has been organized, and the meetings continue to grow in interest and profit,

JUDGE W. B. GILBERT.

He Will Take the Oath of Office Wednesday.

Today Judge Gilbert was called upon by a reporter, and asked concerning his commission and oath of office.

"As the United States senate has confirmed your appointment to the judgeship, I should like to learn if you have received your commission yet, Judge Gilbert?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, yes; I received my commission several days ago," he answered.

"When do you expect to take the oath of office?"

"I expect to take the oath of office next Wednesday morning."

"Who will administer it?"

"Judge Deady will administer the oath of office as prescribed by law in the United States court."

"Where will you enter upon your judicial duties—here, or in San Francisco?"

"Judge Deady and myself will leave here next Friday evening for San Francisco, where we will go to attend the regular meeting of the court of appeals. We shall arrive there on Sunday, and be present at the convening of the court Monday morning."

Judge Gilbert's circuit will embrace Oregon, Washington, California, Nevada, Montana and Idaho. He has not yet decided where he will make his permanent residence. It is not improbable that he will remove to San Francisco. Wherever Judge Gilbert may remove, it will be with a feeling of reluctance that he leaves Portland.

Speaking of the proposed trip, Judge Deady said: he would be absent for three or four weeks from the city. He is of the opinion that the terms of the court of appeals will be held in Portland. The law provides that the judges can fix the places. Portland, he thought, was entitled to be one of the places designated for holding terms of the court of appeals. He said he should not make any more trips to San Francisco to hold court if he could help it. If he did not attend some other judge would have to take his place on the bench. The fatigue of the journey to and from San Francisco was more than the judge felt like undergoing at his advanced age and physical condition.—Portland Telegram.

HOUSE MOVED. — The cottage standing partly in Commercial street owned by the water company, and occupied by Albert L. Brown, engineer of the waterworks, will have to be moved and the reservoir main attached to the new viaduct that is being put in across South Mill creek. The cottage will be moved back on the alley at once so as to not delay the work on the viaduct.

FOR SALE.—Forty feet front on Commercial street. First-class business property. Enquire of Wm. E. Burke, one-half block south of Bush's bank—up-stairs. 3-10-tf

MUSICAL LITERARY.—Salem is to have a partial evening of Shakespear, at least. At the Christian church this (Tuesday) evening, Prof. Harry C. Franck, A. M., of New York City, who is at present in this city where he has a class in elocution, will be the leading feature in the elocutionary part of the program, and his selections will be the best given in Salem for many a day. The S. F. Chronicle speaks as follows: "Prof. Harry C. Franck is the only elocutionist in the world who has been able to originate a true system of elecution and voice culture. His success in this city has been wonderful, indeed. The Chicago Tribune, Boston Pilot, and Montreal Gazette, speak respectively: "Those who missed hearing Harry C. Franck's Shakespearean readings last night have missed a great dramatic treat, although the opera house was crowded. Mr. Franck has fully sustained the great reputation he brought with him. Harry C. Franck gave us, last evening an entertainment entitled "An Evening with Shakespear," to a very select and fashionable audience, as he is beyond doubt, an elocutionists of great ability. He has a fine voice under perfect control. At the Theatre Royal, Harry C. Franck gave some unusually well rendered selections from some of the standard plays, which gave perfect satisfaction to the large audience assembled." Mr. Franck will be assisted by the most talented of Salem's musicians. The admission price is fixed at 50 cents.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—There was a well attended teachers' meeting at the East Salem school Monday evening, City Superintendent Grubbe presiding, the question being on the employment of the teacher's judgment in making promotions. Miss Cosper showed excellent work in tonics with a class of twenty-five beginners. After this the debate was taken up and carried on in a very animated manner until 6 p. m. when they adjourned without having settled the question under consideration.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE.—Chas. Smith, of Smith & Co., an East Portland hardware and plumbing firm, this morning bought out the J. C. Brown & Co. hardware stock at assignee sale of Jo. Baker. The consideration is stated at $8000 cash. Mr. Smith is in the city and says he will take possession immediately and have the store open for business April 1st, and will remove to Salem with his family in about a month. Mr. Smith has the appearance of an energetic, intelligent business man.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE. — The regents had a meeting Monday afternoon at Governor Pennoyer's office. A committee consisting of Governor Pennoyer, Geo. W. McBride, Supt. McElroy, Wallis Nash, H. E. Hayes, A. R. Shipley, considered the applications and references. Two applicants are from Oregon, the other twenty-three from other states. The regents will meet at Corvallis April 20th to make the selection.

THREE DAYS MORE.—The sheriff says there are but three days more, after Tuesday, to pay taxes before penalty attaches. Friday of this week is the last day of grace, as the books will be closed on the evening of that day and five per cent. will be added after that and costs of advertising levy and sale.

FINE NEW SHOP.—Joseph Fusee, who came to Salem two years ago, has just removed his barber shop from State street to a fine location on Commercial, two doors north of the Red Corner drug store. He has now a four chair shop, three fine bath rooms, and with good workmen has the veritable tonsorial palace of the city.

LICENSE.—Marriage licenses have been issued to James Kershaw, age 35, and Anna Belle Jones, age 20; Jacob Stauffer, age 32, and Josephine Gerig, age 20.

MARRIED.

SIMPSON—BOHANON.—At Portland, Sunday, March 27, 1892, Miss Lena Simpson, of Salem, to J. Bohanon, of Portland.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Simpson, of this city, a well educated and refined young lady, who has a large circle of young friends at Salem. The groom is engineer on one of the steamers that runs to The Dalles. They will make their home at East Portland.

DIED.

RYAN.—At home near fair ground, Salem, March 28th, at midnight, Ella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ryan, of scarlet fever, age ten. Funeral at 3 p. m. Tuesday from the residence. Burial at Rural cemetery. Mr. Ryan is an engineer on the N. P. railroad in Eastern Oregon and is home to attend the funeral of his little daughter. This is a great bereavement in a lovely home circle.

Women.

The common afflictions of women are sick-headaches, indigestion and nervous troubles. They arise largely from stomach disorders. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation, you can see why it is more effective than any other Sarsaparilla in those troubles. It is daily relieving hundreds. The action is mild, direct and effective. We have scores of letters from grateful women.

NOB HILL.

THIS beautiful, elevated and sightly tract of land, on the new southerly extension of the Electric Street Railway, has been platted, surveyed and staked out in blocks nd lots as an addition to the City of Salem, and the streets are now being opened. The grounds are clear and seeded in grass, soil is good, no gravel or rocks. The under current of pure water from the mountain ranges forced upward to within 40 feet of the surface by the underlying strata, in addition to a 75 foot pressure from the big reservoir of the Salem Water Co., insures a never-failing supply of pure water. This, in connection with the excellent natural drainage due to the elevation of the property, gives it all the advantages for desirable homes in a healthy locality. This property will now be put on the market at low prices for SIXTY DAYS, when it is expected the street car service will be in operation. Maps of the property can be seen at the office of J. C. Booth in Ladd & Bush bank block; Spalding & Rogers in the Bush-Breyman block, and the well known firm of Thomas & Johnson, next door to The Statesman office. Any of these gentlemen will answer all questions and show the grounds to persons wishing to purchase, or any appliction to the proprietor, who may be easily found, will be attended to. GEO. H. La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'"
