THE FREE WOOL BILL

Denounced in the House Yester day as a Conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, March 31 .- The Springer free woo! bill was denounced in the house yesterday as: conspiracy between the cotton raise: at the South and the woolen manu facturers of the North to enrich themselves at the expense of the prosperity of the nation. Thicharge was made by Representativ J. N. Taylor, of Ohio, and wil doubtless be the subject of some vig orous retorts from Democrats. B yond this utterance, the tariff discussion, was without the usual in cidents. But'er, o' Iowa, made his Springer himself will probably ap pear on Monday with a motion to suspend the rules for the passage of the bill.
