Inquiry in a Murder Case.

New Brighton, S. I., April 5.—The friends of John L. Feeny, police surgeon of Richmond county, were started yesterday to read a dispatch in the newspapers, dated San Francisco, that Mark Feeny, a brother of Dr. Feeny, had been murdered a year ago by a man named Charles Freeman. In Sacramento, Dr. Feeny, when seen in Stapleton, said that he had read this dispatch from Sacramento, stating his brother had been murdered there. He said some years ago his brother left Staten Island for California, and for a time he corresponded with him. His brother Mark finally ceased writing and Dr. Feeny lost all trace of him. The doctor then communicated with the Sacramento authorities for information regarding his missing brother. Dr. Feeny said it may be true his brother had been murdered, but his mind would not be relieved until he received a message direct from Sacramento authorities. The doctor said he did not know anything regarding the death of the alleged murderer of his brother. Mark Feeny was well known on Staten Island, and a large circle of friends express regret over his reported tragic death.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, a faint, watery, burning, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires a steady, reliable, and powerful remedy. It is the only one that cures the disease, and restores the system to its normal condition. MORE CYCLONES.

The Delegates to the Republican Convention are on the Ground.

MORE STORMS

Visit Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska, Dakota, etc.

BRIDGEPORT, Ill., April 5.—A cyclone last night damaged the Presbyterian and Methodist churches and several residences, totally demolishing a number of barns and killing several horses.

COLUMBUS JUNCTION, Iowa, April 5.—A cyclone yesterday destroyed a number of buildings at Cairo. No one was seriously injured.

OGALA, Neb., April 5.—The storm yesterday drifted cattle and live stock into the Platte river, many were chilled to death, loss will be heavy.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—A furious blizzard is raging here for the past 24 hours, and is growing in violence. It is feared there will be loss of life on account of the small supply of fuel kept in reserve by the inhabitants.

RED FIELD, S. D., April 5.—The terrible storm of sleet and a high wind prevailing practically suspended all business. The train service on the North Western is abandoned here. Four inches of snow on the level.

PORTLAND CONVENTION.

The Republicans Are Gathering Together

PORTLAND, April 5.—Delegates to the Republican state convention have begun to arrive in considerable numbers. The congressional nomination in the second district seems to be attracting more candidates than any other office, and consequently it is more difficult to name the winner for that. It is generally conceded that Eastern Oregon will name the man, although at this time there is very little prospect of the delegations from that section agreeing upon any one. It is not unlikely that the Multnomah county delegation will decide the question by voting for the man who develops the greatest strength. So far as can be learned, Ellis has the largest individual following. Some of the other candidates may unite against him.

For supreme justice there are a number of candidates. Judge Hurley, of Yamhill, and Judge Olmstead, of Baker City, appear to be in the lead so far. The Republicans have decided to nominate a candidate for attorney-general, and he will probably be Lydell Baker, of Portland.

James Lotan will not accept the chairmanship of the state committee, and since the arrival of the Interior delegation Judge Moore, of St. Helens, has developed considerable strength for the place. Colonel McCracken and Joseph Simon, of this city, are mentioned as delegates to the national convention, but it is thought Mr. Simon will decline the honor.

STATE REPUBLICANS.

Ellis and Hermann in the Lead Apparently.

PORTLAND, April 5.—Nearly all the delegates to the Republican state convention to be held tomorrow have arrived. The greatest interest seems to be centered in the fight for congressman in the second district. It is generally conceded that the nomination will go to Eastern Oregon in which event they will be able to unite on some one. W. R. Ellis is apparently in the lead, Leasure, Fulton, Snodgrass, Norval, Irwin, Rands, Johns, Anderson and Huntington are all active. There will probably be no caucus, all names will be presented to the convention and if after several ballots there is no choice the convention will take a hand and either decide for Eastern Oregon or bestow the nomination elsewhere. It is thought Hermann will be re-nominated by acclamation in the first district. The supreme judge lies between Moore of St. Helens, Hurley of Multnomah, and Burnett, of Salem. Two names most prominently mentioned in connection with the attorney general are Lydell Baker, of Multnomah and Judge Webster, of Jacksonville.

Explosion of Gun Cotton.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 5.—Five tons of gun cotton in the state powder factory exploded last night. The whole city was shaken. The building was wiped out of existence, and the remains of nine workmen employed in the factory scattered to the winds. At first it was thought that the nihilists had begun work again, and a panic prevailed until the true cause was made known. The adjoining factories were greatly damaged, and five workmen hurt.

Great Loss of Cattle.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 5.—The late cold snaps and storms have caused a great loss of cattle in this territory. In Chickasaw county the loss is 20 per cent. In Creek county hundreds are dead and more are dying daily. In Comanche and Thomas have died, and others are still dying fast.

A Resume of Elections.

CHICAGO, April 5.—A resume of the city elections in Michigan, Ohio, Iowa, Kansas and North Dakota shows that in a majority of places, the local issues took precedence over politics. That when party lines were drawn Republicans had the best of it, Democrats generally where successful secured large majorities.

A U. P. Surprise.

OMAHA, Neb., April 5.—It was announced today in railroad circles that Gould has arranged a surprise for the traffic departments of the East. It is to make Leeds succeed Mellen as Union Pacific traffic manager. The appointment will not be made until after the annual election this month when it will be determined whether the Gould management will be continued or not.

Convicts Revolt.

MADRID, April 5.—There was a serious revolt among the convicts in the prison at Granada. Guards were called to quell the disturbance, fired upon the prisoners, killing one and fatally wounding two. The rest of the prisoners returned to their cells.

Unconstitutional.

TRENTON, April 5.—Governor Abbott this morning vetoed the bill legalizing the Reading Railroad company on the ground of being unconstitutional.

Killed His Wife.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 5.—William Meier, a negro, shot and killed his wife because she refused to kiss him. The murderer escaped.

STATE REPUBLICANS.

Getting Ready for Wednesday's Battle.

CLEVELAND IS THE CHOICE.

CHICAGO, April 5.—A distinguished party assembled at the Iroquois club banquet. The central committee of eight contiguous Western states, besides such distinguished Democratic leaders as Governor Boyd, of Nebraska; Governor Peck, of Wisconsin; ex-Postmaster Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan; Hon. Sherman Hear, of Massachusetts; Governor Winans, of Michigan; Hon. Dewitt Warner, of New York, were present. The first outburst of applause came at a fervent reference to Grover Cleveland, near the end of the address. The first speaker was Hon. Ewing, of Chicago. After nominally speaking to the toast, "Thomas Jefferson," whose anniversary the club celebrated, he wound up his remarks with an exultant poetic outbreak to the effect that—"Ten thousand times ten thousand men shall name Cleveland."

Don M. Dickinson, to whom the members of the club pointed as "Cleveland's personal representative," seemed to feel the importance of the message he was about to deliver, whether or not it inspired the ex-president. He began by eulogizing the value of party discipline, and the necessity of yielding to the decisions of the party's accredited representatives in caucus. The conclusion of Dickinson's speech was an expression of the belief that the party would choose as a standard-bearer a man who is surely a representative of the Democratic party and of the people.

WOMAN BANDITS.

They Were Busily Engaged in Robbing Stages.

BOISE CITY, April 5.—The detectives who went to a ranch near Salmon Falls, in search of the six women suspected of being stage robbers, have placed the women under arrest, and report there is no doubt of their guilt. The women, who claim to be sisters, are said to have committed many highway robberies in that section of the country. They were dressed as men while engaged in the crimes. The women declare their father compelled them to become bandits. The arrest of the old man is expected.

The name of the family is Harvey. The girls say they hated the work and are glad it is over. They proceeds other than the money of the various stage robberies in which they took part were shipped east by their father and mother. This was done so as to avoid exciting suspicion by using or selling the articles in the vicinity. The sheriff and ten deputies laid in the woods near Harvey's ranch, and waited for the stage to be stopped. As the six women, in male attire, "held up" the stage driver, the posse held up the robbers, and captured them without much difficulty.

The Silver Question.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the senate yesterday a resolution calling for the report by the treasury department on the effects of existing silver legislation on the industrial condition of the country, was taken up. Morgan reading up his resolution, said he knew the subject was one which struck the attention of senators in an alarming way, because the people of the United States are very earnest in the desire to have some relief from the existing financial condition and embarrassment. He knew the best of party stood in the way of a free expression of opinion, and of party men. Morgan went on to criticize the silver act of 1890. In the further course of his argument he remarked, incidentally, that one of the consequences of the defeat of free silver legislation would be the nomination of Cleveland. He referred to Cleveland as having come to the presidency in a sort of congestive chill, as commencing to prophesy evil and throwing the whole weight of his administration against silver. He brought up the old charge that Sherman was responsible for the demonetization of silver in 1873. If, said Morgan senators could forget Cleveland and Hill and other good men aspiring to the presidency of the United States, and look hands on the silver question and say that they would do all that wisdom and devoted love of country suggested, there would be no more trouble about the silver question.

Sherman said, to ascertain if he wanted to enter on a silver debate, he proposed to lay the resolution on the table. Allison asked if the resolution had not gone to the calendar at 2 o'clock, and the vice president ascertained. Sherman then remarked they could not be taken up without a motion.

Teller said the senator from Ohio might as well meet the question now as any time, because the friends of silver are bound to debate it. He remarked that Sherman seemed anxious to stifle debate. This charge Sherman emphatically denied. He went on to defend the act of 1890, and said it would with proper amendment be made for the financial system of the country. He argued against free coinage, and in closing, said he not only was willing to discuss the question, but desired to have it discussed. The matter then went over.

PASSED THE HOUSE.

The Chinese Exclusion Bill Goes Through.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The house yesterday passed the Chinese exclusion bill; yeas 179, nays 42. The bill absolutely prohibits any Chinese, whether or not subjects of China (excepting diplomatic and consular officers and servants) from entering the United States, and Chinese who hereafter leave the United States or found unlawfully therein, and provides for their punishment by imprisonment not exceeding five years and subsequent removal to the country whence they came, provided that when they come by way of contiguous foreign territory they be returned to China; with a proviso that the secretary of the treasury will admit Chinese other than laborers or artisans to temporarily visit the United States under such rules as he may prescribe.

Masquerading in Men's Clothing.

PITTSBURG, April 5.—A handsome girl, about 18 years old, calling herself Jennie Scott, was sent to jail yesterday for masquerading in men's clothes on West Carson street. She was dressed in a new suit of blue overalls, with a small soft hat pulled down over her face, and her way blonde hair tucked up under it. Miss Scott, according to her story, came from Doty's Mills, near Atlantic City, N. J. Her parents were both dead, she said, and she came to Pittsburgh about two months ago and has stayed with different families. Before coming to Pittsburgh, she claimed she had been living with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Critzman, at Doty's Mills. She wanted to go back, and not having money enough, thought the best way to get there was to dress in boy's clothes and steal her passage on a freight train. It is thought she had a lover in New Jersey, and was trying to go to him.

Died Very Suddenly.

RICHMOND, Va., April 5.—Mrs. Phillip Hazal, one of the most beautiful of Southern women, and the recognized leader of society in Virginia, died at 6 o'clock yesterday, after an illness of an hour. She was regarded as in perfect health a few days ago, when there were symptoms of heart trouble, which is said to have been the cause of the sudden termination of her life. Before her marriage Mrs. Hazal was Miss Mary Triplett, and reigned as the belle of Virginia. She was the innocent cause, several years ago, of a duel that resulted in the killing of John Mordecai by Captain R. G. McCarty, now editor of the National Democrat in Washington. Soon after that occurrence she married Captain Phillip Hazal.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, Ohio, had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. J. P. Blaize, a real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during the recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm. Inside of an hour he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. 50 cent bottles sold by Geo. E. Good, druggist.

My friend, look here! you know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her. Now why not get a box and buy her a box? A woman who is weak, nervous and sleepless, and who has cold hands and feet, cannot feel and act like a well person. Carter's Iron Pills cure the circulation, remove nervousness, and give strength and rest. A man's wife should always be the same especially in her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot fail. For they make her feel like a different person, so they all say, and their husbands say so too!
