SEVERE EARTHQUAKE

In New York State, Did Not Do Much Damage.

MRS. GARFIELD'S GRATITUDE.
Interceded With the President for Young Cyrus Field.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Cyrus W. Field, Jr., of New York, is to be given a place in the foreign service. He may be sent abroad to fill one of the several vacancies existing in the consular service, and it is not improbable that a secretaryship of legation will be offered him. He decided some months ago that he would like to go abroad in a representative capacity. He expressed a wish for a place in the consular service, and Secretary Tracy and Colonel Elliott F. Shepard and other well-known New Yorkers interested themselves in his behalf. They laid the matter before the president, and the latter promised to give it careful consideration. He did nothing, however, and Mr. Field began to despair. About ten days ago Mrs. Garfield came to Washington to visit her daughter. She heard of Field's application, and she heard, too, that the young man was not a little disturbed by the president's delay in acting favorably upon it. She went at once to the executive mansion and sought an interview with President Harrison. The latter inquired the reason of her interest. She replied that she owed everything she had to the kindness of Cyrus W. Field, Jr. Then she went on to tell the president that after the death of her husband in 1881, Mr. Field inaugurated the movement looking to the creation of a fund for the maintenance of her children and herself. Mr. Field himself was a liberal contributor, and through his exertions the amount finally aggregated $800,000, which sum was carefully invested in his name. It was, she said, the only favor it had ever asked of the president, and it was the only one she ever would ask if he would only grant it. The president was touched, no less with her earnestness than with her deep appreciation of the kindness she had received at the hands of Mr. Field, and he told her what he had failed to do for Tracy, Shepard and others should be done for her. Then he sent for Mr. Field, and had a talk with him. He told him that the pay of consular officers was begrudging, as a rule, and that in many cases they were compelled to lodge over small rental shops on the continent in order to live within their income, but he assured him, at the same time, if he wanted to go abroad that the privilege would be given him. Then he told him how few desirable places were left. Mr. Field insisted, however, that he needed the salary, no matter how unremunerative the places were, and the president told him to go back to New York and await the appointment.

FIGHT ON THE POWDER.

Between the Cattle Men, Rustlers, Militia Etc.

CASPER, Wyo., April 12.—The fighting between an invading army of Pinkerton detectives employed by the big cattle companies and scattered rustlers now seems to be general all along Powder river. The army is being broken up into squads. The militia has been ordered to be prepared to march to the front immediately. A man from Riverside reports that sheriff Angus of Johnson county, swore in 150 deputies and went out to arrest the force sent out by the cattle men, and that the sheriff tried to take them into custody. Twenty-eight of the regulators and eighteen of the deputies were killed. Every man in town is a walking arsenal and the excitement is desperate. Doc Williamson, from Big Horn basin, reports a big fall of snow there on Friday night and that it is impossible for the army to get in there unless they go on snow shoes. He says they do not expect any trouble in the Bonanza part of the basin.

EARTHQUAKE.

Felt Throughout Central New York State.

UTICA, April 12.—Two distinct but quite severe earthquake shocks were felt in this city today, about four minutes apart. The first was felt at 11:30 a. m. both accompanied by a rumbling noise as of distant thunder. Reports from Holland Patent, Westville, Alder Creek and a number of places in this county say both shocks were felt in the county and in some instances the shocks were severe.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt throughout Montgomery, Warren and Otsego counties this morning.

In Oklahoma Territory.

KING FISHER, O. T., April 12.—Yesterday there was an almost unbroken line of encampment along the borders of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation, and every moment the ranks of the boomers receive recruits. Most of the boomers are of a fine class of immigrants, although a number of Texas negroes, who are poorly equipped, are waiting on the south side. In spite of the vigilance of the soldiers, some people have slipped into the country, and when the opening comes it is probable every place offering any concealment will be occupied by "boomers." The facilities of the towns along the border are taxed to the utmost to accommodate the rush. A line has already formed in front of the land office. The town sites of the six new counties are surveyed and artificially named.

In the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—In the house the senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill were non-concurred in.

In the senate the resolution offered by Stewart yesterday in relation to the purchase of silver and coinage of standard silver dollars was taken up. Stewart addressed the senate on the subject. Previous to this a resolution was offered by Morgan, calling on the president for information as to the reciprocity with Germany and Hayti. It was agreed to.

A Survey Asked For.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Representative Dixon, of Montana, yesterday appeared before the house committee on public lands and urged the passage of a bill providing for a survey for lands granted the Northern Pacific railroad in 1864, to ascertain their character whether mineral or non-mineral.

Fifty Thousand for Sufferers.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—In the house today, Allen of Missouri, asked unanimous consent to present for consideration a joint resolution appropriating $50,000 for the purpose and distribution of subsistence stores to the sufferers, from the overflow of the Tombigbee river and tributaries. Kilgore of Texas, objected, and the resolution referred.

The Tombigbee Flood.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—It is reported the loss of life and property by floods on the Tombigbee river is confirmed. Loss of life is variously estimated at 60 to 300. Loss of live stock is beyond estimate.

Winters & Co. Burn Out.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 12.—Fire this morning destroyed Winters and Lithographing Co., has the contract for all the world's fair lithographing. Part of the stones for the world's fair work were destroyed. Loss $75,000.

From Blaine to Harrison.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 12.—Colonel L. A. Conger, a Republican national committee man from Ohio who has been a stalwart Blaine man, today announced himself, in an interview, as for Harrison.

Byrnes Superintendent.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Superintendent Wm. Murray, of the police department has made application to be retired on account of ill health. Inspector Byrnes has been made superintendent of police.

CASE OF DR. BRIGGS.

To Be Reopened at the General Assembly.

NEW YORK, April 12.—At the regular monthly meeting of the New York presbytery, there was an election of delegates to the general assembly, which meets in Portland, Or., May 19th. The presbytery, who arrayed themselves against Rev. Dr. Briggs in the recent trial for heresy, were there in force, exerting themselves to elect delegates favorable to their views. The supporters of Dr. Briggs were also there in force, and voted with their opponents in skillful election tactics. The friends of Dr. Briggs wanted delegates elected who would oppose the reopening of the trial, while the anti-Briggs contingent wanted delegates and alternates who would vote in the general assembly to have the doctor put on trial on a charge of heresy. The number of delegates to be elected is fourteen, seven principals and seven alternates. The Briggs men had printed tickets, but the effort to have them declared illegal and not to be voted, was not successful, and the presbytery then proceeded to the election of delegates. The vote for delegates, resulted in the election of D. S. Hills, Ramsey, Lane, Buchanan, Shaver and Eising, all anti-Briggs men. After the announcement of the vote Dr. Paxton said: "The presbytery in October voted to discontinue the case of Dr. Briggs, and now you send a solid delegation to the general assembly to hang him." The alternates chosen were also anti-Briggs men.

STATE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

A Suit to Decide the Expiration of His Term of Office.

ALBANY, O., April 11.—County Clerk N. P. Payne has refused, in making up his notice of the coming June election, to place the office of attorney-general in the notice as one to be filled at election. A mandamus writ was filed against him today to compel him to so place the office in the election notice. The case will be heard about Wednesday at the chambers before Judge Boise, of Salem, when an appeal will probably be taken to the supreme court. The purpose is to test the question as to whether George E. Chamberlain, the appointee of Governor Penney, holds over until the election in 1894, or whether his term expires at the coming election.

INCENDIARIES.

To Burn Houses So as to Get the Insurance.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The existence of a gang of incendiaries and anarchists, who have been starting fires in tenement houses in Brooklyn since January, was first demonstrated today. Two men are under arrest, one of the accomplices made a full confession. Their plan was to arrange with dwellers in tenement houses who were over-indebted to burn the property for a percentage of the insurance money.

Waiting the Opening of the Reservations.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The president yesterday issued a proclamation opening to settlement, April 15, 1892, at 12 o'clock noon, the surplus lands of the Sisseton and Wahpeton reservation in the Dakotas, aggregating 574,257 acres.

THE NEWS IN WATERTOWNS.

WATERTOWN, S. D., April 12.—The announcement of the opening of the Sisseton reservation was received with great enthusiasm. A line is already formed in front of the land office and the borders of the reservation are scenes of great activity.

Suit for $150,000.

PORTLAND, Or., April 12.—Modest Maryauski, of California, today began a suit in the United States circuit court to recover one hundred and fifty thousand dollars from E. A. Aleky of this city. Complaint alleges that he owned an interest in the First Thought Mine in Okanogan county, Washington, which Aleky transferred to a third party.

Floods in North Mississippi.

NASHVILLE, April 12.—The appalling nature of the floods Northern Mississippi is just beginning to be realized. Hundreds of lives are lost. Loss of property is over a million.

Fire at Tokio Japan.

LONDON, April 12.—A dispatch from Tokio, Japan, says: A fire there Sunday destroyed 6,000 houses, fifty persons are known to have lost their lives and a number are still missing.

Nomination.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The president today sent to the senate the nomination of William C. Ralston, appraiser of merchandise in San Francisco.

Holman Renominated.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., April 12.—Congressman W. B. Holman, was renominated by acclamation, by Democrats here.

Strangely Affected.

LONDON, April 12.—Grain here and on the continent for the past two days has been strangely affected by the bogus European news received by way of the United States.

A Colored Lynching.

VIRGINIA, Ga., April 12.—Bill West, a colored desperado yesterday killed John Roberts colored. A mob pursued West and shot him.

HOMESEAKERS.

Settlers Gathering for the Rush for Land.

RUSH OF HOMESEAKERS.
Settlers are Congregating in Guthrie in Large Numbers.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 12.—As the time for the opening of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe country approaches, the crowd of settlers preparing to enter increases. Every train on its arrival deposits a host of newcomers. This place is about thirty miles from the line of the new country, but on account of its being easy of access and affording superior accommodations to the small border towns, it is made an outfitting point for a large number of intending settlers. The sanctity of the Sabbath yesterday was disturbed by the rush and rat-tle of commerce upon the streets. All shops and stores were kept open in order to supply the boomers. Gradually the settlers are procuring outfits and supplies, and one by one the white-topped caravans move forward to enter the line of march for the promised land. Some have imported blood horses, by whose aid they hope to attain priority in the settlement and occupation of choice quarter sections. Large numbers of negroes are among the throng of intending settlers. E. P. McCabe, colored, ex-auditor of Kansas, is here, engaged in procuring the immigration of his people to this territory. For many months he had his emissaries at work in the South procuring the advantages of Oklahoma and offering special inducements to get them to settle in this country, where, as his agents proclaim, each one will be given a farm of 160 acres by the government. He has already had platted, and laid off into lots and sold to his people for townsites, a quarter section of land in Payne county, and another near Kingfisher. Their number is constantly increasing, and they will be no small factor in the settlement of the new lands. Many are almost entirely destitute, making the entire distance from Southern Arkansas and Mississippi on foot. Upon arrival here they are dependent on the charity of their more fortunate neighbors.

THE SALMON SUPPLY.

Enough on Hand, in Spite of the Alaska Salmon Pool.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Commercial Bulletin criticizes certain California papers for publishing figures calculated to make it appear that the Alaska salmon pool will soon have things their own way. Those figures, the paper says, are arranged as on their face to indicate that there is none too much salmon in American distributing markets or in England to meet the requirements of six months ahead. The Bulletin adds: It may be idle to argue with Californians that their statistics are faulty or that the pool has not complete control, but it is a plain fact that more than enough salmon to go around is offered by the Eastern trade, and English holders are looking for an outlet for their surplus on this side of the Atlantic. Prime red Alaska is offered from Liverpool at $1.07 1/2 @ $1.10 laid down; for brands not in general favor $1.05 would not be accepted.

FLOODS IN MISSISSIPPI.

Immense Destruction of Property and Great Loss of Life.

COLUMBUS, Miss., April 12.—The floods in this section have reached a point never before known, and the destruction of life and loss of property are great. All farms in the Tombigbee river valley are abandoned, the fencing gone, houses washed away, cattle and mules by hundreds drowned. Many houses have passed down the river. Every available craft is in use day and night, carrying out food and bringing in destitute people. The negroes on the low lands lost everything they possessed. Twelve negroes were drowned within three miles of the city. At points below the loss of life is large. Railways have abandoned all Western trains, and there are many washouts. Waters receded, but are again rising. Three negro boys drowned above town. Another rescuing party was upset, and spent twenty-three hours in the trees. Indications are that the loss by the flood is greater than at first reported. It may therefore be expected that at least 100 negroes are drowned in this county alone.

Hall and Fitzsimmons.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Jim Hall and Bob Fitzsimmons has agreed to fight to a finish for a purse of not less than $12,000 and side bets of $5000 each. The fight is to occur at the Olympic of New Orleans, California or Pacific, of San Francisco which ever offers the largest purse. Fight to be at catch weights.

A Professor Ridden on a Rail.

READING, Pa., April 12.—Sunday night about 200 indignant citizens rode Professor John C. Zuber, of Baylston, on a rail amid loud shouts of "Hang him" and "Tar and feather him." A number of stalwart men rushed through the bowling mob, shoved a heavy rail between the professor's legs and the next instant he was elevated and carried to the lookup, where he was held in custody all night and yesterday morning was brought to Reading jail in default of $300 bail. Zuber was formerly organist and choir leader in a church in the village. He had a respectable wife and children. In the church choir was Della Wentzel, a soprano and a prepossessing blonde. Zuber gave her music lessons, and last November both disappeared. It was not Professor Zuber's first disappearance. The church congregation was shocked. Zuber left a number of creditors. Both remained away until a few days ago, when Miss Wentzel returned to her father's house. Then the professor made his appearance. Two warrants were quickly sworn out, and Sunday night when it became known that the organist was in the custody of a constable, the mob quickly gathered and wreaked its vengeance on him.

THE WRONG GIRL.

Was in Love With One Sister and Married the Other.

SNYDER, Kan., April 12.—William Hawkinson is the possessor of a bride he did not bargain for. He arrived here two weeks ago, and two days afterward he became acquainted with Miss Nana Terrill. It was a case of love at first sight. Miss Terrill, who is only 18 years of age, informed her mother that Hawkinson had proposed, and asked her mother's consent to an immediate marriage. Mrs. Terrill in an invalid, and her husband is absent in Denver. She refused to entertain the proposition until her husband's return. He was to be absent until the latter part of next May. Upon being informed of Mrs. Terrill's decision, Hawkinson proposed an elopement, to which Miss Terrill consented. According to the agreement, Hawkinson procured a team and carriage and drove to a spot near the Terrill residence last Wednesday night. Miss Terrill has a twin sister, Nona Terrill, who was also greatly smitten with Hawkinson. Her sister confided in her that she was about to elope with Hawkinson. Just before the appointed hour Nona locked Nana in her room, left the house and went to the place agreed upon. A few moments later Hawkinson appeared. She seated herself beside him, and they drove to Dodge City, arriving just after daylight. They went to a residence of a minister and were wedded. Hawkinson was so excited during the drive and ceremony that he did not notice that he had the wrong girl. He made his discovery when he and his bride went to the hotel and were shown their room. He was greatly chagrined at first, but he soon decided, that in view of the fact that he had married Nona, he would retain her as his wife.

THE TACOMA DRY DOCK.

A Protest Against Sending the Mohican to Esquimaut.

TACOMA, April 12.—Much indignation was caused here yesterday over an order from the navy department sending the United States steamer Mohican to the Canadian dry dock at Esquimaut, when her last anchorage was at Port Orchard, and twenty-eight miles from the new dry dock at Tacoma, which it is claimed is abundantly able to take care of her. The wires have been kept hot all day with protests from the chamber of commerce, commercial club, and citizens generally. Telegrams have been addressed to the president, the secretary of the navy, and Senators Mitchell and Dolph of Oregon, Palmer, of Illinois, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Hale of Maine, as well as Allen of this state, and numerous congressmen and other people of prominence, not only in Washington, but in New York and everywhere. A protest could possibly do no good. These telegrams mostly lay special stress on the point that the government is not directly protecting a home industry by patronizing a foreign dock that is almost within sight of a new and excellent home institution. The secretary of the navy replied to the first dispatches that it was now too late to countermand the order. This, however, did not discourage efforts to have it countermanded, but rather encouraged them. Nearly every man in town who knows a senator or a congressman has appealed to him.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—

The navy department is informed that the United States steamer Mohican has gone to Esquimaut, B. C., to be docked in the British navy yard for necessary repairs occasioned by running on a rock and losing about ten feet of her false keel. The secretary of the navy yesterday received a telegram from Tacoma merchants protesting against the Mohican going to an English dry dock when she might have been repaired just as well at Tacoma. The secretary says he was not aware that the Tacoma dry dock was finished or capable of receiving a vessel the size of the Mohican, and as the Mohican was en route to Behring sea it would be easier to have her repaired at Esquimaut than bring her back to San Francisco.
