We had been boys together in Muscatine, and on one occasion had gone down to the island duck hunting. The ducks were there, but alas! they had all congregated in the center of a big pond, so far from the shore as to be out of gunshot.

Various plans were discussed for women were fully as active and getting them, but none seemed feasible, till Dick, who was a great reader, broached one which he had seen in some cyclopædia or missionary report. He told how the Chinese would cut a hole in a pumpkin large enough cured me, and thank God I am now to admit the head, scoop out the in-bottles free at Daniel J. Fry's drugside, cut a hole to see through, and donning the pumpkin like a helmet, wade out into the pond, keeping the body under water.
