

on July 4th and 5th next, for the purpose of taking effective steps to nullify the sympathy of all civilization in behalf of justice for the colored man. Each state shall be entitled to one delegate for every ten thousand colored population or fraction thereof. It is not intended the convention shall be in any way a political affair.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Cleveland and Gray Before the Convention Today.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—At a meeting of prominent supporters of ex-President Cleveland and ex-Governor Gray yesterday it was decided that the Indiana delegation to the Democratic national convention will vote for Grover Cleveland for president until it becomes manifest he is not the choice of the convention, and then the delegation will vote for Gray. Incidental endorsement of Gray is conceded by party leaders to be a proper recognition of the claims of the ex-governor, but only in submission to the inevitable. The Gray people have accepted to the agreement, and there is no likelihood of the Gray men receding from the agreement. Leading Cleveland men are being directed to prevent his over-enthusiastic followers from breaking away and ignoring the agreement by endeavoring to stampede the convention into an unqualified endorsement of Grover Cleveland. The fight for the governorship is hotter than ever with Shankland and Matthews still in the lead, but the friends of Niblack and Nye are hopeful.

OKLAHOMA BOOMERS.

The Town of Okarche Staked Out, and a City Government Begun.

KINGFISHER, April 21.—So far as reported, the rush seems to have been free from trouble and accidents, soldiers at only one place having a conflict with the crowd, and no unprovoked accident yet heard of. Most of the border claims will be contested. Despite the claim of Pierce, the Nebraska boomer, that he had taken the townsite of Okarche as a homestead, the townsites boomers staked out a town and organized a municipal government. Watonga was reached by boomers, about 220 being twenty-three miles from the border. Many good horses were ridden to death in the desperate race. A temporary city government was organized, and things are running smoothly today.

Colliery Flooded.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 21.—Another horror was added yesterday afternoon to Pennsylvania's list of mine accidents by the flooding of a part of the Lytle coal company's colliery near Minersville. It is said that seven or eight men have lost their lives and two others are in jeopardy. Six are Italians and the others Americans. A rescuing party was at once put to work cutting a passageway to where they could be heard tapping on coal. At 11 o'clock last night Wm. Bell was rescued, and the party is looking for the other men. The water that caused the calamity broke in from an old workings.

Crusher Philadelphia Damaged.

KEY WEST, Fla., April 21.—Something is the matter with the bottom of the United States cruiser Philadelphia. She has met with some accident about which the officers are extremely uncommunicative. It is of enough importance to warrant a communication to the navy department at Washington. A dispatch was sent to the secretary asking that an expert diver be sent at once to Key West to examine her. Word has been received that a diver would be sent immediately. R. E. Sampson, of Newport, R. I., has been selected to make the examination, and has left Newport.

Fall of an Aerolite.

PALERMO, Cal., April 21.—A large aerolite fell about three miles northeast of here. The aerolite was green in color. It left a long train of fire in its wake, and its striking the earth was accompanied by an explosion audible at this place.

Finest Work Ever Done.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 21.—At the Bethlehem iron works two armor-plate barbettes made for the turret warship Monterey, now being built at San Francisco, have been passed by the government inspectors. They are said to be the finest work ever turned out here. Commodore Folger declared it an almost absolute certainty that no enemy's projectile would ever penetrate them.

"Puzzled The Doctors."

MOST of the cases cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla have been given up by the regular practice. Physicians recommending this medicine are ever, and with satisfactory results. E. M. Sargent, Lowell, Mass., says: "Several years ago, my daughter broke out with large sores on her face, neck, and other parts of her body. The case puzzled the doctors. My daughter used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it resulted in a complete cure. Her blood seems to have been thoroughly purified, as she has never had so much as a pimple since taking this medicine."

"This is to certify that after having been sick for twelve years with kidney disease and general debility, and having been treated by several physicians without relief, I am now better in every respect, and think I am nearly well, having taken seven bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Marla Ludwigson, Albert Lea, Minn.

Others were more or less injured. Business is all suspended. Main street is a scene of desolation. This morning's shock caused about fifty feet of the fire wall of the Capitol hotel to collapse and fall to the sidewalk. Other brick buildings were also damaged. In addition to the Capitol hotel the Christian church, Odd Fellows hall and the express office were also damaged. Business is practically suspended as people are fearing another shock. Some damage done at Esparto but there is no details.

No one is injured but there were many narrow escapes. The people are again panic stricken and believe the ruin of the town will be completed before the shocks cease. Every available mechanic and laborer is at work attempting to clear away the wreckage and take down condemned buildings before any fatal accident occurs.

UNDER THE WHEELS

George W. Dressler Run Over by a Train.

PORTLAND, April 21.—Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday the south-bound passenger train of the Portland & Willamette Valley railroad ran over and killed a man on the Elk Rock trestle, about five miles from the city.

The train was stopped at once, and the conductor and engineer picked the body off the rails and put it in the express-car. It was horribly mangled. Both legs were completely severed above the knees, and where found on the rocks in the gulch below. The abdomen was cut badly, and there was a fearful gash in the right side of the head.

Judging from the decedent's gray hair, he was about 60 years of age, and his clothing and general appearance denoted the laborer.

The remains were then taken to Oswego, as it was thought the dead man was William Hastings, an employe at the Oregon Iron and Steel Works. As Mr. Hastings himself appeared to look at the dead man, the error was proven. The body was then put on the first north-bound train, which arrived here at noon, and Coroner River was immediately notified. He conveyed the body to the morgue, where an inquest will be held this evening at 7 o'clock.

According to the story of the engineer of the train, the dead man was seen walking on the trestle some distance ahead of the engine. The engineer slowed up and the man got out on one of the bridge beams. It was supposed he would remain out of the way, as he was in a place of safety, so the engineer pulled out the throttle and moved ahead.

Suddenly the cars began jumping and a full stop was made. Then the horrifying discovery was made that the old man had been literally cut to pieces. The track and car wheels were spattered with blood. It is supposed the unfortunate man must have thrown his arm over the rail, and was in some way drawn under the wheels. However, the inquest will probably unravel the mystery.

C. H. Young was acting as engineer, and J. M. Creeker was conductor of the train in question.

From some papers found on him at the morgue by Coroner River, it was learned that his name was George W. Dressler, and that he was a veteran of the Mexican war.

CONGREGATIONALISTS

Their Session at Eugene—Proceedings.

EUGENE, April 21.—The Willamette Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers held its annual meeting in Eugene, Tuesday and Wednesday, C. C. Hogan, of Corvallis, auditor of the Oregon Pacific Railway company, was chosen moderator, and Rev. H. F. Burgess, of Astoria, secretary. A. T. Gilbert was elected registrar and treasurer for the ensuing year. About sixty delegates were present, and a full and interesting program was presented. The general theme was "The Living Church," and under this general head such topics as the following were discussed: "Our Duty Towards Small Fields and Country Districts," "Its Methods of Giving," and the Christian Steward's League," "Its Hold on Men and Young Men," "Its Denominational Work," "Its Attitude Toward the Customs and Vices of Society," "Its Attitude Toward the Christian College," and "Its Ministry, How Secured."

E. Pentland and Mrs. Alice Dodd, of Salem; Mrs. J. C. Condon, of Eugene; Miss Helen Brooks, of the Pacific university, and Mrs. D. R. Barber, of Wilsonville, were especially interesting in presenting this work of missions. Rev. C. L. Corwin, of Salem, preached a very earnest and able sermon for the association Tuesday evening. The closing addresses were delivered last evening by Rev. Dr. McClelland, president of the Pacific university at Forest Grove, and Rev. T. E. Clapp, pastor of the First Congregational church of Portland. By special invitation of the faculty, the entire association visited the state university buildings and Professor Condon's cabinet yesterday at the noon recess.

Cleveland First; Gray Second.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—Democratic state convention met here this morning to nominate a state ticket and to choose delegates to the national convention. Senator Turpie was made permanent chairman. INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

A Case of Wholesale Poisoning—Drove Out Bob Ford, Etc.

FROM VACAVILLE.

Later Accounts of the Shocks of Yesterday.

VACAVILLE, Cal., April 21.—Not many people in Vacaville went to sleep Tuesday night. Apprehensive of further earthquake visitations most of the town remained awake. The night wore away and at 2 o'clock in the morning their fears were realized, when a sharp trembling made itself felt. There was no apparent excitement but more shocks were awaited. There were none, however, until 8:25, and that was almost as sharp as its early morning predecessor. The town presents a ruined appearance. Debris is piled up everywhere. Buildings all around town have opened up, and many walls that were only cracked yesterday are nearly ready to fall today.

People are at work fixing temporary supports for buildings, and clearing away rubbish. The work of permanent repairs is also going on. The Odd Fellows' building will have to be built from the foundation. Contracts have been made by the bank and M. H. Hacke for practically as few days they will be practically as good as new. The town has been filled with curiosity seekers, and telegrams keep pouring in from relatives and friends. The active movement for brick buildings has received a quietus. The general sentiment in view of the earthquake is that one-story celled buildings are good for the people of this town. Many have left town to sleep in the country. Seven shocks have been felt since sunset Tuesday night. That at 1:50 was the most severe, but its only effect was to hurry the demolition of crumbling walls. The greatest need at present is new chimneys; there is probably not a sound one in the township.

Dixon, Cal., April 21.—This place was again shaken by three distinct shocks of earthquake yesterday morning, one at 2 o'clock, one at 4 o'clock and another at 8:30 this morning. They were all of short duration compared with the one of the night before. A large force of men have been engaged to clear away the ruins of Tuesday morning's damages.

Drove Out Bob Ford.

CREDE, Cal., April 21.—Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James, was ordered to leave the camp yesterday. He and J. Palmer, a kindred spirit, went up and down the streets of Crede, each with a gun in his hand, and blazed away at buildings, signs, lights and everything else. Officers of the camp stamped, and not a man in authority was to be found to stop the shooters. Yesterday morning a number of business men held a meeting, and the verdict was that the two men must leave town by 3 o'clock or there would be trouble. Ford and Palmer took a hack at once and drove to Watson, where they will take the first train to Denver.

Aid for Home Rule.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The appeal of the National Federation of America to the friends of home rule for Ireland is issued. In part it runs thus: The Tory government, the implacable enemy of the Irish people, has been driven finally to bay. Advice from the other side point inevitably to an early dissolution of parliament. The general elections following immediately will decide the home-rule question for our generation, if not forever. Friends of Ireland in America, will you aid the Irish people now? Will you organize at once and give the necessary material support, without which the battle cannot be won? The Tory party has arranged to contest every seat in Ireland; to impose new burdens on our people, knowing their poverty. Heavy statutory fees must be deposited when the nominations are made. The necessary funds should be in our treasurer's hands before the dissolution of parliament, in order to be available at once. The hour for a final effort is upon us. The appeal is signed by Thomas A. Emmet, president. It requests that contributions be sent to Treasurer Eugene Kelly, 22 Cooper Union.

Fight Between Labor Organizations.

PITTSBURG, April 21.—A local paper is authority for the statement that within a short time there will be inaugurated a fight which means "the survival of the fittest" in so far as the American Federation of Labor and the Knights of Labor are concerned. The paper says these two powerful bodies of organized labor will enter into a combat which will be lengthy and quite spirited. Such is the meaning conveyed by an interview with Henry White, general auditor of the United Garment Workers of America, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. In the interview he is emphatic in the denunciation of the boycott on Rochester clothing manufacturers. He stated that the federation has taken the matter up, and would endeavor to counteract the effects of the boycott. The executive committee of the Federation of Labor meets at New York next week, at which meeting a plan of campaign will be marked out. Then the great battle will begin, and in every city the fight will be taken up by the federation.

Had Snakes in His Stomach.

PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., April 21.—John Longwell, of Wellsboro, Pa., the man who vomited three snakes, is dead. A year ago the deceased was very ill one day and vomited two snakes of considerable length. A short time ago he was again taken ill, and vomited a green snake several inches long. Longwell is supposed to have swallowed some snake eggs while drinking at a spring. His body will probably be exhumed and his stomach examined.

Large Sale of Coal Lands.

DUBOIS, Pa., April 21.—A report is current here that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has bought the Dubois estate, comprising 28,000 acres of coal and timber land in Clearfield county, for $17,000,000. John Dubois, who was made sole heir of the estate at the death of his uncle, is in Philadelphia and the report cannot be verified. The low grade of the Allegheny Valley railroad, now controlled by the Pennsylvania, runs through the tract from east to west. It is said the transfer will be made to individual stockholders of the Pennsylvania.
