

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS.

The Chinese Exclusion Act Before the Senate Today.

STORM AT PORTLAND.

The Wind Blew a Hurricane—Brick Wall Blown Down.

PORTLAND, April 25.—Yesterday was one of the roughest and most disagreeable days ever experienced in this city. "It rained and the wind seemed never weary," and it made all who had occasion to go abroad very weary.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-ning.

Mrs. and Mrs. Loren Tremont are the parents of the Gov. Highsmith at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she has taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever.

NORTH HOWELL PRAIRIE.

The regular quarterly meeting for the circuit was well attended and two sermons were preached by Rev. Myers, of Brooks.

E. E. Cawood, a late graduate of Philadelphia Dental college, passed through Howell Prairie a short time ago and visited a while at his uncle's, B. Wiesner. He will open an office in the Marquam building, Portland, soon.

T. J. Clark, the lecturer of the North Howell Alliance, will start for California soon, to engage in carpenter work until after harvest. His family will remain here during his absence.

There are 58 pupils enrolled in the public school and the average attendance is about 50. There is much need of a larger building and better seats for the accommodations of so large a school.

The roads to Salem have been improved by some much needed work and there is still much to be done. Albert McCordie, our supervisor, is looking after the road interest as best he can and proposes to do all possible with the allowance due the district.

Falling Over a Precipice

It is a terrible thing even in dreams. The victim of this tragedy, a man named Wake with a start and a cry, his limbs bathed in cold perspiration, his heart throbbing violently, started up on you back, particularly if you are troubled with dizziness and nervousness and use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to cure their ills.

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKee Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with a bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle. She says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles sold by Geo. E. Good, druggist.

The Union Pacific system will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates, Portland to Astoria, for the Columbia centennial to be held at Astoria May 10th, 11th and 12th.

"Thick and Glossy."

THE PRODUCTION of an abundant growth of hair, of a silk-like texture and of the original color, often results from the use, by those who have become bald or gray, of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

"I was rapidly becoming gray and bald; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy, and the original color was restored."—M. Aldrich, Canada Centre, N. H.

"A trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me of its efficacy. My hair is not only thicker, but it is also more abundant and glossy, and it has given my rather faded cheeks a respectable length and appearance."—H. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all that I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, of Charles st., Haverhill, Mass.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists and Perfumers.

HONOR IS SATISFIED.

Borrowe and Fox Fight a Duel but No Blood Was Shed.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A special to the Sun from Brussels gives the details of the Borrowe-Fox duel which was fought in the hollows of the sand dunes on the Belgian coast, near Neupret Bois, a few miles south of Ostend. It resulted in nothing worse than a triple perforation of the skirts of Fox's new frock coat, but was as close a call as a man often has. Borrowe's bullet went in the coat about six inches below the lowest button, so close to Fox's abdomen that it scraped his trousers. Had Borrowe bettered his aim by half an inch, the result would have been fatal beyond a doubt. Fox was seconded by W. B. Bacon, Jr., of Boston, and Borrowe by Harry Vane Milbank. It had been decided the men should fire two shots each, and all present knew that both meant business.

The Author of the "Marseillaise."

PARIS, April 25.—The statue of Rouget de Lisle, who wrote the words and music of the "Marseillaise" 100 years ago, was unveiled yesterday at Chateau de Lisle. [Rouget de Lisle was an officer of artillery at Strasbourg. He composed the words and music of the grand anthem of the French revolution in 1792 in a single night. It was called the war song of the army of the Rhine. The name "Marseillaise" was given it at Paris from the incorrect report that it had originated at Marseilles.]

Plunged into the River.
