

papers of Minneapolis by the assistance of his employer, but now he seems anxious that all should be told. He says that he has been prevented from seeing his wife through the interferences and orders of Underwood, who has kept strict watch upon her. He claims that the two men are working together, and that they are keeping his wife under the influence of liquor, so that she cannot return to him. He threatened to bring suit for heavy damages against the two men for their actions.

HARRISON AND BLAINE.

Wisconsin Republicans Enthused When Names are Mentioned.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 6.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday afternoon. Ogden H. Fetters, of Janesville, was chosen temporary chairman, and made a brief address. The convention cheered heartily when he mentioned as "every inch a man and our model president, Benjamin Harrison." When he spoke of "that man foremost in the world, to whom goes out now as always the great heart of the Republican party, James G. Blaine," there was a momentary hush, then the hall resounded with cheers, which were renewed again and again.

The platform unqualifiedly indorses the administration of President Harrison as "strong, efficient, patriotic and exceptionally free of scandal and wastefulness." It indorses the tariff legislation of the fifty-first congress. It denounces as "narrow the parsimony of the Democratic house miscalled economy," and says, "while we favor the use of both gold and silver as money metals, and the conditions which shall guarantee their circulation at a continuing and substantial parity with each other, under existing circumstances we are unalterably opposed to the free and unlimited issue of silver." The movement for an international conference is commended, and a modification of the silver act, to enable the president to regulate silver purchases, is recommended. While the administration of Harrison is strongly indorsed, no mention is made of instruction to the delegates for him.

ENDED THIS LIFE.

Because He Was Married and Loved Another

HARTFORD, Conn., May 6.—Pretty Minnie Marshall's admirer lies dead in the morgue, although he had a wife and three children in Boston. Charles E. Sherwood became infatuated with Minnie shortly after he located at Hartford as a photographer last November. Everything went pleasantly and they had no trouble until about three weeks ago, when Minnie's parents heard a rumor that her lover had a family. Minnie's father traced the report, and last Friday interviewed the deserted wife in Boston. Sherwood became despondent, and after ineffectual attempts to see Minnie, he talked to his partner last night of suicide. He would listen to no reason, or talk of anything other than the cruel fate which had separated him from her. He roamed the streets nearly all night, and early this morning when Minnie happened to glance from her chamber window she saw Sherwood, who was standing in a vacant lot adjoining the house. He made no motion nor did he speak, but fixed upon her an awful stare. A moment later he raised a vial to his lips and drank the contents, and then there was a flash of a revolver and a sharp report. Sherwood pitched headlong forward with a bullet-hole through his skull and was dead before passers-by could reach him. In his pockets were found Minnie's photograph, a lock of her hair, and a few letters which bore traces of having been read and re-read. The body will be forwarded to his widow in Boston.

Nervous Prostration.

SO prevalent, especially among women, results from overtaxing the system. The assimilative organs becoming deranged, the blood grows weak and impoverished, and hence "that tired feeling" of which many complain. For all such cases, there is no remedy equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

"Some time ago I found my system entirely run down. I had a feeling of constant fatigue and languor and very little ambition for any kind of effort. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did with the best results. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used."
—Frank Mallove, Chelsea, Mass.

"For months I was afflicted with nervous prostration, weakness, languor, general debility, and mental depression. By purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I was completely cured."
—Mrs. Mary Stevens, Lowell, Mass.

When troubled with Dizziness, Sleeplessness, or Bad Dreams, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

WILD CATTLE.

Tearing Through the Streets of New York.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Early this morning a fire started in the immense slaughter house of Schwartz, Child & Hultberger, wholesale butchers. The building containing large quantities of inflammable material, and was soon a mass of flames. During the fire, 500 head of cattle in an adjoining shed were turned loose, and went tearing through the streets in a panic. There were many narrow escapes from being trampled to death by the infuriated animals. The loss to buildings, contents, and what is estimated at $250,000.

ITALY'S CABINET.

Has Resigned on Account of Finances.

ROME, May 6.—Marquis Dini, prime minister of Italy to day tendered King Humbert the resignation of all the members of the cabinet on the refusal yesterday, of the chamber of deputies to adopt a vote of confidence in the government's financial policy of retrenchment. The finances of Italy are in a bad way.

Rivers and Harbors.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In a house yesterday Holman attacked the river and harbor bill as being extravagant. It not only appropriated more than $21,000,000, but authorized contracts which would make the government liable for $25,000,000 more. Whiting, of Michigan, thought the proposition to secure a twenty-one foot channel from Duluth to Buffalo premature and ill advised. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, attacked the bill. Lockwood, who favored a deep water way channel, as did Catchings, of Mississippi. General debate being concluded, the bill was considered under the five-minute rule, without disposing of it, the committee rose, and the house adjourned.

They Want Reciprocity.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 6.—Speaking of the condition of business in New Brunswick, Senator Snowball, one of the principal lumber manufacturers, exporters and railway managers of that province, said that matters were anything but satisfactory. The McKinley tariff has crippled the business of exporting fresh fish. Business men considered in excellent circumstances a year ago, have been obliged to assign, others are hard pressed. The want of reciprocity with the United States is keenly felt by all classes.

An Attempt to Burn a Bridge.

GOLD HILL, May 6.—Mr. Ercanback was driving across the county bridge which spans Rye River at this place yesterday when he discovered that the railroad bridge was on fire. At the same time he saw a man running a distance of seventy yards on the ties from where the fire was burning. The man stopped, swung himself off from the end of one of the piers, and dropped down a distance of ten or twelve feet. He ran rapidly down the river and disappeared in the brush. Mr. Ercanback extinguished the fire and found the ties had been saturated with kerosene. Parties are in search of the miscreant.

Latest on the Wreck.

FORT MADISON, Ia., May 6.—The bodies of the unknown woman and child who were taken from the wreck of the Santa Fe train near Medill, Mo., yesterday are now known to be those of Mrs. C. Bausch and child, of San Bernardino, Cal. They, with other dead, are laid out in a morgue here, and present a shocking spectacle. Many of them are badly disfigured. The remainder of the unburied and slightly hurt passengers left this morning for their destination.

Methodist Conference.

OMAHA, Neb., May 6.—Bishop Malliett presided at the morning session of the Methodist conference. The first order of the day, report of Bishop Thoburn of India and Malia. He said the church was teaching the Gospel in those countries in thirteen languages. The work in India was in excellent condition, the membership has increased nearly 30,000 in the past four years, Sunday schools have increased 15,000 and now number 55,000, there were 29,000 scholars in the day schools, people by the thousands were giving up idols.

Virginia Republicans.

ROANOKE, Va., May 6.—The Republican state central convention adjourned at 3 this morning. A big fight was made on the question of instructing delegates for Harrison, Mahone and Langston opposed this and a dead-lock was threatened. When the vote was taken Mahone won 82 to 193. General Mahone stated if the delegates were instructed for Harrison, he would not obey the instructions.

For Free Delivery.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The house postoffice committee have agreed to report favorably a bill for the extension of free delivery to the rural districts and a bill for the issue of fractional postal notes.

Immigrant Statistics.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.—The United States government is securing immigrant statistics, with a view of amending the present laws. It is proposed to follow the immigrant from the time of leaving Ellis Island to ascertain whether he becomes a good citizen or lands in a prison or poor-house. The inspector is instructed to secure all the data possible at the earliest moment, and forward to Washington for presentation to congress.

Young Democracy.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—The Young Democracy of Maryland, had a large meeting last night, under auspices of the Cleveland tariff reform club. A resolution was adopted, demanding that no delegate shall be chosen to the national convention, who shall not have given indubitable pledge that he favors tariff reform and non-intervention of Grover Cleveland.

Portland's Public Building.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Senator Dolph today proposed an amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $250,000 for a public building at Portland, Oregon, in addition to the appropriation already made and to release the limit of cost to $1,500,000.

THE MOST PRECIOUS RELIC

That Has Ever Been Exhibited in America.

NEW YORK, May 6.—In a gold-lined casket on the altar in the quiet little French church of St. Jean Baptiste, 159 East Seventy-sixth street, has lain each day since Monday, from 6:30 to 10 a. m., the most precious relic in Catholic eyes of the days when Christ walked the earth which ever reached America. It is a large fragment of the arm of St. Ann, mother of the blessed Virgin Mary, mother of Jesus. Many centuries it has been guarded more jealously than were ever guarded royal jewels of kingly crowns by the Benedictine monks at Rome in the great basilica of St. Paul's outside the walls. Now, by special request of his holiness the pope, a portion of it is sent to increase the faith and devotion of all members of the church in the United States and Canada. This relic, which will be regarded by Catholics everywhere with the deepest feeling of piety and joy, is to be kept at the church of St. Anne de Itaque, on the St. Lawrence river. Another piece of the arm is on its way, and will be enshrined in the church where the fragment above referred to is exposed.

DIFFICULTIES ON THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC

TO BE SETTLED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—In answer to General Superintendent Fillmore's call for a general meeting of all the division superintendents of the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific railroad, for the purpose of discussing the revised wage schedule presented a few days since by the trainmen's grievance committee, a number of superintendents arrived in the city yesterday and were in consultation the greater part of the day. Others will arrive this morning, and this afternoon a general conference will take place, looking to an amicable adjustment of the present difficulties.

ONLY EIGHTEEN MONTHS

Is What a Bigamist and Impersonator Gets.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., May 6.—Bigamist and retired army officer impersonator D. W. McWalters, alias Captain A. H. Nave, was brought before Judge Cope in the superior court and pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy, whereupon he was sentenced to eighteen months in San Quentin. His two Santa Barbara wives—Emma Booka, a British blonde, and Mary Carrillo, a dark-haired Spanish senorita—were very anxious to have the betrayer of their confidence severely punished, and their chagrin was great at his escaping with such a light sentence. McWalters is well connected in this state and is evidently well off. It is said that still another of his many wives was heard from and that her intended visit here to prosecute him caused the sudden change in his assertions of innocence.

More About the Accident.

FORT MADISON, Ia., May 6.—A frightful accident occurred early yesterday morning on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, twenty-five miles west, near Medill, Mo. Without a word of warning, in the midst of a terrible storm, the east-bound transcontinental express, filled with human beings, wrapped in slumber, plunged through a trestle weakened by rain, killing seven people, and wounding a number of others.

The Lame, the Halt and the Blind Cured by Faith.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 5.—The lame, the halt and the blind are again coming into the city in large numbers to see Father Mullinger, the faith-cure priest, and to the shrine of St. Anthony in the chapel on Troy hill. Most of the believers are from the South, and some of them are so weak they cannot walk and have to be hauled about in chairs. Tennessee and Kentucky furnish a great many patients for the revered physician, as he is said to have made some wonderful cures among the afflicted in that portion of the country. Boarding houses in the vicinity of the priest's residence are rapidly filling up with patients, and many more will come to the priest during the festivals and ceremonies of St. Anthony's day.

Buckley, Wash., Burns.

BUCKLEY, Wash., May 5.—The business part of East Main street was burned to the ground between 6 and 8 o'clock yesterday. A bed of ashes and smoldering fire stretches from Light of Way to Cottage avenue. The fire is attributed to the sparks from the mill of White River Shingle company located at the depot, which set fire to the roof of the Buckley Lumber company's store. A light wind was blowing, which made the whole street on the south and business part an easy victim, though the fire had to jump Cedar street to reach a solid block stretching to Cottage avenue.

Little effort was made to quench the fire after it got fairly started, but hundreds of men carried goods across the street and considerable merchandise was saved. The citizens are busy tonight getting goods into safe places, and many firms will do business tomorrow from improvised stores. The Buckley state bank will be open for business at Taylor & Joint's office at the usual hour, owing to their fire-proof safe. Heroic efforts to save goods were made, and many now suffer from scorched faces. Coke Ewing is confined to his bed with very painful burns about the neck and face.
