XIII, when told of these remarks, said:

"The body of St. Ann was buried, according to Bollandist, in the tomb of the Blessed Virgin at Jerusalem. A legend in the south of France is that when all the relatives of our Lord and the Virgin Mary were banished from Palestine they took with them the body of St. Ann. It was entombed in the subterranean chapel in the cathedral of Apt, in the south of France, by the first bishop of that see in the first century. When France was invaded by the barbarians in A. D. 772, the vault was discovered, and opened in the presence of Charlemange, Archbishop Turpin and a great company of priests and nobles. On the cypress coffin was inscribed: 'This is the body of St. Ann, mother of the blessed Virgin Mary.'

"A letter of Charlemange to Pope Adrain I concerning this discovery is extant. The body has been kept ever since in the cathedral of Apt, to the great glory of the city. The relic recently exposed in this city came from the right arm, which was sent to Rome and kept in the monastery of St. Paul.

"In respect to the Methodist ministers who criticised us," said Monsignor O'Reilly, "I have only to say they should go to the libraries and read for themselves the historical proofs of the miraculous preservation of the body of St. Ann."

GOT HIS PUNISHMENT.

A Negro Murderer Then Asks to Be Hung.

BASTROP, La., May 25.—A most peculiar murder and lynching occurred here Sunday. One man committed the murder, and one man did the lynching with the assistance of the murderer. S. C. Hambiss Brigham was manager for Colonel George C. Phillips, who owns a plantation on the island of Siard. Mr. Brigham was 25 years of age, and while he was in the fields he was shot from ambush by an old negro, who fired three shots from a Winchester rifle, killing Brigham instantly. The negro then walked to the plantation residence, summoned Colonel Phillips and told him that he had killed Brigham and wanted to be hanged for it. Colonel Phillips put a rope around the negro's neck, pulled the rope over the limb of a tree, and the negro was soon swinging in a death struggle. No motive is assigned for the murder, and it is thought the negro was insane, although he had lived on the place for years without giving any signs of an unsound mind.

GLADSTONE SPEAKS.

He Discusses the Government's Irish Bill.

LONDON, May 25.—The discussion of the Irish local government bill was resumed yesterday in the commons. Gladstone spoke at great length. He said the house was in a singular position, discussing a bill which it was improbable would be proceeded with it. In 1886 Chamberlain and Lord Hartington promised Ireland everything short of an independent parliament. Now all these promises are dissolved in the present meagre bill, which stamped Ireland with inequality, as compared with England and Scotland, and falsified the miserable relics of the solemn pledge by which the present majority was obtained by the government in 1886. Lord Salisbury's recent language distinctly encouraged civil war. A definite explanation ought to be given whether the cabinet is generally of the same opinion as the premier. Did ministers believe, asked Gladstone, that the people of Ulster would rebel against the decision of parliament, or that the employment of the powers of the crown to suppress such rebellion be such an outrage as would rend society in two. If Lord Salisbury's language meant anything it was a plain incitement of a few misguided men to resort to violence, to resist the authority of parliament. These were conditions the Irish members had been offered when invited to accept the gift of the present bill, and said it stamped Ireland with inequality and ferocity by withholding from her the power and privileges that are obtained in her sister countries.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes painful humiliating sores on the arms, legs, or feet; developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" and fastening upon the lungs causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula or impure blood, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, sores breaking out on them in various places. My little boy, three years old, has been a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we have all taken it. The result is that all have been cured of the scrofula, my little boy being entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. H. ATHERTON, Passaic City, N. J.

The missions of the board are located in fifteen different countries.

A resolution disapproving of the recent Chinese legislation by the government was referred to a committee for consideration and report.

NEW LINE TO CHINA.

The Northern Pacific Will Have Three Steamers.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The announcement that the Northern Pacific has succeeded in establishing a line of steamers between Tacoma, China and Japan is confirmed here. The arrangement was completed with an English syndicate, by which the new company will be called the Northern Pacific steamship company. It has been formed with Sir Williams Pearce, of London, as president, who organized the Canadian Pacific steamship company. There will be three ships, all under the British flag. Voyages will be made monthly in each direction. The first steamer of the new company, left Hong Kong May 21st. The steamship line will deliver exclusively to the Northern Pacific, but will compete for exports of the Pacific coast at all points.

Washington Democrats.

VANCOUVER, Wn., May 25.—The Democratic state convention met here today, for the purpose for the first time in the history of the state, of choosing eight delegates to the National Democratic convention, at Chicago. At 10 o'clock, the delegates formed in line at the hotel, and headed by a band, marched to the convention hall, which was decorated with bunting. A picture of Grover Cleveland adorned the walls in several places.

The convention was called to order by C. H. Warner, of Colfax, vice-chairman of the state central committee, in absence of the chairman. After a brief and appropriate address by Warner, a temporary organization was effected by the election of L. H. Platter, of Spokane, chairman, and Franklin K. Lane, of Tacoma, secretary.

The temporary chairman made a brief speech, the references to Palmer and Boies were enthusiastically received but when he mentioned the name of Cleveland, the convention rose to their feet and cheered; cries of "What is the matter with Cleveland" were answered from all directions by the reply "He is all right."

The Speaker thought the delegation should not be instructed. Mr. Lane, in response to cries of a speech made a rousing and eloquent talk of ten minutes, in which he said, the manifest choice of the Democracy of this state is Grover Cleveland. (Cheers, lasting five minutes.) We need not pledge our delegates. they will go knowing that Washington is for Cleveland, and they will stand by him until there is no longer any chance of his nomination. The usual committees were then appointed, after which the convention took a recess till 1 p m.

Port Townsend Kicks.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Senator Allen today introduced another remonstrance from the chamber of commerce of Port Townsend, Wash., giving reasons why no applications should be made for coast defense vessels for Puget Sound or for the construction of a ship canal from Lake Washington to the Sound. In the first instance the remonstrance says the land defenses are much better than vessels could be, and much expert testimony is furnished to prove that assertion. As to the Lake Washington canal it is charged that the project is not intended for the benefit of the public, that its utility is very much doubted and that its only scheme is to revive the land boom.

The Brewers Association.

BOSTON, May., 25.—Annual convention United States Brewers association met here this morning and decided to make an exhibit at the worlds fair, not only of beers and brewing, but also of present statistics, showing the effect of this great industry on agriculture, manufactures and its tendency to promote temperance, etc.

For Blaine and Mckinley.

CLEVELAND, O., May 25.—The Leader, Governor McKinley's closest newspaper organ, in its leading editorial declares for Blaine and McKinley as the strongest ticket that could be nominated at Minneapolis. Appeal For Aid.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., May 25.—The board of trade has issued a call to the people of the country, for aid for the flood sufferers in the Arkansas river valley.

INSURED HIS LIFE.

A Sharper Swindles an Insurance Company.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—A sensational arrest has been made by the Los Angeles police authorities. In April, 1886, Bryant Crandall, of Buffalo, N. Y., after insuring his life for $20,000, disappeared. His clothing found on the bank of the Niagara, seemed to point to suicide. Some three months later a dead body was found below the falls exactly fitting Crandall's description, even to an injury to the right foot. Crandall's wife and relatives positively identified the body as that of Crandall, and part of the insurance money was paid. The insurance association was still suspicious, and the matter got into court. In March, 1887, Crandall was seen on the streets in Los Angeles, and positively identified, but he soon disappeared. Some months ago Crandall was again seen on the streets in Los Angeles, and again he disappeared. From that time detectives have been on his track, and he was finally located at Newhall, in this county, where he was working at a petroleum well. When an officer reached Newhall, Crandall had again disappeared, but he was easily traced to this city, and located at the county hospital. Last Thursday Chief Glass and Detective Moffat placed Crandall under arrest, and he was conveyed to the city prison, where he has since been confined. Crandall has been identified beyond any shadow of a doubt. The identity of the dead body found floating below Ningara falls will have to be cleared up, and some startling developments may be looked for.

GEN. CRESPO SPEAKS.

In Favor of Reciprocity With the United States.

PUERTO CABELLO, Venezuela, May 24.—In an interview, General Crespo makes some statements in regard to the charge that the revolutionists were aided by Great Britian, and were ready to make certain concessions in return. He said:

"It is true that we do not look to England for help. We look to the United States."

"What policy would you advise for your country and the United Statis?"

"Recipricity, I think well of that. I like the United States, and I intend to visit the exposition at Chicago and shall take my family with me. The regenerated Venezuela will have a worthy exhibit there. I want you to say that the people who fight under the insurgent banner today are opposed to British intrusion in Venezuela. We do not now, nor will we ever, recognize the rights of the English flag on Venezuelan territory. If we cannot speak for the rest of South America, we can speak for Venezuela."

As to what would happen if he were defeated at La Victoria, Crespo answered the revolution would keep right on.

"This rising," he said, "is the growth of years. A battle or two lost to us would not destroy our cause. We would take to the mountains and wear out the government, which cannot be continually borrowing without resources."

"In the event of the success of your armies, will you succeed to the presidency?"

"No; I would not accept the office, nor could anything induce me to do so. As soon as I can attend to it, my private business interests will demand all my attention."

"Who will succeed Palacio as president of the republic?"

"I shall leave that to congress. I shall be satisfied if he is a good man with no dictatotial ideas.,'

Members of the committee are divided on the subject, and separate reports will be made.

The joint resolution was placed on the calender. The subject was discussed at some length by the committee this morning. An amendment proposing to elect the president and vice president at the same time and in the same manner as representatives was rejected.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottle free at Danl. J. Fry's, Drugstore, regular size, 50c. and $1.00
