

when the air was thick with points of order and questions for information, but out of the turmoil came a motion to lay on the table the report of the minority, which contemplated the sending of the case back to the assembly. The motion was carried by a vote of 385 to 122, the first test of strength of parties into which the assembly is divided. The report of the majority recommending the reception of appeal, and that the assembly proceed to hear it, was passed without division.

From this time till the close of the session there was a constant wrangle over the admission of certain papers as giving record of the case before the assembly. The records sent up by us only were its minutes and a stenographic report of proceedings at the trial of Dr. Briggs which resulted in the dismissal of the case. The appellant had printed a portion of the minutes which concerned the case with some other papers and also the whole of the stenographic report. These they wanted admitted as the "records," but Dr. Briggs objected. It was not till the close of the afternoon hour that the decision was reached, and the written minutes, with the stenographic report were allowed as the "records."

NEUTRALITY LAW VIOLATION

A Mexican Colonel Found Guilty of the Offense.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 27.—Pablo Munoz, colonel of the "Faithful of Zaragoza," division of the constitutional army of Mexico, of which Catarina Garza was commander-in-chief, has been found guilty of violating the United States neutrality laws. The prisoner is 70 years old, and a typical frontier Mexican in appearance. Judge Doanman deferred sentence until tomorrow. It is generally believed that Munoz will receive the maximum punishment for his offense, which is three years imprisonment and $3000 fine. His extensive ranch in Texas has been deeded to the attorneys who defended him. This is the first conviction for neutrality law violation made in the United States in sixty years.

OVER THE FALLS.

But His Head Was Cool and His Life Was Saved.

ROXBURY, N. Y., May 27.—A thrilling scene was witnessed at Rifton, Ulster county, yesterday. A young man from Philadelphia, who refused to give his name, but who is interested in a photograph, went sailing on the Walkill creek. His little craft got into the current, and its occupant losing all control, it drifted helplessly toward the falls at Rifton. Just as the boat reached the brink, the man gave a jump over the falls, clearing the rocks below and striking deep water. Those who witnessed the scene were horrified, expecting never to see the man alive again. The stranger, after going under the water three times, struck out and reached shore in an exhausted condition. The boat was dashed to pieces. The young Philadelphian is the only person who has ever gone over the falls and has come out alive. When the water is low in the creek the falls are forty-five feet high.

SILVER COINAGE.

Stewart's Bill before the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—At the beginning of the present week few friends of the free silver proposition had any hope that anything in the semblance of such a bill could be got before congress this session. Yesterday, as the result of an adroit move on the part of Morgan, the senate was obliged suddenly to record itself on what free coinage senators call a square issue. As a result of the day's proceedings, Stewart's free silver coinage bill is before the senate as unfinished business. It has displaced the alien bill. The outcome cannot be predicted. Anti-sliver men say the action means only prolix discussion of the silver question, but sliver men say it means the speedy passage of a free silver bill.

SCROFULA

It is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; inflames the skin in the eyes, ears, or nose; often causes blindness or deafness; is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" and fastens upon the lungs, causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cure it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula or impure blood, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been tried by my wife and children and has been found to be a most reliable remedy. My little boy, three years old, has been a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to foot. I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we have all taken it. The result is that all have been cured of the scrofula, my little boy being entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy.

The Dr. Briggs Case—and Reports of Committees.

PORTLAND, May 27.—The same overcast skies and the same crowd of auditors greeted the opening of the Briggs case today that were noted yesterday. A floral column of red roses five feet high was placed upon the desk occupied by Dr. Briggs. It was surrounded by a white dove with outstretched wings. What it symbolized was a matter of conjecture. The hearing on appeal was delayed to hear the report of the standing committee on church extension. The assembly was then again constituted as a court by the moderator. A resolution was introduced looking to the return of the Briggs case to the Presbytery of New York for new trial.

UNITED PRESBYTERIANS

Protest Against the World's Fair on Sundays.

PITTSBURGH, May 27.—The general assembly of the United Presbyterian church met at its regular session yesterday morning. A resolution was passed expressing a hope that congress would appropriate money for the world's fair only on condition that it be closed on Sundays, and the sale of liquor be prohibited on the grounds. A report on statistics showed the work of the church, the money collected, etc. Among the papers presented was a memorial from Nebraska asking the establishment of a general assembly fund, and one from Rev. David Morrow protesting against the action of the San Francisco presbytery in dropping his name from the roll of presbytery because he favored the organ as an instrument of worship. He claims the dismissal a persecution.

Sacramento River.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 26.—The Sacramento river held down to the 26 feet and 10 inch mark all night without either gaining or receding. Land owners below the city were fearful that the melting levees in that direction would not be able to endure during the day. This morning the stream rose an inch over the highest point of yesterday. On Tuesday morning one of the guards patrolling Yolo levee noticed two men apparently digging into the levee at the Carry place, five miles below town. The guard fired two shots, and the men fled. Investigation showed that a hole had been bored or dug into the top of the levee and a charge of dynamite inserted. One hundred men are working on a levee at Freeport, and they have used forty-five thousand sacks of earth in strengthening the bank.

Miss Ella Beardsley.

PORTLAND, May 27.—Nothing further has been learned of the disappearance at Aberdeen of Miss Ella Beardsley, whose boat was found floating in the Wiscat river at that place last Monday, and her friends here are losing hope of ever seeing her again. Search parties have been out day and night beating the woods and dragging the river, but no trace of her has been found yet, and the opinion is growing that she was drowned and borne by the current of the river into Gray's harbor.

Burned the Unlucky Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—A dispatch to the Merchants' Exchange from Ventura says that the schooner Hayes arrived there this morning from Seattle and reports having seen the ship St. Charles on May 18. The St. Charles sailed from Nantamio for this city on May 15 with a cargo of coal and blew up May 17. It was supposed that she had sunk. The Hayes reports further that the ship had eleven feet of water in her hold, and her rudder was unshipped. She was in a useless condition and the captain of the Hayes set fire to her before proceeding on his way.

OMAHA, May 27.—At the Methodist conference yesterday the committee on the state of the church recommended the appointment of a committee of three bishops, three ministers and three laymen to consider the advisability of the organic union of all the Methodist churches of the United States; the recommendation was adopted. An effort to bring up the question of the admission of women to the conference in advance of the regular order failed to get the necessary two-thirds vote.

Methodist Protestant Church.

WESTMINSTER, M. D., May 27.—At the general conference of the Methodist Protestant church, they adopted resolutions favoring the passage by congress of an amendment now before it, prohibiting the states from passing laws respecting the establishment of religion or the use of its property or credit, or money raised by taxation for aiding any church, religious denomination or institution under religious control.

The Silver Men.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The silver convention met again this morning. Addresses were made by Shlan, of Kan., and P. H. Thomas, of Penn., the latter denounced both political parties and said he would rather than vote for Cleveland, with his free trade ideas, would vote for Queen Victoria for president, and rather than vote for that hypocritical weak-kneed Republican party, would vote for Cleveland.

A RACE WAR BREWING.

An Editorial in a Colored Newspaper Arouses People.

MEMPHIS, May 27.—A colored newspaper, the Free Speech, by an editorial paragraph, stirred this community up almost to the lynch point yesterday. In referring to the frequent lynching of negroes, it says: "Nobody in this section of the country believes the old thread-bare lie that negro men rape white women. If the Southern white men are not careful they will overreach themselves, and a conclusion will be reached which will be very damaging to the moral reputation of their women."

VANDERBILT'S GRIEF.

His Mind May Give Way Because of His Heir's Death.

NEW YORK, May 27.—It is feared that Cornelius Vanderbilt's mind may become unbalanced because of his grief for the death of his son, William H. He is watched constantly, and at night some one sits up in his bedroom. The distracted father is utterly prostrated, and though his real condition has not been made known to the public, the information comes to the press through an unquestionable source that his mind has been seriously affected by the shock of bereavement. Chauncey M. Depew has been almost constantly at the Vanderbilt mansion since the young heir's death, and has been much in the company of the stricken father. In giving information to the press, Mr. Depew, however, has had little to say concerning Mr. Vanderbilt's feelings. Dr. James McLane, the family physician, when asked about the reported mental derangement of Vanderbilt, said: "Mr. Vanderbilt is much prostrated and is a great sufferer, but it is not true he has become deranged. He slept soundly last night from exhaustion, and there was no watcher in his room."

It also declares that in the event of the Chicago convention failing to nominate candidates who are unequivocally in favor of free coinage, the nominees of this convention are absolved from all obligations to support the national ticket. Hon. G. W. Cassidy was nominated for congressman.

BUNCOED.

A California Rancher Falls Prey to Confidence Men.

YUBA CITY, Cal., May 27.—A. H. Holland, a wealthy farmer, living near here, was lured out of $1000 by two confidence men. On Monday a man calling himself Judge Love, of San Jose, called on Holland, saying he was on his way to Chico to hold court, and stopped over to see about buying the ranch. Yesterday, when they were driving over the ranch, they met a confederate of the stranger, who said he was also looking for a ranch, but incidentally remarked that he was an agent of the Louisiana lottery. He volunteered to explain how the game could be beaten. Producing several cards, he allowed Holland and the first stranger to draw. They won, and stranger No. 2 then suggested to put up $1000 each. Holland came to town and drew the money from the bank and returned. The money was all put in a tin box, and Holland won. The box, however, was changed, and when the strangers left, Holland found nothing but iron washers in his box. The men have not been found. Holland's neighbor was swindled the same way a year ago.
