NEW BALLOT LAW.

Below will be found that part of the new election law relating to the electors and methods of voting, together with the penalties for violating the same:

SEC. 58. Any person desiring to vote shall give his name and his residence to the first of the election clerks, which clerk shall not be of the same political party as the chairman, who shall thereupon announce the name and residence distinctly, and write in the poll-book kept by him the name and residence of the elector and the word "State," or "State and district," if he is qualified to vote for such officers only, and also write the name and residence of the elector, and, if proper, the word "State," or "State and district," with pen and ink upon one of the back of one of the stubs upon one of the white ballots provided under this act; the clerk shall then with pen and ink write the number of the elector upon the back of each of the two stubs upon said ballot; he shall so number the stubs upon each ballot to correspond with the number of the elector in the poll-book, beginning with No. 1, for the first elector applying to vote, No. 2 for the second elector, and so on, and he shall then tear off the stub upon which he wrote the elector's name. The clerk shall then deliver the ballot, with the remaining stub still attached thereto, to the elector. The said clerk shall give the elector one of said white ballots, and one only. The clerk shall then, at once, and before issuing another ballot, deliver the stub containing the name and number of the elector to the judges, who shall pass it to the second clerk, who shall immediately enter the number in the poll-book, and the name and residence of the elector opposite thereto, and shall retain the stub in his possession.

SEC. 59. On receipt of his white ballot, as aforesaid, the elector shall forthwith, and without leaving the enclosed space, retire alone to one of the compartments or places provided, and shall there prepare his ballot by cancelling, crossing or marking out the names of the candidates he does not wish to vote for, which shall be done with an indelible "copying" pencil, to be furnished for the purpose, or by scratching with pen and ink for each office to be filled for which he is qualified to vote, and if necessary he may write into the blank space provided therefor the name of the person of his choice for each or any such office; and, in case of a question submitted to the vote of the people by cancelling, crossing, or scratching out the answer he does not wish to make or give. Before leaving the compartment or place provided, the elector shall fold his ballot so that the face thereof will be concealed, without displaying the ballot or informing any person how he has prepared it; and he shall fold the ballot so that the initials of the first clerk may be seen on the back of the ballot (stub), and so that the remaining stub may be readily torn off, without exposing the contents of the ballot or the marks or crosses thereon. He shall then deliver the ballot to the chairman and state his name and residence.

SEC. 60. Immediately upon receiving the ballot from the elector, the chairman shall repeat the name and residence distinctly, and shall remove the remaining half of the stub from the ballot without exposing the contents of the ballot or the marks or crosses thereon, and pass the stub to the second clerk, who shall compare it with its counterpart and observe that the name written on the counterpart corresponds with the name given by the person voting. If no objection is made by the elector, and the judges are satisfied that the elector is legally qualified, according to the constitution and laws of the state, to vote for all offices to be filled at that election, and that the ballot presented is the identical white ballot received by the elector as aforesaid from the first clerk, the chairman shall immediately put the ballot in the box marked "general," without anyone inspecting or seeing the names written or printed or the crosses or marks upon the ballot, and without unfolding the same, and the second clerk shall enter opposite the name and number of the elector in the poll-book the word "voted" or letter "V" to indicate the same.

SEC. 61. If a majority of the judges are satisfied the elector is legally qualified to vote in that precinct only for "State" officers, the chairman shall immediately write with pen and ink upon the back of the ballot the word "State," and sign his (the chairman's) initials thereon; if the elector is qualified to vote for district officers also, the chairman shall write as aforesaid the words "State" or "State and Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

District," as the case may be. The elector shall then immediately pass out by the way indicated by the judges.

SEC. 62. If any elector by accident or mistake spoils his ballot so that he cannot conveniently vote the same, he may, on returning said spoiled ballot, receive another in place thereof. If the elector spoils three such ballots, it shall be conclusive evidence that the elector is unable to prepare his ballot without assistance, and he shall request the assistance of two of the judges to prepare one for him. When an elector spoils a ballot and returns the same to the first clerk, the clerk shall write upon the stub the word "Spoiled," and sign his initials, and remove the stub from the ballot, and immediately pass the stub to the judges, and he shall then immediately destroy the spoiled ballot, without any one inspecting its contents, and issue another to the elector as in the first instance, affixing the same name and number to the stubs as the original ballot.

SEC. 63. No person shall take or remove any white ballot from the polling place, and immediately upon the closing of the polls the judges shall cause all the white ballots remaining unused to be immediately destroyed by tearing them, in pieces or by burning them.

SEC. 64. As fast as electors vote, as aforesaid, the second clerk shall string the mated stubs. Upon the closing of the polls he shall securely knot together the ends of the thread and carefully preserve the same.

SEC. 65. Not more than one person at one time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment or place provided for electors to prepare their ballots, and no person shall remain in or occupy such compartment longer than may be reasonably necessary to prepare his ballot. Every elector who does not vote any ballot delivered to him, shall before leaving the polling place, return such ballot to the first clerk, who shall write upon the stub thereon "Not Voted," and sign his initials, and treat the stub and ballot in the same manner as in the case of a spoiled ballot, and both clerks shall note the fact upon the poll books by drawing a line with pen and ink across the name of the person, and writing the words "Not Voted."

SEC. 66. Any elector who declares to the chairman that he cannot read or write, or that by blindness, or other physical disability, he is unable to prepare his ballot, shall, upon request, receive the assistance of two of the judges in the preparation thereof, and such officers shall ascertain his wishes and prepare his ballot in accordance therewith, such officers shall thereafter give no information regarding the same. The chairman may, in his discretion, require such declaration of disability to be made by the elector under oath. Whenever an elector receives assistance in this manner, the clerk shall write upon the poll-book, opposite the name of the elector, the word "Assisted," and if sworn, also "Sworn."

In preparing his ballot, any elector shall be at liberty to use or copy any colored or sample ballot provided by this act which he may choose to mark or to have marked in advance, to assist him in marking the official ballot.

SEC. 67. Any elector who shall use or bring into the polling place, or carry away therefrom, any unofficial ballot or any paper or thing bearing any resemblance to the official white ballot, other than said colored or sample ballot, or anything which will show how he has prepared the white ballot, or any elector who shall, except as herein otherwise provided, allow his white ballot to be seen by any person with an apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or mutilate his ballot, or place any distinguishing mark upon his ballot whereby the same may be identified, or who shall make a false statement, as to his inability to mark his ballot, or attempt to interfere, with any voter when inside said enclosed space, or when marking his ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter to mark his ballot in a particular way, or before or after voting to show or explain how he marks or has marked his ballot, upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200.

NATURALIZATION.

Some of the Evils Presented in a Memorial.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Senator Hisecock yesterday presented a memorial signed by Elihu Root, Horace Porter, Jos. M. Drexel, Cornelius Bliss and others, without regard to political affiliations, asking that a committee be appointed to inquire into the system of naturalization in New York City, to the end that remedial legislation be advised and enacted with reference thereto. They set forth the immigration records, showing that during '91 over 200,000 foreigners came into this country from Europe, but a small portion of whom can either read, write, or speak the English language, and are wholly ignorant of our laws and the principles of our government. That there seems to be reason to believe that immediately prior to the last election New York state naturalization was accompanied by great irregularities and extensive frauds. In a single court of New York, during the first twenty days of October, there were nearly 7000 naturalizations, of which about 6000 were by one judge. It is obvious that the system of naturalization which can produce results with such startling rapidity must be defective, and there is reason to believe that the results are made possible by wholesale perjury; that these evil practices are constantly adding the most undesirable element to our community by the surrender of a material part of our power of self government to men who are really aliens, ignorant, venal and wholly unfit to govern themselves or us.

THE SILVER BILL.

Sherman Makes a Speech on the Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In the senate yesterday Sherman spoke on the silver bill. He said he did not regard the silver bill as a partisan or political measure, but largely a local measure, and that there is no question compared with it in importance as to effects on the business interests of the country. He went on to defend the financial action of the Republican party and his own part in it. In a passing allusion to the national banking system, Sherman said these banks would soon pass away, not because they were not the best banks in the world, but because United States bonds upon which they rested would be paid off. He insisted that the system fully justified itself. He said the discontinuation of the coinage of silver dollars in 1873 and the substitution of the trade dollar, was made upon the representations of California and other silver states, who wanted to transport silver to China. The only trouble about the law was that senators could not see ahead. If it had been known that silver was going to fall as rapidly as it did, he would have kept the silver dollar and put it on the same footing as fractional silver, by the Latin union and increase in production, had given great blows to silver. It is not true that he is unfriendly to silver. Sherman then went in to denounce the bill under consideration.

A Wife Beater Tarred and Feathered.

RIO VISTA, Cal., June 1.—James Hetherington was tarred and feathered here, and also given seventy-five lashes with a rawhide whip by a masked body of twenty-five leading citizens. On Sunday afternoon Hetherington attempted to kill his wife. He knocked her down and jumped on her chest with both feet. He also attacked her with a butcher knife, inflicting several flesh wounds about the face and neck, and the woman is now lying in a critical condition. Her life was saved by the timely arrival of Roadmaster Nevin on the scene. Hetherington was arrested, the officers making the arrest under difficulty, as the gathering crowd attempted at first to lynch him. Hetherington is a bad character, having served a year in the county jail for attempting to kill Hans Rosen three years ago. A masked mob secured the jail key from the night watchman, Henry Grady.
