THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

HOFER BROTHERS, - - - Editors.

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company.

(Incorporated.) Office, Commercial Street, in P. O. Building entered at the postoffice at Salem, Or., as second-class matter.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF MONDAY'S ELECTION TO THE CITY OF SALEM.

In the affairs of this world the influences that go to build a city are not the result of chance. It is only by grasping at every opportunity and making the most of it that cities like Salem advance at a pace beyond the slow process of accretion.

Enterprise, progress, and rapid growth are the result of aggressive methods and constant vigilance to promote those material interests which go to make a city. Smooth talk and theorizing will not promote factories, build streets and support the families of workmen all the year around. It requires employment, created out of every available opportunity being utilized to advance this to be a city of fifty or a hundred thousand in the next ten years that will keep the wolf from the door of mechanics and laborers and give the poorer citizen a chance to lift up his head and gain a competence.

In the light of duty to the masses and the duty of the masses toward themselves, what is the vital point in Monday's election? What candidates can we select who will best promote Salem interests? It is in our opinion the county court ticket, and the legislative ticket.

How do you argue this? may be asked. The county court has control of all building of county roads, bridges, granting of franchises, and control of assessments. It is easy to see how in all these matters immense influences can be exerted for or against our city by the employment of broad and liberal policies of administration, or a narrow and illiberal policy, dictated by jealousy and enmity of the city's growing power and influence.

There are a few persons in different parts of the county who continually make use of every opportunity to arouse prejudice against Salem. They appeal to a spirit of rivalry that often misleads small minds of smaller towns into jealousy and bitterness of heart towards the capital city. We believe that was the spirit largely that dominated the action of the Democratic county convention, and did more to disorganize their party in this county than anything that ever happened. A few Democratic politicians, pandering to the prejudice of small minds against a growing city, sacrificed everything to give their party over to the anti-Salem agitators. They did not consider the interests of Salem for a moment in making up their ticket. They gave every nomination that was important to this city on the county court or legislative ticket to persons living in other places and who are none of them known to have ever showed a friendly interest in this city. Of some of them not even that much can be said. Will any Democrat claim that they put friends of Salem on guard for any of those offices, upon the intelligent and liberal administration of which the welfare of our city depends? No one will claim that for them. With but few exceptions, the entire anti-Republican canvass has been unfriendly to Salem. Salem people who wish well for the prosperity of the city must learn to defend themselves. They must vote for the Republican candidates for county judge and commissioner, and for the entire Republican legislative delegation.

Let the people of Salem who have the upbuilding of the city at heart take no chances with hostile influences. It is said the devil never takes any chances and if we love our city we cannot afford to be less wise than the father of lies. Let the people encourage those broad and liberal policies that lead, not to destruction, but to the sure road of prosperity and success.

SILENT ABOUT THE DEAD.

Capt. D. C. Sherman deserves credit for his refusing to pay any heed to any of the publications that involved the good name and fame and popular reputation of the late Capt. Babcock. Those publications, involving as they did the name of a good man dead and gone, were prompted by a personal grievance and usual for political purposes. To have assisted in dragging the name of a dead man through the mire of a political controversy would have been extremely unbecoming to any man of sense, and such Mr. Sherman has shown himself to be, he never uttering so much as yes or nay in the matter. He has been bitterly attacked and has shown himself a man by his silence. He will be respected for this. It is an unwarrantable proceeding to base campaign arguments upon conversations had with a gentleman now dead, and reported for personal purposes. This method would not stand a moment as evidence in a court, and it will never become popular in politics. In fact all shades of men should rebuke it as a malodorous practice.

THAT DR. CUSICK LETTER. In a letter without date, purporting to be written by Dr. W. A. Cusick of Salem, to Dr. J. W. McClure of Silverton, Cusick is made to say:

"I am informed that D. C. Sherman, in a letter to you, reported me as saying that Washington's failure to secure a pension, or justice, was on account of the objections of two other members of the board, Dr. Richardson and Rowland. Mr. Washington's record on the books showed that he was cheerfully recommended by each member for a pension of six dollars a month. When Mr. Sherman makes the above statement he is guilty of a deliberate falsehood."

There is a point to the above: Dr. Cusick or Dr. McClure supplied the copy of Cusick's letter to the Salem Democrats to use against the Republican candidate for county clerk. One or the other did. It can hardly be McClure, for if he wanted to injure Sherman why did he not give the Democrat's Sherman's own letter. In the absence of that letter, the Cusick letter loses its force, and only leaves the unavoidable inference that he supplied the Democratic managers with this eleventh-hour campaign material himself. Can this injure Mr. Sherman when Dr. Cusick is a delegate to the convention which nominated Sherman, or did Dr. Cusick help put Sherman on that ticket to defeat him? Or did he know what he was about on that occasion?

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Do not fail to vote Monday next.

John H. Starr has the credit for making a spirited canvass.

Get out and hear the county candidates tonight at Reed's.

Billy Cook will receive an immense vote for county treasurer at Salem.

Workmen should vote for John Knight the blacksmith candidate for sheriff.

With eighty-three candidates the boat for Salt river will have a merry crowd Tuesday.

Republicans, vote for Sherman and Ormsby, Grand Army men and competent in all ways.

John H. McNary has given the public splendid service in the county recorder's office and will be re-elected.

John Knight has made no pledges of deputyship and will give the people an efficient administration if elected sheriff.

James McElin will make one of the ablest prosecuting attorneys this district ever had. He should get a big vote in Salem.

James Batchelor is the regular Republican nominee for justice and in every way worthy of every Republican's vote.

When you have gone clear through your ticket wind up a good day's work by voting for T. P. Welsh for constable. He is the Republican candidate.

Salem will take a great pride in electing Tilmon Ford and John G. Wright to the legislature, and will give the whole ticket a straight vote.

Sample Australian ballots can be had at THE JOURNAL office and voters who have not seen a ballot will do well to call and get one and study it over before going to the polls, so as to be able to vote intelligently and according to law.

The Salem Democrats are only hurting the slight chances of some of their candidates by the re-publishing of the Marion county Democrat campaign lies just before election. Most men have decided before this who they will vote for, and such eleventh-hour mud-slinging will not change anyone's mind, except to hurt the Democratic ticket.

It Should be in Every House. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshooters, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Coopersburg, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Dan J. Fry's Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c, and $1.00.

HARRISON CONFIDENT.

From Minneapolis—Making a Deal of Noise.

BLAINE! BLAINE!

Blaine and Alger is the Cry of the Blaineites.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 4.—Two present tickets in the field, "the people's candidate and the administration candidate." It was thus that, after consultation yesterday, the Blaineites informally rechristened the Blaine boom. Immense banners which extend from Blaine headquarters across the streets will bear the words, "The people's headquarters, Blaine, Blaine, Blaine." Visitors to the spacious hall in the lumber exchange are now informed that they are in the people's headquarters, and the plumed knight reciprocity is the people's candidate above all factions. Pearl buttons of hundreds of republicans tonight, bear the inscription, "Reciprocity, Blaine, Protection." Blue silk badges are also visible, displaying in gold letters, "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine." But, despite this enthusiasm, the Harrison men are still confident, and this confidence seems justified by the past. Two-thirds of the delegates now here are outspoken for the president's re-nomination. That General Alger is at heart for Blaine, and the Michigan delegation for Blaine, with Alger for second, no one any longer doubts. If there had been scepticism upon this point, it was removed last night by the distribution of a circular from the Michigan headquarters, bearing portraits of Blaine and Alger with a banner reading as follows: "Under the oaks at Jackson; Fremont and Dayton, 1856; Blaine and Alger, Minneapolis, 1892." The circular recites that the Republican party and people demand the nomination of Blaine, because he commands the confidence and admiration of the entire population in a greater degree than does any other living American; because "reciprocity," which
