MINNEAPOLIS, June 10.—Harrison nominated on the first ballot.

Bulletins.

CONVENTION HALL, MINNEAPOLIS
June 10.—The Blaine people think no ballot will be taken today.

2. Several of the New England states are now in session, with a view of effecting a combination of faith, color, or nationality. It sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protests against the persecution of the Jews of Russia. The ultimate reliance of popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and the press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but, while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state. We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily endorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws and render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888 pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the postoffice department and the highest class of postal service. We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in civil service and the wise and consistent endorsement of the Republican party of laws regulating the same. The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to America, both as a measure of natural defense and to build up and maintain American commerce, and should be controlled by the United States government. We favor the admission of the remainder of the territories at the earliest practical day, having a due regard to the interest of the people of the territories and of the United States. All federal officers appointed for the territories should be selected from bona fide residents, that the right of self-government should be accorded as far as possible. We favor the cessation, subject to homesteads, of the arid public lands to the states and territories in which they lie, under congressional restriction and disposition, reclamation, and occupancy by settlers, as will secure the greatest benefits to the people. The Columbian exposition is a great national undertaking, and congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will ensure the discharge of the expense and obligations incident thereto and attainments of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation. In temperance we sympathize with all fair and legitimate legislation to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality. As to pensions, ever mindful of the services of the men who saved the life of the nation we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

We recommend the able, patriotic, and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity of the nation at home and abroad has been faithfully maintained; and we offer the record of the pledges kept as a guarantee of faithful performance in the future. The platform was then adopted.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.
The Feeling Last Night and this Morning.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—After the adjournment at last night, Chairman Clarkson called the Blaine leaders together. The victory of the Harrison people on the test vote was bitterly discussed. The advisability of dropping Blaine and taking up supported Dewey, and Fasset joined for the Blaine side. The motion to adopt the majority report was carried, a previous motion to adjourn being lost. The roll call was demanded a 1 being proceeded with on adoption of the majority report on the Alabama contest.

At 12 o'clock a public was narrowly averted, the lights being shut off and leaving the hall in practical darkness. Temporary lights were placed on the speaker's desk, and business proceeded.

When the roll call was finished a mighty yell greeted Harrison's victory. The figures were 462 ayes, 428 nays. The president's friends threw cakes, buns, handkerchiefs, anything that could be grabbed, wildly in triumph, while the dome seemed to tremble with the terrific roars of applause. Attempt to adjourn the convention at this interesting juncture failed.

At 10:10 Fasset took the platform to present the resolutions and platform to the convention. He was received with cheers, and there being no objection the reading of the resolutions was proceeded with.

At 1:25 the convention adjourned to 11 a. m. Friday.
Late Returns.
UMATILLA COUNTY.
PENDLETON, June 10.—The official vote of the county has just been canvassed here. The majorities are as follows: Ellis, for congress, 51; Chamberlain, attorney general, 299; Bennett, supreme judge, 246; Raley, joint senator for Union and Umatilla counties, 26. People's party vote in this county for congressman, 884.

LANE COUNTY.
EUGENE, Or., June 10.—Official returns for Lane county show slight larger Republican pluralities than had been estimated. For congress, Hermann, 1893, Veatch 1487, Rork 693, Rigdon 120. For supreme judge, Moore 1783, Bennett 1488, Walker 717, Welch 135. For attorney general, Webster 2074, Chamberlain 1864.

CHAMBERLAIN ELECTED.
PORTLAND, Or., June 10.—Late returns from Coos and Crook counties give Chamberlain, for attorney general, about 200 majority in the state. It is hardly probable that complete returns will change this result.

Fire at Creede.
SOUTH CREEDE, Colo., June 10.—For several days a small fire in some logs that had been smoldering just east of the Amethyst mine, was fanned into a flame by the high winds yesterday. It spread rapidly and soon the whole hillside was on fire. The wind was blowing furiously and carried the flames rapidly toward the northwest. All the valuable timber from Amethyst to the Park Regent, a distance of a mile and a half, has been wiped off the earth. Hundreds of miners' cabins and tents have been destroyed, with much valuable machinery. The destruction already wrought is terrible. Miners are rendered homeless, and the very valuable timbers used for mining work are rendered useless. The greatest sufferers among the mining companies are on the properties of the Amethyst and Louisa, Cleopatra, Park Regent, Del Monte, Stanhope, Last Chance and those in the immediate vicinity. The fire is still raging.

Ex-Senator Miller of New York, spoke for the minority. Miller closed by moving that Cagwell's report be divided and a vote be taken on the Alabama platform.

At this point Clarkson and Platt held a hurried consultation. No one who saw it doubted that preparations were in hand for the coming of the first real test vote between the Blaine and Harrison forces. Cagwell demanded the previous question. The chair ruled that Miller having demanded a division of the proposition involved in the report there could be separate votes taken. Both sides were ready for a vote, and a storm of eyes greeted McKimley when he asked if the previous question should be ordered. Before this was done, however, by unanimous consent the majority report in all cases where there was no minority report was submitted and adopted by acclamation.

An amendment was now made to take a standing vote on the Alabama case, and an apparent majority of the convention arose. Instantly New York and Pennsylvania delegates demanded the roll call, and it was ordered by the convention. When the buzz of polling state delegations had subsided and party contentment ceased, the roll call began. Suddenly came a sharp rap of the chairman's gavel and the clerk called "Alabama." In an instant Chauncey Dewey was on his feet protesting against the sine sitting Alabama delegates (Blaine men) voting on their own case. Spooner supported Dewey, and Fasset rejoined for the Blaine side. The motion to adopt the majority report was carried, a previous motion to adjourn being lost. The roll call was demanded a 1 being proceeded with on adoption of the majority report on the Alabama contest.
