who has been conducting a school of acting in the old capitol building, skipped, leaving a wife and several unpaid bills, in Atlanta. Hart is well known in the profession. He is a comedian and attracted considerable attention by his original act, in the character of Mr. Beard, in the play "Held by the Enemy." He has also been with the "All the Comforts of Home" company. Hart was married in Philadelphia about three years ago, and since then his wife has accompanied him in all his undertakings. They came to Atlanta a few weeks ago and started the school of acting. Hart and his wife have been stopping at the National hotel. Friday night he left his wife and told her he would return by 12 o'clock; but he did not return, and this morning Mrs. Hart received a letter from him, which stated that he had skipped and left her to pay all the bills. She called on Chief Connelly and asked him to assist her in reaching her mother and father. Mrs. Hart is only 19 years old.

N. P. Train Wrecked.

CHEHALIS, Wash., June 13. North-bound train, No. 4, was wrecked four miles south of Chehalis at 9 o'clock Saturday night. The train was going at a very high speed and struck a steer. Instead of throwing the animal off, it was caught under the engine, which was thrown off the rails. In the passenger coaches only a jar lasting about three seconds was felt. The train came to a standstill, and the passengers alighting, found the engine, tender, mail, express and two baggage cars lying on either side of the track. The engine was completely demolished, and from the ruins Fireman Bell was taken out. He escaped death miraculously and apparently had no injuries beyond a few scratches. The track at this place is cut in the side of the hill. While the locomotive went into the ditch below, the tender remained upon the road bed, but was turned upside down. The mail car, instead of going into the ditch, headed up the hill and came to a standstill against a log. On the head of the engine was a tramp, name unknown, stealing a ride. His injuries are serious. Mail Clerk W. L. Melick had a remarkably narrow escape. He jumped out of the right side door and landed safely. He states his first impulse was to take the other side. Had he done so he would have been crushed to death between the car and log. The track is torn up for a distance of 300 yards and although the wrecking train has been sent down, it will be at least ten hours before the trains can pass.

The Famine Almost Over.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The state department has been advised that the Russian government will issue a ukase authorizing the exportation of maize both by sea and by the western continental frontier. This is understood to indicate that the famine is drawing to a close. It is believed the ukase will be issued July 1, permitting the exportation of all grains, except rye. A collapse in the price of grain has taken place, the decline being 80 to 100 per cent., and the existence of vast quantities hoarded by speculators has been developed.

What's the use of feeling languid,
Mopy, dull and blue?
Cleanse the blood and give it vigor:
Make the old man new.
How? I'll tell you. To the drug store
Go this very day—
Buy a medicine to banish
All your ills away—
And that medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the very best blood-purifier on earth. It builds up and strengthens the system because it cleanses the blood, and that's what the system must have to be strong and healthy. There's nothing that equals it. Absolutely sold on trial! Your money back, if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Baby cried,
Mother sighed,
Doctor prescribed: Castoria!

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla
100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

ELECTION NEWS.

Returns From Malheur and Portland—A Race War.

Sears Elected Assessor.

PORTLAND, June 13.—The assessorship was settled by the following vote: Sears, 4160; Maxwell, 4092. Sears, therefore, is elected by a plurality of 68. Henry Reed's vote was 5776, and Walter Reed's 5337. Henry Reed is accordingly elected clerk of the circuit court by a plurality of 439. There will be no material change in the majorities and pluralities of the rest of the winning candidates.

Chamberlains Chances.

PORTLAND June 13.—Complete returns from Wallowa, Sherman and Gilliam counties show quite a falling off in Chamberlain's majority heretofore given. Webster has gained 53 votes in Wallowa, 51 in Sherman, and 75 in Gilliam. Klamath county, official, reduces Webster's majority to 15, or eight votes in Chamberlain's favor. The latter's majority is, therefore, now 118. Curry, Harney and Malheur, the three counties not yet heard from, gave an aggregate republican majority for Herman, in 1890, of 193. Webster can hardly expect to attain this result of Herman's popularity, but if he loses no more than 70 votes of this estimated majority, he will yet win.

Malheur County.

BAKER CITY, June 13.—Unofficial return of Malheur county give the following pluralities Bennett 24, Chamberlain 39, Slater 39, King (Dem) Representative 100.

Explosion at Mare Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. June 13.—At 11:30 a. m. an explosion occured at the Magazine at Mare Island Navy Yard and one building was destroyed, as far as known there was no loss of life.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The explosion at Mare Island navy yard this morning occurred in the shell room. It now reported that Acting Gunner Hittinger, of the Cruiser Boston, and eleven others were killed. The shell room is now fire.

To Reat the Record.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—The Belmont driving club has made arrangements with Budd Doble to trot Nancy Hanks at Belmont Park July 6th, against her record, 2:09, for a purse of $5000, with $10,000 added if the record of Robert Bonner's Sunol, 2:08¼ is broken.

Burglary.

TEXARKANA, Texas, June 13.—At Genoa, a small station near here on the Cotton Belt road, burglars entered the office of the Bodeaw Lumber company, opened the safe and carried away $40,000 worth of the company's stock, $12,000 in notes, and a small amount of cash.

Struck by Lightning.

ACAMPO, Cal., June 13.—Early this morning this locality was visited by the severest thunder storm in its history. Lightning struck the barn of I. J. Phillips, badly damaging it. Considerable rain fell during the storm.

Appointment.

CHICAGO, June 13.—It is officially announced that Sherburne W. Burnham, of California, has been appointed Clerk of the United States District and Circuit courts, Vice Edward Drummond, resigned.

On Monday Next.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—It has been arranged that the committee to notify President Harrison of his re-nomination will perform its duty on Monday next.

English Parliament.

LONDON, June 13.—In the house of commons Balfour today stated that parliament will be dissolved between June 19th and 25th.

English Opinions.

LONDON, June 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"Even those least in sympathy with Blaine as a politician may spare a passing regret at the cruel disappointment of the man who is the ablest Republican, the most astute politician, in the United States."

The Globe says:

"For once the American caucus is of real interest to outsiders, especially in England. In view of the dissension in the Democratic party, the nominee of yesterday stands a good chance of being the next president. It was a happy thing the caucus decided overwhelmingly against the great wirepuller, whose entire career has been marked with attempts to make party capital out of foreign politics."

The Globe then relates at length Blaine's acts of hostility toward England, as shown in the Chilian affair, Behring sea question, Newfoundland matter, etc., and adds: "Even as it was, President Harrison sometimes had a difficult task to check his mischief."

CITY EXCITED.

Desperate Race War Probable in Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 13.—There is great excitement in this city, occasioned by two criminal assaults by negroes upon white women. A negro lad named Holley assaulted Mrs. Charles R. Moore, the wife of a freighter. He was arrested and a mob surrounded the jail, threatening to lynch him. The negroes claim Holley is innocent although he confessed his guilt to the sheriff, and a race war seemed imminent for a time. "Judge" Perkins, a negro lawyer, was spokesman for the colored men. During the excitement he said: "Let the whites harm that man and the town will be in ashes before morning." The sheriff smuggled the prisoner from jail and took him to Wichita, Kansas. The second outrage was made upon the wife of James Genken, by an unknown negro, who escaped. A posse is on his trail, and will lynch him if he is found.

At midnight information was received that the negro who outraged Mrs. Genken has been overtaken by the posse, six miles south of town, and shot dead. This news greatly intensified the excitement, and the negroes are threatening violence.

GUTHRIE, June, 13.—At 1 o'clock this morning one or two nervy officers ordered a lot of negroes who were stationed on the corner next to the jail to move on. Several offered resistence, but the officers used their clubs effectively. Several decent negroes jumped on dry goods boxes and made speeches to the excited crowds. Officers Rinehardt, Kitchen, Kelly and Kehl were there. Two or three shots were fired. A big burly negro named Perkins yelled "hang the editor of the News." No sooner were these words out when Bill Dingham, Jack Tearney, Doc Roberts, Dick Reaves Walter Taylor and others said "try it on if you dare." Sheriff Hixon and deputies rushed in and quelled the disturbances and the excited people were quickly dispersed. Men, women and children are at this moment on the streets. The editor of the News walked down Oklahoma avenue between two officers at 12 o'clock, seemingly secure.

A company to patrol the city has been organized and placed under the leadership of good men. Groups of negroes stand on every corner, and manifest an intention to take the city if necessary. Reeves's Brothers' place on Second street, is the rendezvous of the committee, and the place is crowded with father, and husbands. Republicans and Democrats alike, take the stand that the negroes' reign is at an end in Oklahoma. The city is actually alive with armed men, who are ready to fight to the death if need be. E. P. McCabe, ex-auditor of Kansas, is held responsible for the crimes being committed and violence is feared. He cannot be found tonight and is evidently in no way desirous of showing up. Whistles are blowing and there are shouts and yells from every quarter of the city. This beautiful city of 10,000 people is a pandemonium, and no one sleeps this night. The yell of a determined mob is momentarily expected, and no power on earth seems able to now save the brutal ravisher's life. The electric lights have been extinguished, and it seems now that the worst may happen. Captain Cooper, one of Payne's original Oklahoma boomers, reached here at 11 o'clock with seventeen men. They are determined and nothing short of a lynching will satisfy them. At 2 this morning a large number of men are parading the streets. There is no telling what may happen. The sheriff and police are resolute. The excitement is intense. Negroes are congregated on every corner, and trouble at the jail seems certain, as another mob has assembled in the vicinity.

CHICAGO NEXT WEEK.

Preparations for the Democratic Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Cleveland forces are packing their gripsacks for a move on Chicago. An advance guard of political manipulators leave Monday next. The frequent conferences of Hill and Gorman have given rise to the suspicion that Hill is preparing to make the slick Maryland boss the residuary legatee of the New York vote in the convention, if, as the days go by, it shall seem to him that he can, by so doing, effect Cleveland's defeat. D. J. Campau, of Detroit, ex-Postmaster-General Dickinson's chief lieutenant, has been here several days, quietly feeling of such delegates from the Southern states as are in town, and using persuasive arguments in behalf of Cleveland. Senator Hawley said to your correspondent Saturday evening that the sentiment among the Democratic Southern senators against Cleveland was something remarkable. "And yet," said the senator, "it seems to me as if Cleveland had a two-thirds vote of the convention already."

Killed in a Playful Scuffle.

ILWACO, June 13.—Thursday, Burt Robertson, aged 12, was returning from a hunt for wild pigeons, and when opposite his home, met his 6 year-old brother Mort and four other lads, playing. As Burt came up to the group of boys he flourished the gun and boasted of his ability to whip them all. Mort ran up, playfully placed his hand on his brother's shoulders and swung him around. Almost simultaneously the gun was discharged, and the little fellow, without a groan, fell dead at his brother's feet. It was such close range that the charge did not scatter. Striking where the neck and shoulder join, the shot cut the collar-bone completely through, and plowed a great furrow across the neck, severing the larger veins. The cries of the boys' playmates, added to the report of the gun, brought some men who were working in the vicinity to the scene. The body was tenderly lifted and carried to the house, where the mother received the first intimation of the terrible occurrence.

What Reid Says.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Evening World's White Plains special says: "Reid said to a reporter Saturday, 'I had no expectation, I assure you, of being nominated. When I was apprised of the fact last night it was very much of a surprise.' Reid said, regarding Blaine's position, 'Blaine is a Republican, and as such his attitude will be one of cordial support to the Republican ticket.' Asked regarding Platt's position, Reid said his answer concerning Blaine applied to Platt. Reid said he should not enter actively into the campaign, but confine himself to work in New York, Reid said: 'It is no easy task before us, but we shall make an honest and, I hope, successful endeavor to win.'"

Press Opinions.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Sun Saturday said:

President Harrison, nominated for a second term is the result of his own persistent seeking, and by means of the free use of the opportunities of the office he holds. His campaign was ably planned, splendidly managed and firmly and courageouly conducted to the end at Minneapolis. The old guard of his army in the convention was a horde of Federal office-holders, led by Federal office-holders, and inspired by the zeal born of benefits received and fostered by the hope of favors yet to come. It would be folly for Democrats to underestimate an antagonist who manifested such consummate political ability and steadfastness in the campaign just ended, and who can and will promote his re-election by a masterly use of the same agencies as have been employed in the preliminary contest for a renomination.

Funeral of Colonel Polk.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The 11 o'clock train over the Richmond & Danville road Saturday night carried the remains of Colonel Polk to Raleigh, N. C., for interment. The funeral services were held at Raleigh at 4 p. m. yesterday. The remains were accompanied by a party of about twenty-five of Colonel Polk's friends.

Colonel Polk was 55 years of age, a relative of President Polk, and a native of North Carolina. He served for a time in the Confederate army and then resigned to enter the state legislature. Later he was commissioner of agriculture, and still later began the publication of the Progressive Farmer. At the time of his death he was serving his third term as president of the Farmer's Alliance. His home was in Raleigh, N. C.

Nervous Prostration,

So prevalent, especially among women, results from overtaxing the system. The assimilative organs becoming deranged, the blood grows weak and impoverished, and hence "that tired feeling" of which many complain. For all such cases, there is no remedy equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

"Some time ago I found my system entirely run down. I had a feeling of constant fatigue and languor and very little ambition for any kind of effort. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did with the best results. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used." —Frank Mellows, Chelsea, Mass.

"For months I was afflicted with nervous prostration, weakness, languor, general debility, and mental depression. By purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I was completely cured." —Mrs. Mary Stevens, Lowell, Mass.
