DATES OF LOCAL EVENTS.

June 21.—The Fairy Wells Co. at Reed's.
July 20.—"The Fast Mail" at Reed's.

THE GOSSEON.—At the Reed Wednesday night magnetism, beauty, cleverness, charm, grace, power, wit, pathos and dancing. Briefly stated Carroll Johnson, the Irish singing comedian, is the embodiment of all these delightful qualities. The charming comedian who stands without a peer in his line of work appears here this week in a drama entitled, "The Gosson." The play has been stamped with the seal of a metropolitan success, and is undoubtedly the most originally clever of its kind in as much that it lacks all the venerable conventional features that has characterized Irish drama in the past. Johnson is a handsome young man just entering his thirties, and is the happy possessor of a nature as bright and warm as a June day.

AN ACCIDENT.—Last week J. H. Miller, who lives on Trade Street, was in the south part of the city driving, accompanied by his little grandchild, when the team became frightened throwing them both out of the wagon. Miller fell heavily, his little grand daughter was quite seriously injured. They are both doing nicely at the present time.

HAD A TIME.—Charlie Hellenbrand, yesterday at noon had an exciting episode in the sleigh back of his place. He was intending to take a ride out in the country, his horse feeling good started off, Charlie in trying to hold the animal was dragged about 40 feet, luckily escaping without injury to himself, except to his feelings, after putting on a new pair of unmentionables, he continued his drive.

A CIVIL SUIT.—A civil suit brought by W. I. Hunter against A. J. Hassell to recover $22.50 was tried in Justice Batchelor's court Saturday before a jury composed of Chas. Johnson, H. S. Simon, J. S. McCormack, Samuel Parker, Wm. Boek and G. H. Mellen. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $20 and costs.

INCORPORATION.—The secretary of state received and filed articles of incorporation Saturday of the Silver Lake Ditch Co., of Joseph, Wallowa county. The capital stock is $800, and the incorporators are W. A. McCully, J. J. Ward, A. Morgan, L. Knupper and W. G. Locke.

COMMITTED.—Deputy Sheriff Moreland of Portland brought J. J. Campbell to the penitentiary for three years for larceny, and John Harley two years for larceny. Also Richard E. Hurgren, an insane patient committed to the asylum.

AT THE PRISON.—Yesterday Bishop Becker preached at 10 o'clock a. m., and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock Mrs. L. W. Treat gave the boys a little talk.

IT MEANS BUSINESS.

The Salem Board of Trade Considering Manufacturers.

Within the past few weeks several manufacturing enterprises have been proposed to the Salem Board of Trade. Each wants a little help, but they do not want it half as badly as Salem wants the factories. A special meeting has been called for next Friday evening to consider these propositions. One is for a soap factory, which can be had for the land to put it on. Another is for a plow and stove factory, which wants a small bonus and two lots, for which it guarantees to give work to a number of mechanics. Another is for a wagon and buggy manufactory which will not only bring with it many new families, but give employment to much larger numbers.

Just now there is nothing Salem needs so badly as more manufacturing, productive industries, establishments to give employment to labor. The laboring man and the producer must form the bone and sinew of any community, and Salem should offer every encouragement to the upbuilding of these interests. In this day factories cannot be located and built up without local encouragement, but we want the factories and should make a hard pull for them. There are now several in sight that can be had almost for the asking, and the business men should make every effort for them. Factories are cheap at any price, that is at any price within reason. Let there be a rally at the Friday night meeting. It is the duty of every member of the board of trade to be present. Every business man and property owner should also make it a point to attend this meeting. It is open to all. Everybody is welcome.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Two Eloquent and Powerful Sermons on Sunday.

At 10 o'clock the trustees, faculty, alumni, and students began to assemble in the lecture room of the M. E. church and promptly at 10:30 some two hundred strong they marched to the seats reserved for them in the well-filled auditorium. After the usual singing, the choir rendered a magnificent anthem, in which Mrs. Mary S. Kinney sang the solo. Dr. George offered the morning prayer. The Baccalaureate sermon was then delivered by Dr. George Whitaker, president of the Willamette University, from Acts XVIII, 28, "For in Him we live, and move, and have our being." The speaker began the search to find, if it were possible, a satisfaction to the hungry, thirsting human heart outside of God. The systems of religion which men have invented and nations believed were separately dissected, their insufficiency pointed out, and logical, wholesome conclusions drawn from them. As no extract of the sermon can furnish any idea of the excellency of the whole, we sum up as follows, the sermon was chimerical and step by step the speaker developed the theme and stood on higher planes of investigation until the text was reached as the conclusion of the whole. The concluding words were eloquent and masterly. The charge to the class was impressive and full of sound advice.

In the evening at 7:30 a good audience assembled to hear the University sermon by Dr. W. P. George. The choir sang an exceptionally beautiful anthem, and Rev. G. M. Irwin led the congregation in prayer. The speaker of the evening then announced his text from John XIV, 8, "Philip saith unto him, Lord show us the Father, and it sufficeth us." After an excellent introduction he began to inquire into the doctrine, so-called scientific which led men away from God. In infancy both men and nations, are theists, and do not become atheists until they become separated from God by sin. Atheism is a weak defense to excuse sin. As he progressed, the speaker used illustrations singularly excellent, and the word painting was by a master. These concerning the existence of the sun, from the Equinox's point of view, and the parallel of Christ, "God manifest in the flesh in whom dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead in a body" and the sea water were impressive and exceedingly clear. Dr. George is a deep thinker and the sea of upturned faces demonstrated that it is a pleasure to listen to him. To hear him is the only way to get an adequate idea of his excellence in thinking.

THE VIADUCT DONE.—Contractor McCoy has now completed the bridge across South Mill creek on Commercial street. The street committee of the council will inspect the work this afternoon with a view to accepting same. There is still about 32 feet of fill needed at the south end, which the council may conclude to bridge by adding two more bents to the present structure.

WHERE IS IT?—At the last session of the legislature a good sum of money was appropriated to purchase a library for the Oregon State Prison. As yet, the men for whose benefit this was done have seen no results, and the question naturally arises, where is the money? and why has it not been put to its proper use, before this?

CONSTITUTION

Attests that the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that sets off the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Loebert Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. S. Winn, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S., I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla
Most modern, most effective, largest bottle same price, $1.00, six for $5.00.

CAPITALISTS COMING.—THE JOURNAL learns with much pleasure that Messrs. Stinson and Bassett, of Iowa, will soon locate in Salem. They spent several weeks in our city in the spring, and now after looking over the entire coast, have concluded that Oregon's capital is the place they want to make their future home. They have not as yet decided on any business, but they are a good acquisition to our city.

COMMERCIAL STREET.—Surveyor Culver is busy making specifications for paving Commercial street with one foot deep of broken rock. This proposition will be submitted at the next meeting of the council, and from present indications may go through.

DISCHARGED.—Harry Carmon, the man who by some newspapers has been branded as a terrible criminal, has been acquitted and discharged at Albany. M. W. Hunt, one of Salem's visiting young attorneys, had charge of his case.

STRAWBERRY FAIR.—The fruit and flower show closed Saturday night a grand success. All premiums and expenses were paid in full and Superintendent Savage has issued vouchers for the same.

DID NOT RESUME WORK.—About twenty men and several teams appeared on upper State street this morning, to proceed with the work on the electric car line, but for some reason they did not go to work.

AT HIGHLAND.—Mrs. L. W. Treat will speak at the Friend's church from 8 to 9 o'clock Wednesday evening. Meeting free. All welcome.

What Stronger Proof
Is needed of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla than the hundreds of letters continually coming in telling of marvellous cures it has effected after all other remedies had failed? Truly, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses peculiar curative powers unknown to other medicines.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Reserving Fraise
We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Dan'l. J. Fry, Druggist, 225 Com. St.

DIED.
STANTON.—At his home, 335 Capital street, Saturday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, June 11, 1892, Alfred Stanton, aged 84 years.
The death of Alfred Stanton is the death of another of Oregon's pioneers. He came across the plains in the year '47 and settled on what is known now as the Huffman place, near the fair grounds. He was born in Stark county, Ohio. At La Porte, Indiana, he married Phoebe Fall. Mrs. Stanton died at the old home on Capital street six years ago.
Mrs. Wm. England, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, of South Salem, and Mrs. Rickey, of California, are daughters of deceased. He also leaves two sons, Frank M. and P. A. of North Yakima. William Stanton, of this city, is a nephew of Mr. Stanton.
The late Mrs. I. N. Gilbert, of this city, was second child of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton, the eldest being Mrs. Rickey spoken of above.
The funeral was held at 2:30 p. m. today, and the remains were taken to Rural cemetery for burial.

RORK.—At the home of Capt. Adams in North Salem, at 11 p. m., Saturday night June 11, 1892, from hemorrhage of the stomach, Mrs. Anna W. Rork, aged 52 years.
Mrs. Rork was one of the teachers of the North Salem school. She was taken sick last Friday, and being unable to proceed to her home, was taken to Capt. Adams' where she died. She was the wife of M. V. Rork, the People's party candidate for congress. He was absent in Coos county. The body was taken to her late residence at 318 Cottage street yesterday.
Funeral services will be held at Unity church today at 5 o'clock p. m., Rev. H. H. Brown officiating. The body will be laid to rest at Rural cemetery.

THIEVING "HOUSE HUNTERS."

Women Who Forge Permits by Real Estate Agents to Examine Houses.

People living in the vicinity of Pacific and Nevins streets, Brooklyn, have been victimized by two female thieves, who are employing an entirely new method to get into houses. The robberies have all been small, but there have been many of them. The women are both good looking, are clever talkers, dress well, and have an unlimited amount of assurance. They ring the doorbell of a house, and when a servant appears walk in and demand to see the house. They explain their request to the astonished servant by exhibiting a regularly signed permit, issued by a house agent.

The servant leaves them to communicate with her mistress, they then stroll around the house on their own hook, picking up anything of value they can carry. Two houses were visited in this way in one day about two weeks ago. In the first the woman showed a permit, signed by a Flatbush avenue real estate man, to the servant who answered their ring, and said they were going through the house. The servant refused to let them in, but they pushed by her and stood in the hall.

"We have a permit to see the house," they said.

"But this house is not to let," expostulated the servant. "There must be some mistake."

"Here's the permit," said one of the women, and she handed the girl a slip of paper on which was written a request that the bearers be allowed to inspect the premises at No. — Pacific street. "Take it to your mistress," said the woman.

The girl went up stairs and soon came down again accompanied by her mistress. The house hunters, however, were nowhere to be seen. They were not in the hall, and a glance around did not disclose their whereabouts. The mistress walked into the parlor wondering what could have become of her strange visitors, when, to her astonishment, she saw the two women coolly walking around the parlors examining things as though they belonged there. When she demanded to know what they meant by such conduct, they answered that they were merely looking around. They had a permit, they said, which they had given to the servant. The mistress became highly indignant, and said that the permit gave them no right to go prowling around the house alone.

"Besides," she went on, "this house is not to rent, and another thing, Mr. Tait is not the agent of this house."

"What?" exclaimed one of the women, "isn't this No. —?"

"No," answered the lady, giving the right number of the house.

The women then made profuse apologies and left. After they had gone it was discovered that a child's openface silver watch, which had been lying on a table, and several pieces of bric-a-brac were missing. The case was not reported to the police. That same day a house not a stone's throw away was visited by the same women, and fifteen out of a collection of souvenir spoons, which were in a cabinet, were missed after they had left.—New York Sun.

Judicial Honor.
A woman who had disobeyed a summons was arraigned before Judge Robert Boyd to show cause for such disobedience, and she shook the court house with her boisterous eloquence. In the midst of it Colonel Bradley walked in and asked Judge Boyd what the woman was charged with. "Well, I don't know, but I think she's charged with dynamite."—Mount Vernon (Ky.) Signal.
