

CLEVELAND & STEVENSON

Bulletins—The Platform—Convention News.

THE CORRECTED BALLOT.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Following is the corrected ballot. Total cast 9093. Necessary to a choice 607. Cleveland vote 617; Hill 114; Boies 103; Morrison 3; Campbell 11; Gorman 394; Carlisle 14; Patterson 1; Stevenson 167; Russell 1; Whitney 1. The motion to make unanimous the vote nominating Cleveland was carried with about a half dozen noes which were greeted with hisses. Cockran, of New York, said there having been some expressions of dissent in the New York neighborhood he desired to state to the convention that on the motion to make the nomination unanimous New York's vote was cast in full in the affirmative. Chairman Shields of Iowa made the same statement for his state.

BULLETINS.

2:16 p.m.—Very few delegates in the hall yet, it will probably be 2:30 p. m. before convention comes to order. It is said the selection of vice president is between Gray of Indiana and Stevenson, of Illinois, Mitchell, of Iowa and Judge Morse, of Michigan, with chances in favor of Stevenson. The argument being that he is more likely to carry his state than any other man. There is an evident inclination on the part of delegates that Boies should be the choice for vice president, but Iowa delegates say he won't accept.

Some New York delegates say New York will oppose nomination of Gray. Will accept anyone but him. Their choice being Boies. It is said Neal of Ohio will be put in nomination.

Under new apportionment of votes accorded the Territories it takes 607 votes to nominate instead of 599 under old arrangement therefore it still takes 607 to nominate a vice president. 2:22 p. m., delegates are slowly assembling. Prominent men are being cheered as they enter the hall. 2:28 p. m., Gray club with banner and banner has just entered the hall. (Considerable cheering.)

2:30 p. m., Another club follows the Gray club with banner marked Cleveland and Gray. (Great cheering.)

2:45 p. m.—Convention called to order. 3 p. m. Call of States ordered for presentation of candidates for vice president. Nominating speeches to be limited to five minutes each, seconding speeches to two minutes.

3:02 p. m. Arkansas gives its place to Indiana. 3:03 p. m., Lamb of Indiana takes the platform to present the nomination of Gray. (Great cheering.)

Lamb reference to Cleveland brought out a burst of applause. Lamb mentioned Burke Cochran of New York. (Great cheering.)

Lamb predicts a victory for the Democracy with an Indiana man on the ticket. 3:10 p. m., Prolonged cheering when Gray's name mentioned 3:10 p. m.

Lamb says Indiana has 15 electoral votes certain for Democracy with Gray on the ticket. 3:11 p. m., Colorado yields to Illinois. Worthington of Illinois, takes platform to nominate Stevenson of Illinois.

9:14 p. m., Heavy storm prevailing; it drowns the voice of the speaker. 3:23 p. m., Iowa declines to present Boies.

3:24 p. m., Kentucky seconds Stevenson. 4 p. m., Terrible storm here dark as night and thunder and lightning rain coming down in streams. 4:22 Call of states for ballots. Uhl presented qualifications of Judge Morse for position in a very forcible manner receiving three cheers when he had finished.

3:41 a. m. Flower said New York had no candidate to present. 3:46 a. m. New York seconds Stevenson. Ohio says they have no candidate to present. Tennessee seconds Gray.

Stevenson the Man. CHICAGO, June 23. Stevenson of Illinois is nominated. Near the end of balloting there was no choice, but delegates commenced to change their votes and Cole of Ohio moves to suspend the rules and that Stevenson be declared the nominee by acclamation, which was carried.

Hill Thanks Tammany. CHICAGO, ILL. June 23.—The following telegram was received from Senator Hill this morning addressed to Hon. Edw. Murphy, of the New York delegation.

"Please express to the New York delegation my heartfelt thanks for their steady devotion to my cause and for the gallant fight they made to preserve the rights and dignity of the regular Democracy of Empire State." signed David B. Hill.

Rather Confident. CHICAGO, June 23.—So confident is the Indiana delegation that Governor Gray will be nominated for president, that placards were displayed about the hotels before the opening of the convention, this afternoon announcing a grand rally for Cleveland and Gray to night.

THE PLATFORM.

Adopted in the Convention Yesterday at Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Following is a synopsis of the platform: The representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, do reaffirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by a long and illustrious line of successors in democratic leadership from Madison to Cleveland. We warn the people of our common country, zealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of federal control of elections to which the republican party has committed itself, is fraught with the gravest danger. It strikes at the North as well as the South, and injures the colored citizen more than the white; it means bordering of deputy marshals at every polling place, armed with federal power; returning boards appointed and controlled by federal authorities, outrage of electoral rights of the people in the states, subjugation of the colored people to the control of the political party in power, and reviving race antagonisms, now happily abated, or almost perished to the safety and happiness of all; a measure deliberately and justly described by leading Republicans as the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the senate. We pledge the democratic party not only to defeat force bill, but also to offer relentless opposition to the republican policy of profligate expenditure, which in the short space of two years has squandered an enormous surplus and emptied an overflowing treasury, after piling new burdens of taxation upon the already over-taxed labor of the country.

We reiterate the oft-repeated doctrines of the democratic party that the necessity of government is the only justification for taxation, and whenever a tax is unnecessary it is unjustifiable, or that when custom house taxation is levied upon articles of another kind produced in this country, the difference between the cost of labor here and labor abroad, when such difference exists, it fully measures any possible benefits to labor, and the enormous additional impositions of the existing tariff fall with crushing force upon our farmers and working men and for the mere advantage of the few whom it enriches, exact from labor a grossly unjust share of the expenses of the government, and we demand such revision of tariff laws as will remove their iniquitous inequalities, lighten oppressions, and put them on constitutional and equitable basis. But in making a reduction of taxes it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but rather to promote their healthy growth. From the foundation of the government taxes collected at custom houses have been the chief source of federal revenue, and they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of the law must be at every step regardful of the labor and capital thus involved. We denounce the McKinley tariff law, enacted as the culminating atrocity of class legislation; we endorse the effects of democrats in the present congress to modify its most oppressive features in the direction of free raw material and cheaper manufactured goods that enter into consumption, and we promise its repeal as one of the beneficial results that will follow the action of the people in entrusting power to the democratic party. We deny the increased prosperity of the country since the tariff operation, we point to the dullness and distress of wage reduction and strikes in the iron trade as the best evidence that no such prosperity resulted from the McKinley act. We call the attention of thoughtful Americans to the fact that after thirty years of restrictive taxes against the importation of foreign wealth, in exchange for agricultural surplus, the homes and farms of the country have become burdened with real estate mortgages of over two thousand five hundred million dollars exclusively of all other forms of indebtedness, that in one of the chief agricultural states of the West there appears real estate mortgages averaging $105 per capita of the total population; and that similar conditions are shown existing in other agricultural export states. We denounce the sham reciprocity which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets and free exchanges by pretending closer trade relations for the country whose articles of export are almost exclusively agricultural products with other countries that are also agricultural, while erecting custom house barrier of prohibitive tariff taxes against the richest countries in the world that stand ready to take our entire surplus of products in exchange therefor commodities which are necessary and comforts of life among our people.

We recognize in trusts and combinations which are designed to enable capital to secure more than a just share of the joint product of capital and labor, the natural consequence of prohibitive taxes, which prevent free competition, which is the life of honest trade, but believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand a rigid enforcement of laws made to prevent and control them. The best democratic administration restored to the people nearly one hundred million acres of valuable land.

We denounce the Republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890 as a cowardly makeshift fraught with possibilities of danger in future which should make all its supporters as well as the author anxious for its speedy repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and equal to the power of every dollar at all times in markets and in payments of debts, and we demand that paper currency be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and fluctuating currency. We recommend that the prohibitory 10 per cent. on state bank issues be repealed. Public office is a public trust. We reaffirm the declaration of the Democratic national convention of 1876 for reform of the civil service, and call for the honest enforcement of all laws regulating the same.

We favor maintenance of a navy strong enough for all purposes of national defense and to properly maintain the honor and dignity of the country abroad. We demand a rigid enforcement of the laws against Chinese immigration and the importation of foreign workmen under contract, to degrade American labor and lessen its wages, but we condemn and denounce any and all attempts to restrict the immigration of the industrious and worthy of foreign lands. We favor just and liberal pensions for all disabled Union soldiers, their widows and all dependents; but we demand that the pension work shall be done industriously, impartially, and honestly; we denounce the present administration of the pension office as incompetent, corrupt, disgraceful, and dishonest.

In support of the national defense and the promotion of commerce between states we recognize the early construction of the Nicaragua canal and its protection against foreign control as of great importance to the United States. Popular education being the only safe basis of popular suffrage, we recommend to apply to the several states the most liberal appropriation for public schools. We oppose state interference with parental rights and the rights of conscience in education of children as an infringement of a fundamental Democratic doctrine. We approve the action of the present house of representatives in passing bills for the admission into the Union as states of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona. We favor legislation by congress and by the states to protect the lives and limbs of railway employees. We are in favor of the enactment by states of laws for abolishing the sweating system, for abolishing contract convict labor, and prohibiting the employment of children under 15 years of age. We oppose all sumptuary laws.

CLEVELAND ACCEPTS.

BUZZARD BAY, June 23.—Cleveland through Governor Russell sends the following to the press on his nomination: "I should certainly be changeable with dense insensibility if I were not profoundly touched by this new proof of confidence and trust by the great party to which I belong and whose mandates claim my obedience. I am confident my fellow countrymen are ready to receive with approval the principle of true democracy and I cannot rid myself of the belief that to win success, it is only necessary to persistently and honestly advocate these principles. Differences of opinion and judgment in the Democratic convention are by no means unwholesome indications but it is hardly conceivable in view of our success to our country and party that there should be any where among Democrats any lack of harmonious efforts to win the campaign which opens before us, I have therefore no concern on the subject. It will certainly be my constant endeavor to deserve the support of every Democrat." Mr. Cleveland was very tired when the news of his nomination reached him. Mrs. Cleveland had retired at four a. m. and it was nearly five when the nominee followed her.
