All Quiet in Cœur d'Alene Country—Other News.

Sub Committee Finished.

PITTSBURG, July 14.—The congressional inquiry into the Homestead trouble was completed today so far as this city is concerned. Today's evidence elicited little that was new. Manager Frick declared the company asked for a reduction of wages because of the reduction in price of blooms, billets and scabs caused the company to lose money on all the output. Frick said the McKinley bill had nothing to do with the proposed reduction of wages. Lower price of product was the result of over production. It is stated the committee will make a report of a character to help the passage of a compulsory arbitration law and an anti Pinkerton measure. Both are now before congress.

All Quiet at Wallace.

WALLACE, July 13.—The crisis has passed. Peace once more reigns in the Cœur d'Alene country, and martial law prevails in a community tonight as quiet as a churchyard, but the past 24 hours have been the most trying the Cœur d'Alenes have ever experienced. Had the colored troops arrived at Wallace last night, there would have been a battle in the darkness, as the mountains about Wallace were full of armed miners thoroughly concealed and protected. They did not want to fire on the troops unless in case of the utmost extremity.

Had these troops today passed Wallace, it is hard to tell what would have happened. The Gem mill was magazined ready for the match, and the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill contained nearly half a ton of powder with a fuse attached. Both mills were under a strict guard, and only as an extreme last resort, the miners claim, would the match have been applied. Fortunately for all, the trouble did not need such extreme measures. The miners kept a close watch of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill, but when the non-union men surrendered this forenoon, the mill was turned over to the company uninjured. The non-union men were sent out westward on a Union Pacific special so soon as they could be got to the depot, and miners not belonging in Wardner returned to Wallace and to their homes. The situation at present is very quiet. The troops are at Wardner, and will probably come to Wallace during the night. There is a feeling of gloom among the friends of the miners, and one of extreme indignation among the conservative citizens over the report that the bodies of Foreman Monahan, of the Gem mine, Ward, of the 'Frisco, and ten non-union men, were found at the mouth of the Fourth of July can you.

WALLACE, Ida., July 14.—The situation today remains quiet. All the miners went home to the various mines last night. Poorman and Tiger mines which have been deserted since Monday, started up again this morning, also Mammoth and Custer mines. Work at Morning and Hunter mines was also resumed this morning. A ripple of excitement was caused last night when it was learned that Granite mine force had not left. A delegation of miners immediately started in darkness for the mine four miles from Wallace and brought the scabs down. They were ordered out of Cœur d'Alene.

The miners claim owners of mine, De Lashmutt and McAulay, had agreed to discharge scabs and had not done so. These are the last scabs in Cœur d'Alene.

There is no truth in the report that twelve men were killed in Fourth of July canyon.

Bridges between here and Mullan have been repaired and trains are running on time.

To Arrest Miners.

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 14.—Senator Dubois has requested the war department to order the arrest of miners by the troops.

After Non-Union Men.

SPOKANE, July 14.—E. S. Kinney, bookkeeper for the Gem mine, arrived at Spokane yesterday. He was present at the old mission when the mob charged on the non-union refugees, and saw the whole affair. Kinney had been ordered out of the country by the strikers, and was helping some of his former employes reach Spokane. In all, there were 132 men from the different mines. They had been entirely disarmed, and were waiting for a boat. At dusk Tuesday evening a squad of eight armed men came down the railroad track yelling and firing rifles. The refugees scattered and ran to the river and gulches, their pursuers following and shooting at them. Most of the fugitives were driven into Fourth of July canyon but a number swam the river. When Kinney left it was known that two of the men had been killed, George Robinson and a Swede. The boat started down the river in darkness, and was hailed frequently by refugees. "We picked up eight or ten of these men," said Kinney. "It was the most pitiable sight I ever saw. One man was insane from fright. Many of the men were robbed." Kinney thinks the mob will never stop until they have killed every non-union man they lay eyes on.

Pittsburg Mills Strike.

PITTSBURG, July 14.—Employes in Carnegie's upper and lower union mills in this city struck at noon and the gas was turned off in the furnaces, by three this afternoon the men in all departments will be out and the mills shut down. Men struck because the company refused to confer again with the Homestead men. Nothing is heard from the Beaver Falls plant, but the men probably struck there too.

FREE COINAGE BILL

Defeated in the House by a Decisive Majority.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Free coinage was defeated in the house yesterday. Catchings reported, from the committee on rules, a resolution to make the silver bill a special order of the day. Reed moved to lay the resolution on the table. The speaker refused to recognize Reed. Bland moved an amendment to the resolution having for its object a pathway to the amendment of the Stewart bill to meet alleged defects in it and apply the cloture rule to the bill. Catchings called for the previous question on his resolution.

On motion of Tracy, the yeas and nays were ordered. The vote resulted in the defeat of the free coinage men, the previous question being ordered, 163 yeas and 128 nays.

Catchings was again recognized, and moved the adoption of the resolution. This time the silver men voted yea, as the defeat of Catchings' motion meant defeat of the free coinage this session. The silver men were less than ten votes stronger on the direct proposition, and the resolution reported by the committee on rules was defeated by 136 yeas to 154 nays, a majority against consideration of the Stewart silver bill of eighteen. The vote is death to silver legislation at this session. The Stewart bill remains at the foot of the long roll of bills, sleeping the sleep of death on the overburdened calendar. Tracy, of New York, made the formal parliamentary motion to reconsider the vote and to table the motion, and the house proceeded to consider other business.

An analysis of the votes shows that the affirmative vote was cast by 118 Democrats including the speaker, 10 alliance, and 8 Republicans. The Republicans were: Bowers, Cheatham, Clark, of Wyoming; Johnson, of Indiana; Jolly, Sweet, Post, and Townsend.

The Peoria Disaster

PEORIA, July 14.—So far as known the list of drowned numbers ten. Fifteen persons are yet to hear from. In addition there were nine pleasure boats out on the river at the time of the storm. Of these, five have turned up, having had a dreadful experience in the willows along the shore. The following is a list of the dead:

Rev. J. H. McMeen, of Pension; Mrs. Fred Fisher and daughter Cora, John J. Aherends, Mary Flath, Lottie Reitler, Mrs. Henry Buisdyker, and Mrs. W. H. Willis, all of Pekin, and Lottie Shade, of Shelbyville, Ill.

A body was identified as that of Maude Ford, of Pekin. This is now known to have been a mistake, and the identity of the dead girl is unknown. Kate Beebe, of Pekin, is missing and is supposed to be lost, as is also John Smith.

The search for the dead was prosecuted during the entire day, but only one body was recovered, that of Miss Lettie Reuter, aged 19, of Pekin. It is positively known that at least two more are under the debris. They are Miss Beebe, of Duluth, Minn., and Count Heppen, of Eureka. An unsuccessful effort was made to raise the Folsom yesterday afternoon, and release the bodies held underneath. The inquest was commenced today, and three witnesses were examined. There is nothing at all to show any responsibility for the disaster. Norah Metcalf, of Pekin, has reported her brother missing.

Run Over By Cars.

PORTLAND, Or., July 14.—Alex McEtchen, a switchman in the employ of the Northern Pacific Terminal Company, was run over and killed by a switch engine, about 6 o'clock last evening, at the N. street crossing in the Terminal grounds. The wheels passed over his body, mangling him fearfully and causing instant death. He was a single man, about 35 years of age, and has been a railroader for about 15 years. He has relatives in the city. The remains were taken in charge of by Coroner Holman.

World's Fair Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The World's fair bill, with Quay's Sunday closing and Peffer's liquor amendments attached passed the senate yesterday. The Quay amendment was first adopted; then Peffer's, prohibiting the sale of liquor on the grounds, by almost a strictly party vote—Republicans for, democrats against.

Cholera in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 14.—It is stated the cholera has appeared in Moscow. The desease continues to spread in the infected district. Latest reports from Astrakhan say in one day 225 persons were attacked with cholera, 102 died.

The Purchase of Bullion.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—In the senate, Sherman introduced a bill, repealing that part of the present silver act which provided for monthly purchase of bullion to take effect January 1 next.

TALK WITH BISMARCK.

He is No Admirer of Count Von Caprivi.

BERLIN, July 14.—The World correspondent at Kissengen met Prince Bismarck in the Kerhaus promenade. The correspondent was introduced by Dr. Hoffman, political editor of the Hamburger Nacchrichten, and enjoyed a few moments' interview with the ex-chancellor. Bismarck and the editor conversed in English, probably in the hope of defeating the efforts of the listeners, who crowded as near to their elbows as the police would permit.

"And so you are an American," were Prince Bismarck's first words. "Your people, I fear, will hardly understand the meaning of our present excitement, although I hope their sympathies are with me as of old. I am criticised here because I have spoken my mind, but my critics seem to have forgotten or to ignore the fact that it has always been my custom to speak frankly, and their objections extend to the manner in which I have expressed myself."

"One more question," the correspondent said. "Do you anticipate any trouble in consequence of the recent interviews that have been published?"

"Certainly not," said the prince; "that young man in Berlin is too clever to force me into taking the offensive. He cannot afford to make himself ridiculous. As to the threats of the press about the charges of high treason, they are too stupid to deserve serious attention. I trust that I know more about the law than most of the editors who are dictating to me what I ought to do, or warning me not to go too far. On general principles, I may say that I love the German empire, and will do everything in my power to uphold it, but I am no admirer of Count Caprivi.

The Springfield Cyclone.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, July 14.—The most destructive tornado which ever visited this section of the country struck the resident portion of this city yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, and completely demoralized thirty residences and partly ruined over one hundred more. Two persons are possibly fatally injured. A conservative estimate places the loss in property at between $150,000 and $200,000. The terrified spectators who witnessed the approach of the tornado state that it was preceded for about five minutes with a vertitable cloudburst of water, followed by the most frightful and continuous flashes of lightning. Two clouds then approached, both funnel shaped, one from the west, and one from the southwest, and clashed, directly over fair grounds, and began the work of disaster. A meeting of citizens has been held to devise means to aid homeless people. Fully thirty families are absolutely ruined. John Leache and family of five children living in the very center of the destroyed district, had a miraculous escape. They were at dinner when the cyclone came. It lifted the house and crashed it down a mass of ruins. None of the family, wonderful to state, were fatally injured.

Forty Saloons Closed.

PORTLAND, July 14.—License Collector Tichenor is very busily engaged at present entering upon the East Portland licenses. He expects to complete his labor in about ten days. He says that forty saloons have closed during the past quarter in the city proper, East Portland and Albina, entailing a loss in revenue to the city of over $4000. It is true some of these men may go into business again, but the loss will be about as stated. In the blocks bounded by Everett and Flanders and First and Third streets alone, seven saloons have gone out of business.

Full Postal Facilities.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—The railway postal service will establish offices Friday on the line of the Northern Pacific and Oregon and Washington railroad between Dayton and Pasco, Wash., a distance of 102½ miles. This new service will enable postoffices on the line to have intermediate exchange of mail and open up an important portion of the coast to full postal facilities.

Organization of Carpenters.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The secretary of state has granted a license to the carpenters council of this city to form an independent military organization, which, it is expected, will reach 6,500 inside of a week. The avowed object is to enable labor to fight any private armed force which capital may bring to settle labor disputes.

Republican Branch.

CHICAGO, July 14.—It has been definitely settled that a branch headquarters of the Republican national committee will be established at this city. Details will be completed at the meeting of the full committee at New York, Saturday. Probably John R. Tanner, of Illinois, will have charge of the branch.

Destitution in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 14.—The people of Hunter county, on the Tombigbee river, are absolutely destitute on account of floods, they appeal to the governor to ask congress for relief. He issued a proclamation asking the people of the state to contribute for the purpose.

Cholera in France.

MADRID, July 14.—The government commission reports the disease prevalent in Paris is cholera.

STRUCK BY A CYCLONE.

An Excursion Steamer Filled With People Capsized.

PEORIA, Ill., July 13.—Peoria lake evening was the scene of a horrible catastrophe. A cyclone struck the water about 10.30 and capsized the excursion steamer Frankie Folsom with a party of about 40 from Pekin on board. The work of bringing the dead ashore is now in progress. Up to 1 o'clock this morning nine bodies have been recovered from the wreck and the search continues.

Captain Lasch, of the boat, gives the story of the accident. He brought a party of about 40 up from Pekin to see the "Last Days of Pompeii." After the exhibition they pulled out, and when in the middle of the river the storm struck them in all its fury, with scarcely a sign of warning. He attempted to head the steamer toward shore, and as he did so a terrific gust of wind struck the craft and keeled it over in 19 feet of water. The scene that followed beggars description. Men and women were thrown into the water, but a larger part of them managed to reach the upper guard and cling there until help reached them. Their cries of distress were heard from shore, and in spite of the heavy wind a number of skiffs went to their assistance, and gradually they were brought to shore. Until the list of missing comes to Pekin, the exact number of deaths cannot be told. The persons drowned were nearly all in the cabin when the boat turned over. There was no escape for them and every one perished. The survivors all tell the most thrilling tales of the disaster, and there were many narrow escapes. Men and women were pulled to the boat half drowned, and it is feared some of them will die from excitement and exposure.

Sam Sutton, circuit clerk of Tazewell county, was in the second boat off from the wreck. He saved his wife by diving down into the cabin of the sunken boat. He brought her up in a senseless condition, but it is thought she will live. He said the accident was caused by the pilot becoming scared when the storm struck them. Had he kept his boat headed for the willows on the opposite bank there would have been no danger of capsizing. When the storm struck the boat there was the wildest scene imaginable. Men and women huddled to the side from the shore, and when the boat careened over many were swept off. The vessel settled rapidly to the bottom of the river, and every gust of the tornado would sweep some poor unfortunate off into the waves. The wind was blowing directly off shore, but the screams of the women and hoarse shouts of the men could be heard above the fury of the terriole storm. Sutton says he is sure the following are drowned, for he saw their lifeless bodies floating in the water of the cabin: Misses Fanny and Anna Poebel, William Ripberger, Mrs. William Wiles, John Adrends, Miss Mary Flath, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Miss Cora Fisher, Mrs. Disdecker, Mrs. Beebe, and two girls unknown. Those on the boat who have been brought to shore are sure there are over 18 persons drowned. So far there have been five bodies rescued.

Alderman Gotoon, of Perkin, lost his little son, and is raving crazy. He had to be removed from where the work of rescuing was going on by the police. As soon as the news of the wreck reached the police station, every man on the force was ordered to the scene. Mayor Warner ordered all the hacks in the city to the scene, and as the people are brought to the shore they are taken to the city hall, where they are made comfortable. The scene at the river bank is pitful in the extreme. Friends of those on the boat stand out in the storm awaiting the return of the rescuing parties.

When the storm broke, the lake and river were filled with every description of boats. Over 200 pleasure-boats were at the yard, and so far only 96 of them are accounted for. Several small boats were seen whirling down the river, and there is but little doubt that their occupants found a grave in the angry water.

To New York in a Balloon.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 14.—At exactly 9:15 yesterday morning the balloon The Windswept, with the serial navigator R. A. Woodward, was cut loose. It shot straight toward the sky to a great height and remained apparently stationary for nearly half an hour, then moved slowly eastward. Woodward has provisioned his ship for three days, which is the time he has said it would take for his trip to New York. The entire city turned out to see the start.

At 10:15 he disappeared from view. A telephone message from El Cajon says he has passed over the valley and is traveling rapidly southeast. The signal observer says Woodward is in a current of air having about 25-mile velocity, and thinks Woodward will never be heard of again.

Democratic Chairman.

NEW YORK, July 14.—William C. Whitney has nearly, but not quite, made up his mind to be chairman of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Cleveland has requested him to act. Democrats of consequence in several states of the Union are asking him to command the campaign, and Tammany hall wants him. The national committee would ask him should he decide to accept. It will meet in this city next Tesday.

From Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 14.—While martial law has not been officially declared in this borough, it has taken place to all practical purposes. It is now learned the locked out men are not entirely pleased with the action of the Carnegie men in other mills threatening to strike unless a conference is granted at Homestead as they believe others can do more good in case of a long struggle in remaining at work and helping them financially.

The Race War.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 14.—The situation here is still critical. Yesterday a policeman shot a skulking negro who ran when challenged. He died later. Last night a squad of white men discovered 150 negroes near the cemetery and several shots were exchanged. When this fact was reported arms were put in the hands of a posse of citizens who went to the place but the negroes had retired to the woods. The town was patrolled all night and an attempt will be made to arrest the negroes.

Van all Right.

PORTLAND, July 14.—Private message from Van B. Delashmutt says there is no truth in yesterday's report from Wardner that he was held prisoner by the strikers.

English Election.

LONDON, July 14.—At noon: Returns so far give Gladstone a majority over the government.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

Distress After Eating — Sick Headache — Heart-burn — Sour Stomach

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, painting, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.
