OUR STREETS.

What the city council will do tomorrow night in furthering street improvements is the question which is just now uppermost in the minds of the people in Salem. Bids have been advertised for on a variety of plans, and they will probably be opened at the regular meeting tomorrow night. It is supposed that a contract will be let for some kind of improvement, and the people are anxiously awaiting results. There are now practically only two classes in our city on this subject. Those who are committed to permanent improvements of some kind, and the active property owners who are clamoring for a particular kind of improvement. If this particular kind of improvement is not of a bad character, and has no serious faults further than that it may not be quite up to the ideals of some of the aldermen, it would seem that the easiest, quickest and most satisfactory way to dispose of the question would be to grant the prayer of the petitioners. Above all things it does seem as though whatever is going to be done should be done at once. The season is rapidly advancing, and work that is to be finished before the winter rains set in cannot be started any too soon. What street improvements have already been made have been of great benefit to Salem, Oregon's capital city now has the name of being the only city of its size on the coast that is not absolutely dead. Work for the laboring classes is now needed to keep this condition up. It is generally conceded that the city is in need of having the work done, so why not proceed at once and intelligently order these necessary improvements made? They can now be made cheaper than in busy times, and being needed there is no reason why they should not be pushed forthwith.

NATIVE SHRUBS.

Salem people hardly realize how many beautiful native shrubs they have growing almost at their door, until they are reminded by visitors from abroad, all of whom invariably rave over the beauty and grace of these trees and flowers. First of all there is the native dogwood. It is not only a handsome tree, but the bloom is simply gorgeous. The mountain laurel is equalled by few imported varieties as clean lawn decorators, and it is growing scarcer every year. The "ocean spray" has just been in all its glory, its bloom being equalled only by the wonderful pampas grass, while it is a hardy deciduous shrub. Last, but not least, is the Oregon flowering currant which is an early spring bloomer, and is of an early growth. These four native plants in particular should be sought and preserved by all lovers of choice trees and flowers, especially as they are growing scarcer from year to year.

EVERYBODY GOES.

Where? Why, to Hellenbrand's restaurant. Canned tomatoes $10 per dozen, at Harritt & McIntyre.
Child's folding street car—Just the thing to take to the coast—at Osburn's Racket store.

HOP GROWERS' ORGANIZE.

To Protect Their Hop Houses by a Relief Association.

The Willamette Hop Growers' Association met on Saturday and organized a "Hop Growers' Fire Relief Association" with a membership of twenty-five, and it is expected that every hop grower in the valley will become a member. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: J. G. Groves, of Dallas, president; Mark Skiff, Salem, secretary; Pierce Riggs, Salem, treasurer; board of directors—W. P. Putnam, W. H. Holmes, J. F. Groves, Pierce Riggs, Mark Skiff. The directors expect to meet in Salem on Wednesday next and complete the details of the organization. The object of this association is to afford the hop growers to the entire Willamette valley protection against fire for their hop houses and contents. The house of each member of the association is to be insured for the sum of $1000. The initiation fee is $2.50 per membership and there will be an assessment for each house that is consumed. The plan is that of mutual protection and losses are expected to be covered by assessment.

The growers report their hops are being generally in good condition. Lice are not so plentiful as they were a year ago and spraying is being everywhere vigorously prosecuted, with flattering success. The vines are not so far advanced as they were at the same time last year.

A SCIO ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening, John Goins was engaged in elevating lumber on the warehouse at the mill, now under course of erection, when the rope caught in some way, and John attempted to free it, and to do so stepped beneath the lumber, when without warning the rope was broken, dropping the load a distance of nine or ten feet upon him. He was crushed to the ground by it but was taken to the house as soon as possible and Dr. Hyde summoned. After a thorough examination it was found that no bones were broken. Press.

JACK GREEN.—This is what the writer has named a fine specimen of mountain laurel tree planted from the woods last year. It is named after one of the few men who knows just how, when and where to get these rare trees—Jack Green, Salem's expressman. The one referred to was got under his directions and is a success. Anyone wishing some of these handsome trees should not fail to have Jack Green secure them, for he never fails.

TO TEACHERS.—At the last state association the department of county superintendents decided that no teacher should be recommended to the state superintendent for a state certificate who had not been a regular attendant at the county institutes. Teachers have only one more week to register at the county institute now being held at the High school.

CITY ROAD TAX.—R. A. Croisan and A. O. Condit are busy at the sheriff's office making a transcript of the city assessment from the county tax roll, preparatory to collecting the city's portion of the two mill road tax from the county. At a recent meeting of the council Recorder Goodell was instructed to collect this tax from the county and if necessary to bring suit for same.

CLEANING OUT.—The county clerk's office had a political cleaning out at the late election, and is now being renovated in the way of new carpets, etc. Mr. Egan is bound to have it purified all around if such a thing is possible.

LOADED FOR BEAR.

Thos. Holland, who has been at work in the fair ground stables for some time past seems to be everlastingly on the fight; in short, he is loaded for bear, but once in a while bites off more than he can masticate. It is said he entered into such a contract yesterday when he tackled Andy McCarl, of the foundry. Last week Holland was baited out for the second time on charge of mayhem, and since then has had only two altercations. He seems to enjoy this kind of fun, at least he is always looking for it. It is not a good thing to be at especially where one so often meets a heavier man than himself.

A SOCIAL EVENT.—Capital lodge, No. 11, I. O. G. T., gave a social in memory of the birth of the lodge. Sunday being the 17th anniversary of the lodge's birth they decided to have a pleasant time. The evening was spent in music, games and refreshments. Messrs. Moody and Jarvis gave some fine selections in music and recitations. Miss Willa Riggs recited "The Orphan Child." All together the social was a success and all departed well pleased.

WILSON TODAY.—The dead who is now languishing in the State prison for the murder of Mamie Walsh is a trifle more talkative today. As a rule he is too much that way at best and his late talks have only been of a contradictory character, such as would be of little interest to anyone. When he has something new to relate the JOURNAL will give the news about it.

GOOD WORK.—Dallas is doing something sensible in the way of street building. The observer says: The street commissioner has a force of men breaking rock on Main street. All the large stones have been raked to the center of the street and are being broken up. When this work is completed the layer of crushed rock will receive a heavy coat of gravel. This will make a fine thoroughfare.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gray of Salem, arrived Wednesday evening for a period of enjoyment on our beach. Mr. Gray is a Salem capitalist and thinks there is no coast city in Oregon quite so pleasant a resort as Newport. They spent a portion of the winter here it will be remembered.—Newport Times.

CHURCH DEDICATED.—The German Lutherans dedicated their new church on North Cottage street yesterday (Sunday.) Rev. G. E. Meyer delivered the dedication sermon. Rev. C. Huer preached in the afternoon. There was a large attendance both morning and evening.

BY A WINDLASS.—Saturday the 10-year-old son of Levi P. Adams, of North Salem, was badly injured while drawing a bucket of water with a windlass. It slipped out of his hand and struck him over the eye, inflicting a severe injury.

A MINING COMPANY.—The Bay Horse Mining company was incorporated in the office of the secretary of state Saturday by David Wilson and W. W. Evans with a capital stock of $25,000. The principal place of business will be at Tacoma.

LARCENY BY RAIL.—Joe Medley, a man who borrowed a gun from Foster & Co., of this city, on the 23rd of last July, and forgot to return it, came to town Saturday and was promptly arrested by Marshal Minto.

INTENTION.—Albert Dapp, a subject of the republic of Switzerland, yesterday declared his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States.

THE FIRST.—Anyone will find it to his interest to call around and see the first shipment of Corvallis carriages, now at the old stand of J. C. Brown & Co.

GRAND IMPOSING SPECTACLE

Solomon, His Temple, and the Queen of Sheba.

To the skeptic or the agnostic as well as to the devout believer in the Sacred Scriptures, the era of the great King Solomon's reign is and can be naught but the most impressive, the most interesting and the grandest in all history. There are no parallels in the records of the past; nothing approximating in grandeur, in wisdom and sublimity, in any chronicle of modern ages. It was, then, a felicitous conception of the management of John Robinson's Great World's Exposition to reproduce the scenes, personages, incidents and events of the reign of Solomon, the grand old patriarch, sage and king. That they have done this thoroughly, acceptably and successfully, the public and the press, every where the Robinson show has exhibited this season, unanimously attest. Their great biblical spectacle, in its powerful scenographic effects, in its accurate and realistic personations, and the sumptuous lavishness attending its representation, is pronounced with universal accord to be not only a triumph in art, but a revelation in the history of the past that has never had a precedent. Our citizens will have the opportunity of seeing this grand spectacle in connection with the manifold other wonders of the John Robinson show at Salem, August 3d.

Hon. J. W. Cusick returned yesterday from a trip to Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Will, of Salem, are visiting in the city. J. J. Graham went to Salem yesterday to attend the hop growers' meeting. Miss Jane Morris, a teacher in the Salem public schools, is visiting in the city.—Albany Herald.

Mr. A. I. Wagner, Salem's popular boniface, was in town yesterday. Mr. Wagner says there is no place like Oregon in which to live. He has been buying a lot of new furniture for the Willamette, his hotel at Salem, and the furnishings for a mammoth restaurant he proposes to erect at the fair grounds for this fall.—Sunday Oregonian.

Yesterday as Henry Stapleton and family were nearly ready to start for Nestucca, the team, which was attached to their load of camping utensils, became frightened, and in the excitement which followed, the wagon was overturned and one wheel broken. All the family escaped without injury except Mrs. S. who was somewhat bruised about the right arm. The trip was postponed for the present.

Pimples.

The old idea was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus the old Sarsaparilla contains potash, a drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparilla. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparilla and Joy's. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 409 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion. I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla

Largest bottle, most effective, same price. For sale by Dan'l J. Fry, 225 Commercial street.

Resolutions.

To the officers and members of Union Lodge No. 561 I. O. G. T.: We, your committee, to whom was referred the preparations of a resolution, in memory of our deceased sister, Miss Maggie Evans, beg leave to report the following, to-wit:

Whereas, In pursuance of the inscrutable decree of the divine chief of the universe, our late sister and co-worker, Miss Maggie Evans, who has been called from labor to rest, was a charter member of this lodge, therefore be it

Resolved, That in this event, the lodge has lost a valued member, the cause of temperance a consistent and zealous worker, every true brother and sister a genial friend, and no person an enemy.

That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the family of our sister, and assure them, that while she is sweetly sleeping with the angels of the valley, her sweet spirit hovers over them and says, take up the work that I have laid down, and labor till the last drapshoop is driven from our loved land.

Respectfully submitted in faith, hope and charity.

H. S. JORY,
MARIE BAKER,
MRS. E. M. VANDEVENTER,
Committee.

The Genuine Merit

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla wins friends wherever it is fairly and honestly tried. Its proprietors are highly gratified at the letters which come entirely unsolicited from men and women in the learned professions warmly commending Hood's Sarsaparilla for what it has done for them.

OREGON ITEMS.

A SILLY STATEMENT.

Cleveland Replies to a Story Hardly Worth Noticing.

Boston, July 18.—A few days ago W. Black, of Chelsea, wrote Grover Cleveland, calling his attention to a statement quoted from the British-American Citizen, to the effect that when Cleveland became president he placed a Roman Catholic at the head of every division, and permitted nuns, contrary to the printed instructions hung in every building in Washington, to go twice a month through the buildings and commanded every clerk to contribute to the support of the Roman Catholic church, and if he or she refused, they had a yellow envelope sent them. Cleveland's reply, printed in the British-American Citizen, this week, reads as follows:

I am almost ashamed to yield to your request to deny a statement so silly and absurd on its face as the one you send me. However, as this is the second application I have received on the same subject, I think it best to end the matter, so far as it is possible, by branding the statement, in all its details and in its spirit and intention, as unqualified and absolutely false. I know Cardinal Gibbons and know him to be a good citizen and a first-rate American, and that his kindness of heart and toleration is in striking contrast with the fierce intolerance and vicious malignity which disgrace some who claim to be Protestants. I know a number of the members of the Catholic church, who were employed in the public service during my administration, and I suppose there are many still so employed. I am ashamed of my Presbyterianism if these declarations give grounds for defense.

Like a Good Conundrum is life, because everybody must give it up! But you needn't be in a hurry about it! Life is worth the living! To prolong it, is worth your untiring effort! Don't give up without calling to your rescue that grand old family medicine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Many a worn-out, exhausted body has it made over good as new! It strengthens, builds up, invigorates, assisting nature, and not violating it. Cures liver disease, indigestion, and all blood taints and humors. Sure and lasting benefit guaranteed, or money refunded. All druggists.
