The church was crowded to overflowing, and the floral tributes were so numerous that they had to be placed outside. The discourse was touching and eloquent, and the fraternal ceremonies were unusually impressive.

CHRIS RICH DROWNED.

Went Down in the Willamette While Bathing Sunday Afternoon.

Yesterday about 3:30 o'clock Christian Rich went bathing in the Willamette. The place where the boys went in was at the head of McClane's island below the mouth of North Mill creek, and it is said to be a dangerous place. Young Rich was not a good swimmer, and as he went along the shallow water all of a sudden went down. His friend got hold of his hand and struggled to save him, nearly losing his own life in the attempt, but with no avail. Grassenburger says he doesn't know how he reached the shore, and he was unable to call assistance for some moments thereafter. The body was recovered within half an hour, and taken to the home of Rich's parents, who live on "D" street in Parrish's addition, and are almost heart-broken over their misfortune. Christ. Rich drove delivery wagon for Gilbert & Patterson for about three years, and served nearly one year as deputy under Sheriff Croison, having lately received his former position. He was 24 years of age, a steady young man and a faithful worker. The deceased had an accident policy of $2,000, besides a life policy in the Northwest, but the writer could not learn for what amount.

INCORPORATIONS.

L. J. Trumbull, M. H. Eaton and M. A. Wallace incorporated the W. C. T. U. of La Grande. Supplemental articles of the M. E. church, South Portland mission, were filed by T. A. Wood, E. T. Johnson, A. W. Powers, John Sarginson, W. H. D. Joyce, Geo. R. Arnold, J. F. Johnson and James Hult. The object was to change the name to the St. Paul M. E. church of Portland.

IN MEMORIAM.

Resolutions Passed by the Red Men Upon the Death of John Westcott

WIGWAM KAMIAKIN TRIBE, N. S. IMP. O. R. M. SALEM, OR., July 28, 1892

Resolved, That with profound sorrow we mourn the death of our beloved and praiseworthy brother, John Westcott, who died at his home in the city of Salem, Oregon, on Thursday, July 28, 1892. Born in this city, he grew to manhood, esteemed and respected by those about him for his genial disposition, his kindness of heart, and his integrity of character. Without a stain on his reputation, he had but fairly become engaged in his life-work, and taken his place among the business men of the city, when that summons came which no one may disregard. His wide and familiar acquaintance here made him an ornament to society. He was dearly beloved by the young—his companions with whom he had grown up—and by the old, who had watched his growth, for he ever had a smile and a kind word for both old and young. As a business man he worked hard for honorable excellence in his calling; and his standing as a member of one of the leading firms of the city, in which he grew from errand boy to partner, tells how well he succeeded, and attests the value of honesty and perseverance, and furnishes an example worthy of imitation by the most talented youth. In speaking of him, the restraint of speaking nothing but good of the dead is not felt; for no one who knew him can find anything in his character and reputation that needs excuse; in fact, there is in them everything to endear him to our memories. His place cannot be filled in home, or tribal council, or business, or society. All relations of life suffer loss by the death of one so generous, so frank, so worthy of confidence and esteem.

Resolved, further, That it is the unanimous sentiment of Kamiakin tribe, No. 8, Imp. O. R. M., that in the departure of our worthy brave to the happy hunting grounds of the hereafter, "where the tomahawk is ever buried," we have suffered indescribable bereavement. We therefore, bowing to the will of the Great Spirit, proffer to his family and friends our tenderest sympathy and condolence.

And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath.

And stars to be set; but all, Thou hast all for seasons thine own, O Death!

JOHN ROBINSON'S EXPOSITION

Notably Augmented for the Present Tenting Season.

Probably the most colossal as well as the most merry amusement venture of the day is that inaugurated this season by the management of the John Robinson show—a venture requiring an expenditure so enormous that a statement of the amount would scarcely be credited by the general reader. We attribute to the production on a scale of magnitude and opulent splendor never precedent of the new biblical spectacle of Solomon, his temple, and the Queen of Sheba, a spectacle profuse in grand scenic effect, impressive in pomp and pageantry, realistic in its reproductions of the patriarchal era, sacred in its biblical associations, and entrancing in its ballads, poses, marchings and groupings. The visit of the Queen of Sheba to King Solomon's court with her immense and richly costumed retinue, the Judgment of Solomon, the sacrifices in the Temple, Solomon's seven hundred wives the grand processional pageant to meet and welcome Sheba's lovely queen, the walls and city of Jerusalem, the inner court of Solomon's Temple, the great throne of ivory, the sacrificial ceremonies, the Sacred Ark of the Covenant, the bewitching ballets of lovely Cresset girls, and myriad features that cannot be given in detail, are the attractions of this wondrous spectacle presents. With such a desirable feature added to the admirable circus, the vast menagerie, and the royal Roman hippodrome, the many canvases, spacious as they are, should and will be pecked from center to circumference by eager and gratified spectators each afternoon and evening.

The show will exhibit at Salem on Wednesday Aug. 3rd.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Putnam; H. S. Wain, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S., I am in splendid health. I have done wonderful things for me." shape. It has done wonderful things for me."
