CIRCUIT COURT.

Decision of Judge Burnett on Horse Car Case.

Oregon Land Co., plaintiff, vs the State Insurance Co., Geo. Williams, H. W. Cottle, B. S. Cook, H. J. Minthorn and Salem Street Railway Co., defendants, injunction.

This cause was heard by the court on Aug. 2d, upon the testimony reported by W. P. Williams, referee. The court finds, as conclusions of law as follows:

1st—That the mortgage of the State Insurance Co. set out in its answer and dated Dec. 20, 1890, is void and of no effect, as against the mortgage set out in the complaint of the plaintiff.

2d—That the chattel mortgage set out in plaintiff's complaint is a lien upon the personal property of the defendant Salem Street Railway Co. described therein prior in time and right to the aforesaid chattel mortgage of the defendant State Insurance Co.

3d—That plaintiff is entitled to a decree against the defendants as follows: That the personal property described in the chattel mortgage, [all of the ties, planks, rails, etc., constituting the track or roadway of the Salem Street Railway Co. (except the Center street line) to gether with all rights, franchises, etc., also five closed and three open cars; also all harness and feed stored in the barn; and thirty head of horses] be sold in the manner prescribed by law upon execution, and the proceeds applied, first, to the payment of the costs and disbursements of this suit to be taxed; second, pro rata to the payment of the six following sums due from the Salem Street Railway Co., Geo. Williams, $1163.80; J. A. Baker, $1163.80; H. W. Cottle, $200; B. S. Cook, $32.50; H. J. Minthorn, $32; Oregon Land Co., $7333.91; third to the payment of the sum of $5091.65 with interest at 8 per cent. since Jan. 23, 1892, due from Salem Street Railway Co. to State Insurance Co.; and fourth, that the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the Salem Street Railway Co., and that the defendant, the State Insurance company, its agents and servants, and all persons acting for it, be perpetually enjoined from taking or holding possession of, or interfering in any way with any of the personal property, described in chattel mortgage.

Heroes of the Indian Wars.

It is to be hoped the state or nation may before long render adequate compensation to the race of rapidly dying pioneers who were volunteers and fought in the Oregon Indian wars. Some of these were fighting every year, from the first settlement of the country until peace reigned in every part of the state, from end to end of the Pacific coast. They were faithful, valiant, volunteers, soldiers, cavalymen riding their own horses, wearing clothes earned by the hard process of frontier life, buying their own supplies, using their own guns and supplying their own ammunition. This government is today in peaceful possession of all this vast domain wrested by the bravery of these early pioneers who risked their lives and fortunes and many of whom lie already in their graves. Many of these men died in their prime from exposure while protecting the frontier settlement from Indian depredations. Has the government of Oregon or the nation ever paid one of these men a cent? No. It has never paid a dollar of this just debt. It is high treason to think that the government should be asked to pay the veterans of the Indian wars? We think not. A sense of self-respect will induce a just government to examine into the claims of the surviving veterans and at least the volunteer veterans should be paid for their full time.

Revive State-Bank Circulation.

Would the revival of the issue of currency by the state banks, as in ante bellum times, really work commercial confusion? It has long been taken for granted, since the prohibitory tax of ten per cent was levied as a war measure on the issue of money by state banks, that the revival of these banks would cause such an outbreak of what was properly called "wild-cat" banking that the commercial community would never for a moment again listen to such a system. But following closely upon the demand by the Democratic national convention that this tax be repealed so that state banks may again issue notes, a bill was introduced in the house of representatives and championed by Mr. Harter, of Ohio, for the repeal of this tax. David M. Stone, the venerable student of commercial questions and founder and for a generation editor of the New York Journal of Commerce, contributes a brief, compact article to the August number of The Forum to show that the alarm is unwarranted. He argues that the development of quick communication between all parts of the country and the modern organization of commerce would rid state bank issues of their dangers, and that the repeal of this tax, so that state banks might issue bills, would really solve the question of elastic currency. Mr. Stone reaches this conclusion, not by political reasons, but simply as a financial student; and the arguments he sets forth in this article are those that will be used, not only in the campaign, but during the further agitation of the subject by all that favor the revival of state bank issues.

Harsh, but — ?

"Ho," said a well-known statesman, "I shall never believe that woman has the proper judgment and sense to cast a ballot, or interfere in politics, while she is so weak-minded as to passively suffer, year after year, from diseases peculiar to females, when every newspaper she picks up, tells of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Not to take advantage of this remedy is certainly an indication of mental weakness!"

There is a wholesome kernel of truth inside the rough shell of this ungalant speech. The "Favorite Prescription" is valuable in all uterine troubles, inflammations, ulcerations, displacements, nervous disorders, prostration, exhaustion, or hysteria, for run-down, worn-out women, no more strengthening tonic or service is known.

SICK

Head-Aches

Sick-headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasional dose at intervals will forever prevent return.

Jan. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-headache for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the second day after I began using it."

What Salem wants to do at the next city election is to elect a new mayor who, when he says he favors public improvements, means just what he says. Salem is about tired of mugwump mayors.

The president has made an excellent selection in appointing Hon. R. P. Boise and Gen. O'Neil to take the preliminary steps toward opening the Siletz Indian reservation. No doubt the gentleman from Missouri is an equally fit appointment.

A WESTERN ADMINISTRATOR.

That is what Benjamin Harrison has given this country in a most decided manner—as contrasted with the preceding administration which was distinctly a Wall street concern. Cleveland appointed one Wall street banker after another as Secretary of the Treasury—and each one made more strenuous effort to please his master, the great mogul of the goldbugs by insidious attacks on the silver coinage of the country. But for well-designed Republican legislation they would no doubt have succeeded in placing silver at a discount, to the great loss of the West. Harrison has not only made no light on silver coinage but under his administration the coinage was increased from two to four and one-half millions a month, maintained at par with gold and giving the people a rapidly increasing circulation of money. In the Land Department everything has been done to open new lands to settlers and all cases have been adjusted to give the settler a show. Indian reservations have been opened up and the Indians fairly dealt with. But greatest of all has been the increase of postal service rendered the West. With a seventy-two hour mail between Portland and Chicago and other restored out chaos on all the country routes, John Wanamaker has made a matchless record in his first term as Postmaster General. He believed in the development of the West and he has carried out his ideas in Oregon in a remarkably vigorous manner. It is safe to say Oregon has twice the mail facilities she had under Cleveland. Harrison is giving us a Western administration and the West should support Harrison.

WHAT WILL THEY DO ABOUT IT?

This is the question that is being asked concerning the members of the present city council, and also the Mayor. All of these gentlemen were elected on the square issue of street improvements. If anything in this line is to be done this year it must be done soon. But now the council finds itself practically in a deadlock. A contract for broken rock twelve inches deep is ordered, and an ordinance is to be drawn up to cover the same.

In the absence of one or more opposing members this ordinance can be passed. Those best informed now say the mayor will veto the ordinance when passed. It cannot be passed over his head, as its friends concede, hence it will be September and nothing done. The point is, can the council, under its pledge, afford to thus lose time and virtually kill every possible prospect for improvement? Since they are pledged, individually and collectively, to give the people better streets, is it not their duty to agree upon some plan and push it through? Our streets last winter were a disgrace to the city, and the business streets are only in a worse condition now. Surely something should be done and that at once. No member of the present city administration can afford to play the "dog in the manger." Voting for an improvement that cannot pass does not relieve any member of the moral obligation he has assumed. This council must either give the city better streets or go down into history as having violated its sacred pledges to the people.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
