Not satisfied with their remarkable blow-out at Denver, a large body of Masons have gone on to Omaha to paint that town red. They are called the Mystic Shrine brand of the secret order and have more wonderful cabalistic and terror-inspiring proceedings than any other branch. The Shriner will not tell what their proceedings are, but they always come out of their seances, which are only held once or twice a year, looking happy for months and wearing a broad smile when they meet on the street. The Mystic Shrine in session at Omaha can't be anything but wicked.

A rancher in the coast range has discovered a simple and effective way of killing fern. In late June or July, when it has attained its most rank and tender growth, before the stalks have hardened into woody fibre, he passes over it with a common field roller. This breaks it off and the theory is that it bleeds to death. In effect, no matter about theory, the fern is killed so that grass seed can be sown and the stock tramples down what is left of the fern.

The foothills of the Cascades are said to be the natural home of the honey bee. One bee hunter landed in Portland the other day with nearly a thousand pounds of perfect combs. The valleys are a natural dairy region as the best tame grasses will grow and remain green the year around where the ferns and timber are once subdued. Plenty of stock will subdue the fern.

Baron Hirsch who is to make a visit in this country will be given a grand reception by the New York Hebrews and he is expected to make peace between the religious factions of our American Israel. The great philanthropist will be warmly welcomed to our country by all classes of citizens for his personal worth.

"Good health, calm nerves, good friends and a modest opinion of herself" are the results of a college education to a girl, in the opinion of Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer, and no better guide of the results of such training can be found than the ex-president of Wellesley.

The official exports of flour and wheat from the United States during the past twelve months were equal to 125,665,811 bushels, against 106,181,310 bushels for the corresponding time in 1890-91—an increase of 119,484,465 bushels, or 112.5 per cent.

What would the people of Oregon think if a rain, wind or hail storm struck one small section of the state and caused a million dollars loss? Yet that is what happened in Minnesota the other day. The beauty of Oregon is that such things do not happen here.

Query: How much additional expense is put on the state of Oregon by the numerous penitentiary escapes for repairs of the building, escapes of recapture and extra cost of keeping returned convicts for longer periods? Our prison should be made safe or be abandoned.

Candidate Cleveland has been sliding into oblivion at the following rate in New York:
 1892-----192,854 For
 1884-----1,149 For
 1888-----14,373 Against
 1892----- Out of Sight

Murder is no solution for labor difficulties and the dastardly Italian anarchist who tried to assassinate Frick of the Carnegie steel works should be run out of the country or hung. What use has this country for anarchists anyhow?

Mme. Modjeska intends soon to take up her residence in Chicago, where her son, Ralph Modjeska, expects to practice his profession.

Mr. Downing's convicts have a happy "go-as-you-please," or "go-or-stay" way about them. Most of them seem to go when they get ready.

German born residents furnish 8.76 per cent. of the strength of the Union army during the war of the rebellion.

The Democratic prison management is not saving the state any money by the frequent penitentiary deliveries.

The St. Louis Jockey club will have 100 days racing next year. A good long stretch of excitement, that.

There were 5,508 churches built in this country last year. The country is not going to ruin morally.

Potter Palmer, the Chicago hotel man, has made a will giving $100,000 to the man who marries Mrs. Palmer after his death. Potter is generous to a fault, but the item is probably a newspaper story.

Gladstone has a hard row to hoe, with the Tories, the queen, the house of lords and the pope at Rome against him. But with right on his side he is bound to win.

B. Fay Mills has opened meetings in the great "wigwam" of San Francisco on the same board where all the great prize fights have taken place for years.

President Harrison is too good a talker to not take a hand in the coming campaign, and it is announced that he will make a few speeches.

There are still a few who mourn the removal of Salem's old moss-covered bridge.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

"I had rather return," replied Samuel meekly. "Very well," said the old gentleman, turning toward home immediately.

His son did return to college, confessed his fault, applied himself to study and became a much respected man. And his father never regretted the day when he offered Samuel such an unpleasant alternative, although he often admitted that he "might have been a little put to it if Sam had elected to follow the blacksmith's trade."

But he would have held to his word in any case.—Youth's Companion.

"Ah, There! Ye Sinners." A good story is told concerning the English and the Eurasian worshippers at St. Paul's cathedral, Calcutta, forty years ago. It seems that at that time the English portion of the congregation always sat on one side of the nave and the Eurasian members were rigidly kept on the other. Bishop Daniel Wilson was preaching one day, and while denouncing the feeble religion of the European world in Calcutta was struck by the languid indifference of his English listeners. With a sweep of the arm over the aristocratic side he passionately exclaimed, "Ah, there ye sit, ye sinners, and there," extending his other arm above his darker yet more attentive listeners to the right, "and there sit the fruits of your sins!"—Contemporary Review.

Shakespeare Not Infallible. As we must keep repeating, Shakespeare was human after all. He wrote nothing in which there were not admirable passages worthy of himself. But we, like Ben Jonson, should love him "on this side idolatry." Criticism is absolutely worthless if it is not sincere. We are not to read Shakespeare as if he were infallible, nor to accept all he did in a spirit of blind and unquestioning faith. At the same time we must remember, in speaking of so divine a genius, what Pope says of others that blamed as great a mind: It is not Homer noble, but we who dream. —Andrew Lang in Harper's.

Fine Work on Photographs. The art of painting and mounting photographs has been carried to such perfection that a careful inspection is sometimes necessary to distinguish a photograph from an ivory miniature. The photograph is smoothed and polished over a glass oval and a glass cover is fitted over it so carefully that the two pieces of glass seem but one, so close is the union. When the work is nicely done, no ivory painted miniature is prettier, and with a reasonable amount of practice any amateur can learn to do the work.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Expensive Telegraphing. The greatest sum ever paid for telegraph tolls in one week by a newspaper was the expenditure of the London Times for cable service from Buenos Ayres during the revolution in the Argentine Republic. The cost of cabling from Buenos Ayres to London was $1.75 a word, and The Times paid $30,000 for one week's dispatches.—Exchange.

It Took Two weeks to Pass. "I have forgotten my purse, but you will surely allow me to pass when I tell you that I am the master of Balliol!" said an Oxford don to the keeper of a turnpike near the town. "You may be the master of Balliol, but you don't pass my purse if you haven't the master of mine," was the unexpected reply.—London Standard.
