THE OREGONIAN copies a criticism of its attitude on the silver question which appeared in these columns and indulges an abusive reply. As in other discussions, it puts on an air of superior wisdom (borrowed with its information for the occasion from the "Banker's Magazine") and says, "we are the people and wisdom settles nothing and cannot cut any
 day's issue it has another leader to show that the decline in price of silver has been due to legislation. In the August Forum, (page 719), a prominent New York financier, opposing silver coinage, says: "The decline in the price of silver would have been far greater and more rapid if we had not interfered by our legislation." Until the opinion of the Oregonian writer is asked on this question by the "Forum," we must assume the writer just quoted, who is opposed to silver to be the better authority on the subject.

The truth about the Oregonian is it is opposed to all coinage of silver.
 It is a gold-monopolist, silver-pursuit. It does not want a heavier coinage of silver—it does not want a dollar's worth of silver put in the dollar. It does not favor international agreement on the question. It wants nothing but abolition of silver as lawful money of the United States and destruction of its present legal tender quality.
 Can the Oregonian explain why the coinage of silver under the same basis as gold? Gold is given no preference there over the white met-tal which the goldbugs seek to render cheap enough to make political the writer in the Forum asserting that silver would not be worth over 25 cents an ounce but for present legislation. In the constitution congress is given power "to coin money and regulate the value thereof," and ought but "gold and silver coin shall be made a legal tender in payment of debts." But the grand old instrument counts for nothing in the eyes of the men who can see in a gold monopoly a chance to depress all industrial values and multiply the wealth of another class an hundred fold.
