City Attorney Richardson Resigns -His Letter to the Council.

The city council met last evening n adjourned session, with Johnson, B. H. BRADSHAW, PHYSICIAN AND Bush-Breyman block, upstairs Residence corner Statemat S. Ecorner Winter street. The meeting was called for the purpose of passing the ordinance for street work, Chairman Hunt, of the street committee stated that the ordinance was ready, except that the matter of locating all the electric poles should receive further consideration. He also reported that the bridges on Winter street could then be considered, and moved that when the council adjourn it do so to meet

SALEM, Or. Aug. 28, 1892. the Hon. Mayor and common council of the city of Salem.

GENTLEMEN:- As I understand the order of your honorable body, at your last regular meeting, I am the city attorney of Salem with the most important part, so far as I am concerned, the salary electrocuted. Now, as you are about to proceed to ry to force the collection of the asessments for Coemeketa street and South Commercial street improvements, and as I have been called upon, by your members and officers, at various times, for an opinion as to whether or not I thought the assessment could be collected, and as I have invariably answered that I was fearful that said assessment hours. Roseburg Plaindealer. could not be collected, and more especially was I of that opinion so far suing bonds for water-works, for as the assessment on Chemeketa have learned my opinion has caused much nnfavorable comment from you and other parties blaming me, and contending that I am responsi ble for this assessment ordinance not eing collectible. Now, I wish to Gold, Plain, Script or Canyas state to you the facts, and show you and all other parties that I am not responsible for a single defect in the assessment ordinance, and further shows you beyond successful confective I have advised and protested interested parties may know, as well as yourselves, what my past advice E. K. HALL, has been, and the part that I have taken and the facts upon which I have based my opinion, that no

I prepared the first ordinance for you for the Chemeketa street assessment according to the charter as I understood it, which ordinance was read twice in your honorable body, and thereupon Alderman Moores and Hunt of the committee on streets and public property gave it as their opinion that this was not the way to assess it, and that a prorate of the whole work was more the finest dining and sleeping car service in the world. The electric reading light in each berth is the successful novelty of this progressive age, and is highly appreciated by all regular patrons of this line. We wish others to know its merits, as the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway is the only line in the west enjoying the exclusive use of this patent.

I protested against their view as I did not believe that the assessment ordinance should be collected made that way as I told them it might seem equitable, yet they must follow the charter, and if our charter was not right they should charter was not right they should have it amended, but they must follow it until it was amended, but they prevailed on the commettee ou ordinances, and Alderman Lafore, chairman on ordinances, brought the ordinance to me and ordered me to change the ordinance in accordance with the view of Alderman Moores and Hunt. I drew the new ordinance in accordance with the view of Alderman Moores and Hunt. I drew the new ordinance in accordance with the view of Alderman Moores and Hunt, and this you passed, and this ordinance, if defective at all, is defective by reason of the opinions this ordinance, if defective at all, is its suction at the west according to the court house in Salem, Marion county, Oregon all the right, title and interest of the asid estate, in and to the following described premises, to wit Lots 8, 9, 10 and 11 in block No. 8, as shown by the awended recorded piot of Capital Park addition to the city of Salem, in Marion county, Oregon. Necessity for Keeping Cleas.

An old physician being appealed to for some general comprehensive rule for the preservation of good health, replied, "Keep clean." Cleanliness, from a medical point of view, generally means the absence of noxious germs. The laity generally comprehend in the term freedom from foreign substances, while the psychologist and moralist have reference to purity of mind and soul. All these combined wouldn't form the first principle of good health. Freedom from all filth with reference to the body and its surroundings, freedom from contamination of mind and soul, would make the individual not only free from mathe individual not only free from ma-terial pollutions, but would inspire him with a sense of cleanliness, a feeling of

with a sense of cleanliness, a feeling of purity that would cleanse life and glorify the consciousness of living.

There is a meaning in the word "clean" that penetrates beyond things seen and touches the mental and spiritual nature of humanity. Cleanliness in a material sense may not abhor dissipations and debauches which impress life with a sense of impurity, vitiating the sources of health and impairing its judgment. "Keep clean" is an admonition carrying with it an inspiration which not only invigorates life, but makes it enjoyable and beautiful. Cleanliness brings not only comfort and liness brings not only comfort and health, but it adorns living, gives existence a charm, inparts consciousness of ence a charm, imparts consciousness of ence a charm, imparts consciousness of ence a charm, imparts consciousness of life, real enjoyment, thought and feeling of existence, the purpose and sanctity of living. There is a world of meaning in the two little words "keep clean."—Jenness Miller Illustrated.

There are a few wise Americans who realize that what the vacation should bring is not only change of scene but change of habits. To these the new doctrine of rest appeals with great force. They make no attempt to get to the fashionable summer resorts, but the fashionable summer resorts, but shun those places almost as if the crowded summer hotel were pestilential. They spend hours of each day under the cool, flitting, noiseless shadows of forest pines, where the wind whispers the softest and the bees drone drowsily among the low white blossoms of the wood flowers.

A week of such a life is worth months spent in dogcarts, yachts and evening hops; but among the great body of those who hurry away in early summer to the country and back again in the fall, and who imagine they have had a summer's rest, such a life is still, unfortunately,

Journalism Under Difficulties. An opposition editor's life in Alaska is apparently not a happy one, and the la-test journals from that region make us wonder what sort of a government they have out there anyway. A late issue of the Juneau City Mining Record flatly acknowledged the truth of a contemporary's taunt that it did not dare to pubish certain things, and explains thus This to a certain extent is true, for the simple reason that for publishing certain facts threats have been made by a government officer of throwing our newspaper outfit into the bay. Such proceedings are not pleasant to contemplate when all we have in the world is nvested in the outfit. Then, again, when we publish anything which does not set-tle well on the stomachs of some officials we are arrested for libel and dragged 180 miles from our home and business at great expense, and placed under bonds to await the action of a grand jury to exonerate us. If we had suffici to employ counsel and pay our fare to Sitks every month or six weeks many facts would be published which through our poverty we cannot afford to publish. Glycerin Instead of Sugn

As an instance of the value of glycerin given internally I may mention the em-ployment of glycerin by diabetic pa-tients to render more palatable different articles of diet ordinarily flavored with articles of diet ordinarily flavored with sugar, which they of course are interdicted from taking. This may appear a matter of little moment, but it really is not so. The necessary omission of all saccharine substances from the diet of persons suffering from diabetes makes it important to endeavor to relieve them from the feeling of monotony and dislike for food engendered by the rigid exclusion of all articles containing sugar.—Hydrens gar.-Hygiene.
