

ONE WEEK

As consignments of our FALL STOCK are arriving daily, to make room for them, we will this week continue our sale of

SUMMER GOODS.

GREATEST BARGAINS EVER OFFERED!

T. HOLVERSON,

301 Commercial Street.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

SATURDAY, AUG. 27, 1922

GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

CHARLES BEAK,

Dealer in Hay, Straw, Grain, Oil Meal, Stock Salt, Flour and Barley Chop, and Mill Feed of all kinds. Terms strictly cash. 322 Commercial street, Salem, Oregon.

BUILDING MATERIAL.
Lime, cement, plaster, hair, fire and building brick, fire clay, sand, gravel, blacksmith and house coal, wood, all kinds, wholesale and retail. Office 95 State street.
GOODHUE & CAHILL.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.—The Evangelical tabernacle meetings in East Salem are well attended, quite a revival spirit prevails. In the absence of I. B. Fisher, P. E. Rev. H. Precht will assist Rev. L. S. Fisher in the meetings over Sunday, preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All young people interested in Christianity are cordially invited to come early and enjoy a fifteen minute talk on early piety. The Evangelical Association has purchased a fine lot, and in a good location in East Salem, and have established an English mission, expecting to erect a church in the near future. All are invited to attend these meetings and bring your Gospel Hymns No. 5.

A SINGULAR ESCAPE.—A most singular escape from death is reported from Penneyer's mill. One of the bolts holding the teeth to the large circular saw in place, flew out several days ago, and being in line with the office of the mill, passed through both windows and out on the opposite side. The head bookkeeper, whose desk is directly in front of the window, had just left his post to talk with one of the other men in the office. Had he been sitting there when the bolt shot through the office, in all probability he would have been killed. —Oregonian, Aug. 27.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.—The Sui Metal Paint company has made an assignment. The assets are: personal property $673.68, real estate $280. Total, $953.68. Liabilities, $1000. J. E. Dayton, of Minnesota, has a claim of $580, and M. Alexander, of Sio, one of $281.50. It is to be hoped that the claims will be adjusted in a manner to allow the resumption of work, as it was the commencement of a very useful industry. —Albany Herald.

STAGE RUNAWAY.—The Independence stage on leaving Salem yesterday afternoon, had a serious mishap just south of town. The team became frightened and ran a short distance, capsizing the hack and injuring it considerably. The driver and another gentleman were aboard but saved themselves from harm by jumping out.

ON INSTALLMENTS.—A few desirable lots in Pleasant home addition will be sold on installments at most desirable rates. 75 lots have been sold this season. Also fine city property at bargain. Wm. Bagley will have charge of the business during my absence. Wm. E. BURKE. 8-19-22

ROBT. BURNS.—Miss Howison addressed a small but interested audience at Unity church last evening on the life of Robt. Burns. Her talk was interspersed with abundant recitations from the author, which pleased every lover of the Cotter's sweet rhymes.

PROBATE.—In the matter of the guardianship of Fred and Herman Goodwin, minors, W. Bonney, R. H. Kennedy, and Wm. Walker, appointed appraisers of the estate of the heirs of Geo. W. Goodwin, deceased.

A FACT.—Follow the crowd and you will turn up at McCrow & Willard's meat market, where everybody finds delectable meats from the cold storage plant.

Y. M. C. A.—Every young man in Salem should hear James A. Dummett, traveling secretary of the Pacific Northwest. Sunday, 4 p. m., Y. M. C. A., 92 State street.

BARGAINS IN HORSES.—Thirty head of first-class horses at private sale. Real bargains. Salem Motor Railway Co.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.

What's warranted? Why, the "Little Giant school shoes," at Fleming's State street shoe store. 8-26-22.

BOLD ROBBERY.—During the absence of Mr. Rutherford from her home and that of her son, Walter B. Peacock, two doors west of the Christian church, this forenoon about 9 o'clock, a burglar entered and stole some notes, mortgages and accounts belonging to them, of the face value of about $14,000. One of the papers consisted of a deposit check on a bank in a city in Washington, for $5000. About 2 o'clock the man who stole the papers, finding they were of no service to him, sent them back to Mrs. Rutherford by a boy, who went to the wrong house. Mrs. Rutherford and a neighbor found the man down near the river and turned him over to Marshal Huffman. He was taken before Justice Curl, and explained that all he was after when he went to the house was to get work for something to eat. He said he had not had anything to eat for a day, and the heart of Hon. Tilford, who was present, melted and out came a fifty cent piece. Chas. J. Hiland was given his dinner, taken to the city limits, given some fatherly advice by our live marshal and sent on his way. In the meantime the owners of the property were very happy at the fortunate termination of the matter. —Albany Democrat.

THE DOG POISONER.—The committee appointed at the late indignation meeting to raise a reward for the conviction of the dog poisoner ought to keep at work. Only yesterday another valuable dog on Plety Hill met his death at the hand of the fiend, and this morning Ed. Sullivan picked up a piece of meat near the court house on Church street containing enough strychnine to kill a dozen canines.

RECORDER'S COURT.—At two o'clock this afternoon Lillie King was to be tried before Judge Goodell on charge of keeping a house of ill-repute. She had been out on $200 bail, and by consent of the prosecution the case was postponed until next Monday at 2 o'clock.

THREE WAGONS.—Rineaman, the rustling grocer, like P. F. Barnum, commenced business with one wagon, and now requires three regular delivery wagons to handle his heavy trade. He also has three solicitors among the people taking orders. 132 State street.

WHO KILLED JIM CROW?—Jim, the pet crow at the Cook hotel, is dead. The cause was without doubt poison, and it is believed the dog poisoner is responsible for his death. He was a great pet at the hotel, and is greatly missed by the proprietor and the guests.

A BOLD ATTEMPT.—The prisoners in the Linn county jail were yesterday discovered sawing out the bars of their window to make their escape. Three bars had been cut, and the men are now in close confinement.

COOL AS A CUCUMBER.—Those meats from Ed. Cross's cold storage rooms are always cool and fresh.

Mr. Lander's Recommendation.
Mr. J. A. Lander, a prominent citizen of Clarkburg, Mo., and widely known in this state, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy: "I have seen its good results and can recommend it." For sale by Baskett & Van Slype Drug stores.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.

What's warranted? Why, the "Little Giant school shoes," at Fleming's State street shoe store. 8-26-22.

G. M. Irwin and wife went to Portland this afternoon to attend the M. E. Conference.

J. H. Moir returned this afternoon from Newport.

Miss Anna Metchem is home from the family circle at the sea-side.

Mrs. Sarah Kaiser returned today from her visit at Newport.

C. P. Glover is in the city. He is appointed administrator of the estate of his late brother, Wm. Glover, by will, without bond. He hopes to avoid the red tape and expense of probating.

Frank Doty and Adam Pie, two substantial farmers of Sioux County, Iowa are in the city, looking about for new homes and visiting with the numerous Iowa Colony.

THE CANADA THISTLES.

County Road Supervisors Are Required to Destroy Them.

Constant complaints have been made for years past of the prevalence of the Canada thistle, not only in Portland, but in many portions of the county. In the northern part of Portland, especially, are these thistles growing and spreading with great rapidity. So far as known, no efforts are being made to exterminate this detestable pest, and in a few more years, it looks as if the national emblem of Scotland would completely overrun the county.

IT SHOULD BE HEADED.

The law requires the road supervisors to keep the Canada thistle killed out of the public roads within their respective road districts, and requires the county supervisors to notify the county court whenever any such weed is growing upon private lands within his road district. The county court must then appoint a commissioner, who will notify the land-owner to destroy the weed upon his premises, and if he fails to do so the commissioner may enter upon the premises and destroy it himself, and render his bill for the same to the county court, which will be paid out of the county funds and charged up the same as taxes against the land owner on whose premises the thistles were exterminated.

If any road supervisor neglects this duty he is deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and is fined not less than $50 nor more $100 for each offense.

The law makes it the duty of every municipal corporation to keep the weed killed and exterminated within the city limits, and if it fails the corporation will forfeit to the state not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense.

It is made the duty of the district attorney to prosecute all suits against said municipal corporations, and he is entitled to a fee of $25 for every judgment he recovers. —Portland Evening Telegram.

MARKETS.

PORTLAND, Aug. 27.—Wheat valley, $1.20. Walla Walla, $1.12. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Wheat, weak Dec. $1.36. CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Wheat 75.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

WILLAMETTE.
A. Grebenheim, E. P. Thompson, R. G. Morrow, R. C. Calhoun, H. Bradley, H. Netter, E. C. Latrine, F. Rogers, E. Bascom, L. McAllister, Mrs. Buchanan and child, A. Hamburger, W. A. Scott, Portland.
J. A. Bell, G. A. Beavis, W. W. Carter, S. F.
W. A. Wash, Dallas.
A. S. Dresser, Oregon City.
Wm. Corbin, Phil., Pa.
Dr. Heinzelman, Independence, cook.
W. A. Scott, Independence.
T. C. Cairnes, Portland.
A. S. Dussen, M. Joslin, W. A. Gidman, Oregon City.
C. L. Godard, Denver.
N. L. Olmstead, Seattle.
J. Rambo, —
J. Porrin, —
E. P. Norcom, Woodburn.
A. Dorfman, Tacoma.
J. C. Cummins, La Salle, Ill.
C. H. Johnson, Woodburn.
Chas. Whittington, Portland.

Idaho Democrats.

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 27.—The contest in the Democratic convention, which terminated in the nomination of J. M. Burke for the governorship, engendered very bitter feeling. When the convention met yesterday, J. W. Jones, who had been nominated for lieutenant-governor, resigned, and Frank Harris, of Washington county, was nominated. The convention then went into executive session to discuss its factional grievances out of hearing of reporters, and after an hour an adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock. The convention reconvened at 8 p. m. During recess the dominant faction had agreed upon a slate that went through without interference from the other side. The following were nominated by acclamation: secretary of state, H. Wickersham, of Ada; state treasurer, Phil A. Regan, Ada; auditor, J. W. McClure, Kootenai; attorney-general, W. T. Reeves, superintendent public instruction, J. W. Farris, Blaine; supreme judge, F. E. Ensign, Alturas; congressman, E. B. True, Alturas; presidential electors, C. G. V. Bryan, Alturas; J. W. Eden, Bingham; J. W. Reed, Nez Perce. Phil Tillinghast, of Moscow, was made chairman of the state central committee.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Closing out sale shoes, Jackson's. Everybody knows what it is, and that is the reason they go to Hellenbrand's for that pure ice cream soda.

For a choice meal in a cool dining room always go to Hellenbrand's. The new L. C. Smith automatic ejector, hammerless shot gun, $200 list, at Brooks & Harritt.

Trunks, valises, straps, Jackson's. Ed Jackson, the hatter.

For anything you wear, Jackson's. For socks go to Jackson's.

Rev. H. H. Dobbins, of the Albany Institute will preach at the Presbyterian church tomorrow.

Cleanse the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and realize what poor health you have had.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright drove to McMinnville this afternoon to spend Sunday.

For hats, try Ed Jackson.

Maj. F. E. Hodgkin left for Portland this morning, via Albany and the west side.

Miss Grace Scriber returned this morning from her visit at the mouth of the Columbia.

For flats, maps, blue prints, etc. See D. W. Townsend, 115 State St. 8-20-22

W. H. Downing and family returned this morning from Ilwaco and other points on the coast near the Columbia.

Surveys of all kinds, accurately and quickly made. D. W. Townsend, 115 State St. 8-20-22

Fresh eastern oysters at Davison & White's.

Tea from 25 cents up. Grades to suit the most fastidious at Clark & Eppley's.

A. J. Bascy will sell you a ticket from Salem to Portland and return at the regular fare, $4.20, and take you to the depot in his hack free.

One hundred styles shirts, Jackson's. Harry Thomas is home from the grand lodge of Woodmen, held at Pueblo, Colo.

Ayer's Pills cure headache. Send a 2c. stamp to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., for a set of their attractive album cards.

Closing out sale clothing, Jackson's. Plenty of chinook salmon, catfish, halibut, sturgeon and other kinds of fish at Davison & White's.

Plenty of poultry at Davison & White's.

For neck wear go to Jackson's.

Mrs. J. H. Moore returned this afternoon from Portland.

An elegant new line of beads just in at Brooks & Harritt's.

Fishing tackle and ammunition, a complete line, at Brooks & Harritt's.

Prof. Yoder left today for Woodburn.

The finest mountain boot in the world at Brooks & Harritt's.

Dr. Williamson and family are home today from Yaquina bay.

Dependancy, caused by a diseased liver, can be avoided by taking Simmons Liver Regulator.

Mrs. J. A. Sellwood was called to Milwaukie this afternoon by the death of Mr. Sellwood's brother.

T. Jackson, of Center street is home from Newport.

Simmons Liver Regulator cured me of general debility and loss of appetite. —Mrs. Edmund Fliton, Frankford, Pa.

F. J. Catterlin was a passenger for Portland this p. m.

Boys, congress shoes at $1.40. Men's congress at $1.50 at Osborne's Racket store.

Attorney-General Chamberlain, went up to Albany today to spend Sunday.

Col. Jeff Myers and Dr. A. F. Jeffreys went up to Lebanon today to spend Sunday.

H. H. Thompson, went over to Newport again today.

O. P. Agent Stewart was in the city today. He is arranging for a low priced excursion to Newport for Sept. 4th.

J. P. Frizzell returned this morning from Nescutaw, and many other campers are leaving there.

Mrs. S. E. Howard and the family are still at Nescutaw, but will return soon.

Oxforde from 75 cents per pair up at Osborne's Racket Store. d & w

Miss Addie Bowersox, the young lady who manipulates the telephone system returned today from the coast.

Oregon's Capitol will have a dome yet. Another car of material is here, and the men are at work.

Mrs. G. W. Sroat and daughter Alice left this morning for Newport.

Suits for small boys from $1.10 up, at Osborne's Racket Store. d & w

Why suffer with sick headache and biliousness when Simmons Liver Regulator will cure you.

A Woodburn paper says: "In the name of common sense, fire the cows, horses and pigs. Let us have a city, not a cow pasture."

Rev. G. W. White, will fill his pulpit at the A. M. E. Church tomorrow as usual. He has been appointed to that charge for another year.

FOR SALE.—100 tons of good hay in lots to suit purchasers. Pacific Land & Orchard Co.

Joe Fontaine returned today from his trip to Newport.

Ownership of a Letter.
Under the postal regulations of the United States and the rulings of the highest courts a letter does not belong to the person to whom it is sent until it is delivered to him.

The writer has a right to reclaim and regain possession of it, provided he can prove to the satisfaction of the postmaster at the office from which it was sent, that he was the writer of it.

Even after the letter has arrived at the office which is its destination, and before it has been delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, it may be recalled by the writer by telegraph through the mailing office.

The regulations of the postoffice department of course require that the utmost care shall be taken by the postmaster at the office of mailing to ascertain that the person who desires to withdraw the letter is really the one who is entitled to do so, and the postmaster is responsible for his error if he delivers the letter to an impostor or an unauthorized person.

The vital principle in our political system lies at the bottom of this matter. In this country the state is the servant or agent of the citizen—not his master. It remains merely his agent throughout the transmission of a letter. The state may prescribe regulations under which its own servants may carry a message for the citizen, but it cannot shirk its responsibility to him.—Youth's Companion.

Abandoned Farms a Blessing.
So far as has come under our notice, the well known general abandonment of hill farms in New England is almost universally bewailed. Though a sentiment of slight melancholy must usually attach to an abandoned homestead, we take a brighter view of the conditions, since these are to the advantage of the country at large. Abandoned hill farms especially will be allowed to grow up forests, and these afford their chiefest advantage to climate when they exist in elevated situations.

In such positions they not only serve to prevent evaporation of the moisture stored in the soil from rain-falls, but are more influential as rain producers than in equal extent on low lands. In such elevated position they are generally regarded as preventives of lightning, as they serve to equalize the electrical conditions of the atmosphere and earth, especially in the seasons of thunderstorms.

The abandonment of these hill farms is the states' opportunity, since they may be purchased at a low figure, rescued from the greed of the dealer in cord wood and preserved forever to please the eye and to improve the climate of the country about.—Practical Electricity.

The Welsh Tongue.
The author of "Yorkshire Folk Talk" tells an amusing story of an English bishop's struggles to master the Welsh tongue. He had been appointed to the Welsh see of St. David, and on taking up his abode in Wales engaged a native Welsh scholar to give him instruction in the language. The pronunciation, and especially the l, bothered the bishop, and the Welshman was almost at his wit's end to explain the lingual process by which the formidable sound was to be uttered.

At last a bright thought struck him, and being very obsequious in manner he thus addressed the bishop: "Your lordship must please put your episcopal tongue to the roof of your apostolic mouth and then hiss like a goose."

Tennyson's First Money.
Lord Tennyson, the poet laureate, is one of twelve children of a poor country clergyman, the Rev. George Clayton Tennyson, rector of Somersby, Lincolnshire. He began writing verses at a very early age. When his grandmother died, his grandfather asked him to write a poem on the sad event, and when the boy had read it to him he presented him with a shilling, remarking:

"There, that's the first money you have earned by writing poetry, and take my word for it it's the last." This was an unfortunate prediction, for he has earned more money by his poems than any other person in the history of the whole world.—London Tit-Bits.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Great Discoveries.
All great discoveries come in simple form and are ushered in without music or loud rejoicing. The greatest inventions come with the least outward show and noise. The scientist generally makes his experiment when wearied and discouraged, and when he is about ready to abandon the study.—New York Telegram.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.
Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

PANTS, PANTS! PANTS!!

Largest Assortment of Pants Ever Brought to Salem.

ALL HOME MADE.

BEST GOODS AND LOWEST PRICES!

WOOLEN MILL STORE,

299 Commercial Street, Salem, Oregon.

From Brownsville.

BROWNVILLE, OR., Aug. 27.—There is beautiful weather here, and harvesting is nearly over. The grain is light in some of the fields, but of good quality.

The various hop fields are looking unusually well, and promise a large crop. Picking will begin next week.

Many of our people are away at the coast, or camping in the mountains.

Mr. Peter Kessling, an old pioneer, and Mrs. W. B. Blanchard, are both very sick with fever.

Miss Myra Lockwood had the forefinger of her right hand caught in one of the looms in the woollen mills Thursday, and cut it open its whole length, making a very painful wound. It will be some time before she will be able to work again.

The Eagle mills have just shipped four loads of their flour to Portland, bound for China.

Mr. Andy McFeron was married this week to Miss R. Dotson, of this city. Both are well known and have hosts of friends.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

From Jan. 1 to date, $1,233,573.00

F. B. Aldridge and wife to H. R. H. 16 acres in T. 8 S. R. 1 W. $1400.

Oregon Land Co. to C. A. Reynolds; lot 25 in Sunnyvale Fruit Farm, 8, containing 10 acres $1250.

J. A. Crabtree, guardian, to J. O. Phelps; 1-11 interest in the lot of J. O. R. P. Miller and wife in sec 7 and 18 in T. 1 S. $400.

John H. Bridges, et ux, and Chas. Chaggett to the trustees of the Cumberland Presbyterian ch. of Salem, q. d.; lot 4 bk 25, Salem $1.

Frances P. Jones to Geo. H. Jones, q. d.; all his rights to land lying south of blk 15 and 16 in Jones' ad to Salem $1.

C. F. Mascher to the First Church of Christ of Silverton; 1/2 of an acre in Silverton $167.

LOUIS.—Fresh Lodi watermelons at Harritt & McIntyre's.

Run Into a Freight Train.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Aug. 27.—Passenger train No. 17 was wrecked in Sumner yard yesterday. The wreck was caused by an open switch. The passenger left the main track about 150 yards from the depot. It was going at the rate of 30 miles an hour when it left the main track and struck some loaded freight cars which were standing on the side track. Three freight cars were smashed to splinters and one express and one baggage car were badly damaged. The engineer and fireman were slightly injured, but none of the passengers were hurt. The engineer and fireman were the same men who were on the engine at the time of the recent train robbery.

Powder Magazines Exploded.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., Aug. 27.—Three powder magazines belonging one each to the Dupont, Rand & Nally, and Hazard powder companies, blew up here. There were about 100 bags of powder in the magazines. Lightning has been darting through the skies all forenoon, and at 1 o'clock a bolt struck one of the magazines, which exploded, wiping the two others off the face of the earth. The concussion was terrific. The earth trembled, and men, women and children rushed to the streets. The shock broke windows, and in some instances ruined houses a mile distant. The explosion was heard 15 miles off. Cattle grazing near the magazines were killed and terribly mangled. Every house within a mile of the explosion was badly damaged, and the inmates seriously injured. Half a dozen persons received dangerous wounds from broken trees and falling timbers. Loss, $15,000.

Saved His Child's Life.
A. N. Dillabough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, as my wife says, 'from a death bed' he was up playing in three hours. It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Baskett & Van Slype.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Great Discoveries.
All great discoveries come in simple form and are ushered in without music or loud rejoicing. The greatest inventions come with the least outward show and noise. The scientist generally makes his experiment when wearied and discouraged, and when he is about ready to abandon the study.—New York Telegram.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.

Chickens Eat Grasshoppers.
Common barnyard fowls are very efficient destroyers of grasshoppers. In one case referred to by a special agent of the department of agriculture an almond orchard containing 360 acres was attacked by migrating swarms. The house and barn were situated in the middle of the orchard, and the chickens browsed around them over an area of six or eight acres, which by August looked like a green oasis in the desert, the trees everywhere else having been stripped of their leaves by the voracious insects.—Washington Star.