WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.-President Harrison reached Washington this norning. At 11 o'clock the presilent met Secretary Foster and Atformey General Miller, the only mbers of the cabinet in city to alt in reference to the cholera ituation. Assistant Secretary aulding, of the treasury depart ment, and Dr. Wyman, surgeon peral of the Marine hospital service, were also present. After hours of deliberation they decided not to imue a proclamation now but to issue a special circular. The circular will be issued by the treasury department. It will amount prac tically to twenty days quarantine o els or longer if necessary. It be counled with a provision that it be enforced where not in contravention with state laws. Issuance may be calayed somewhat owing to the desire of the department to publish at the same time the opinion of the attorney general of the question of

POBTLAND, Sept, 1 .-- Yesterday morning at an early hour a barn owned by Mrs. R. L. Hawthrone. on East Twelfth street, near East Taylor street, was set on fire by an Incendiary, probably the some man who has fired about a dozen stables on the east side within the past three months. This barn is in charge of James Anderson, and it contains several tons of hay in the second story and four horses below. About 8 o'clock Mr. Anderson who was sleeping in the building, was aroused by some one inside. He then saw a light in the bay, It did not take him long to see that the bay was on fire. He saw the fellow who had started the fire leave the barn. He had his feet muffled in sacks, possibly to destroy his tracks. Mr. Anderson had his pistol, but the fire required his immediate attention, or he would have taken a shot at the fleeing incendiary. He managed to throw the burning hay out of the upper window of the barn. In doing so he burned both hands very severely. Ten minutes more and the entire structure would have harbor police to patrol the bay with been enveloped in flames and the orders to shoot any one attempting horses would doubtless have been to board any of the quarrantined
