A STABBING AFFRAY.

Joe Weber and Ross McCormick were picking hops yesterday on the Beardsley farm, a short distance above Salem on the river, and during the afternoon became mixed up in a quarrel which resulted in the former being stabbed by McCormick. A messenger was sent after a physician in this city shortly after the stabbing was done, about 3:45 o'clock, and the wound examined and the wounded man relieved of his suffering. A penknife was used and it was plunged into Weber's right breast bone, the large blade being used. This was broken off leaving a trifle over an inch of the blade in the wound. The physician took the piece of metal out all right after some probing was done. Weber will recover. McCormick, who is a son of J. H. McCormick of North Salem, was arrested at his parent's home last night. The whole trouble is thought to have started over some remark that McCormick made during the day in reference to Weber. The latter has been in about Salem for some time. He used to work for B. O. Van Bokkelen, the horseman, and has worked at different places during the summer. This is the first hop-yard trouble to be chronicled for this season, and it is hoped, will be the last. McCormick is now on bail.

FROM A HOP FIELD.

A correspondent sends a short letter from one of the hop fields adjoining Salem. It is written over the signature of "Camper" bearing date of the 3rd, and says: "As the result of one week's picking in the Holmes hop field we have sixteen acres picked which yielded twenty-one thousand boxes of nine bushels each. All of this is dried except two kilns that will be completed tomorrow. This will give twenty-one hundred pounds of dried hops. The sum of $1,650 was required to pay the pickers. Mr. Holmes is very well satisfied with the result although none of the hops were very light. If a host of the invalids in Salem were to get out in the hop fields they would soon be able to eat a grind stone or digest a halpint."

SOON TO WED.

The Albany Democrat contains the following of interest to Salem people: The marriage of George W. Morehouse, of Albany, the expert electrician, and Miss Lilly Hackleman, is announced for Sept. 14. The engagement of Mr. Willis Calder, the live young editor of the Brownsville Times and Miss Laura Campbell, of this city, now a popular teacher in the Brownsville schools, is announced.

THE CHINESE PHEASANTS.

In the Portland market Chinese pheasants are quoted at $1.25 a pair. This is a large price for their killing throughout the valley. This excellent game bird should be preserved for local use, and persons slaughtering them by the wholesale should be prosecuted.

GREAT BARGAINS

CAPITOL ADVENTURE COMPANY, - - Opera House Block.

FRUIT FOR THE FAIR.

Oregon's Reputation for the Finest Fruit to be Maintained.

As usual the state agricultural society will this year make a display of fruit at the state fair. Its exhibit last year attracted wide attention, and without a doubt contained some of the finest specimens of fruit ever seen anywhere. Hon. J. G. Wright has this department in charge, and proposes to keep up Oregon's reputation for producing just a trifle finer quality of fruit and vegetables than other sections of the country, or the world at large. He has employed Charles Watt, of this city, and D. D. Prettyman, of Turner, to get up the collection of fruit, and the former has gone to the country west of Salem in search of specimens while Mr. Prettyman is taking in Southern Oregon. Both of these gentlemen have had wide experience at getting up exhibits, not only for this state and local fairs, but also for national and world exhibits. It was Mr. Prettyman's exhibit of grains that received the highest recognition at the centennial exhibition in Philadelphia. The vegetable exhibit has been turned over to H. W. Savage and Geo. Whittaker, of this city, and will be worked up in first-class order by them, both being practical gardeners.

REED'S OPERA HOUSE.

There will without doubt be a large audience in attendance at the opera house this, Tuesday, evening, September 6th, to welcome that fine Irish-American comedian, Dan'l Sully, in his successful domestic comedy "Daddy Nolan." An exchange says: "The sequel to the Corner Grocery, known as Daddy Nolan, received its initial Cleveland presentation at the Park theatre last evening by Dan'l Sully and company. This play finds the family riddled with a disease, a disease which is a gambling debt, forged his father's name. Mr. Sully's portrayal of the Irishman is not, as is often pictured on the stage, a caricature on the race, but a refined and delicately drawn characterization, with an occasional bit of broad comedy thrown in to give it spice and life.

WILL REPEAT.

By special request Capt. Campbell will repeat his justly celebrated and intensely interesting lecture on "Our Navy and Coast Defences." On Wednesday evening at Baptist church. In addition to this he will display some 50 views of Oregon scenery prepared for his Eastern lecture and a choice collection from the old masters including biblical, humorous, etc. The price of admission is 25 & 15c. The young people of the Baptist church have been to no little expense in securing a repetition of this lecture and will merit a crowded house. The audience Monday night was large and enthusiastic.

ARTICLES.—The McMinville and Western Road Company, with J. C. Cooper, E. G. Goucher, and Wyatt Harris, of McMinville, are the incorporators, filed articles today with the secretary of state. The object is to construct and maintain a plank, clay, and macadamized road across the Coast Range, and to have branch roads also. The capital stock amounts to $10,000 divided into shares of $10 each. The termini of the road is to be at or near the headwaters of Baker creek in Yamhill county and a point near the Nestucca river. McMinville is the place for the principal office.

FREE ONCE MORE.

Full pardons were yesterday granted by Governor Penoyer to Thos. Kearney, committed to the penitentiary from Clatsop county on March 16, 1891, the term being for five years for the crime of robbery; also one to Sam. Doane, sent from Umatilla county on December 20, 1883, on a life sentence for the crime of murder in the second degree. Both of them were made on the recommendation of the district attorneys of the respective districts.

COMING TO THE MILLS.

Wheat is quoted at 63 cents in Salem. The Salem flour mills are receiving 4,000 bushels a day now, and have about 75,000 already stored in their warehouse, while the Willamette valley (brick) mills' superintendent says that warehouse has about 80,000 bushels.

TO RUN THURSDAY.

The trucks that are to be placed under the cars of the Salem Motor company, the old car line, have arrived and are now being attached to the cars. It is expected that the trial trip on this road will be made on Thursday. Three cars will be in readiness for free week.

PROBATE.—The will of the late Wm. Glover was today presented for probate and in accordance with its provisions Charles P. Glover, brother of the deceased was appointed executor, without bond. C. D. Ford, M. E. Pogue and R. P. Boise, Jr., were appointed appraisers.

THE PROPER CLOTHES.—It has been suggested that the state house officers and clerks don overalls and jumpers for the next three months. A glance into the halls of the building will indicate that the suggestion is a good one.

Ingrain papers and friezes to match Hawks & Levar, 97 State street.

A DROP IN WHEAT.

The price of wheat dropped, at 1:30 this afternoon, from 64 1/2 cents to 63 cents.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla will cure your catarrh and remove that sickening odor of the breath.

Last year St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, had over 1,500 patients and there are now 163 persons undergoing treatment there. The nurse corps consists of 27 sisters and there are 22 visiting physicians. Within a month about 80 surgical operations have been performed. When it is remembered that there are two other prominent hospitals in Portland, Good Samaritan and Methodist, one can form some idea of the amount of sickness and suffering there.

For bilious fevers and malaria disorders, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Its success is guaranteed if taken according to directions.
