THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE.

But is Still in a Very Critical Con dition This Morning.

LOON LAKE, Sept. 15 .- The best that could be said of Mrs. Harrison's ondition last night wes that it wes no worse than it wes in the morning. All her friends now realize that any complications will be attended with the greatest danger. Mrs. Harrison's vitality is at a very low ebb, and cannot sucpessfully resist further inroads. Dr. Godger said last evening that there was a slight improvement and fluid ever, from other sources that the production of fluid is sufficient in quantity to indicate that another try. operation will be necessary today unless there is a decided improve ment in the meantime.
