

Afternoon Dispatches

Furnished by the Associated Press Reporters.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge at Portland—No New Cases of Cholera in the Metropolis of the United States—An Anarchist Trial.

LOON LAKE, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Harrison's physicians this morning decided to comply with her request to be taken to Washington. She starts tomorrow, if she continues to improve.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge at Portland—No New Cases of Cholera in the Metropolis of the United States—An Anarchist Trial.

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 19.—Cool and cloudy ushered in the opening day of the sixtieth annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The streets present an animated scene and are handsomely decorated along the line of this afternoon's parade. At 9:30 a. m. a large crowd gathered at Marquam grand opera house where representatives of Sovereign Grand Lodge were formally welcomed to the state of Oregon and city of Portland by Governor Penney and Mayor Mason. J. J. Watson welcomed representatives in behalf of Grand Lodge and Grand encampment of Oregon. Hon. Charles M. Busbee made a fitting response at conclusion of the exercises at the opera house, grand representatives escorted by Canton Portland No. 1, marched to Arion hall where the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was formally opened by Grand Sire Busbee. After reading different reports and referring them to proper committees the lodge adjourned to allow representatives to participate in parade this afternoon.

No New Cases of Cholera.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—No new cases of cholera have appeared. Three hundred and fifty-six passengers from steamers Rigia and Scandia were taken to Hoffman Island this morning, making total number in quarantine there 1065. General Hamilton is very indignant at Dr. Jenkins for sending them to Hoffman Island.

Trial of an Anarchist.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 19.—Alexander Bergman, anarchist who tried to kill H. C. Frick, was placed on trial in criminal court this morning. Bergman conducted his own case pleaded not guilty. Bergman was found guilty and sentenced to 21 years in the penitentiary and one year in the workhouse. When sentenced, Bergman said he did not expect justice and did not get it.

Re-Union of the G. A. R.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The twenty-sixth annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic opened here this morning. The attendance has never been surpassed in Washington. The city is elaborately and handsomely decorated. Commander Palmer received a telegram from President Harrison regretting that the sickness of his wife prevented his being present. Features of the day are inauguration and dedication of Grand Army places. A prominent feature in the grounds is a model of the old war vessel, Kearsarge. Some portions of the original vessel being preserved. The dedication of the Grand Army place was preceded by a parade of members of the regular army and navy. The procession consisted of five brigades, including regiments of the regular army, naval cadets, and marines of the district headquarters, posted on the departure of Potomac G. A. R. and Sons. It was reviewed by President Harrison. After the parade, President Harrison was seated in the Grand Army place

Getting Ready for the Encampment.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—It can safely be said that never before has Washington been so gaily decorated and shown such enthusiasm as upon the occasion of the Grand Army encampment, preparations for which are practically completed. If the numbers today form a basis of estimate, the city will be thronged this week by a crowd of people larger than has ever gathered in Washington before.

Fire at New Whatcom.

NEW WHATCOM, Wash., Sept. 19.—At an early hour Saturday morning fire was discovered in the rear of the Blondu block. Fire spread rapidly to the adjoining structures and before the firemen could get it under control it had consumed the two-story Horton building and the two-Story Pasmore buildings.

Bargains in Horses—Thirty head of first-class horses at private sale. Real bargains. Salem Motor Railway Co.

Philadelphian, Sept. 19.—Samuel G. DeCoursey, of this city, president of the New York & Pennsylvania railroad, was instantly killed at Beverly, N. J., on Saturday.

and was received with a salute from the guns of the Kearsarge. He took a place on the stand beside Commander-in-Chief Palmer. Prayer was offered by Chaplain-in-Chief Payne of Florida. Then General Palmer delivered an introductory address.

Lock-Out of Furniture Workers.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—1500 furniture workers were locked out this morning for refusing to work more than nine hours for ten hours' pay. More will follow.

Chinamen Must Register.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—A correspondent on Saturday showed Commissioner of Internal Revenue Mason the San Francisco papers of the 10th inst., containing the proclamation of the Chinese Six Companies, advising the Chinese not to register; also an interview with the attorney for the Chinese declaring the Geary law unconstitutional, because it places the burden of proof of citizenship upon the Chinese, whereas the constitution of the United States provides that all accused persons shall be deemed guiltless unless proven guilty. Mr. Mason said:

"That point has been decided time and again. Just after the war of the rebellion, there were many tests of citizenship among the disfranchised people of the south, and it was decided repeatedly by the United States courts that the burden of proof of citizenship rested with the individual and not with the government. This question of Chinese citizenship, or of their right to be in this country, is a parallel case in my opinion."

"Will any steps be taken by your department, in view of the proclamation by the Six Companies and the disinclination of the Chinese to register?"

"Not at all. It is not our funeral. We simply bide our time, and at the end of April next we will deport every Chinese person in this country without a certificate showing his right to remain."

Explosion in an Astoria Saw Mill.

ASTORIA, Sept. 19.—A terrible boiler explosion occurred at the Clatsop mills in this city Saturday, two men being scalded almost beyond recognition. The loss cannot be estimated exactly, but the manager, W. S. Kinney thinks it will be between $15,000 and $20,000.

George Ralston, the engineer, is badly scalded about the face and hands, but otherwise is uninjured and is in high spirits over his miraculous escape from instant death. He was standing under the arches, right by the side of one of the boilers that burst. He was thrown about 16 feet and buried beneath some falling debris, which did not further injure him. Dave Campbell, the fireman, is lying unconscious at the hospital with small hope of recovery. He is fearfully scalded about the head and breast and on one leg, while the other is badly bruised. It is feared he is injured internally. When found he was pitched beneath a mass of iron in one corner of the boiler room, less than eight feet from where the exploded boiler stood. Thomas Eccles, another fireman, was stooping down to pick up a slab, when the boiler went right over him, injuring his back a little but not seriously. While a huge portion of the debris was blown into the bay, yet scattered around the dock are scraps and fragments of the boiler, many of them only a foot or two in length.

Over Sixty Men were Working in the Mill at the Time, and Forty more were at Work in the Yards and Dock. All are Congratulating themselves on their narrow escape from a terrible death.

Big Lumber Pool.

TACOMA, Sept. 19.—There is considerable talk just now about the formation of a big lumber pool with the object in view of controlling the lumber trade of the Pacific coast. It is said that the name will be the "American Pool," and that it will include 400 mills in this country and British Columbia. The plans include aggregate subsidies of about $300,000 per year for the purpose of stopping the shipment of lumber to San Francisco and foreign ports for two years. It is thought that all the mills in this city with the exception of the St. Paul & Tacoma lumber company's mill will go into the pool.

Joseph Wasson, son of Jonathan Wasson, a prominent young man of Lebanon, was accidentally killed by the caving of the bank of a canal, which is being dug in the north end of town for the purpose of draining a pond of water. The workmen were laboring near the paper mill, and Mr. Wasson was sitting upon the bank watching them. The bank suddenly caved in, precipitating him into the bottom of the canal, and the dirt and gravel fell upon him and covered him up to the depth of about three feet. The men hastened to his rescue, but when the dirt was removed life was extinct, he having been crushed to death by the falling mass of dirt and stone. The deceased was quite wealthy, and was an energetic business man. He was aged about 35, and was not married.

Saved a Woman's Life.

Mr. J. E. Thoroughgood, writing from Georgetown, Delaware, says: "Two testimonials of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved the life of Mrs. Jane Thomas, of this place." He also states that several other very bad cases of low complaint there have been cured by this remedy. For sale by Baskett & Van Slype Drugists, 225 Stark St., Portland, Or. 8:30 p. m.

Clippings from Some of the Newspapers of This Section.

Mr. J. R. Eonglas is the owner of the 6000 head of cabbages on the Santiam and has already sold about 1000.

A man in Yamhill county put in a bill at the county court there for services as challenger at the June election. Of course it was rejected.

Ashtand sandstone will probably be used in the proposed new court house in Portland, bids having been received upon plans which required this.—Tidings.

Lake country will have from 3000 to 3,500 fine beef steers for sale this year to be gathered between this and October 1st. The amount is only about one-half the usual amount, owing to the number of calves lost in the hard winter three years ago.—Lakeview Examiner.

Mr. D. Van Horn, of Albany, had a banana tree, seven years old which has a fine bunch of bananas growing upon it. The tree is in a pot or tub, and during cold weather is housed.

J. G. Pierce, of Gates, finishes his piling contract with the O. P. company this week. He has freighted nineteen cars with 104 trucks of trees. They are to be used in bridge repairs on the south Santiam.

Hon. Benton Killin and others, are draining a swamp in the northwestern part of the county formerly known as Moore's lake. The tract to be reclaimed contains 600 or 700 acres of which 500 belongs to Mr. Killin. The ditch or canal in its upper course is six feet wide by three at a half deep, but at the outlet it is very much larger. The land is of the variety known hereabouts as beaver-dam.—Hillsboro Independent.

While excavating at the artesian well at Hepper last Saturday, a monstrous tooth was unearthed about 16 feet below the surface. The face or crown of the tooth is 9 inches by 4, while it is 14 inches long. This is supposed to be the tooth of a mastodon.

The Great Northern proposes to make the rate of 40 cents per 100 on lumber from Puget Sound to St. Paul. The present rate is 55 to St. Paul and 60 to Chicago.

At the present time California is producing about one-third enough prunes to supply the United States. In ten years Oregon and Washington ought to produce one-half of all the prunes consumed in the United States. To do this will require close to 50,000,000 pounds. It is evident that there is plenty of room yet for development of the prune business without over-doing it.—Rural North-west.

Tillamook lighthouse, it is said, wants a keeper, and he wanted one for two months. The last one there—a Swede—was at that station for nine months and became so demoralized that it was necessary to put him in an asylum. This station is claimed to be the most isolated one in the United States.

On Monday the 12th, a dwelling house, milk house, wood shed and work shop situated eight miles south of Brownsville, upon the farm of J. D. Wigle was consumed by fire. Only a portion of the furniture was saved from the burning dwelling which caught from a defective flue. Loss $1000; insurance $700.

It transpires that Elijah Golins, whose disappearance from Jefferson a few days ago caused considerable comment, was not demented after all, but was masquerading in a very unbecoming way. The Scio Press says that when Frank P. DeVany and others overhauled the supposed crazy man Sunday night he had been gone since the Friday night previous, at which time he was driven away from the windows of one of his neighbors. It is supposed by his neighbors that he had improper motives towards this particular neighbor's daughter, and after being driven away from the window, was afraid of criminal prosecution, hence his hiding in the brush. When found he either was or pretended to be very sick, but did not act much like one demented.

Nervous Prostration.

Sopravalent, especially among women results from overtaxing the system. The assimilative organs becoming deranged, the blood grows weak and impoverished, and hence "that tired feeling" of which many complain. For all such cases, there is no remedy equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

"Some time ago I found my system entirely run down. I had a feeling of constant fatigue and languor and very little ambition for any kind of effort. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did with the best results. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.
