A GOOD SUGGESTION

To our Board of Trade is contained in an able article on "Building a city by advertising" by Wm. H. Maher of Toledo, Ohio. That town struck natural gas, got a board of trade at work, boomed itself for a few years, then flattened out some from the reaction. The writer then continues to say:

"Some of us who had no hand to sell felt that it would be a mistake to have either of two things happen: remain dumb as to our great advantages, and see manufacturers pass us by for places with none of our facilities; or permit the manipulators to start and control a boom that in its after effects would be a detriment to the city's growth. The city had one such boom about twenty years before, and had just recovered from its evil effects.

"A few of us put the ball in motion and decided that it was our duty to do what we could to make the good points of the city known, and then to help those who might come amongst us by standing between them and the rapacity of the landowners.

"We called a public meeting, explained our plans and purposes, asked for contributions to be used in advertising the city, and met with a hearty response. It was my lot to be elected secretary of the association, and also to be placed on the advertising committee.

"We first got out simple folders for enclosure in business letters, put them into every office in the city, and at no cost to us two hundred thousand of these were distributed throughout the Union." The letter folder to be circulated in daily mails is a good suggestion.

FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS

Farmers of town or city people cannot do a better thing to keep their sons and daughters at home, to interest them in making money with little capital, teaching them business habits and the care of animals than by interesting them in the care of thoroughbred poultry.

Buy them a trio of first-class chickens of any good standard breed and a year's subscription to a poultry journal. They will enjoy it and make money at it. Now is a good time to begin, as by spring and a winter's reading they will be prepared to raise a fine flock. No chicken house is needed for a small beginning as a trio will stay in a box and live off the waste of the kitchen, a little grain and plenty of pure water.

Give the boys and girls a chance at good poultry and they will improve it.

THE CLOVER LEAF FOR LUCK.

And good luck too! The Salem Republican club has adopted as a badge a four-leaved clover, which the world over is the insignia of good fortune.

The Republican party, which is always more nearly right on great questions than the Democratic, does not rely upon luck for success, but on the merits of its record and the faithful performance of its contracts with the people.

The meaning of the four-leaf in politics this year is good luck for the masses! This badge inscribed, Protection, an Honest Ballot, Rectitude, a Sound Currency, also means good times.

It means a Republican president and congress in November. Hurrah for Salem Republicans! May their sons succeed to the same badge.

FUSION OF THE HALF-SHELL.

As a semi-fusion party, the Democracy is scoring a great success this year. It fuses only half way to save the Wall street candidate for president—Grover Cleveland. It is fusing on presidential electors with the People's party wherever it can. On state ticket, where it is in a hopeless minority or sure of success, the Democracy refuse to fuse. In past years it has fused on the whole ticket in many states, but this year it takes the "Peeps" Frolic" or any party that wants to on the half-shell. Great is Democracy!

It would be interesting to know just what kind of a silver dollar the Oregonian would allow the people of our country to have, or whether it would allow them to have any silver money at all. Also, whether it would have the United States mint coin heavier silver money than England, Germany or France? We ask these questions in no spirit of controversy but because many would like to know.

Take up the rubbish about your premises and burn it. That includes streets and alley shutting your lot.

IS GOLEMAN GEOGHEGAN?

Said to be Identified by Officers in Los Angeles.

Columbus Day in New York. Three Hundred Thousand Children Parade.

Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—It appears Coleman, or Geoghegan, was once arrested in this city, and but for the miscarriage of justice would now be in the California prison in place of the one in Oregon. The man was arrested on March 21, 1890, together with another crook named Edward Kaufman, who gave the name of T. W. Morton, Geoghegan giving the alias of Thomas Coleman. They were caught in the act of pocket-picking. As is the custom, the men were photographed at once and pictures sent to the authorities in other cities for identification.

In the meantime, however, the men were released on $500 cash bail. The crooks lost no time in getting out of town, and for a time all trace of them was lost. In due season information was received from Chicago identifying Coleman as Geoghegan and Morton as Kaufman, and it was ascertained both men were professional criminals of a dangerous type, having served time in Eastern prisons. Nothing more was heard of them until their arrest in Portland, December 22, 1890, for assault with a deadly weapon. They were duly tried and Geoghegan was convicted, but Morton went free and again dropped out of sight. When Chief Glass and Detective Moffat saw the dispatches in which Coleman denied that he ever went by the name of Geoghegan, they looked up his picture on file, and found he was the man. The authorities in this city are convinced that Coleman is no other than Geoghegan.

Democracy Rebellious in Kansas. TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 7.—[Special.]—The threatened rebellion in the Democratic party in Kansas has taken the shape to-day of a state convention, which is called for the purpose of outlining a policy for such members of the Democratic party who do not intend to support the fusion ticket. The call for this convention, after referring to their general dissatisfaction in an Alliance platform says: "By the action of the Fusion convention you are not deprived of the opportunity of only directly expressing your appreciation of the wisdom, distinguished services, and exalted patriotism of the worthy successor of Jefferson and Tilden, Grover Cleveland, but an attempt was also made to deliver you to a hostile political organization which, if successful, would destroy our party in the state and bring disaster and ruin to the material interests of our people." The call acquiesces in the action of the last convention regarding presidential electors and the coming convention will confirm that action "but to the end that the credit and good name of our state may be preserved and the principles of the party upheld, all straight out Democrats are called upon to-day to meet with the signers when definite action regarding the state legislature and congressional tickets will be taken."

The colored men of New York and other large cities of the north are not flocking into the Democratic party as fast as reported early in the campaign. These early reports should always be discounted in politics.

The New York Sun thinks it "quite possible our smaller wheat crops of 1892 may be worth as much to its growers as was the larger crop of a year ago."

The Salem street preacher continues nightly to preach red hot hell-fire and damnation to sinners. There are always a few councilmen in his audience.

There are the usual number of office-seekers and free-lunchers at the Oregon Editorial convention.

The people are not interested in church quarrels nor controversies over creeds.

The Spokane Spokesman says the water there is full of poison.

Another season of rain would help agriculture.

Minister Hirsch Coming Home. New York, Oct. 7.—Minister Hirsch, of Portland, arrived here yesterday on the City of New York on his way home. He said that he left Constantinople last June, and that he had been since traveling in
