DEATH OF COL. CHAPMAN.

Col. W. W. Chapman, an old resident of Oregon, and well known throughout the state, died in Portland yesterday, aged 84. He was born at Clarkburg, Virginia, August 8, 1808. He studied law and was admitted to the bar. He married Miss Margaret Fee, in 1832, and shortly afterward moved westward, first to Ohio, then to Illinois, and then to Burlington, in Iowa territory. He was U. S. attorney under President Jackson, for Wisconsin, when it comprised Iowa also. He was the first delegate in congress from the territory of Iowa. He was also a member of the convention which framed the constitution for the young state. In 1847 Col. Chapman crossed the plains to Oregon, with his family. He was several times a member of the legislature under the territorial government of Oregon. He took part in the Indian war in southern Oregon in '55, as lieutenant colonel. The deceased was always prominent in works designed to advance the public interests of Oregon and Oregon generally. Col. Chapman was always a Democrat, but took but little part in politics since the slavery question arose and ended in an attempt to destroy the Union. The colonel was not a showy man, but possessed solid business ability.

SUGAR GOES.

A few evenings ago an enterprising citizen who had heard that the Blue Front grocery was cutting prices, thought he would improve on that, though a little. At dusk he was seen going out of the door of the warehouse with a sack on his shoulder, and when pursued up the alley soon dropped his sweet burden and gave leg bail. The fat member of that firm is not slow when it comes to a sugar deal.

Alderman Hunt recommended that Mr. Stewart be allowed $15 as damages for the injury of his horse; carried.

Alderman Lamoureux urged that block 21 be cleaned up. He also reported that the property owners in said block were willing to put in a sewer. He also called attention to an offensive dump pile.

Alderman Moores moved that the marshal abate the nuisance; carried.

Marshal Minto suggested that it would be well for the city to establish a place for hauling refuse.

Alderman Lamoureux asked that the sidewalks on Winter street between Mill and Trade be replaced. Granted.

Alderman Moores moved that the street commissioner be instructed to fix up the crossings on Commercial street. Accepted as a hint.

PETITIONS.

T. C. Shaw, G. N. Pattorf and M. J. McMeekin petitioned for sewers in blocks 54 and 55. Referred.

J. B. Woodford and others petitioned for a sidewalk on the south side of Ferry street from 16th to 19th streets. Referred.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The court house needs repairs. The plaster or cement is falling off, the sides and roof leak. This matter should be attended to at once and something should also be done with the poor farm. The property there should be fully repaired and improved, or it should be sold and a new location obtained and new and larger buildings erected.

Respectfully submitted, S. B. Ormsby, foreman; E. T. Hall, Wm. Fry, John Boyce, John Calvert, J. M. Munkers, Louis Miller.

A GOOD RECORD.

THE JOURNAL takes pleasure in commending the grand jury for its industry and thoroughness in doing its work. The present grand jury was in session nine days and investigated cases requiring ninety witnesses, and covered a larger field of business than any similar body that ever met. Their investigations of public institutions was conducted in a thorough manner and was not merely a formal call as the report will show. Edward Hall was the clerk. The foreman S. B. Ormsby pushed the work with an experience gained from several previous terms of service in the same capacity. It pays the county to have the right man in the right place and that was surely true in this case.

STEAMBOAT BURNERS.

The Three Arson Cases on Trial—Capt. Dove's Defense.

State vs. John H. Dove was called Tuesday afternoon. He was captain of the steamer R. C. Young, for the burning of which, about two months ago, he with Charles A. Pyburn and David B. Young stands indicted. Pyburn, who has been sentenced to three years in the pen for burning the boat, was called as the first witness. He related that Dove had approached him to testify as to clear Dove. He was kept on the rack all the afternoon and nearly all of this (Wednesday) forenoon. If ever a man was put through a process of legal torture it was he. His testimony proves him to be as thoroughly crooked a specimen of humanity as ever appeared before a jury. Albert Kemp, who appeared to be a straight man, was called and the court adjourned to 1 p. m.

The jury is as follows: John Mo-

GRAND JURY REPORT.

State and County Offices and Institutions Found in Good Condition—Improvements Ordered

This morning the grand jury completed its work hauling in one more true bill against Fred Van Wagner for larceny of a dwelling. He is in custody.

THE GRAND JURY REPORT.

was submitted by Foreman Ormsby, drawn up in his own hand, this forenoon and is as follows:—We have visited the State Prison, Insane Asylum and Reform school. These institutions are under the direct control of the legislature. They will be visited at the coming session by committees from the legislature, their needs and wants ascertained, and the recommendations made by these committees may be carried out and enforced by the legislature where is visited all power in the case.

ARE WELL RECEIVED.

We would therefore refrain from making any recommendations in these institutions. We were received by the officers in charge in the most affable manner and all exhibited the utmost willingness to give us all the information in their possession. The first thing shown us in each of the above mentioned institutions was the system and manner of keeping the books. The system seemed to us perfect and the books were models of neatness and accuracy. We saw the food furnished the inmates in each. The state supplies and the officers dispense with a just and liberal hand.

HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED.

At the asylum and reform school we expected to find neatness and order everywhere, and we were not disappointed, and kindness seems to be the chief element in the treatment of the inmates. At the prison Supt. Downing has made an especial effort to secure better ventilation and keep the cells clean. We think it would be hard to find a prison better kept. All the officers and attendants connected with the state institutions visited by us seem to be doing all in their power for the best interests of those in their care. We visited the state house and were shown through the offices of the treasurer, secretary of state, and state printer. The latter is pushing the state printing and informed us that he will be entirely ready for the legislature when it meets.

THE COUNTY OFFICES.

We visited the county jail. We wish to especially commend the neatness and order of the kitchen connected therewith. We saw the food being cooked and after it was cooked and the ration given each prisoner. The cooking was the best and the ration abundant. Sheriff Knight has had the cells whitewashed and has endeavored to improve the sanitary conditions of the jail. We visited the poor farm. The inmates seem to be kindly treated and well cared for by the superintendent and his family but the bedding is poor and insufficient. More and better bedding should be procured at once.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The court house needs repairs. The plaster or cement is falling off, the sides and roof leak. This matter should be attended to at once and something should also be done with the poor farm. The property there should be fully repaired and improved, or it should be sold and a new location obtained and new and larger buildings erected.

"Puzzled The Doctors."

MOST of the cases cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla have been given up by the regular practice. Physicians are recommending this medicine more and more, and with satisfactory results.

E. M. Sargent, Lowell, Mass., says: "Several years ago, my daughter broke out with large sores on her hands, face, and other parts of her body. The case puzzled the doctors. My daughter used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it resulted in a complete cure. Her blood seems to have been thoroughly purified, as she has never had so much as a pimple since taking this medicine."

"This is to certify that after having been sick for twelve years with kidney disease and general debility, and having been treated by several physicians without relief, I am now better in every respect, and think I am nearly well, having taken seven bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Maria Ludwigson, Albert Lea, Minn.

GREAT NORTHERN'S IMPROVED MACHINERY.

"The Great Northern Railroad company has in use in the construction of its lines an equipment of over 200 ballast-cars of a pattern that does away with a great deal of work," says the Spokane Chronicle. "This road is the first to introduce these cars west of the Rockies, and they are making a saving of over $250 per mile in the construction of their road by the use of these cars. The cars carry from 15 to 18 yards of ballast each, and by means of a peculiarly constructed center-dumping appliance the ballast is placed directly upon the ties where it is used, instead of being deposited upon the boat outside of the ties. Thus the handling of the entire ballast with shovels to put it in proper position for use, is avoided."

BURGLARS CAPTURED.

This morning Detective Simons, of Portland, departed with two Italians, who were wanted for burglary. They are Zomerelle and Pasco, who robbed Jo Cereghio, in whose house they roomed, of $285, and a sallow of its till and 400 cigars. A telegram to Marshal Minto Tuesday resulted in their capture. They were bound for the south when overtaken by Chief of Police Minto and Capt. Dille, who found over $100, and a lot of valuable pawn tickets on their person.
