

A NEW ASSORTMENT OF JACKETS OPENED THIS WEEK AT HOLVERSON'S.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, OCT. 21, 1892.

BUILDING MATERIAL.
Lime, cement, plaster, hair, fire and building brick, fire clay, sand, gravel, blacksmith and house coal, wood, all kinds, wholesale and retail. Office 95 State street.
GOODHUE & CAHILL.

GILBERT & PATTERSON,
Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

JOHN AND JONATHAN.—Tonight at the opera house will deliver the first lecture in the Y. M. C. A. course of the season on the above topic, "John and Jonathan." This is the lecture by which Mr. Nourse gained his enviable reputation. Some say it is the greatest oration they ever heard. Its excellence will be judged from the following press notice: "In the university chapel last evening was heard the wittiest, keenest, wisest lecture of the season. Mr. Nourse was the speaker, and his subject 'John and Jonathan.' As a lecturer he is unique, his subject was unique, his humor and eloquence were of a kind rarely heard, his instruction in an easy delivery. He was very eloquent, always interesting, and the most talented of the lecturers who have been secured by the association."—Lexington (Ky.) Express.

REACHED CHICAGO.—A letter has been received from Mr. and Mrs. England, dated Chicago, Oct. 15th, in which they report having had a very pleasant trip to that city. They visited Salt Lake, and were delayed somewhat by the snow storms in Colorado. Both are in good health, and expect to take in and enjoy the dedicatory services in that city today; after a few days rest at the Palmer house, they will visit friends in Illinois.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The second quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held in the German Evangelical church, corner Center and Liberty Sts., over next Sabbath. Services on Saturday at 3 p. m., quarterly conference at 3 p. m., communion service on Sabbath morning. In the evening there will be preaching in the tabernacle corner Chumeketa and 17 Sts. All are cordially invited.

ODDS AND ENDS IN BLANKETS.—The Woolen Mill store has just brought down from the mill an immense lot of odd blankets, including odd sizes, first quality and damaged stock; red, white, mottled, gray and vicuña, all of which are being sold for about what the raw wool cost. This is the greatest opportunity ever offered to secure a real bargain in blankets.

GOOD MEATS.—People who are complaining of rather poor meats, should remember that by going to C. Cross's State street market, where his meats are kept in cold storage, they can get meat that is juicy and tender.

A FREE HACK RIDE.—A. J. Hasty the hackman will sell you a round trip ticket to Portland for $2.00, good on all trains, and will take you to the train in his hack free of charge.

PICTURE FRAMING.—The largest stock of mouldings ever shown in Salem at Keller & Marsh's. Prices always the lowest.

Go to the Spa, 114 State street, for your taffey.
Free car ride home and be happy only at Branson's cash grocery. Neatness, cheese, Clark & Epply.

For the purest and freshest cans go to Jones & Bernard's, Bush block.

THE CORWINITES SQUEAL.

Attempting to Create a Confusion in the Case.

THEY SEEK TO HIDE THE ISSUE.

Corwin's Spokesman Refuses to Take a Letter From the Board.

A few of Dr. Corwin's eloquent are going around attacking THE JOURNAL. That does not alter any of the facts. It is the facts as printed by THE JOURNAL that hurt. THE JOURNAL is not in the case. Those who are participants with Dr. Corwin can easily share his glory by attacking the facts. What THE JOURNAL printed Thursday was based on the official report of the committee and the action of the church thereon. IF THE JOURNAL felt inclined to persecute Mr. Corwin it could present an array of statements made upon good authority, by the best and most reliable members of his church, which would result in making it anything but agreeable for him and his friends.

THE JOURNAL has no desire to injure Mr. Corwin's reputation if it could, but desires to save the community from the terrible calamity which he has brought upon it, in so far as it is possible at this time. So far as Mr. Talbot, chairman of the meeting, is concerned, all concede that he is simply a tool of Corwin in this matter. That he is merely Mr. Corwin's landlubber and doing his bidding is the general impression. He is, to put it mildly, certainly a good man Friday.

FURTHER PROCEEDINGS were had in the case Thursday. The board of trustees met and drew up and offered Mr. Corwin a letter of dismissal in accordance with the terms of the accepted report of the committee on investigation. Dr. Corwin's representative on the board, and its chairman, notified the board that Dr. Corwin would not receive such a letter, but insisted on the board issuing him a clear letter of recommendation. This the trustees decided they could not do if they wished, as the vote of the church in adopting the report instructs him to the contrary.

THAT UNFAIR TREATMENT.

So far as Mr. Corwin's charge that the committee had treated him unfairly, there is nothing more absurd. A member said this morning that Mr. Corwin has had all his own way. Those who investigated the charges brought up against him last spring, and were then scored for it roundly, refused to have anything to do with these new charges of immoral conduct. They left the matter in the hands of Corwinites, or people who had hitherto been such. He had his own man for chairman of the first meeting. His chairman selected men and women to conduct his investigation friendly to Corwin to such an extent that there was a great deal of comment. The public was surprised at the severity of the findings of that committee. It expected a whitewash and found a condemnation. Besides, Corwin has done all the talking. He has made speeches by the hour and his few admirers have labored incessantly in his behalf.

THE TALBOT CONSTRUCTION.

The statement is made by Mr. Corwin's friends, that the adoption of this report means that he should have a letter of recommendation. This is based on a remark made by Chairman Talbot, in putting the question, as follows: "If you vote to adopt the report of the committee, you vote Dr. Corwin a clear letter of recommendation—the same kind of a letter as you would want if you yourself were going to leave the church." Leading members say and the minutes of the meeting show that the vote which follows was on the unamended report, and not on a certain Mr. Talbot's say-so, or opinion as to the meaning of that report. That report is drawn up in plain English, and all can read it for themselves as well as Talbot. The insinuating remark that the report means a letter "as you yourselves" would ask, is an impertinence to say the least. Everybody does not leave the church under the embarrassing conditions that seem to surround Dr. Corwin.

HAS NOT RESIGNED.

Dr. Corwin has not resigned, but his dismissal suspends him as pastor of the First Congregational church of Salem. If he feels that he has not received justice at the hands of his friends he can carry his case before the council of churches of the State Association. It is to be hoped that he will do this, both for his sake and that of the church, which is suffering from a scandal connected with his name and conduct as pastor.

IN THE COURTS.

Judge Burnett's Instructions in the Boat Burning Case—Supreme Court.

Judge Burnett concluded Columbus day was a legal holiday and when the court adjourned it was until Saturday morning. Owing to the fact that Judge Burnett must hold court in Linn county next week, he dismissed all jurors in attendance until November 14, when an adjourned term will be held.

THE CAPT. DOVE CASE.

John H. Dove, charged with burning the steamer R. C. Young was concluded late Thursday afternoon. The arguments lasted until 9 p. m., when Judge Burnett gave his instructions to the jury.

THE INSTRUCTIONS were in substance that the accused was charged with burning the steamer with the intention of defrauding the insurers and that before finding him guilty the jury shall satisfy itself beyond a reasonable doubt as to his guilt. No fanciful doubt is to be considered. The plea of not guilty interposed by the defendant requires the state to prove that the crime was committed within the jurisdiction of this court, or, in other words, to prove that the crime was committed within Marion county. If any of the burning was done on the Marion county side of the river, it is within the jurisdiction of this court. He said the testimony of an accomplice was to be viewed with distrust and that any or all admissions of the defendants should be received with caution.

THE VERDICT.

After being up nearly all night the jury returned a verdict of not guilty at 8 a. m. this morning. It is understood that they arrived at this conclusion on the theory that the crime, if any, was not committed in this county, and that the jurisdiction did not lie in Marion county.

SUPREME COURT.

The state supreme court adjourned over until next Tuesday, in honor of Columbus Day.
The state house and court house officers generally observed this as a legal holiday.

A BIG OFFER.—The Globe Co. will offer for the next three days, house, barn, and two good lots one-half block from car line—worth $1800—for $1400. Call and be convinced that you can make $400. This is no "fake" advertisement. We mean just what we say. 25 Commercial street. 10-19-92

JERSEY MILK.—Delivered in all parts of the city. Leave orders at Gilbert & Patterson's store. ABRAHAM RICH. 10-18-92

ALWAYS ON THE MOVE.—Those Lockwood messengers. They are the greatest convenience ever introduced in the town.

IT WAS A GREAT TRIAL.

A Hard Contested Case in the Circuit Court Yesterday.

The verdict of not guilty in the case of the state of Oregon vs. John H. Dove seems to give very general satisfaction among those who heard the trial. The California Insurance company worked hard to secure the conviction of Capt. Dove as an accomplice in the burning of the boat, as a conviction would release the company from paying the $3500 due Mr. B. F. Drake of this city on the policy issued to him at the time he furnished the machinery for the boat.

It was not pretended that Capt. Dove was present at the time of the burning, but it was claimed he knew of it, and was away to give Pyburn the opportunity to fire it. The case was sharply contested at every point by James McCain, district attorney, and D'Arcy & Blingham for the state, and W. H. Holmes and Tilmon Ford for the defendant. Mr. Ford was complimented by Judge Burnett, from the bench, at the conclusion of his argument, and all of the members of the bar present warmly congratulated him on making the best effort of his life. Those who heard it speak of Mr. Ford's speech as one of the ablest ever made in the court house. Capt. Dove returned home, to his residence in Polk county, this afternoon, a free and happy man.

COLUMBUS DAY.

Its Observance at the Capital City—More Programs.

The national celebration of Columbus Day was appropriately observed at Salem. No one can say our citizens are not prompt in doing honor to the great navigator and discoverer, the light of whose genius threw open to millions a new world and to humanity new opportunities.

THE JOURNAL observes the day by issuing a specially interesting number. It prints nearly the whole of the great orations of Chauncey M. Depew, Bishop Ireland and Mayor Hempstead of Chicago. These speeches are transmitted to THE JOURNAL by the ASSOCIATED PRESS and are worthy of a careful reading and preservation.

THE SCHOOLS OF THE CITY

all render programs prepared for the occasion. Owing to bad condition of the streets, there will be no grand parade of all the public school pupils, as was first intended. The rest of the program was carried out to the letter.

At the colleges and private schools there were special literary, musical and religious exercises. The state school for deaf mutes held a holiday today, and will produce a fine display of literary talent this evening.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

The Young Men's Institute will give a social at the hall in the rear of the Catholic church tonight. The following is the program:

- Chorus—Columbia Gem of the Ocean Piano Duet.
- J. H. Fryer and C. C. Jarvis Vocal Duet.
- Highlander and Huckster Address on Columbus.
- Hon. Wm. Kaiser F. Fagan Zither and Otto Harp.
- Juchinet and Dugan Recitation.
- Mollie Bernardi Piano Duet.
- Misses A. and J. Roegen Song.
- W. F. Dugan Violin Solo.
- Master Wehoffer Recitation.
- Lizzie Roegen Song—Selection.
- W. G. Hightower Chorus—America

AT THE BLIND SCHOOL.—Columbus day was fully observed this afternoon by appropriate exercises.

Singing of patriotic songs, essays on the special characteristics of Columbus, medleys of national airs, recitations, etc., were presented, and the entire program was a success.

REMEMBER, GENTLEMEN, THE ISSUE IS PLAIN. YOU EITHER VOTE FOR AMERICA OR FOR ENGLAND AND CHINA TWO WEEKS FROM NEXT TUESDAY. YOU VOTE EITHER FOR SOUND CURRENCY OR FOR THE FLUCTUATING STUMP-TAILED PAPER OF STATE BANKS. ISN'T IT WORTH WHILE GETTING OUT AND VOTING, AND GETTING YOUR NEIGHBOR TO DO SO?

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.—Discovered America four hundred years ago today, and the people of Salem have discovered that the old reliable grocery house of Squire Farrar & Co. leads in Salem.

B. CO. PARTY.—Invitations are out for a select dancing party to be given at Armory hall, Friday evening, Oct. 28th, 1892, by B. company. A large orchestra has been engaged and a good time is anticipated.

SOCK IT TO EM.—Going to lead the Band again this year. That is what the Woolen Mill store is doing in socks. The best all-wool socks, all colors, made at their own mill, for 35 cents per pair, or three pairs for $1.00.

DECORATED.—In table ware hardly anything but the decorated is used now-a-days. Harritt & McIntyre lead in this line.

KEEP IT ALL.—And sell it, too. From strawberries to mushrooms, from confectionery to cable ropes, groceries, fresh and dried fruits, Squire Farrar & Co. handle it all.

"Puzzled The Doctors."

MOST of the cases cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla have been given up by the regular practice. Physicians are recommending this medicine more and more, and with satisfactory results.

E. M. Sargent, Lowell, Mass., says: "Several years ago, my daughter broke out with large sores on her hands, face, and other parts of her body. The case puzzled the doctors. My daughter used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it resulted in a complete cure. Her blood seems to have been thoroughly purified, as she has never had so much as a pimple since taking this medicine."

This is to certify that after having been sick for twelve years with kidney disease and general debility, and having been treated by several physicians without relief, I am now better in every respect, and think I am nearly well, having taken seven bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. —Maria Ludwigson, Albert Lea, Minn.
