GEO. D. GOODHUE, K. CAHILL.
BUILDING MATERIAL.
 Lime, cement, plaster, hair, fire and building brick, fire clay, sand, gravel, blacksmith and house coal, wood, all kinds, wholesale and retail. Office 95 State street.
 GOODHUE & CAHILL.

GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

HE WAS RIGHT.—Sheriff Knight undoubtedly had full authority to hold the boat burners, according to secs. 1216, 1217, 1218, which defines concurrent jurisdiction of counties over crime committed in either very plainly. Judge Burnett said in his instructions that if any part of the boat was burned on this side of the river that his court had jurisdiction. It is a fact that the boat sunk on this side of the river. The sheriff acts under the statute.

UP CHEMEKETA STREET.—That terrible street, the one that was spoiled last summer by receiving a thorough grading with gravel, is already proving to be the popular street of the city for hauling. Nearly all the heavy draying for the asylum improvement goes up that beautiful boulevard, and they are not afraid of the cars, either. A season of heavy work will easily put that street into fine shape for lighter driving.

A FINE CURB.—Ed Cross has had the rock hauled for a heavy street curb in front of his fine Chemeteka street residence. He would also like to put in a cement gutter, but is afraid of the ever-changing grade. When an enterprising citizen wishes to make a permanent improvement of this kind he should not be deterred by any uncertain movements on the part of the city.

THE TARIFF.—We are in favor of our working men and teamsters getting good living wages and constant employment. The next plank in our platform is to so adjust the tariff on clothing at our establishments as to give them the most for their money at a living profit. Geo. W. Johnson & Son, Salem.

A BUSY DAY.—They had a very busy day Saturday at the cold storage market of E. C. Cross. More people are learning every day that the best meats in the state are to be had there.

GRADE JERSEY MILK.—The City Dairy, opposite Oregon House, is building up a fine business. B. J. Sharp, proprietor.

BOTH LEGGS OFF.—Don't run both legs off, when the Lockwood Messenger system will deliver that message for you in a jiffy. Ring up the blue boxes.

WE HAVE THEM.—Fine smoked ham and backhead flour and pure New England maple syrup will help make good breakfasts these cool mornings.—Squire Farrar & Co.

See the bargains in rubbers at Krause Bros.
 Be prepared for the rains by having your old umbrellas recovered. All grades of covering put on by J. L. Kimber.

Feed turkeys by the ton at C. Beck's, opposite State Insurance building. 1w

JERSEY MILK.—Delivered in all parts of the city. Leave orders at Gilbert & Patterson's store. ABRAM HAM RICH. 10-18-1m

THE CORWIN CASE.

Its Present Status and What Has Been Done.

HE DECLINES TO RESIGN.

A Letter of Dismission Tendered—Recommendation Wanted.

THE BOARD MEETING.

There was a full meeting of the board of trustees of the First Congregational church. There were present Chairman C. M. Talbot, Napoleon Davis and A. T. Gilbert, Secretary Wylie A. Moores and Treasurer F. N. Gilbert.

The board, after considering the case of Rev. C. L. Corwin, made an order granting him a letter of dismission as contemplated by recommendations in a report of the committee appointed to investigate certain charges adopted by the church.

THE LETTER OF DISMISSION.

Following is a copy of the letter drawn up by the official board of the church:

The bearer, Rev. C. L. Corwin, is hereby granted a letter of dismission from the First Congregational church of Salem, Oregon.

WYLIE A. MOORES, Church Clerk.

The letter of dismission accompanied by the following communication, was tendered Rev. Corwin, he being waited upon by order of the board, by Mr. Davis of the trustees.

THE COMMUNICATION.

SALEM, Oregon, Oct. 22, 1892.
 Rev. C. L. CORWIN, Sir: The First Congregational church of Salem, Oregon, having requested your resignation as pastor of said church at a meeting held Oct. 19th, 1892, you are hereby tendered $100 on account of salary in full to 20th instant and you are hereby notified that the board of trustees will take the necessary steps to fill the pulpit of said church from date. The tender of this money is made with the understanding that you hand in your resignation as requested by the church and accept the accompanying letter of dismission as voted by the church at the meeting above referred to.

A. T. GILBERT, Board of Trustees.

A certified copy of the proceedings of the church requesting his resignation and of the Saturday's trustee's meeting was taken to Mr. Corwin.

WHAT CORWIN DID.

Upon this, Mr. Corwin received and retained the documents presented but declined to resign unless the church would grant him a clear letter of recommendation. Mr. Davis could not pay him his salary as he declined to resign as requested by the church and officially notified by the board.

CALLS FOR MEETINGS.

The Sunday morning paper had this "call" for a special meeting: There will be a special church meeting at the Congregational church on Monday evening, October 24, 1892, at 7:30. Every member is expected to be present. By order of the board of trustees and others.

The right to issue above call is challenged in the following from the trustees:
 SALEM, Or., Oct. 23, 1892.
 The notice published in this morning's Statesman, that the trustees of the Congregational church of this city had called a church meeting for Monday evening, the 24th inst, was not authorized by the trustees. No such meeting has been called by the trustees.

A. T. GILBERT, Trustees Cong. Church.

The point in the above is that a special meeting of the church can only be held upon five members requesting the board of trustees to call one. This was not done and hence the trustees and the church must consider the first call null and void. In justice to Mr. Talbot the JOURNAL will state that he admitted Sunday evening at the Young People's meeting that the call was incorrect, being not properly signed.

IN BURNETT'S COURT.

Saturday's and Monday's Docket Entries—Adjournment.

Circuit court was in session Saturday at 1 p. m. and transacted the following business:
 Emma Herren vs. Edward C. Herren, divorce; demurrer to amended complaint overruled.
 Louis Smith vs. Annie Smith divorce; report of referee confirmed and marriage declared void for fraud.
 S. F. Butler vs. L. H. Poudjide, action for money; default and judgment for plaintiff.
 Hattie Easton et al. vs. City of Salem, damages; at issue.
 Mary Goodenough vs. Evan Daley, damages; continued.
 Minnie C. Loftis vs. Esie M. Hagey et al., partition; H. W. Smith, Job Denyer and Nathan Silvers appointed referees to make partition.
 E. R. Spaulding et al. vs. Jacob Morlock, action for money; leave to file amended complaint.
 The court then adjourned until Monday.

MONDAY A. M.

Judge Burnett held court about an hour this morning, and signed up the docket after making following entries:
 Ed. D. Curtis, assignee, substituted as plaintiff for Pacific Builders' Supply Co. vs. Sestanovitch et al., demurrer to new matter in answer of defendant sustained.
 Court adjourned to Nov. 14th, at 9 a. m.

BLACK BASS.—Sunday, G. Steiner, of this city, received a dispatch that a messenger from the U. S. Commission, with five hundred black bass for distribution at Salem, would arrive on the overland train. Mr. Steiner was requested to meet at the station and to be prepared to receive the fish, which he did. The bass are the great eastern game fish. They were taken from the Illinois river and arrived in fine shape. They will be scattered in the sloughs and on the bars at this city.

ARTICLE THREE of the church by-laws says: that special meetings may be convened at any time by the trustees at the written request of any five (5) members. Notice of the same having been given previously.

The board will not object to the holding of a meeting tonight, but as a matter of course the action of such a meeting will not be binding upon the church, as it is not legally assembled. Furthermore, the church laws say that in order to reconsider any question adopted, it must be done at the SAME meeting at which it was adopted.
 In the light of the above facts, it is plain that whatever may be done at such a meeting will not effect the official action of the church in any way.

Every Testimonial

"A Priceless Blessing."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, and all the sudden Throat and Lung Troubles to which young people are subject. Keep this medicine in the house. Hon. C. Edwards Lester, late U. S. Consul to Italy, and author of various popular works, writes:—

"With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral within 24 hours. Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to a vast number of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light and frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is a priceless blessing in any house."

Caving In.
 Just as a rotten tenement collapses when too great a weight or strain is brought to bear upon its upper floors, so does a puny physique collapse and cave in when subjected to the strain of disease which must come sooner or later if it is not restrained and built up. Hood's Sarsaparilla is of immense service to the debilitated, the nervous and the dyspeptic because it strengthens and prevents them from caving in. It is not necessary to have the bludge of a hammer to be healthfully vigorous. Many slender apparently fragile and underbred people enjoy phenomenal health. Vigor means the ability to digest, sleep and eat well. This power Hood's Sarsaparilla will confer. It will, besides, cure malaria, biliousness, rheumatism and kidney ailments, relieve the infirmities of age and overcome nervousness.
