A military move which will interest the O. N. G. is contained in General Miles' annual report to the secretary of war, in which he recommends the appropriation by congress of $1,500,000 for transportation, camp expenses, field equipments and other general and necessary expenses for assembling 90,000 state troops and 10,000 national troops in an encampment at Chicago from Aug. 5 to 20, 1893. General Miles thinks the mobilization of the committee would be of inestimable value to it, to the army and to the country at large, as one of the steps toward improving the military system, and would also show with what celerity the government could assemble an army in case of necessity.

Miss Martha A. Gatchell who died at Amity Sunday, was a pioneer, having located in Oregon in 1850.

Rev. R. H. Dollarhide had trouble at one of his Free Methodist church meetings at Eugene. He says in a card: "The parties interested in the affair were not church members of our church or any other church. They came to church. Some of the parties were seeking salvation at the close of the services having wronged others and asked pardon, which they would not grant, and under the influence of that spirit seemed to lose control of themselves, which led to the excitement."

An officer has returned to Dallas from LaGrange with Young Sid Moore in charge. He was released on his own recognizance to appear for trial at 9 o'clock Monday to answer to the charge of seducing Nellie Johnson from her home several days ago. As the girl returned to her home voluntarily, the young man will get off easily, probably.

"A Priceless Blessing."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, and all the sudden Throat and Lung Troubles to which young people are subject. Keep this medicine in the house. Hon. C. Edwards Lester, late U. S. Consul to Italy, and author of various popular works, writes:—"With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral within 24 hours. Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to a vast number of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light and frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is a priceless blessing in any house."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

"Selected Poems," of Walt Whitman, published by Charles L. Webster & Co., puts into accessible form many of this great American best thoughts. The price is only 75 cents, and the convenience of the publication will do much to popularize the gems of a much-abused genius. The greater American scholars of to-day admit that Walt Whitman was the greatest man of this century, and anything that will cause him to be more extensively read will prove of inestimable value to the public.

"Good Night Poetry" is the title of a neat little volume from the press of Ginn & Co., Boston. It is compiled by Wendell Phillips Garrison from the contemplative gems of the world's great popular authors. The intent of the volume is to serve as a parent's assistant in moral discipline, and the selections cover a wide range for the mild reproach of youthful short-comings. The value of this method of correcting young people in preference to sermonizing is apparent to all thoughtful persons and is one of the encouraging thoughts of the future.

COLUMBUS.
An epic poem giving an accurate history of the great discovery in rhymed heroic verse. By Samuel Jefferson; price $1.25; S. C. Griggs & Co., Chicago. The theme is a worthy one, and the author has done it ample justice, treating fully of repeated trials and disappointments of Columbus in seeking aid to carry out his enterprise; his final success through the magnanimity of Queen Isabella; incidents and trials of the voyage; the discovery of the new world; the natives; the return voyage; treachery of the officers; and the culminating triumph of Columbus in his reception by the king and queen on his return.

Two of the most distinguished students of the tariff and free trade in England will contribute articles to the November number of The Forum. Sir Thomas H. Farrer, for many years secretary of the English board of trade, will write on "English Views of the McKinley Tariff," showing how it has effected English exports; Lord Masham, the largest textile manufacturer in Great Britain, and president of the Fair Trade club, will write on "Has England Profited by Free Trade?" to show that it has not.

"Goodform" for the October is a rich number and well sustains the ambition of the editor, Mather Dean Kimball, to teach good form in all departments of life. This aim of this beautiful family monthly is well sustained in the higher sense of the term. A large share is devoted to correct and critical information of progress in the world's fair. The Goodform company, 177 Monroe, Chicago will tell you further about it.

"Our Dumb Animals" of Boston advocates a humane congress of all nations at the Chicago world's fair. It is a grand and noble idea.

Deafness Can't be Cured. by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

THEY ARE A NUISANCE.
TURNER, Or., Oct. 24, 1892
EDITOR JOURNAL.—I notice an item, written by M. O. Lowndale, of Lafayette, in which he says the Mongolian pheasant does not damage the farmer. If he had had the experience I have had with them, he would know better. They are positively the worst nuisance we have had imported on us. They are as bad as a hog for grain. In general, they destroy beans, potatoes and corn, and if he would walk through my melon patch in the morning, he would know more of their destructive disposition. We took some of them to Washington in 1888, and fed them on wheat all the time. When I hear a man talk or write as he does, I know one of two things: either he does not know anything about the bird, or there is money in view.

Yours truly,

DEATHS.
Tuesday, Oct. 25, 1892, of consumption, Emma A., wife of S. E. Howard, at the family home on Mill street, aged 34 years.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence Wednesday at 2 p. m., and the body will be interred in Rural cemetery. President Whit-taker will officiate.

ATTENTION, W. R. C.—All members of Sedgwick W. R. C. are requested to meet at their hall tomorrow at one o'clock sharp, to attend the funeral of our sister, Mrs. Howard. By order of society.

In Memory of Harry Maplethorpe.
DIED, OCT. 13, 1892.
Little Harry came like a flower Blooming on earth in spring; And left us in a cold dark hour,—Oh, Death! We feel thy sting. We watched his fading bloom Part from this world of strife; We lost him, alas, too soon,—To wear a crown of life.

More cases of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills, than by any other means.

Do not suffer from sick headache a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's Little Liver Pills will cure you. Dose, one little pill, small price, small dose, small pills.

Mrs. Chas. Smith of Zanes, Ohio, writes: I have used every remedy for sick headache I could hear of for the past fifteen years, but Carter's Little Liver Pills did me more good than all the rest.
