"FOR GET ME NOT."—The attraction at Reed's opera house next Saturday night will be "For Get Me Not," with Jeffreys Lewis as "Stephanie De Mohrivar," a character made famous by her. Jeffreys Lewis has always been recognized as the one woman who could play a woman of the world; a woman with a badly soiled name; a schemer who would do anything for personal gain; a woman who seeks to shine in society at both the moral and financial expense of a young and innocent girl. At times Miss Lewis is a bewitching siren, and it can readily be seen why the notorious Stephanie had triumphed and lured rich men to ruin; then she is again a perfect she-devil, ready to tear her traducers to pieces, and still later a pitiable suppliant for mercy and protection. At times she glories in her greatness and laughs scornfully at those who oppose her. Those who have seen her lately say that she is more brilliant than ever—her eyes flash with the old fire, and her lips curl with the same hate that used to make people wince, or smile in that fascinating way which made her scores and scores of admirers. A woman who plays such roles as "Stephanie" in "For Get Me Not" of course does not receive any sympathy from any of the playgoers. But one cannot help admiring the admirable manner in which Jeffreys Lewis plays them, for in that line she is without a superior. She has engaged an excellent company to support her and take it altogether the performance Saturday night will be a notable one.

IMPROVEMENTS NEEDED.—Constant complaint comes to THE JOURNAL about the impassable condition of the road leading up the hill near the Odd Fellows cemetery. Teams are nearly stalled at every funeral, and farmers cannot haul any kind of a load to town. Road Supervisor Murphy's attention has been called to the facts in the case, but he can do nothing, as his district has no money whatever. This does not settle the matter. People must use that road, and the necessary funds ought to be forthcoming. Nearly every other road leading into Salem has been improved this year, and why not do something for this most important one of all? If nothing else can be done, the money should be raised by subscription. Get in and do something, gentlemen!

FOR SALE.—One pair pure bred white Leghorn chickens, cock, $3.00; hen, $2.00. Two light brahma cocks, perfect beauties, $2.00 each. E. Hafer, JOURNAL office.

ALL SURROUNDED.—We are surrounded by street improvements and electric railways, and that may account for the way groceries, fruits and vegetables disappear in large quantities daily at Squire Farrar & Co's.

No fictitious certificates, but solid facts, testify the marvelous cures by Ayre's Sarsaparilla.

Wood, Wood.—Plenty of it saved and ready for delivery. Leave your orders at Ryan's stable, corner of Berry and Liberty.

BUSINESS DOUBLING UP.—The New York Racket has been receiving almost double the amount of goods in the last two days that it ever received before, and it is now prepared to give the lowest kind of prices on ribbons, purses, wallets, hair brushes, combs, belts, suspenders, brass pins, curling irons, hosiery of all kinds, for ladies, gents, or children, in wool or cotton, dress shirts, underwear of all kinds, for ladies, gents, or children, in jersey, ribbed, merino, natural wool and all wool, ladies, and misses' gossamers, at low prices, ladies and gents' cambric, linen and silk handkerchiefs, linen towels, Windsor ties, cashmere and silk gloves, for ladies and misses, umbrellas of all kinds, scarf pins, boots, shoes and rubber goods of all kinds, mens and youths pants, and boys suits all to be sold at our racket prices. The goods are bought for cash and sold at the lowest possible prices. Don't fail to call. We will save you money. 333 Com. St. State Insurance block.

FELL 43 FEET.—Geo. W. Thompson has a badly sprained foot from a fall in all nearly fifty feet. He was employed on the new tank house at the asylum on a hoisting pole, which began to fall. He slid away and dropped 25 feet, his right foot hitting a rock, badly bruising the same. It was a lucky fall and he is around today receiving congratulations on his luck.

COLLEGE ENTERTAINMENTS.—Tonight at the chapel of Willamette occurs the second entertainment of the season, features of which are singing by Misses Adair, Carpenter and Sargeant; readings by several elocutionists and a very entertaining evening in all. Next one of these entertainments will consist of illustrated experiments in the sciences by Prof. Arnold and Cochran. Fill up the room tonight and prepare for a treat each week.

ONE MATCH.—Behold how great a flame one small match kindleth. It is reported that one man only got up the proposed test suit which involves over forty citizens in a prolonged litigation over the Chemeketa street improvement, and it is about the only good street in the city to travel on. Many more are waiting, until the one man can have his whim laved out in the courts, to see if they will pay or not.

ON STILTS.—These dry days no stilts are required to get about, yet if you want an errand done quickly call a Lockwood messenger.

"B" CO.'S SOCIAL.—Friday night every thing will look gay at the army, as "B" Co. will again give one of their popular dances. No one will be admitted without invitation, unless known by the managers. All receiving invitations should try and appear.

EIGHT O'CLOCK SHARP.—The Willamette social club holds its first party at the Willamette parlors tonight. All members are requested to be present before eight o'clock, as the adjournment takes place at ten.

THE ALBANY MOTOR.—Made its first trip yesterday, to the Orphan's Home, says the Democrat, and there is no question as to its success.

SENATOR MITCHELL AT SALEM.—Next Saturday, Nov. 1, U. S. Senator Mitchell will deliver an address on the political issues, at Reed's opera house. Of course the house will be packed with Salem people, as the senator is very popular here, but we hope farmers will not stay away on that account. He is the farmer's senator and the local committee should make arrangements for all to be able to hear him, who come from any distance.

WOOLEN OVERCOATS.—In this day and age everything is liable to be made of wool, even the papers we read. It is good for many things, but no one wants a woolen overcoat. That is why everybody is marching to G. A. Johnson & Son's for those extra quality all wool overcoats. They are going at ridiculously low prices.

BOYS IN COURT.—Two young boys were up before Judge Goodell last night. In an altercation one struck the other with a small stone. His Honor did not believe such trivialities should be dragged into court, so he dismissed the arrested youths upon payment of costs.

GUN THIEF CAPTURED.—Sheriff Knight Tuesday evening arrested one W. J. Cristy near Chemawa for larceny of a dwelling. The charge consists of his stealing a Winchester rifle, a pair of pants and suspenders. Sheriff Knight got his man and the rifle. He was taken before Justice Bachelor this afternoon, and upon pleading guilty was bound over. He is in jail. Jack Casey, who was held for a witness gave bonds to appear.

PROBATE.—In guardianship of Willie J. Mumper, a minor. Mrs. J. Mumper files annual account, and same is approved. In estate of John Westcott, deceased, Henry Meyer, Frank Hughes, and J. H. Lunn appointed appraisers. W. G. Westcott, in same estate filed bond for $10,000, with Thos. Burroughs and John G. Wright as sureties; bond approved.

UNIVERSITY ITEMS.
F. J. Brown visited chapel Tuesday.

The class in Current History have been investigating the Nicaragua canal and are getting a good understanding of its importance.

Miss Carrie Bradshaw's essay, Tuesday at chapel, on Chaucer, was a perspicuous life sketch.

The committee appointed to raise funds for the new building reported more money secured Tuesday.

Prof. Arnold and Cochran give their entertainment tonight at the chapel. Some very interesting experiments are promised and an entertaining and instructive hour generally. Come and see.

Whether Willamette University lives or goes down, depends primarily on how well it deserves support and patronage on account of the excellency of the educational and moral work it does next, on how liberally the city, in which it is located, will contribute to its present strong necessity. You see, everybody in Salem has something to do in the matter.

"A Priceless Blessing."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, and all the sudden Throat and Lung Troubles to which young people are subject. Keep this medicine in the house. Hon. C. Edwards Lester, late U. S. Consul to Italy, and author of various popular works, writes:—
"With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral within 24 hours. Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to a vast number of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light and frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is a priceless blessing in any house."
