TROUBLE IN MEXICO.

Bloody Engagement—A Whole Village Massacred.

EL PASO, Oct. 27.—News of the annihilation of the Temochicans, a people who inhabit a village of Temochic and who are nearly pure Aztecs, received last evening, more circumstantial than first indicated. Temochic is in mountains of southeastern Chihuhua, Mexico, and has been in open rebellion against state and federal governments more than a year on account of excessive taxation exacted by government officials and government interference in their religious belief. Two months ago government sent a battalion in command of Gen. Rangel, to make people pay the tax required and accept government officials appointed to take charge of or kill every one of them. When the soldiers made a descent on the village, they were met, driven off with a loss of 14 men and two officers; forty-five men were taken prisoners.

General Ranjel is the only officer who escaped. When the news of this affair reached here, President Diaz decided to annihalate the village, and when the people were notified they answered "God is with us, and we will not be taken." Monday, Temochians, with the families took refuge in the church awaiting the attack. It was made on all sides, and the slaughter was terrible. At dusk, soldiers to number 1200 gained entrance to the church, and a terrible hand to hand fight took place. The soldiers completed the massacre with 368 of their number killed and many wounded. The village next day presented a terrible view, the streets leading to church, were filled with bodies, and blood seemed to flow in torrents. Not a man of the Temochians is left.

The Burial Place.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Harrison will be buried in the McKee lot, Crown Hill cemetery. This burial spot has no grave as yet. It is a sloping piece of ground, with trees on two sides, but open to the sun. The lot is near the Newcomer lot. Notification that it had been chosen was received by telegraph by private Secretary Halford. The president has indicated his preference in the matter of funeral arrangements, and, in accordance therewith, Dr. L. M. Haines announces that ceremonies will be brief and simple. Instead of music from a full choir, there will probably be a quartette singing "Lead Kindly Light," and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" will be sung.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Harrison.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct.27.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Harrison occurred in the east room of the White House this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the presence of the family, and immediate friends, and many notable persons. Revs. Hamlin and Bartlett officiated. Services lasted three quarters of an hour. The remains were then conveyed to the Pennsylvania depot, and left for Indianapolis at 11:30.

To Throw Out Republican Ballots.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 27.—The Democrat and Chronicle asserts that an attempt has been made to bribe the printer in the office, where the official ballots were printed, to mark the Republican ballots so they be thrown out when the time came to count them.

Will Withdraw Cleveland Electors

DENVER, Col., Oct.27.—At a meeting of the Democratic state committee, lasting till 1 o'clock this morning, it was decided to withdraw the Cleveland electors in favor of Weaver electors, in obedience to the directions of the national committee.

Death of James Flower.

PORTLAND, Oct. 27.—James Flower, city assessor, died this morning after a long illness. His death is attributed to over work. Deceased was second cousin of Grover Flower, of New York, and before coming to this city was engaged in the commission business in New Orleans.

Strong Beer Combine.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 27.—One of the biggest combinations ever made was perfected yesterday by the consolidation of the Pabst brewing company and the Falk, Jung and Borchert company. This makes the Pabst brewing company, with a capacity of two million barrels per year, the largest brewery in the world.

Heavy Registration in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Yesterday was the last day of registration before election. It is estimated the total city registration is between 280,000 and 270,000.

Collision on the Columbia.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct., 27.—News has just been received that a collision occurred on the Columbia river, about twenty miles below this city this morning, between steamboats Iralda and Ione, which ply on the lower river. Otto Peters, a passenger, jumped overboard, and was drowned. It is reported that two other persons were injured.

ONLY ONE DROWNED.

A later report is to the effect that, beyond the drowning of Peters, no one was seriously injured. A heavy fog prevailed at the time. The Iralda had her side torn off and has been bleached. The Ione is but slightly damaged.

Stamboul Gets Stallion Record.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 27.—Stamboul got world's stallion record today, trotting in 2:08¼, beating Palo Alto's record one-quarter of a second.

FASTEST FILLY TIME.

Rowena, a two-year-old filly, trotted the fastest mile ever made by a two-year-old filly. Time 2:17½.

Reed in Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—Ex-Speaker Reed addressed a great crowd at the old city hall last night, receiving an enthusiastic greeting. Mr. Reed said in part: "It is absolutely essential to the existence of the Republican party that within certain limits we shall train together. You cannot do anything with a divided party. The Democratic party is not under such obligations. They are not called upon to do anything; their position is simply one of negation. They are not Democrats on account of any principle that runs through the party from Maine to Texas. I should like to hear a Democratic orator start in Maine and wind up in Texas with the same speech. When he got through with it he wouldn't be a ghost."

The Sontag Trial.

FRESNO, Cal. Oct. 27.—In the Sontag trial yesterday, George Roberts, express messenger, told the story of the train robbery. "How does the defendant compare with the man who entered the car, as to voice, size and general appearance?" asked the district attorney. "In my own mind, I am perfectly satisfied that he is the man who entered my car that night," impressively answered the witness. The answer caused a flutter of excitement among the spectators. The prisoner became nervous and whispered to his counsel. Roberts was then withdrawn.

The McKinley Demonstration.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 27.—The McKinley demonstration here yesterday was one of the greatest political rallies ever seen in this section of the state. Conservative estimates place the number of people between thirty and forty thousand. A great parade occurred in the forenoon, but immense crowds poured in in the afternoon, and another parade was formed so that the late arrivals might have a chance to vent their surplus enthusiasm. Governor McKinley spoke at some length on the issues of the campaign.

Why Cleveland Declined.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Cleveland has written to the Business Men's Democratic association, declining to speak at the Madison Square Garden, October 29. Mr. Cleveland's reasons for this action were based on the conclusion that his presence would attract many Democrats on the last day of registration, and consequently lose the party many votes. The campaign committee met at the Hoffman house tonight, and, after discussing the matter passed resolutions postponing the meeting until some time during the following week. The resolutions recite the same reason as that given by Mr. Cleveland for his action.

Ought to be Repeated on Them.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 27.—The trial of Colonel Hawkins, Lieutenant Streeter and Surgeon Grim for hanging private Iams up by the thumbs, began this morning.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 27.—The governor signed the apportionment bill this morning, and the special session of the legislature adjourned. The bill gives Democrats a majority of 12 to 14, on joint ballot.

Senator Hill in Virginia.

Cabinet Ousted.

HONOLULU, Oct. 27.—The Hawaiian legislature passed a resolution on the 17 inst., ousting the cabinet. Up to the 19th there has been no new cabinet nominated.

Depew in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Chauncy M. Depew spoke last evening at the Academy of Music under the auspices of the Union League club, to an audience that taxed the building to its greatest capacity. In the course of his address Mr. Depew said: The most impressive sight I ever saw in my life was 150,000 people gathered together in one building during the Chicago Columbian dedication. I saw a million or two, more or less, on my way to the building. All seemed happy and prosperous. I saw no beggars; met with no rags; everything indicated that they represented a happy people and a phenomenally prosperous country, and in the building I listened to the ablest Republican speech I ever heard delivered by Henry Watterson, of Kentucky. Mr. Watterson is the ablest Democrat in the country today, and introduced the free-trade plank in the Chicago platform. Yet, Mr. Watterson, in the glowing oratory of South, described the phenomenal growth and prosperity of the country since the civil war. It was a proud picture of a proud people celebrating a proud event and calling upon the world to look upon their prosperity.

The Daltons Will Sue the City.

COFFEYVILLE, Kans., Oct., 27.—William Dalton will bring suit against the city of Coffeyville for damages, basing his claim on the alleged rifling of the pockets of the dead bandits,. After they were killed, William claims that $900 was secured from the bodies and that he knows the man who has it. According to Will Emmett, Dalton will be defended by Senator Vest of Missouri, who, he alleges, has proffered his services free by reason of a long standing friendship for the family. Emmett is improving and will recover.

The Wheat Blockade.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—No relief to the growing grain blockade in Chicago was found today. On the other hand, several Western roads, alarmed at the way grain-cars were piling up, instructed their agents to load no more grain until further orders. But more than 10,000 cars are already loaded on Western track en route to Chicago. Unless the 10,000 or more cars already here are unloaded, there is danger of the greatest blockade in history. The hopes of Western lines are largely that Eastern roads will find means of lifting the blockade, but no encouraging word came today. Probably 5000 cars were refused by them during the day. This shortage of cars seems only to redouble the demand for them in the West. The St. Paul is 4000 behind its orders, the Atchison & Topeka probably 6000 behind, and a conservative estimate is that the Western roads could if they had them properly placed according to the demand, load 40,000 cars tomorrow. The main trouble is that four-fifths of the business is east bound, and long lines of empty cars must be hauled back for new loads.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Salvation Army Want Money.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A committee, headed by the Earl of Onslow, to investigate the receipts and expenditures of the Salvation Army, held its first sitting yesterday. General Booth, head of the Army, has appealed for £60,000, to enable him to continue his "Darkest England" work. He insists that unless this sum is received before Christmas he will be placed in a position of extreme difficulty, and the further development of his scheme be impossible. He asks that all newspapers publish leaders appealing to the public for money, as he says it will be almost impossible for the committee to issue a report for some time, and it is practically certain that money will be withheld pending the report. It appears from the appeal that Booth desires to escape from a dilemma and to abandon his "Darkest England" scheme.

Proposal to Release Irish Prisoners.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—At the cabinet council today John Morley, chief for Ireland, will present proposals for the release of all political prisoners in Ireland. The ministerial decision on the proposals will involve the question of granting pardons to all the men convicted of taking part in the dynamite outrages of years ago. Conservative papers do not object to the release of Fenians Mullen and Dowling and dynamiter J. F. Egan, who have served two-thirds of the time to which they were sentenced. Mullen was sentenced for complicity in the murder in Phoenix Park, Dublin, of Lord Frederick Cavendish, chief secretary for Ireland, and Burke, under secretary. Dowling was implicated in the murder of a policeman named Cox. The government would not dare to face the consequences that would follow the release of Dr. Gallaghar and others in causing the explosions in London, Liverpool and Glascow.

Troubles of a Spendthrift.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A crowd gathered in the queen's bench division of her majesty's high court of justice to listen to the London & Universal bank against H. J. Baring, son of the deceased member of the house of commons. The case is familiarly known as the "baccarat case." It is an action to recover £1440 which the bank paid on a bill discounted for Baring, Wigram and McMahon, the last named being inventor of the McMahon tape. Counsel for Baring said Baring, who was only 25 years old, was a gambler, and had spent £23,000 before he attained his majority. On the night of the bill transaction, young Baring, accompanied by a pugilist named Goode, visited several clubs. Finally they brought up at the "Spooferies," a haunt of men and women of a certain class. Here Baring got drunk and while in this condition met Wigram and played bacarat with him him. Baring lost and gave Wigram a check for £300, besides a quantity of jewelry and several "I O U's." Goode afterward called on Baring and returned the jewelry and "I O U's" in exchange for a bill of £1440 drawn in Wigram's favor. The bill fianally came into the hands of McMahon, who took it to the bank and got £1300 on it. Judgment was given for Baring.

An Englishman Praises Protection.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—In truth, Labouchere expresses himself as thinking it doubtful whether many Europeans will visit the Chicago fair, and that people of the leisure class will prefer to visit a country where no fair is being held. He says: "It is certain, however, at the present moment America is the most prosperous country in the world, despite our assertions that protection is ruinous. If I had been an American myself, I should have advocated protection. The proof of the pudding is in the eating. The protection pudding has proved a more plentiful meal for the Americans than free trade provides for us."

Heavy Gale in English Channel.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A heavy gale swept over the channel all day yesterday and during the night. It was particularly severe on the southeast coast of Ireland. A number of vessels went ashore. Heavy weather also prevailed along the east coast of England. Today, a severe wind and rain storm prevails off the mouth of the Tyne. A schooner was wrecked in Lough, Strangeford, Ireland, and the crew of six men were drowned.

The Poet Laureateship.

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—The Irish newspapers are urging the claims of Irishmen to the poet laureateship. They suggest Aubrey Thomas De Vere or Timothy Daniel Sullivan as well qualified to occupy the post.

The Albany Herald says: The scheme of the Oregon Democracy to throw the Democratic vote of the state to one of the People's party electors comes too late to be effective. Besides there are too many men of integrity in both the People's party and Democratic ranks to permit themselves to be bargained and sold like cattle on election day.

Deafness Can't be Cured.

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a taint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other digestive organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After taking I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, painting, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. Caving In.

Just as a rotten tenement collapses when too great a weight or strain is brought to bear upon its upper floors, so does a puny physique collapse and cave in when subjected to the strain of disease which must come sooner or later if it is not reinforced and built up. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is of immense service to the debilitated, the nervous and the dyspeptic because it strengthens and prevents them from caving in. It is not necessary to have the biceps of a Samson to be healthfully vigorous. Many slender apparently fragile and undersized people enjoy phenomenal health. Vigor means the ability to digest, sleep and eat well. This power Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will confer. It will, besides, cure malaria, billious, rheumatic and kidney ailments, mitigate the infirmities of age and overcome nervousness.
