ABOUT SIDEWALKS.—Under Street Commissioner Culver's recent orders, the sidewalk improvement fever is spreading. Over a mile and a half of new walk has been built in the city during the past month and a mile more has been ordered, which will go down in the near future. About two hundred walks have been repaired, and still the good work is going on. The walks of the city are already in excellent shape, and when the crusade against pitfalls is ended, our city will be in better shape for good walks than it has been for years.

NEW P. O.—Supplies are at Salem for the new Fruitland postoffice, six miles east of Salem, in the midst of the Oregon Land Co.'s fruit tracts. As soon as the official there qualifies the office will be established. Geo. H. Nichols is postmaster and the mail will be carried from Salem daily probably, or as often as the new postmaster arranges for. Postmaster Gilbert at Salem has labored with the department for some time to get this office established.

WELL SAID.—This was said today by a sagacious and prosperous Salem merchant: "I find it pays me to keep up my EVENING JOURNAL ad. right along. If I drop it out a month I constantly feel that I am losing my grip on the trade, and my monthly receipts will show it. It does not pay to lose the public attention for a day."

YE QUAKERS.—Ye good folk of ye Methodist church will this evening meet in social gathering at their church edifice, to enjoy a social time. Ye young and old members will be present in their best clothes. A rare supper will be served and a program in honor of Elder Whittier will be given. All the neighbors are asked to take part.

ONLY ONE KIND.—There is a man in Salem with only one idea, and that is Dr. Griffith, the popular dentist. His idea is to do only the best work known to his profession. That's why he is always so busy.

COLLISION.—A Capital City and Salem Motor line car collided at the State street crossing at 11 a. m. There was no one hurt fortunately. The awning of the small car was damaged some.

FOR SALE.—One pair pure bred white Leghorn chickens, cock, $3.00; hen, $2.00. Two light brahma cocks, perfect features, $2.00 each. E. Hofer, JOURNAL office.

JERSEY MILK.—Delivered in all parts of the city. Leave orders at Gilbert & Patterson's store. ABBRAHAM RICH. 10-18-1m

THE ODDS AND ENDS.—Sale of blankets at the Salem Woolen Mill store is a success. A few pair still left.

THE OFFICIAL TICKET.

How the Australian Ballot Has Been Ordered Printed.

After much deliberation and consultation the Democratic county clerk of Marion county has ordered the ballots for this county printed as follows:

John F. Caples, of Multnomah Co., Rep.
David M. Burns, of Multnomah Co., Rep.
George M. Irwin, of Union Co., Rep.
H. B. Miller, of Josephine Co., Rep.

W. F. Butler, of Baker Co., Democratic
Wm. Colvig, of Jackson Co., Democratic
G. S. Nolan, of Clatsop Co., Democratic
Nathan Pierce, of Umatilla Co., Dem-Peoples

W. G. Burtch, of Walla Walla Co., Peoples
Wm. H. Galloway, of Washington Co., Peoples
S. H. Holt, of Jackson Co., Peoples
Nathan Pierce, of Umatilla Co., Peoples

Geo. W. Black, of Jackson Co., Prohibition
Norton R. Gaylord, of Lane Co., Prohibition
A. W. Lucas, of Polk Co., Prohibition
Gulman Parker, of Clackamas Co., Prohibition

This ticket was agreed upon by the Democratic managers at Portland and is being copied by the Democratic clerks. The law is plain that candidates' names shall appear but once on the ballot. If put on twice they will be counted on the tally sheets in two different counts. That will not only defeat the candidate whose tallies are scattered through two columns but may cause the whole vote of this county and others to be thrown out. THE JOURNAL believes the law is plain and that printing one candidate's name two times on one ballot is wrong and will tend to create a confusion that will not be easily unraveled.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY ON TRIAL.

If the People's party is content to remain a mere tail to the Democratic kite, its standing as an independent organization will be lost. It is not enough that Nathan Pierce was put on the Democratic ticket without consulting either him or his party. He can only remain there by his consent and his own. The managers are "sorry" that he was put on the Democratic electoral ticket, and believe that it will damage them in the coming election; but they do not seem to have the nerve to take him off their own. This would be the most effective way to resent the gratuitous impertinence put upon them. Nothing less will convince the public that the People's party has not become the tail of the Democratic kite knowing and willingly.—Oregonian

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Rev. F. H. Gwynne, D. D. of Salem, is lying dangerously ill with pneumonia. An Albany paper says: "Rev. Pritchard left for that city this noon in response to a dispatch. Single mills are in operation at Dallas and Falls City. Waterloo reports are that many buildings are being erected and the knittings factory is well under way. The wheels will be turning by the first of the year and the new establishment will give employment to about 200 hands.—Times.

Moonmouth has erected 60 new houses the past year. In the Lane county circuit court reports, appear this item about one of the train wreckers: "State of Oregon vs. Geo. Mills; assault with intent to kill, in placing obstruction on railroad track near Eugene. Grand jury reported a true bill. Arraigned Wednesday and took day to plead; A. E. Gallagher appointed to defend him. Thursday morning defendant entered a plea of not guilty."

The Bad, Bad Mongollans.

EDITOR JOURNAL: I wish to join Mr. Prestynen in denouncing the man who imported the China chickens or pheasants, and I think that if we had a few more "damp-phoo" to import a few more nuisances like mercury grass, Chit pheasants and cat fish we would be in about the same fix as the poor devils in Australia with the rabbits. I know that the China pheasants will eat wheat, oats and barley and I think any other grain. They will tear and break down grain as badly as the same number of hogs, and it is impossible to keep them out. And another thing, even sportsmen are better off as they kill all the young grouse and pheasants and the aggregate of game is not much increased. They will kill a young grouse just to hear it roar, and as fast as they come up with them. We had a nice little garden within 100 feet of the house and the China pheasants ate all the cabbage and a large share of lettuce and other vegetables except tomatoes, and that seems to be the only exception as far as I know. They will whip off our chickens from their feed and nests and make themselves thoroughly at home, and they can smell a gun twice as far as a crow.

I write this with the hope that some other states may take warning from our fate and when the dude sportsmen attempt to import them, send every one of the sportsmen to the state prison at hard labor for 30 years. As to ourselves, I guess the best plan to pursue is to offer a reward for their extermination at so much per head, say 50 cents and I expect that the insane asylum would bankrupt the state in a very short time. So the poor devils of grain and truck farmers don't seem to have any show. It might be a good thing to go gunning for the man who sent them over, but he probably "did not know it was loaded" and there were a few respectable legislators that voted to protect them for five years that are equally implicated with the importer and it would leave a whole lot of widows and children to be supported if all the fools were killed off.

Yours truly,
F. A. BEATTY.

Oh! Where did you get those fine trout, says Smith to Brown? Guess. Says Brown. (Smith.) At Davison & White's fish, game and poultry depot on Court St.

The Indianapolis News, an independent paper, makes use of the following language in regard to President Harrison: "In 1888 the News supported Mr. Harrison and gave good reasons why independent voters should vote for him. Since then the paper has changed hands, to be sure, but it has not changed principles or purposes. Mr. Harrison has made a far abler president than even his friends, who promised much, predicted, he has in many ways compelled approval and admiration on the part of his political enemies. He is better equipped every way now than he was four years ago; less hampered too by political obligations. The Quay-Platt element was defeated and humiliated at Minneapolis; it is not conspicuous in the campaign. Mr. Harrison has been a credit and honor to our state. He is one of us, our fellow-citizen, our neighbor. The state had honored him and he had proved worthy of the honor. The nation had honored him and he rose level to his high opportunity. State and nation are now asked to give a vote of confidence. Shall it not say so? Men who voted for him four years ago against the same opponent should want good reason for reversing themselves this year. Indiana would out a poor figure in the sisterhood of states if she should refuse a vote of confidence to the son who has honored her so highly in the eyes of the nation, in the eyes of the world."

This is a military novelette of great charm and tragic pathos. It presents a vivid, living picture of the extreme poverty in European countries contrasted with the excesses in high life at the present time.

This novelette will appear in SATURDAY'S JOURNAL, and should be read by everybody.
