PROF. DONALD DOWNIE—Will return and give a farewell Illustrated Lecture at the opera house on Wednesday evening, the 9th. Subject—"A Trip Around the World in 80 Minutes." He thinks he will be able to make his illustrations larger and more pleasing at the hall than in the University chapel, by reason of greater height of screen, and in order that all may witness this last performance, prices will be fixed at 25 and 50 cents.

A BIG WINDOW.—Many ladies have been made happy today by visiting that beautifully decorated show window of Mrs. S. C. Reed's, successor to Mrs. M. E. Wilson. It contains an artistic display of the latest Parisian hats and bonnets, imported novelties, feathers, pop-pops, grettes, back wings and shaded goods. A heavy stock of stylish hats is being offered at bed rock prices.

A BEE HIVE.—This morning a reporter visited the millinery rooms of Mrs. S. C. Reed, who is successor to Mrs. M. E. Wilson, all hands were found as busy as one would wish to see. Dozens of customers were waited upon. The remodeled and enlarged store, packed full of the most desirable stock, is a great attraction to the ladies of Salem.

Y. M. C. A.—Come to the men's meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and hear an address by Rev. J. A. Bowersox. Twenty minutes song service with good music. Strangers cordially welcomed. Doors open on Sunday from 2 to 6 p. m.

UNITY CHURCH.—Address, at 10:30 p. m., on "The only infallible guide and standard of Truth and character," by S. C. Adams. Sunday school at 12 m. No evening service.

CONGREGATIONAL.—There will be services at the Congregational church Sunday, morning and evening. The pulpit will be occupied by Rev. P. S. Knight.

ALWAYS MOVING.—Some people are always on the move, but nobody so much so as the Lockwood messengers. They are a great convenience. Office open on Sundays.

PRESBYTERIAN.—Rev. F. H. Wynne is still confined to the house by illness, and Rev. H. A. Gaden will occupy the pulpit in the morning. There will be Sabbath school and Young People's meeting, but no evening service.

POLICE COURT.—Two plain inmates were disposed of this morning by Judge Goodell, paying the usual penalty. After supper Friday evening His Honor aided the digestion of a meal by flogging Felix Greenwood, a pugilist drummer, $5.00 and costs for an assault and battery.

ST. PAUL'S A. M. E.—Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Sunday school 1 p. m. At 7 p. m. there will be sermon against alcohol and tobacco by the pastor, G. W. White. Text: Proverbs, 23, 21-23.

Go-somers cheap.—N. Y. Racket. Kangaroo shoes for $4.00, at R. J. Fleming's, 118 State street. Best Rubbers.—N. Y. Racket.

A BIG SUIT.

Property Owners on Chemeketa Street Secure an Injunction.

Late Friday evening a petition was filed before County Judge Hubbard asking a restraining order to stop the sale of property on Chemeketa street under executions for assessments for improvements of that street. It was granted pending a hearing in the circuit court. THE PARTIES to the suit are John Q. Wilson and all owners of lots on that part of Chemeketa street recently improved as plaintiffs and Marshal H. P. Minto and city of Salem defendants. The petition recites the ordinance providing the improvement and states many causes of action, in all covering about one-hundred sheets of type written legal cap.

THE BASIS OF THE SUIT is that after the bids were opened and the lowest bid accepted by the council the words "screened gravel" were stricken out of the contract and the words "gravel selected and approved by the committee on streets and public property," inserted in lieu thereof, which, as plaintiffs allege, "made the cost of said street improvement at least $5000 less than the cost would have been if made under said original contract and specifications for screened gravel," etc. Also, that the officers of the city in making that change, without a re-advertisement for bids, caused a great injustice to said plaintiffs, inasmuch as it was a letting of contract without making advertisement for bids, whereby a much lower bid would have been obtained.

PLAINTIFF'S CHARGE is that the contractor has not done his work according to specifications; that the city gave no notice of the intended assessment, and plaintiffs never consented thereto; that the street is not evenly improved; that the assessments are not equally distributed; that hence it is in violation of the charter which requires a proportionate assessment; that the ordinance is unconstitutional as it provides for unequal and unjust taxation, etc., that no order was ever passed by the council authorizing or directing the publication of notice of assessment as required; that proceedings unless stopped would become a cloud upon the title of the property; that Marshal Minto and the city are enjoined from an execution sale of property for said assessment or costs of same until a final hearing of this suit; and that the injunction be made perpetual, etc. The attorneys, Messrs. Boise and Ford have drawn up a strong case against the city, and will make a vigorous fight to break down the validity of the ordinance ordering the improvement.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION. Suit was begun this morning by Hattie Eaton and others, property owners on South Commercial street, in the same manner as the foregoing and stating virtually the same general cause for action.

In both cases plaintiffs give bonds for costs of $1000 with good surety. The cases will be heard at special term, Nov. 14th, unless there is some unlooked for delay.

SOCIAL AND LITERARY.

How Pleasure Seekers Spent The Week.

HYMEN HOLDS HIGH CARNIVAL.

Supreme Judges Entertained—How One Club Evades Its Rules.

The past week has been a quiet one at Salem, but just enough was going on to keep a reporter pretty busy catching onto it all. The quietude was caused partly by the absorption of time on the part of many society factors preparing for larger events. Notable is the coming chrysanthemum fair. Many wonder what it will be like, while the committees of the Kinder Symphonny are holding almost daily meetings to make it an affair worthy of the flowery kingdom they represent.

There seems to be a revival of dancing parties at the capital city this winter. These events are not carried on to a late hour and seldom last later than 12 or 1 o'clock. A growing interest in literary lectures is also noticeable, and much to be encouraged for its desirability in any community. The air is full of hopeful promise of a lively and rational season of enjoyment and culture. So mote it always be, sayeth THE JOURNAL social scribe.

WEDDINGS. The week has seen solemnized a number of weddings of more than passing social interest. Miss Beatrice Dennis was snatched away by C. M. Whitehead to grace a Portland home. Thomas Canfield captured Miss Estie Young, of Eugene, a former Sacred Heart student. Miss Etma Litchfield, a daughter of the Indian Agent, Geo. H. Litchfield, was united to Joseph Schindler. While Salem gains two bright new families from these wedlocks, Portland gains but one. Cards are out in which Mrs. M. J. Dorrance, at Newberg, Or., invites her friends and relatives to the nuptials of her daughter Ella M. Dorrance to C. N. McIntire, Nov. 8, 8 p. m. The bride is well known at Salem as a bright student at Willamette conservatory of music, and a lady of much culture and refinement.

THE ENTIRE NOUS Social club have issued cards for their first series of dancing parties at Reed's opera house, date set for Nov. 15th, on Tuesday evening. Gentlemen are to appear in cut-aways. A Portland orchestra, and fine lunches served at our leading restaurants are to be the features of the evening. These parties are to be the dressy affairs of the coming season.

THE IOWANS. The old original Pacific Coast Hawkeye Whist club met at the residence of E. F. Parkhurst Friday evening, at 7:30. This club was organized last year and has kept up its regular meetings with great promptness. It emphasizes in a social way the Iowa colony at Salem, plays for gold medal prizes, the score being kept through the season. Old Iowa's spirit crops out on a more hospitable manner than last night at the new cottage on Summer street.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY was given by Mrs. Eugene Breyman last Tuesday evening, in honor of her husband's anniversary. She was assisted in the functions of the evening by her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Jr., and after a season of drive what choice refreshments were served. It is a rule of the Motor Whist club that no lady hostess shall serve over two kinds of liquors or solids. Birthdays are made an exception, and as the club has twenty gentleman members, Salem hospitality forbids a meeting to be held except on birthdays. There is an occasional exception, when the club runs out of convenient dates, but as a rule, anniversaries fall on regular meeting nights. The club will next be entertained by Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, on Liberty street. Those present were A. H. Breyman and wife, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. T. McF. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert, Dr. E. M. Waite, Mrs. C. L. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. H. Cottle, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Breyman.

THE INSTRUCTORS MEET. The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Teacher's Association was held at the "Ester Building" Oct. 31 at 3 p. m. After roll call "Father White" of St. Joseph's church gave the teachers a half-hour's talk upon Self Control, which was full of practical suggestions and witty illustrations. He dwelt especially upon the points that self-control was essential to health and that the teacher must control herself before she could hope to control school. Few persons have Father White's talent for laying things in a way to make lasting impressions. This was followed by a thoughtful paper on Self Reliance by Miss Capwell, after which Miss Malton presented language work for primary grade. Her class drill was most excellent and convinced all who saw it that the right time for the child to form is instantly afforded sufferers from Bronchitis, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Either as an anodyne, to allay inflammation, or an expectorant, to loosen and bring away the mucus, this preparation has no equal. "Last winter I contracted a severe cold, which, by repeated exposure, became quite obstinate. I was much troubled with hoarseness and bronchial irritation. After trying various medicines, without relief, I at last purchased a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. On taking this medicine, my cough ceased almost immediately, and I have been well ever since."—Rev. Thomas B. Russell, Secretary Holston Conference and P. E. of the Greenville Dist. M. E. C., Jonesboro, Tenn.

"My mother was sick three years and very low with bronchitis. We feared nothing would cure her. One of my friends told me about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. She tried it, has used eight bottles, and is now well."—T. H. D. Chamberlain, Baltimore, Md.

correct habits in the use of language is during the first year of school-life. Mr. Anderson presented the claims of normal training in a well written paper which all enjoyed. The session closed with a paper on drawing by Miss Ada Reynolds full of suggestions as to how this work can be made practical in the development of the young child's mind.

THANKSGIVING ENTERTAINMENT. The young folks of the Unity church and their friends are busy rehearsing for a Comic Drama to be presented at the opera house Thanksgiving evening, which will doubtless afford a pleasant evening entertainment.

LITTLE POLKS PARTY. Mac Hofer, who was badly hurt by being run over by a wood wagon Oct. 1st, is now able to be about on crutches. This afternoon he entertained a number of his little friends, former neighbor children from North Salem, at his parent's new cottage in Pleasant Home.

A TEA TO FRIENDS. Mrs. E. M. Waite gave an elegant reception tea for a number of her friends on Wednesday evening, two of the judges of the supreme court being present, besides relatives and a few neighbors. A fine repast and parlor games were the entertainment of the evening.

CHRYSANTHEMUM TEA. Mrs. T. McF. Patton gave an elegant tea last evening, to relatives and a few intimate friends.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PROGRAM for the reunion and rally to be held in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, Nov. 6th, at 6 o'clock, under the direction of the president of the local union, W. B. Peck. Every endeavor should be present:

AN AFTERNOON RECITAL. On last Saturday afternoon the pupils of Mrs. Walter A. Denten gave a very fine recital at her home, 541 Chemeketa street. They all did very creditably, and a lunch was then indulged in. Those who took part were: Miss Thompson, Maude Wilson, Alma Sarver, Maggie Palmer, Lillie Steiner, Bertha Kay, Cora Blosser, Creta Thompson, Carrie Willis, Alice McKinnan, Laura Berry, Ella Rineman and Herbert Witzell.

HOLLOWE'EN was not allowed to pass by in so stirring a town as Salem without several social demonstrations. Monday evening the Young Women's Mission society were handsomely entertained at the cosy parsonage, The Maple Leaf Lawn Tennis club were given a reception by Mrs. Judge Burnett, at the residence on Center street, in honor of Miss Anna Younger. Games suitable for the occasion were indulged in and the charming hospitality of the hostess made all happy. Those present were: Messrs. J. B. F. Giesy, Hal Patton, Fred Waters, Fred Stewart, Frank Bellwood, J. Blackney, Roy Reed, Clyde Keller, O. THE INJUNCTION WAR.—Two injunctions have been issued that stop all executions for assessments on property on Chemeketa and South Commercial streets, and from the general appearance of matters alleged in their petition, if they can prove one-half of them, plaintiffs have a case. There is nearly one thousand dollars fees involved for publications and costs of execution, for which Marshal Minto says he will come upon the city if plaintiffs win. Attorney at Law Richardson is not displeased over the fact that the very changes in the contracts which he objected to, before they were signed, constitute plaintiff's cause of action. It will be a very interesting fight in the courts.

The entertainments by Donald Downie have been very useful and instructive. No method of giving instruction or imparting facts capable of illustration quite equals the graphic. The university will net a small sum for the laboratory fund.
