

A SUNSET REVIEW!

Political Aspect Before Election Day.

THE LIST OF DOUBTFUL STATES.

New York Strongly Claimed for Harrison.

General Election Review.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The presidential election of 1892 is unique in being the first since the war in which so many doubtful states are admitted at issue between the great political parties. It is also unique in being the first in which it was conceded by all parties that the electoral vote of the nation will be divided among three great political organizations. One of the three candidates must receive a majority of all votes cast, or the election will be referred to the national house of representatives. The advent of the People's party into national politics has constituted the great element of doubt in the present contest. The solid South of the Democracy and the solid West of the Republicanism are both menaced by encroachments of the Populists, and in every estimate an intergroup point must mark certain states that one or the other of the old parties were wont to claim in the past as a political heritage. In the list may be named Alabama, Colorado, Kansas, Nevada, South Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming and Idaho. To the list are added the old-time doubtful states of New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Connecticut, Montana and West Virginia. While the three parties will probably not unanimously agree that all these states are to be placed in the doubtful columns, the fact remains that Tuesday night the American public will turn anxiously to these states, each and all, for the solution of the presidential contest.

The electoral college this year will consist of 444 members. The states admittedly Republican have 172 electors, the states admitted to be Democratic have 147.

THE DOUBTFUL STATES.

The fifteen doubtful states will cast the following electoral vote:

Table listing doubtful states and their electoral votes: Alabama (11), Nebraska (8), Colorado (4), Wyoming (3), Kansas (10), Idaho (3), Nevada (3), New York (35), N. Dakota (3), S. Dakota (4), Conn. (6), Montana (3), W. Virginia (6). Total: 125.

Of the 15 doubtful states, Nevada, with three electoral votes, is practically conceded to the People's party, thus leaving only 14 states actively in contention. Of these, the Democrats make the loudest claims of Alabama, New Jersey and West Virginia, swelling their total electoral vote to 174. The Republicans express the greatest confidence in carrying Colorado, South Dakota, Idaho and Nebraska, which would swell their total to 191. Admitting the claims of the two old parties and conceding Nevada to Weaver, very doubtful states remain, as New York, Indiana, Connecticut, Kansas, North Dakota, Wyoming and Montana. These states have a total of 76 votes, and of these the Democrats must gain 49 in order to win, and the Republicans must secure 32. While on their figures the Republicans would appear to have the advantage, this presumption is not borne out when it is remembered that carrying Kansas, North Dakota and Wyoming by the People's party would insure to the Democratic advantage by tending to render a choice in the electoral college impossible, and thus throwing the election into the Democratic house of representatives, where Cleveland would surely triumph.

THE LEGISLATURES.

The states which will elect legislatures to choose senators to replace Republican senators retiring on the 4th of March, 1893, are California, Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming. Those which will elect legislatures to elect senators to fill vacancies caused by the retirement of Democratic senators on the same date are: Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. Thus upon the result of the coming elections also depends political personnel of 26 senators to be elected to take seats at the same time the new president is inaugurated, 16 of them being elected to succeed Republican senators, and 10 to succeed Democratic senators. In the states of Kansas, South Dakota, and South Carolina, the legislatures chosen next Tuesday, will also each elect a senator to succeed one whose term expires March 4, 1893, the retiring senators in Kansas and South Dakota being Republicans and in South Carolina Democrats.

AT NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—As to the result in this state and city, the Democrats say Harrison cannot come down to the city line from the state with more than 65,000 majority; that Cleveland's majority in the city cannot be less than 60,000 leaving a Republican majority of only 5,000 to be overcome by the votes of Kings, Queens and Richmond counties, which include Brooklyn and other island towns about the bay. A general estimate of the city vote, however, gives Cleveland 70,000 majority.

The Republican committee gives out no figures, but the following represent their expectations: California, 9; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Idaho, 3; Illinois, 24; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 9; Montana, 3; Nebraska, 8; New Hampshire, 4; New York, 35; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 23; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 33; Rhode Island, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 4; West Virginia, 6; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3. Total, 277. Necessary to elect, 228. The Republican state committee claim that Harrison will come down to the city with 90,000 plurality; four years ago it was 85,000. They claim there will be a falling off of 15,000 to 20,000 in the Democratic vote in this city this year compared with four years ago, so they claim the state for Harrison and are firm in the faith "as goes New York, so goes the Union."

BOTH SIDES CLAIM EVERYTHING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Exaggerated claims continue to be put forth by both Republicans and Democrats, with the result that unprejudiced persons believe neither of them. Republicans claim West Virginia so vehemently that some Democrats are inclined to be doubtful of it. On the other hand, the chairman of the Wisconsin Democratic committee asserts positively that Cleveland will carry that state by 10,000 to 12,000 plurality. Here in New York the controversy over the United States deputy marshals continues, and there is talk of wholesale arrests. It is probable, however, that the matter will be settled without violence. S. P. Sheerin, who is in Indianapolis, telegraphs that he believes Indiana is sure for Cleveland.

OREGON PREDICTIONS.

Both Sides as Heard From Saturday Night.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—The campaign in Oregon has developed at the last moment from a dull, listless contest into one of unusual interest and enthusiasm. The attempted fusion with the People's party by the Democrats has spurred Republicans on to bring out the full party strength and, notwithstanding the fact that the Democrats have withdrawn Miller and endorsed Pierce, the Populist elector, the Republicans are confident of electing all four electors. Democrats do not hope to carry the state but say they will certainly elect Pierce. Chairman Boies, of the Republican state committee, said this evening: "We will have at least 10,000 plurality and I would not be surprised to see 15,000. We are certain to elect all of our electors. Our advice from all over the state are to the effect that the People's party men are returning to Republican ranks and many Democrats will stay away from the polls and others will vote for the three straight Democratic electors. There are many conscientious Democrats and they will refuse to sacrifice principles, even if they were reasonably sure they would aid Cleveland by voting for the third party." Chairman Murphy today said: "The Democratic party now stands urging its members to vote for their nominees who have refused to obey the party's instructions to withdraw, and if the vote of Tuesday is to be taken as a criterion of my generalship there is nothing for me to do but say I have made a most signal failure in the conducting of this campaign."

SOME FAST HEATS.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 7.—J. H. Willett's black stallions, Silkwood and Keating, and Olinger's gelding, Our Dick, paced a match race here Saturday and went the fastest mile ever seen in a race west of the Mississippi river. Silkwood won in three straight heats; time, 2:08 1/2, 2:11, 2:13.

ELECTION TROUBLE PENDING.

A Sharp Struggle in Alabama.

CONFLICTING LAWS IN NEW YORK.

Fourteen Hundred Federal Deputy Marshals Sworn In.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 6.—

Following correspondence is made public: Hon. W. S. Walker, United States Marshal—Sir, Yours dated October 30 is just to hand. In reply I will say that I have appointed deputy sheriffs at each voting place in the county, with positive written instructions to arrest all violators of the election laws, and keep the peace and order, and I am quite sure they will do their duty. As to any threats being made I have not heard of them, and if they were made it was by some bully who has not the courage to execute them. In case it should be attempted, I will have men enough to resist any party who tries it. The only bluffing or intimidation I have heard of is by some of your special deputies at Notasuga. I understand they made their brags they would take charge of the election there; that they would go inside the room and inside the ropes if they wanted to, and were going to. Now if they attempt anything of the kind I will certainly have them arrested if I can deputize men enough to do it. So far as I can I am determined there shall be no disturbance or fuss on the day of election, and I don't apprehend any, only at Notasuga and really not there, for I think it is all talk and bluff. I don't know that they have said anything there of my own knowledge. Respectfully, W. W. THOMPSON, Sheriff.

ESTIMATES ON THE ELECTION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Chairman Harrity, of the National Democratic committee says from information received from the West this morning he is absolutely certain of the election of Cleveland; says he will have 244 votes, and Harrison 165. The Mail and Express says: Republicans expect to carry 268 electoral votes, and concede 164 to Democrats. This is on the basis of putting six votes in West Virginia doubtful column, also the three of Delaware, and giving Weaver Nevada's three votes. This gives Harrison 104 plurality in electoral college, and granting him West Virginia, it says Republicans cannot, in view of this, figure defeat for Harrison, under any combination. Almost giving Cleveland all the states which it is believed he will carry, together with New York, Indiana and Connecticut, and he will still be short of the necessary number to elect.

HARRISON MIGHT LOSE ILLINOIS, WISCONSIN, KANSAS AND MISSOURI, YET WIN.

He might lose Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Maine, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington and Wyoming and win. Harrison might lose Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas and Missouri, yet win. He might lose Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Maine, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington and Wyoming and win.

A PIONEER LEAD.

ASHLAND, Or., Nov. 5.—

Captain Thos. Smith, a prominent Oregon pioneer, died here Friday night, aged 83 years. Captain Smith came to Oregon in 1851 and was a conspicuous figure in the early history of the state. He was a member of the territorial legislature and afterwards of the state legislature and was captain of the volunteers in the Rogue river Indian wars in the early fifties. About two years ago he was stricken with partial paralysis and has been helpless since. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

CYCLES AND SNOW STORM.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Nov. 7.—

A cyclone, one hundred yards wide and a mile long, swept over the island, seven miles down, yesterday, leveling everything before it. A number of houses were demolished, one man killed, and eighteen injured. ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—Snow, with blizzard propensities, is falling here today. The fall is comparatively light here, but in the state it has already fallen to the depth of six inches. A hard storm is raging in North Dakota. Much loss to stock is feared.

THE STRIKE AT NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—The effect of the strike is more apparent this morning. Few drays are on the streets; small spring wagons in general use. No street cars running. Very little business being done. At 7 a. m. printers struck and the outlook for morning papers is not very bright, though they will try to get out editions tomorrow.

GETTING READY FOR THE BATTLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—[Special.]—Betting has now assumed tremendous proportions, and all the pool rooms in New York are covertly doing a rushing business. Private bets are being made at the Hoffman and Fifth Avenue and prices rule fairly even, although on New York state odds are given by the Cleveland men. Cleveland, will spend the night at the Victoria Hotel, and has arranged to vote at his precinct on Fifth Avenue, about noon tomorrow. He has requested that no demonstration be made at the time. The ex-president votes in the same district with Dr. Depew and the Vanderbilts. At the newspaper offices preparations are being made today for exhibiting the returns tomorrow night. The World will have a tremendous calcium effect, and the lights on its dome will tell by color the result of the election. As this can be seen for fifty miles about New York, it will be watched with great interest. The Tribune is also erecting its immense platforms in front of the Greeley statue, and will have the usual crowd of thirty or forty thousand sight-seers to cheer results. The Herald and all the other papers are preparing in the same manner to give the earliest returns to the surging masses. The evening editions of New York papers announce that they will be out with extras at 11:08 o'clock, and at midnight the belief seems general that the result will be definitely known by that time. The streets of New York are crowded today with fakirs, selling books and pamphlets containing election results in all the cities and states in the Union in previous years. At a late hour today, both parties announce the battle practically won; but the ballots have yet to be cast.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY MANAGERS ARE CONFIDENT.

THEY ESTIMATE THE REPUBLICAN VOTE IN THE STATE AT 33,000, DEMOCRATIC 27,000, PEOPLE'S PARTY 25,000. They claim that if one-third of the party electors receive ten thousand Democratic votes, they will be elected. For Pierce, they claim a majority of fifteen thousand at least. Republicans are not in the least perturbed at the reported action of the Democrats in outside counties, as to voting for third party electors. Secretary McCornack, of the central committee, expresses himself confident of the result, and there is no question as to Harrison's ability to carry the state, even if the entire Democratic vote was united with the People's party vote.

SPECIAL TRAINS CHARTERED.

THERE WAS MOUNTING HOT BASTE BY DEMOCRATIC LEADERS EARLY THIS MORNING, WHEN IT WAS DEFINITELY AGREED UPON BY THEM TO IGNORE THEIR PARTY TICKET AND SUPPORT THAT OF THE THIRD PARTY. Word was wired to all counties and State committeemen of the proposed action. Two special trains were chartered and started through the state, carrying the order; one on the Southern Pacific goes to Ashland, the messengers aboard are Dr. Murphy, chairman of the state central committee, and J. L. Sperry. The one over the Union Pacific goes to La Grande, and conveys John Barrett and T. J. Oday. These messengers have wired the central committee from various points, to the effect that the action is meeting the approval of the leading Democrats, who recognize it as the only way of keeping the state from Harrison to vote for Weaver. Judge C. B. Bellinger, of the county campaign committee, issued an address this afternoon, calling upon Democrats to support Weaver.

Wanamaker on General Result.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 7.—Postmaster General Wanamaker passed through here this morning on his way from Indiana to Washington. To the Associated Press reporter he said, latest information from Indiana indicated it would give majority for Harrison. New York he considered in more favorable condition than four years ago, and believed it safe for Harrison.

THE MARSHAL CONTROVERSY.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—General Shelly, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, said this morning that United States Deputy Marshals would, under no circumstances, be allowed within 30 feet of the polling places. Democratic managers throughout the State have been so instructed.

RESIGNATION OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Assistant Secretary N. Utleton, acting secretary of the treasury, tendered his resignation, to take effect December 1st.

STRICKEN BY REGISTRY LISTS.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 7.—The courts this morning struck off about 200 names said to be illegally placed on the registry lists.

ALL GOING TO WEAVER.

List of Counties Claimed for Fusion.

NORTH DAKOTA LOOKS LIKE WEAVER.

Oregon Claimed for Fusion by Five Thousand.

Fusionist Claims.

PORTLAND, Nov. 7.—The Democratic state central committee announces today that Democrats in the following counties will cast their votes for Weaver electors: Wallawa, Columbia, Washington, Clackamas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Lake, Klamath, Harney, Benton, Yamhill, Polk, Marion and Baker. Others are expected to follow. The air around the Democratic headquarters today is one of confidence, owing to the fact that above named counties have declared for Weaver. Chairman Murphy says: "Weaver will carry the state by five thousand."

WHITTIER'S RED NECKTIE.

THE POET WHITTIER, STRANGE AS SUCH A DEFECT APPEARS IN ONE WHO MADE SUCH EFFECTIVE USE OF COLOR IN HIS POETRY, WAS COLOR BLIND. He was able to describe with as much accuracy as beauty the tints of the evening sky at sunset, the hues of cloud and forest upon the side of a mountain, or the changing purple, blue and violet of the twilight sea. His peculiarity of vision betrayed him into an error, although an error not discoverable by his readers. The Quaker poet shared in all respects the quiet tastes of the sect into which he was born, and shared them no less by temperament than by breeding, being naturally one of the simplest, sedatest, most retiring and least showy of men. His friends were therefore naturally astonished when he made his appearance one day with his usually sober garb enlivened by a flowing necktie of a flaming scarlet hue. They wondered for a time in silence; then a very old friend ventured to inquire: "Thee's never worn a necktie like that before, Greenleaf; does thee think it is becoming?" A little surprised, Mr. Whittier appealed to the company for their verdict, when, the color of the offending decoration being mentioned, he expressed both amusement and dismay and volunteered a promise to discard it at once and forever. He had purchased it, he assured them, under the impression that it was of a dull and devious green! As in many other cases of persons similarly afflicted, Mr. Whittier's color blindness was only partial, and was limited to an inability to distinguish green from its complimentary color, red.—Youth's Companion.

LOSS OF CASTE.

IN THE YEAR 1768 the late Lord Clive and Mr. Verelst employed the whole influence of the government to restore a Hindoo to his caste who had forfeited it, not by any neglect of his own, but by having been compelled by a most unpardonable act of violence to swallow a drop of cow broth. The Brahmins, from the peculiar circumstances of the case, were very anxious to comply with the wishes of the government. The principal men among them met at Kishnagur and once at Calcutta, but after consultations and an examination of their most ancient records they declared to Lord Clive that there was no precedent to justify the act. They found it impossible to restore the unfortunate man to his caste, and he died soon after of a broken heart.—Sydney Smith's Essay on Indian Missions.

THE MOST UNLUCKY DAY.

A STATISTICIAN of the German government has come to the rescue of those persons who do not share the widespread superstition that Friday is the most unlucky day of the week. A short time ago he determined to make a scientific investigation of this question. The most fatal or unfortunate week day, according to the investigator, is not Friday, but Monday.—Exchange.

THE PINEAPPLE AS A DIGESTIVE.

AMONG THE MOST wonderful discoveries of recent times is the effect of various vegetable products possessing digestive properties of an active character. The digestive property of the papaw has long been known and utilized. More recently it has been ascertained that the juice of the pineapple contains a very important digestive property, which is capable of digesting albumen and allied substances, not only in acid, but in nutritive alkali media, which gives to it the combined properties of the gastric juice and the pancreatic juice. This excellent fruit may be found a valuable aid to digestion. The coarse pulp is wholly indigestible, and only the juice should be swallowed. It should be taken only at mealtime.—Good Health.

Is Life Worth Living? That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.
